(rv/-) WICHITA STATE (10-5, 4-0 MVC) at MISSOURI STATE (6-10, 2-2 MVC)
 Wednesday, Jan. 13, 2016 • 8:05 pm CT • Springfield, Mo. • JQH Arena (11,000)
 WSU leads 37-30 (10-20 in Springfield) • Last Meeting: Feb. 7, 2015 in Wichita (78-35 WSU)

OPENING TIPS

Wichita State (10-5, 4-0 MVC) takes a five-game winning streak to Missouri State (6-10, 2-2 MVC) for an 8 p.m. CT tip that can be seen locally on Cox Channel Kansas, in Kansas City on Time Warner SportsChannel, and throughout the rest of the region on Fox Sports Midwest.

A week ago, WSU sat in a four-way tie for first place in the MVC standings, but wins over fellow unbeaten Evansville (67-64) and Southern Illinois (83-58) - and an Illinois State loss to Indiana State - leaves the Shockers alone atop the conference. They've won five-straight - with four of those by 20+ points.

A career-high 12 rebounds at SIU lifted Fred VanVleet over the 400-mark for his career. He becomes just the second player in MVC history to amass 1,000 career points, 500-assists and 400-rebounds (joining Indiana State's Jake Odum). The WSU All-American enters the night with 1,189 points, 521 assists and 407 boards.

VanVleet has been at his best against MSU. His 5.13 career assist-to-turnover ratio against the Bears is his highest against any one MVC team. In two meetings last year, VanVleet tallied 18 assists and just one turnover.

The Shockers are 8-1 since the Dec. 5 return of VanVleet, who missed four November games with a hamstring injury and was slowed in two others. He's averaged 13.1 points, 5.8 assists and 2.1 steals in that stretch.

The Shockers have won 10-straight against Missouri State and held the Bears to just 53.0 points per game over that stretch. In fact, they've kept the Bears under 50 points in three of the last four meetings... On Feb. 7 in Wichita, WSU posted a 78-35 win -- the lowest scoring output for a Shockers opponent since December of 1980... In that game, VanVleet tallied the first triple-double by a Shocker since 1972 (10 pts, 10 reb, 11 assists).

WSU is out to its fourth-consecutive 4-0 start to MVC play and is trying to reach 5-0 for the third-straight season.

The Shockers have now won six-straight MVC road contests, and their 40 Valley road wins over the last six seasons are more than any other two teams combined (40-7, .851).

SHOCKERS IN A NUTSHELL

- Led by All-American guards Ron Baker (14.6 points) and Fred VanVleet (12.3 points, 5.0 assists), the Shockers return three starters and nine lettermen from last year's 30-5 team that reached the NCAA Tournament for the fourth-consecutive year and defeated Indiana and Kansas to reach the Sweet 16...
- With three-straight 30-win seasons and back-to-back Missouri Valley Conference titles, WSU began the year in the preseason Top-10 for the first time since the 1981-82 and was an overwhelming favorite in the MVC preseason poll.
- A rash of November injuries slowed their momentum, with four of the top six players missing a combined 27 games already this year. VanVleet (4 games, hamstring) and semester transfer Conner Frankamp (7 games, NCAA transfer rules) joined the lineup on Dec. 5 and Dec. 9. Starting forward Anton Grady (4 games, spinal concussion) returned on Dec. 19, but impressive freshman guard Landry Shamet (10-12 weeks, stress fracture) remains sidelined until at least February.
- Since VanVleet's return, WSU is 8-1 with its only loss coming in overtime at Seton Hall.

SIX YEARS OF SUCCESS

▶ .826.....WSU's winning percentage from 2010-16 (161-34) entering the MSU game - third-best in Division I.

Best Winning Pct. Since 2010-11

Duke.....	164-33	.822
Gonzaga.....	160-33	.829
Wichita St.....	161-34	.826
Kansas.....	168-38	.820
Kentucky.....	167-38	.815
Arizona.....	160-40	.800
Louisville.....	161-43	.789

▶ 30.2.....Average victory total from 2010-15.

▶ 30+35+30.....Shocker win totals in 2013, 2014 and 2015, respectively. WSU is the only school in the country with 30+ wins in each of the last three years and needs to do it just once more to match Kansas (2009-10, 2010-11, 2011-12, 2012-13) for the NCAA record.

