Goal of the Year

2006: Nat Zenner – A solo effort in which he dribbled through four players and scored on a 30-yard drive into the far corner against Maryville University.

2007: Ryan Grandin – Scored the game-winning overtime goal to lift the Bears past Dominican University, 1-0, in the NCAA Regional Finals.

2008: John Hengel – For his game-winner in a 3-0 win over Illinois Wesleyan University and a spin move he made around the goalkeeper to score in a 3-3 tie against Dominican University.

2009: Michael Chamberlin – Headed in a goal off a cross free kick from Nat Zenner against Case Western Reserve University.

2010: John Duncan – Fired a game-winning shot from 25-yards out to lift Washington University past the University of Chicago 2-1 in overtime to close out the regular season.

2011: Kevin Privalle – Less than four minutes into the second overtime of the Bears' 2-1 win at Emory University, Pat McLean beat three defenders and sent in a cross for Privalle to score the game-winning goal.

2012: Zac Query – In the 102nd minute, Query took a cross from Michael Flowers in the box to score the game-winning goal in a 3-2 win at Case Western Reserve University.

2013: Henry Cummings – Scored the game-tying goal in the 82nd minute on a shot from 25 yards out with his left foot, just the 10th goal of the season allowed by No. 18 University of Rochester.

2014: Jonathan Lipsey – Sealed the Bears' 2-0 win over New York University when he collected a loose ball outside the box, turned to his left and bent a shot to the far upper 90 of the net for WashU's second goal

2015: Kyle Perez – Perez ripped a shot from 35 yards in the upper corner in the 94th minute to lead WashU to a 3-2 overtime victory at No. 2-ranked Wheaton College (Ill.).

2016: Ryan Sproule – Sproule gave WashU a 2-0 advantage over No. 25 Redlands with a goal in the 71st minute after he took a pass from Goon and found the back of the net for his team-leading seventh goal of the season.

2017: Will Sproule – Sproule netted his first collegiate goal in the second overtime as in a 1-0 win at Wheaton College (Ill.). He headed home a free kick from the corner by sophomore Makio Yamamoto for the game-winner.

2018: Ryan Sproule - Sproule tied the game in the 35th minute in WashU's 2-1 double overtime win at No. 13 Carnegie Mellon.

2019: Aidan Ryan – Ryan scored in the 89th minute with a shot from 30 yards out to round out the scoring in a 3-0 win over Dominican (Ill.).

2021: Sergio Rivas - Rivas tallied the game-winning goal in the first five minutes of action against No. 10 University of Chicago. Rivas was on the receiving end of a long pass down the field from Shiv Lamba as he broke free from the Maroons' defense and lofted a ball over the keeper. The win clinched the team's first outright UAA title since 1999 and punched its ticket to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 2016.

Owen Culver - Culver recorded his fifth goal of the season in the 2-0 victory against Rochester. Culver laced a 23-yard shot that beat the keeper to the top right to provide a key insurance goal.

2022: Joseph Hipkind - In the 61st minute, off of a corner kick from Armando Sanchez-Conde, Hipkind was on the receiving end of a Sanchez-Conde perfectly placed ball towards the far post where Hipkind was there as he ripped a shot in the net for his second goal of the season. Hipkind recorded the game-winning goal on Senior Day as WashU defeated Carnegie Mellon, 2-1.

2023: TBD

Matt Martin was a two-time all UAA selection and was named a D3soccer.com's Second Team All-American. Martin recorded 161 saves in his four-year career (2018-2022, no season in 2020 due to COVID-19).
