

Washington vs. Eastern Washington
Husky Stadium, Saturday, September 29, 2026
UW Postgame Notes

Demond Williams Jr. tied his own career-high with four touchdown passes in today's game. Four TD passes are tied for eighth-most in a game by a Husky QB.

Williams was the first Husky since Sept. 16, 2023, to throw four touchdown passes in a half. Michael Penix Jr. did the same at Michigan State in '23.

Washington had two receivers with more than 100 yards each for the 17th time in program history. Dezmen Roebuck caught nine passes for 121 yards while Baron Naone added two receptions for 103 yards.

Naone's 75-yard reception was the second-longest, non-scoring pass play in program history.

Naone is the first Husky tight end to reach 100 receiving yards in a game since the 2020 season, when Cade Otton notched 100 yards twice in the Huskies' four-game season.

UW's opening-drive touchdown, a 15-yard TD pass from Demond Williams Jr. to Chris Lawson, marked the first touchdown scored – by either team – in a UW game this season. The Huskies added a second TD later in the first, on a 5-yard toss from Demond Williams to Rashid Williams.

Additionally, Eastern Washington was the first UW opponent to score in the opening quarter this season, on a 20-yard field goal from Soren McKee.

It took 138 minutes and 50 seconds of game action before UW's first turnover of the 2026 season, an interception thrown by Demond Williams Jr. with 11:10 left in the second quarter.

Jordan Clay's three-yard TD reception in the second quarter was the first touchdown of his career.

Ansu Sanoe scored on a one-yard rush, giving him one rushing TD in each of his first two college games (he also scored from one yard out last week vs. Utah State).

First-year players Jordan Clay and Trez Davis also each scored a touchdown

The Huskies are now 4-0 vs. Eastern Washington.

Washington has now won 12 consecutive nonconference home games, as well as 32 of the last 33, dating back to the loss to Nebraska early in the 2010 season.