WSU VALLEY NOTES

- ▶ 9..... MVC regular season titles won by WSU – more than any other active school, ahead of SIU (8) & Drake (7).
- ▶ 3..... MVC crowns won by Gregg Marshall - more than any other coach in Shocker history.
- ▶ 6..... Consecutive 25-win campaigns for WSU – tied with Cincinnati (1957-63) for the MVC record.
- ▶ 39-1..... WSU's MVC record the past three seasons.

Worth Three-Peating:

- WSU is looking for its first MVC three-peat. The Shockers have won back-to-back titles twice in their history (2014/15 and 1964/65).
- WSU is looking to become just the second MVC team in the last 46 years to three-peat, joining Southern Illinois (four-in-a-row from 2001-02 to 2004-05). Incidentally, the Shockers ended SIU's run with their 2005-06 championship.
- Winning outright championships has been even more rare. WSU is looking to become just the fourth school in MVC history to finish alone atop the standings in three-or-more consecutive years, joining SIU (2002-03, 2003-04, 2004-05), Cincinnati (1957-58, 1958-59, 1959-60, 1960-61) and Kansas (1922-23, 1923-24, 1924-25, 1925-26, 1926-27).

THE SERIES

- A 10-game winning streak has given WSU the series lead, 37-30. Wednesday night's game marks the 68th meeting.
- A win would extend the streak to 11-games, tied for the second-longest series run in school history (WSU won 11-straight vs. Drake between 1981-86 and has an active string of 12-in-a-row vs. Bradley).
- The teams have met regularly since 1988. MSU joined the MVC in 1990 and dominated WSU for most of the first decade.
- The Shockers have won 24 of the last 31 since 2003.
- WSU is 10-0 in four seasons of battle against Missouri State coach Paul Lusk with four wins in Springfield, four in Wichita and a pair of MVC quarterfinal victories in St. Louis.
- Since pulling out a 19-point comeback in keep their unbeaten season alive on Jan. 11, 2014, the Shockers have posted four-straight 20+ point wins over the Bears.
- The Bears' last series win was a big one on the final day of the 2010-11 regular season in a winner-take-all battle for the MVC crown. MSU triumphed 69-64. The loss cost WSU a possible NCAA Tourney bid but set a course for their eventual NIT title.

In Wichita...

- WSU has won 17 of the last 19 series home games.

In Springfield...

- JQH Arena is just over seven-years old, but WSU has already won as many games there as it did in 23 visits to the old Hammons Center (5-2 at JQH, 5-18 at Hammons).
- The Shockers lost their first 14 at the Hammons Center before finally breaking through in 2003. Since then, they're 9-4 in Springfield.

SCOUTING THE BEARS

- Picked eighth in the Missouri Valley Conference preseason poll, Missouri State is off to a solid start to loop play at 2-2. Since dropping their first two contests, they've bounced back to defeat Northern Iowa and Loyola on last-second shots.
- Dequan Miller was responsible for both game-winners. The act earned him MVC Newcomer of the Week honors for the second-straight week and for the fourth time this year.
- The Bears are 1-4 against the RPI top-100 and 0-2 against the top-50. Their best win came a week ago over No. 97 UNI, and they also own a home victory against No. 107 Oral Roberts.
- Like WSU earlier this season, Missouri State has been hit hard by injuries. Austin Ruder (8.5 points last year), Dorian Williams (7.4 points, 4.7 rebounds, 4.4 assists this season), Chris Kendrick (10.8 points, 4.3 rebounds), Shawn Roundtree (3.0 points) all missed the most recent game at Loyola. Ruder and Roundtree have been out since November.
- The Bears rank third in the MVC - just behind WSU - in rebound margin at +1.7 and are third in blocks at 3.7 per contest.

LAST TIME OUT

Jan. 9, 2016 | Carbondale, Ill. / SIU Arena | WSU 83, Southern Illinois 58

TOP PERFORMERS:

- Ron Baker led all scorers with 18 points – 16 of them coming in the first half – to go with five rebounds and three steals.
- Conner Frankamp tacked on career-high 14 points, going 4-of-7 from deep.
- Fred VanVleet snagged a career-high 12 rebounds (becoming the first Shocker to record double-figure rebounds in a game this year), the same night that his nine-game double-figure scoring streak came to an end. As a result, WSU is still looking for its first double-double performance of the season.
- Three days after keeping Evansville's D.J. Balentine in check, WSU's defense clamped down on another elite scorer. Zach Brown, McDuffie and Baker took turns on Anthony Beane, who finished with 15 points but went just 3-of-14 from the field.

