HEAD COACH ERIC DUFT

Head Coach 3rd season as head coach 19th season at WSU

Eric Duft is in his third season as the head coach of the Weber State men's basketball program, and his 19th overall season with the Weber State coaching staff.

After serving as an assistant coach with the Wildcats for many years, Duft was named the 10th head coach at Weber State in May 2022 after the retirement of longtime head coach Randy Rahe. Duft spent 16 seasons as an assistant coach under Rahe at Weber State.

Entering the 2024-25 season, Duft has led the Wildcats to a 38-27 overall record and a 23-13 record in Big Sky play in his first two years as head coach. The Wildcats won 20 games during the 2023-24 season.

He also coached WSU's Dillon Jones to Big Sky MVP honors and to the first round of the NBA Draft in 2024. Jones also earned All-District and All-Big Sky first-team honors. He was also a top-five finalist for the Julius Erving Award, given to the top small forward in the country. Jones was drafted 26th overall in the NBA Draft by the Oklahoma City Thunder and joins Damian Lillard as the only two first round draft picks in Weber State history.

During the 2023-24 season, Duft led Weber State to 20 wins, including a road win at No. 23 Saint Mary's, WSU's first win against a ranked opponent in 23 years. Weber State also beat NCAA Tournament teams Yale and South Dakota State during the season.

In his first season as head coach in 2022-23, Duft led the Wildcats to an 18-15 overall record and a trip to the semifinals of the Big Sky Tournament. He was named one of 10 finalists in the country for the Joe B. Hall Award, presented annually to the top first-time head coach in Division I basketball.

Duft coached Wildcat sophomore Dillon Jones to first-team All-District honors and unanimous first-team All-Big Sky honors. Steven Verplancken also earned third-team all-conference honors.

During his 16 years as an assistant coach at Weber State, Duft helped lead the Wildcats to five Big Sky titles and three trips to the NCAA Tournament. He coached over 500 games as an assistant coach at Weber State.

Duft also helped coach six Big Sky Conference MVP's, including Damian Lillard who won the honor twice. He also helped lead the Wildcats to postseason tournament appearances in nine seasons and the Wildcats finished in the top three of the Big Sky in 13 of 16 seasons.

Duft was primarily responsible for the offensive play calling as an assistant coach and the Wildcats regularly ranked as one of the top offensive teams in the Big Sky.

Prior to coming to Weber State, he spent seven seasons as an assistant coach at Hutchinson Junior College in Hutchinson, Kansas. He served two seasons under Tim Duryea, who later was the head coach at Utah State, and five seasons under Chad Wintz. The 2003-04 team posted a 29-4 record and were ranked among the top five in the country during the course of the season.

A native of Sterling, Kansas, Duft graduated from Sterling High in 1991, where he was the class valedictorian. He attended Sterling College where he was a four-year letterman, and graduated in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in physical education.

Prior to his coaching stint at Hutchinson JC, Duft spent one season as an assistant coach at Cowley County (Kansas) CC in 1998-99. He also served as an assistant coach at Central (Kansas) Community College from 1995-97 and was the head coach for the 1997-98 season before going to Cowley CC.

He and his wife, Sherri, are the parents of four children Jaret, Halle, Easton and Kourt.

WEBER STATE MEN'S BASKETBALL

The beautiful Dee Events Center is one of the premier basketball facilities in the west and is a building of many uses, including the home for the Weber State men's and women's basketball teams. The building has been home to several Big Sky Championships, NCAA Tournaments, and other basketball events, as well as numerous religious and community events.

In 2024, the floor was repainted with a new look, color, and logo. The arena saw 20 new digital boards installed in 2019. In 2014, a new digital message display ring was installed at the top of the arena. The Daktronics display boards will be used for fan engagement promotions as well as corporate partner advertisements.

Prior to the 2012-13 season a new floor was painted with the new Weber State Athletics logo. In addition, a new state-of-the-art energy efficient lighting system was installed that will allow instant on and off lights.

In 2010-11, a new state-of-the-art Daktronics videoboard, display ring, and scoretable sign were installed along with new basket standards and wall scoreboards.

The Dee Events Center itself has been on national display, hosting the annual NCAA Tournament on four different occasions. In 1980, the center hosted the First and Second Rounds. In 1983 it served as the West Regional Final Site with North Carolina State defeating Virginia, 62-61, to advance to and eventually win the NCAA Final Four. In 1986 the Dee Events Center was once again the site of the First and Second Rounds of the tournament. That year Louisville won a pair of games in the DEC on their way to winning the national title. The building was host again to the First and Second Rounds in 1994.

The arena has also been home to eight Big Sky men's basketball tournaments and two women's tournaments. The Utah Jazz have played 12 NBA preseason games at the DEC.

The building was built at a cost of 11.3 million dollars, representing the combined efforts and cooperation of students, the university and community members for the development of a functional events facility for the greater Ogden and Weber County area. In addition to those funds provided through student fees and revenue bonds, more than five million dollars was raised from private sources in a variety of memorialization programs. The highlight of the fund drive was the contribution of more than two million dollars from the Lawrence T. Dee and Donnell B. Stewart families.

Ground breaking ceremonies on the forty-three acre site were conducted on March 21, 1975. Dedication ceremonies were held on November 1, 1977, a little more than two and half years after construction was started. The first event in the facility was a men's basketball game on November 29, 1977, in which Weber State defeated Long Beach State, 99-96 in overtime.

The Dee Events Center can accommodate nearly 12,000 spectators in chair-backed seats. The building is not just an athletic facility. The arena also hosts the WSU commencement services each year as well as a variety of campus, religious, and community events. The arena frequently hosts the Utah State High School Basketball Championships as well as numerous graduation ceremonies for area high schools.

The DEC has also been the home of many concerts and other performances throughout the years. Alabama, Clint Black, the Beach Boys, Sawyer Brown, Johnny Cash, Bill Cosby, Kenny G, Chris LeDoux, Fleetwood Mac, Barry Manilow, Bette Midler, David Lee Murphy, Willie Nelson, Collin Raye, LeAnn Rimes, George Strait, Taylor Swift, James Taylor, the New York Philharmonic, the Mormon Tabernacle Choir, the Utah Symphony, Widespread Panic and Imagine Dragons are just some of the many performers to come to the Dee Events Center.

Over the years, the arena has been the site of a circus, tennis and wrestling matches, gatherings by religious groups, and high school basketball championships. Neil Armstrong, Jake Garn, Gordon B. Hinckley, Thomas S. Monson, Jon M. Huntsman, Larry Miller, Christopher Reeve, and John Wooden are just a few of the luminaries who have spoken at the facility.

The Dee Events Center has hosted four NCAA Tournaments including the 1983 West Region Championship game between North Carolina State and Virginia.
