UNIVERSITY ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION

The formation of the University Athletic Association (UAA) is a bold statement of what college athletics can and should be—that it is highly desirable and possible for a group of committed institutions to conduct a broad-based program of intercollegiate athletics for men and women; to compete with like academic institutions spread over geographically expansive areas; and to seek excellence in athletics while maintaining a perspective that holds the student-athlete and the academic mission of the institution as the center of focus.

The University Athletic Association, which is in its 34th year, is a significant expression of the principle that the provision of a high-quality college athletic experience is worth the commitment required of an institution. It is worthwhile not only because it benefits the entire campus community and, in turn, the institution itself.

Perhaps more importantly, the UAA is a strong statement that the success of intercollegiate athletics is wholly dependent upon institutional integrity and the ability of institutions to complete the full integration of athletics into the academic fiber of higher education.

Members of the UAA share the belief that academic excellence and athletic excellence are not mutually exclusive. Implicit in this belief are several sets of assumptions. The first is that the academic enterprise is the primary element. Student-athletes are just that—students first and athletes second.

The second set of assumptions has to do with athletic excellence. Athletic excellence is not to be confused with a win-at-all costs attitude. It properly relates to the caliber of experience offered to students who participate in intercollegiate athletics.

UAA institutions have captured 56 NCAA national team championships since the league's inception in 1987-88 —23 (10 volleyball, five women's basketball, two men's basketball, one men's tennis, two women's cross country) by Washington University.

Brandeis University, Carnegie Mellon University, Case Western Reserve University, University of Chicago, Emory University, New York University, University of Rochester and Washington University compete for the women's soccer championship.

The University Athletic Association (UAA) sponsors competition in 23 sports--12 for men and 11 for women. Competition is in several forms. Among these are round-robin play, round-robin tournaments, round-robin tournaments followed by a single elimination round, and championship meets or tournaments.

2024 NCAA NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS! Women's Soccer Beats William Smith 3-0 for Program's Second National Title

LAS VEGAS, Nev. – The No. 1 Washington University in St. Louis women's soccer team brought home the program's second national title on Sunday with a 3-0 win over William Smith. The Bears wrap the season at 23-0-2, setting new program records for single-season wins (23), single-season winning percentage (.960), unbeaten streak with ties (25) and shutouts (18). It is the first time in program history the Bears have finished the season without a loss.

Washington University in St. Louis Athletics now has 26 national championships in department history.

"It feels great, I'm really proud of these women," said Head Coach Jim Conlon. "We are fueled by Justin Hardy. William Smith is a fantastic team and we were able to capitalize on some openings. We tip our hats to William Smith, it was a great battle."

First-year Olivia Clemons finished the Final Four weekend with two goals and was named the All-Tournament Offensive Player while graduate goalkeeper Sidney Conner, graduate defender Ally Hackett, junior forward Grace Ehlert and Clemons were all named to the All-Tournament Team.

After playing a scoreless first half, a William Smith defender was whistled for a foul on Clemons in the box, resulting in a penalty kick. Hackett stepped up and ripped the penalty kick into the goal, making it 1-0 for the Bears.

"I was so proud of Liv for drawing that foul, it was great work for our offense," said Hackett. "We've practicing PKs for as long as I can remember. I was just happy to get up there and get the job done for my team."

In the 77th minute, Clemons scored her team-leading 22nd goal of the season, putting her in third for single-season goals, all-time. Clemons made it through several defenders and scored past a diving William Smith goalkeeper for a 2-0 lead.

Just over a minute later following a corner kick, senior Gaalen Clayton corralled the ball in front of the goal and fired in the Bears' third goal of the game.

The Bears out-shot William Smith 20-10 with 10 shots on goal. Both teams had two corner kicks.

WashU remained atop the national rankings all season. After checking in at No. 2 in the preseason poll, the Bears were ranked No. 1 in all the subsequent polls.

NATIONAL CHAMPIONS! WashU Outlasts Messiah in PKs

Salem, Va., Dec. 3, 2016 – Junior Megan Wolf converted the game-winning penalty kick as the No. 8-ranked Washington University in St. Louis women’s soccer team posted a 5-4 shootout victory over No. 6 Messiah College to claim the 2016 NCAA Division III National Championship Saturday at Kerr Stadium in Salem, Va. The game ended in a 1-1 tie after 110 minutes of play.

The national championship for the women’s soccer team is its first in school history, and the 20th in the history of the WashU Department of Athletics. WashU improved to 19-2-3, while Messiah ended its season with a 22-3 mark. The 19 wins are tied for the third most in school history.

WashU converted all five penalty kicks in the shootout: sophomore Caroline Dempsey, junior Kelly Von Zup, sophomore Jessica Kovach, junior Gillian Myers and Wolf.

“We are humbled to have the support of our Bear nation and our soccer families,” said head coach Jim Conlon. “We are very thankful and honored to be the national champion in 2016.”

Freshman Taylor Cohen gave WashU the 1-0 advantage in the 72nd minute after she took a cross from senior Lexie Sprague and buried a shot just over the head of Yunez. The goal for Cohen was her sixth of the season. WashU held the one-goal lead until the 84th minute, when Erin Sollenberger scored off a rebound from DJ Cole to tie the score.

Senior Lizzy Crist (19-1-3) made a season-high six saves in the contest, and was named the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Defensive Player for the second-straight season. Senior Katie Chandler was named the NCAA Championship Most Outstanding Offensive Player after scoring two goals in the semifinals, while Cohen and senior back Megan Nicklay were named to the All-Tournament Team.

WashU’s senior class (Chandler, Crist, Nicklay, Hannah Rosenberg, Allie Schiffman, Sprague) concluded their four-year career tied for the winningest in school history with a 72-10-7 (.843) overall record.