KEY STRETCH:

- A sold-out SIU Arena was silent for long stretches after the Shockers raced to a quick 28-10 lead at the midway point of the first half. The Salukis – 14-3 (3-1 MVC) after being picked ninth in the Missouri Valley Conference preseason poll – never recovered.
- Up 43-29 at the intermission, the Shockers put the game away with a 15-2 run to start the second half. The Salukis first field goal didn't come until the 11:32-mark, at which point WSU led by a comfortable 29-points.
- The Shockers upped the margin to 33 points with 7:05 to go on back-to-back buckets by McDuffie.

NOTABLE:

- WSU took the hosts out of their comfort zone, forcing 17 turnovers while holding SIU to 37 percent from the field. The Salukis collected just two assists on 17 baskets.
- The Shockers were a sizzling 12-of-24 from three-point range (7-of-12 in the opening half) and easily won the battle of the boards, 40-25.
- WSU topped the 80-point mark for the fourth time in its last five visits to SIU Arena.
- WSU won its third straight in Carbondale, matching a program best. Since losing 11-straight from 1999-2009, the Shockers have taken six of the last seven games there.
- A total of nine Shockers scored at least five points, and 15 players saw action.

BAKER NAMED TO LUTE OLSON MID-SEASON LIST

Ron Baker is one of 35 players on the Lute Olson Award Midseason Watch List. Those named to the list are considered front-runners for the annual NABC-sponsored award, presented to the nation's top Division I player who has played at least two seasons. Freshmen are not eligible. Baker was a finalist for the award last year.

THIS ONE TIME, AT FRANKAMP

In his first four MVC games, Conner Frankamp has drilled over half of his three-point attempts (9-of-17, .529). His nine triples (2.25 per game) are especially impressive considering he averages just 16 minutes per game. When he's on the court, Frankamp has been one of the league's most productive shooters, averaging 5.54 treys per 40 minutes - better than five entire MVC teams! It's also the sixth-best total nationally since Dec. 31.

	Minutes	3PM	3PM/40 min.
Conner Frankamp	65	9	5.54
Drake	160	22	5.50
Evansville	160	20	5.00
Missouri State	160	19	4.75
Loyola	160	18	4.50
Bradley	160	17	4.25

After an 0-for-9 shooting start to his Shocker career, the semester transfer has found his groove. He's hit 14 of his last 28 from three-point range, including a 4-for-7 performance in Saturday's win at Southern Illinois.

HEAVY DUTY DUO

The Shockers' big-man platoon of Anton Grady and Shaquille Morris has become an effective weapon. In four MVC games, the pair have combined to average 16.8 points and 7.8 rebounds in 32.0 minutes per game.

	Min.	Pts	Reb	Blk
Anton Grady (6-8, 230, R-Sr.)	17.0	9.0	4.0	0.5
Shaquille Morris (6-8, 260, R-So.)	15.0	7.8	3.8	0.5
COMBINED PRODUCTION	32.0	16.8	7.8	1.0

QUOTABLE:

"I never thought that was going to happen a month ago, but [Markis] is able to guard them, use his length, try to keep them in front and contest their shots. He can chase them around screens, and he's talented enough offensively to score in a multitude of ways. He can shoot the three. He can get to the rim and finish. And he's rebounding now. He's really coming along, and it's good to see."

-- Gregg Marshall on freshman forward Markis McDuffie's rapid defensive improvement over the last two months, which transformed him from defensive liability to a guy capable of guarding Evansville's D.J. Balentine and SIU's Anthony Beane for lengthy stretches last week.

TAKING IT TO YOUR LEADER

In back-to-back games last week, WSU held the MVC's top-two scorers in check. D.J. Balentine and Anthony Beane were a combined 9-of-31 from the field (.290). The Shockers have kept their opponent's leading scorer under his season average in each of the first four MVC games.

WSU vs. Opponent's Leading Scorer

Reed Timmer, DU	18.8	7	-11.8	1-5	0-2

D.J. Balentine, UE	21.5	14	-7.5	6-17	0-4
Anthony Beane, SIU	21.0	15	-6.0	3-14	1-4

TRENDY

The Shockers have several lengthy winning streaks in place against conference foes, including a school record-tying run of 12-in-a-row against Bradley that ranks among the longest-ever by one active Valley team over another. WSU has won half-a-dozen or more consecutive games against seven of its nine MVC rivals.

Ron Baker (210 career three-pointers) became only the third Shocker to reach the 200-mark on Dec. 19 at Seton Hall. Three days later, against Nevada, he moved into sole possession of second-place on WSU's all-time list. He's 38 away from Randy Burns and the all-time lead with 14 regular season games left.

BROWNEE POINTS

WSU found itself missing the contributions of the departed Tekele Cotton at small forward in the season's first month, but the emergence of sophomore Zach Brown has turned an early weakness into a strength on both ends of the court.

Brown has become a much more consistent scorer since moving into the starting lineup on Dec. 5. He averaged 10.5 points in the month of December on 58 percent shooting (up from 4.5 points in November). His three-pointer with 19 seconds to go gave WSU a two-possession lead and was ultimately the difference a 67-64 win over Evansville on Jan. 6.

A SCORING SCARCITY

► 56.8.....Opponent scoring average in WSU's last 21 MVC games (since the start of the 2014-15 season). The Shockers have held 21 of the 22 foes to 64 points or less during that stretch and are 21-1 as a result.

2010-11	1096	18	60.9	1
2009-10	1136	18	63.1	2

- WSU has finished first or second in the conference in scoring defense (MVC games only) in six-straight seasons.
- Factoring in all games, the 2014-15 Shockers ranked eighth nationally in scoring defense at 57.4 points per contest, and were the first WSU team to allow less than 60.0-a-game in 65 years.

HAMSTRUNG BY THAT HAMSTRUNG

- VanVleet limped through the first two games of the season with a strained hamstring, then missed the next four entirely. He returned in early December and - for the month - averaged a team-high 13.8 points, 5.3 assists and 2.0 steals, while leading WSU to a 5-1 record.
- VanVleet had appeared in 112-straight games to begin his Shocker career before missing those four contests The injury also snapped a run of 73-consecutive starts, dating back to the beginning of his sophomore season.
- The All-American point guard first injured the hamstring during the preseason but had attempted to play through it. Coaches elected to give him some extended rest after he aggravated the injury early in the Nov. 17 loss at Tulsa.

SHAQ ATTACK

An 11-point effort at Bradley over the weekend was Shaquille Morris' fourth double-figure game of the year - one more than his total from all of last year. Morris became the 10th different Shocker to start a game this year on Dec. 5 at Saint Louis and has held onto that spot. In his nine games as a starter, Morris is averaging 7.2 points and 3.6 rebounds on 59.6 percent shooting from the field.

GRADY LOOKS GREAT

In his first four games back from a Nov. 27 spinal cord concussion, Anton Grady slowly eased back into the flow, averaging 6.3 points, 4.8 rebounds in 14.5 minutes per game.

Grady picked up the pace in the Jan. 6 win over Evansville, collecting 17 points and seven rebounds, while playing effective post defense on Evansville Egidijus Mockevicius (the nation's leading rebounder coming in). Grady's 27 minutes were nine more than he'd seen in any contest since his return to action on Dec. 19.

The senior forward missed four games, spanning just over three weeks, following the Nov. 27 injury, late in WSU's AdvoCare Invitational game against Alabama in Orlando, Fla.

A SHOOTING STAR

- Sophomore guard Conner Frankamp - a semester transfer from Kansas - attempted just one shot in the Jan. 6 win over Evansville in 13 minutes of action, but he made it count. Frankamp's three-pointer gave WSU a nine-point lead with 13:13 to play.
- Frankamp's reputation as an outstanding shooter perhaps led to some added pressure in his first two games in front of the home fans. He missed his first nine shots (eight of them three-pointers).
- Frankamp scored 13-points in an overtime game at Seton Hall, when he drilled three treys on seven attempts. All 13 of his points came after halftime.
- He's connected on at least one triple in seven-straight games with multiple three-pointers in four of the last six contests.
- Frankamp - a Wichita high school standout and top-50 recruit, who holds the Wichita City League's career scoring record with 2,275 points- transferred from Kansas last January.

2. Wichita State	36	Feb. 18, 2011 to VCU (68-67)	TBA

- WSU is looking to close out the non-conference home slate with an unblemished mark for the fifth-consecutive year.
- Final Four-bound VCU handed WSU its last non-conference home loss, besting the Shockers on a free throw with one second to play in a 2011 Bracket Busters matchup.
- Barring a postseason home game, Duke will roll its streak into the 2016-17 season. WSU still has a potential makeup game with New Mexico State remaining.

■ ALL-A-BOARD

WSU ranks second in the conference in rebound margin (+3.3), yet doesn't have a single player listed on the MVC's top-20 chart in rebounds per game. That's not all that unusual for the Shockers, who rarely have individuals with eye popping totals, but have led the MVC in rebound margin in each of Marshall's previous eight seasons. Point guard Fred VanVleet already has a 12-rebound game under his belt this year and is one of nine different Shockers that have taken a turn as leading rebounder through 15 contests.

■ REBOUND AND DETERMINED

► 11.....consecutive seasons that Gregg Marshall teams have led their conference in rebounding margin (his last three seasons with Winthrop in the Big South, 2004-07, plus each of his first eight in the MVC). His teams have led the category in 13 of his 17 seasons overall.

■ SURGERY FOR SHAMET

Landry Shamet underwent surgery on Nov. 25 to repair a fifth metatarsal stress fracture in his left foot and could be out as long as 12 weeks (mid-February) while recovering. Shamet has drawn comparisons to the freshman version of Ron Baker and immediately became a vital rotation piece. Unfortunately, he's taken the Baker comps a little too far, suffering the very same stress fracture injury that cost Baker 10 weeks during his own debut season... Shamet averaged 8.7 points and 2.7 rebounds in 19.7 minutes through the first three contests with five steals.

■ SHEDDING THE SHIRT

Plans to redshirt 6-foot-10 sophomore Rauno Nurger were scrapped due to the injury to Grady. Nurger appeared in 24 games off the bench as a freshman, averaging 2.3 points and 1.2 rebounds. After sitting the first five games of this season, he's averaged 1.8 points and 1.4 rebounds in 8.4 minutes over his first nine contests.

■ 10 X 10

• In just 13 games, WSU has already had 10 different players score at least 10 points, and it could push that total even higher by the end of the season, with Evan Wessel, Bush Wamukota, Rashard Kelly and Rauno Nurger still chasing their first 10-point games.

• Seven Shockers have reached double-digits on two-or-more occasions this year.

Double-Digit Scoring Games in 2015-16

Ron Baker	11
Fred VanVleet	9
Zach Brown	5
Markis McDuffie	4
Shaquille Morris	3
Anton Grady	3
Eric Hamilton	2
Conner Frankamp	2
Landry Shamet	1
Ty Taylor II	1

The 2014-15 team had nine players reach double-figures at least once. The 2012-13 Final Four team had 11, and the 2010-11 NIT champions had 10. The 1998-99 and 1999-00 (10 each) teams are the only others to reach 10+ in the last 20 years.

■ 7-YEAR HITCH

The Shockers dropped under the .500 mark on Nov. 27 for the first time since February of 2009 (a span of 2,473 days, or just over six years and nine months). A stretch of three-straight losses worst stretch since January of 2009 when the opened MVC play at 0-6... Immediately after, the 2008-09 Shockers rallied to win 9 of their next 12, finishing 8-10 in conference, 17-17 overall, and advancing to the CBI quarterfinals... That 0-6 MVC start was a decided turning point in the Gregg Marshall Era. They've won at nearly an .800-clip since that moment in time.

WSU has bounced back in similar fashion this time around, going 8-1 on the heels of a 2-4 start.

■ SEEKING QUALITY WINS

► 37.....The Jan. 6 win over Evansville marked WSU's 37th top-100 RPI victory in the past four seasons. The Shockers have won two-thirds of their games against top-100 teams (37-19) and are 14-9 vs. the top-50.

TRADITIONS (NEW AND OLD)

•What is a "Shocker"?

WSU athletics nickname traces back to the early 1900s when the University's teams were unofficially referred to as the "Wheatshockers." At the time, many of the football players earned tuition and board by harvesting or "shocking" wheat. The name was later shortened to "Shockers." WSU's mascot, WuShock - a walking shock of wheat - was born in 1948.

• War, What is it Good For?

During the 2012-13 season, the WSU student section helped popularize a now familiar victory song. When the Shockers are putting the finishing touches on home victories, the lyrics "You don't want to go to war... with the Shockers... Don't start no stuff... Won't be no stuff..." echo throughout the Roundhouse.

• Play Angry

Head coach Gregg Marshall has developed a unique appreciation for WSU basketball history, even as he continues to write new chapters. Since his arrival, the eighth year Shockers coach has made it a point to reach out to WSU basketball alums, such as NBA stars Xavier McDaniel, Antoine Carr and Cliff Levingston, who helped form the backbone of some of WSU's greatest teams in the early 1980s. While addressing the team midway through the 2012-13 season, Carr challenged Marshall's Shockers to "Play Angry." That message sank in, and the slogan gained national attention during the team's run to the Final Four later in the year.

•Stand for Defense:

Shocker fans at Koch Arena have a long-standing tradition of... standing. Until their opponent scores its first field goal, the WSU faithful remain on their feet clapping in unison.

► .833.....Winning percentage vs. non-conference regular season opponents from 2011-16. The Shockers are a combined 50-10 over that four-year span.

■ THE STAKES

A Shocker Win Would...

- ... be their ninth win in 10 tries and extend their season-best winning streak to six-games.
- ... extend their MVC road winning streak to seven games, dating back to last February.
- ... be Gregg Marshall's 215th at WSU - five shy of Ralph Miller (220) for the school's all-time record.
- ... be their fifth-straight in Springfield and improve them to 6-2 all-time at JQH Arena.
- ... be their 11th straight against MSU.
- ... improve them to 5-0 in MVC play for the third-consecutive year.
- ... tie senior Evan Wessel for sixth on WSU's all-time wins list (94) with David Kyles (2008-12).

A Shocker Loss Would...

- ...snap a five-game winning streak.
- ...be just their second in the last three MVC seasons.
- ... snap a 10-game winning streak against MSU.
- ... be less good than a win.

■ UP NEXT

WSU returns home to face Indiana State, 3 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 17 on ESPN3.

The Shockers lead the all-time series 55-29... WSU is 16-4 against the Sycamores under Gregg Marshall and has won 25 of the past 29 meetings overall... WSU recent run of success in Terre Haute has helped get them over the .500 mark there at 20-18 all-time... In a scheduling quirk, the two teams did not play their first meeting until the two-thirds of the way through last year's conference schedule. They met twice in the last three weeks, with WSU winning 74-57 in Wichita and 63-53 in Terre Haute to up their overall winning streak against the Sycamores to six games.

WSU FALL SIGNEES

Prep school combo guard, C.J. Keyser, junior college point guard Daishon Smith (pronounced "DAY-shawn"), and JUCO power forward Darryln Willis (goes by "Darral") signed National Letters of Intent with WSU during the Fall Signing Period... The trio join with Texas A&M transfer in residence Peyton Allen as newcomers in 2016-17. The Shockers have five current seniors in Ron Baker (G), Anton Grady (F), Fred VanVleet (G), Bush Wamukota (C) and Evan Wessel (F).

C.J. Keyser

6-3 | 185 | G
Baltimore, Md. | Sunrise Christian Academy (Kan.) | Brewster Academy (N.H.)

Last name rhymes with "riser," which is an apt description... An elite athlete who prides himself on his defense... Game and physical stature are reminiscent of former Shocker guard Tekele Cotton, a two-time conference defensive player of the year... Played for WSU assistant Kyle Lindsted at Sunrise Christian Academy near Wichita... Earned three stars from both ESPN and Rivals and was considered a top-20 shooting guard by ESPN prior to reclassifying to the class of 2016... Elected to play a prep year at Brewster Academy in New Hampshire in order to better prepare himself for Division I basketball... He also drew interest from Utah, Nebraska and Long Beach State... A standout performer for a Sunrise program that has cranked out more than two-dozen Division I signees over the last two years... Named MVP of four-different tournaments as a senior, including the prestigious Marshall County Hoopfest and the Kentucky Blue Grass National Championship (which Sunrise won).

Gregg Marshall: "He's explosive, can play a multitude of positions on the perimeter and profiles as a lockdown defender. We had an opportunity to watch him quite a bit last year at Sunrise, and he had a chance to see how this program operates."

Daishon Smith

(Pronunciation: first name pronounced "DAY-shawn")
6-1 | 170 | PG
Jacksonville, Fla. | Ribault HS | Tallahassee (Fla.) CC

Junior college point guard who has the size and athleticism to score, distribute and defend at a high level... Gives WSU another experienced point guard to help replace All-American Fred VanVleet next year... Played his freshman season at Eastern Florida State College and was a key reserve and honorable mention all-conference selection for a team that finished 29-5, won its conference title and qualified for the NJCAA National Tournament... Averaged 8.0 points and 3.2 assists in just over 20 minutes per game... Nearly finished with more steals (46) than personal fouls (49)... Scored in double-figures 11 times and had a season-best of 9 assists... Earned NJCAA Region 8 Player of the Week honors on Dec. 16, 2014... As a senior at Ribault High School in Jacksonville, helped his team to a 4A State Semifinal appearance...

Gregg Marshall: "Daishon is the type of point guard who has been successful in our system. He has good size, is explosive with the ball and is extremely athletic. He's a guy who can score and also be a playmaker for others, depending on the situation, and he affects the game with his defense, too. He plays for a tremendous junior college coach in Mark White, who holds him accountable every day."

Darryln "Darral" Willis

6-8 | 215 | PF
Madison, Wisc. | Memorial HS | Pearl River (Miss.) CC

A versatile scorer and post defender who becomes the latest in a long line of talented junior college forwards to join the Shocker program... Averaged 13.8 points and 7.1 rebounds as a freshman to help lead Pearl River to a 25-5 finish and the MACJC state title... An All-Region 23 and All-MCJC South Division selection... Was efficient scorer for the Wildcats from both the field (.626) and at the foul line (.755), where he knocked down a team-high 111 free throws... Enjoyed a breakout season as a high school senior at Madison Memorial, where he was a Wisconsin Basketball Coaches Association Division I All-State selection and conference player of the year in 2014... Was a fourth-team All-State (all classes) selection by the Wisconsin Associated Press... Averaged 17.3 points and led Memorial High to a conference title.

Gregg Marshall: "We think he's a guy who can come in play big minutes at the four. He does everything well. He can shoot, he can drive, and he can score facing or with his back to the basket. He runs, rebounds, defends and comes from a winning program."

Gregg Marshall has built Wichita State into a monster of the Midwest and, in the process, ascended as one of college basketball's elite coaches.

Now entering his ninth season at WSU and his 18th overall, Marshall (398-159 career record) is the only coach in Division I who has posted 30 or more wins in each of the past three seasons, and his .839 winning percentage (151-29) over the last five years is a national-best.

Under Marshall's guidance, WSU has been on a steady rise, topping 25 wins in each of the past six seasons.

His Shockers followed up a 2011 NIT Championship with four-straight NCAA Tournament trips, including runs to the 2013 Final Four and the 2015 Sweet 16. The 2014 squad ran the table in the regular season, becoming the first team in 23 years to enter the Big Dance with an unbeaten record. That historic 35-0 start also earned him consensus National Coach of the Year honors.

Despite the presence of eight new scholarship players, Marshall led the 2014-15 Shockers to a 27-3 regular season record and a second-straight Missouri Valley Conference title.

In his 18 seasons as a head coach, Marshall's teams have captured nine regular season conference titles and advanced to the NCAA Tournament 11 times, while compiling a 398-159 overall record. He's won seven conference coach-of-the-year honors, including a run of three-in-a-row from 2012-14.

Marshall (204-76 in eight previous seasons at WSU) needs just 16 more wins to catch Ralph Miller atop the Shockers' all-time wins list.

Marshall has proven adept at spotting talented prospects and developing them into high-level college basketball players, with many moving on to play professionally. During the 2014-15 season, three former Shockers saw action – Gal Mekel (New Orleans Pelicans), Toure' Murry (Jazz/Wizards) and Cleanthony Early (Knicks).

In Marshall's eight seasons in Wichita, a total of 17 Shockers have earned postseason All-MVC honors, including 10 First-Teamers since 2010 (surpassing WSU's total from the previous 26 years combined). WSU's depth and tenacious team defense has been a source of strength, throughout. Over the past five years, six Shockers have landed on the MVC's All-Bench Team and seven more have earned MVC All-Defensive Team nods.

Under Marshall, the Shockers have become a top destination for some of the nation's premier junior college talent. Nine NJCAA All-Americans have worn the black and yellow since Marshall's arrival, including the NBA-bound Early, who was a two-time national player of the year prior to his arrival at WSU.

Marshall has also had big success developing coaching talent, with a rapidly expanding tree of seven former assistants who have gone on to accept Division I head coaching positions.

The latest is Steve Forbes, a Shocker assistant from 2013-15, who took the reigns at East Tennessee State in March of 2015. Other active head coaches include Earl Grant, College of Charleston; Dana Ford, Tennessee State; Barclay Radebaugh, Charleston Southern; and Zach Spiker, Army.

Prior to WSU, Marshall led Winthrop to a 204-76 record in nine seasons, piling up six Big South regular season titles, seven conference tournament titles and seven NCAA Tournament appearances.

Marshall spent the first 13 years of his coaching career as an assistant with stops at Randolph-Macon (1985-87), Belmont-Abbey (1987-88), College of Charleston (1988-96) and Marshall (1996-98), helping those programs to a combined 255-115 record, good for a .689 winning percentage.

PERSONAL:

Marshall received a B.A. degree in economics/business in 1985 from Randolph-Macon and earned the Master's degree in Sport Management from the University of Richmond in 1987.

He is married to the former Lynn Munday of Bellingham, Wash., who earned her master's degree from the College of Charleston. They are the parents of a son, Kellen, and a daughter, Maggie.

1,000-POINT CLUB

WSU has had 45 1,000-point scorers in its history, most recently the trio of Ron Baker, Tekele Cotton and Fred VanVleet, who all joined over a two-month span in February and March of 2015... In 2013-14, Cleaunthony Early - a junior college transfer who tallied 1,135 points - became the 42nd member of the club. Early is the first JUCO player in school history to reach 1,000 and is one of only 10 WSU players to tally 1,000 or more over a two-year stretch.

OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Sophomore)

Will look to build on an impressive March performance and compete for minutes at the small forward spot as a sophomore.

2014-15 (Freshman)

Earned the team's Most Improved Player Award at WSU's end of season banquet... Averaged 3.3 points and 1.4 rebounds in 10.5 minutes per contest while shooting 42.3 percent from three and 51.8 percent overall from the field... After playing sparingly through the non-conference schedule, worked his way into the rotation as a key reserve during MVC and postseason play... Played two of his best games during the NCAA Tournament, tallying season-highs for scoring (11), rebounding (8) and minutes (23) in an opening round win over Indiana. Followed with seven points in the Round of 32 victory against Kansas... Provided a memorable hustle play to spark the win over KU when he forced a steal, scrambled for the loose ball and out-sprinted everyone to the other end for a transition slam... Averaged 6.7 points in 16.0 minutes over the three NCAA games... Saw time in each of the last eight contests after missing four games with a concussion (Feb. 7 to Feb. 17)... Tallied just 31 minutes and saw time in just five of the first nine games of the regular season before bursting onto the scene during the Diamond Head Classic. After scoring just three points all season against D-I competition up to that point, he went for 10 vs. Loyola Marymount, nine in an overtime win over Hawaii and had seven more in the championship vs. GW. Went 5-of-6 from three and 7-of-9 at the foul line over the three games... The DHC performance kicked off a stretch that saw him play double-figure minutes in 8 of the next 11 games... Scored his first collegiate points against Newman on Nov. 23 with a nine-point, six-rebound day...

2013-14

2nd Team Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete

OVERVIEW

2015-16 (Senior)

A five-year veteran in Coach Gregg Marshall's system who can be called on to contribute in a variety of ways.

2014-15 (Junior)

A member of the MVC's Most Improved Team after a junior season that saw big increases in playing time and production... Also a Second Team MVC Scholar Athlete... Appeared in 32 games with 31 starts and averaged 23.6 minutes... Put up 4.2 points, 3.7 rebounds and turned the ball over just 14 times in 756 minutes... Switched positions in the off-season from small forward to power forward due to the team's lack of returning post depth and thrived, despite a significant size disadvantage... A crowd favorite with a penchant for being in the right place at the right time for rebounds and loose balls...

Regained his shooting touch after a rough 2013-14 season, hitting 36.0 percent from deep (31-of-86)... Got hot at some opportune times... After taking just three shots in 36 minutes in the Round of 64 against Indiana, was one of the offensive stars in the Round of 32 win over Kansas on March 22... Connected on a season-high four treys vs. the Jayhawks in a 12-point, nine rebound effort that earned him a postgame interview with the CBS crew... On Feb. 28, helped WSU fend off a hard-charging Northern Iowa in a winner-take-all battle for the MVC regular season title, draining three triples on his way to 11 points... Had Five total double-figure scoring performances, topped by a 15-point outburst against Saint Louis on Dec. 6... Was nearly the hero in overtime loss at nationally-ranked Utah, scratching out six points and nine rebounds... Missed three games at the Diamond Head Classic (Dec. 22, 23, 25) with an ankle injury, suffered late in the first half of the Alabama game on Dec. 16... Returned for a three-second cameo at Drake on Dec. 31, then rejoined the lineup for good on Jan. 4... Recorded steals in bunches with three-or-more thefts in five different games... Named to the Athletic Director's Honor Roll for both the Fall and Spring semesters.
