- » Wichita State and Kansas State renew their in-state rivalry this Sunday at INTRUST Bank Arena.
- » It's the 32nd meeting all-time in a series that began in 1932 but has been dormant for 18 years. The schools last played on Dec. 10, 2003 in Manhattan.
- » The Shockers trail 20-11 but are 9-6 in Wichita.
- » Fans won't have to wait nearly as long for the next installment with future stops already planned for K-State's Bramlage Coliseum ('22), Kansas City's T-Mobile Center ('23) and WSU's Charles Koch Arena ('24).
- » Although it takes place off campus, Sunday's contest counts as a home game on WSU's NCAA tournament resume and a true road game for K-State.
- » WSU has won 12-straight at home, last losing to Oklahoma State on Dec. 12, 2020.
- » Shockers teams are 8-2 at INTRUST Bank Arena. With the exception of 2020 (COVID), WSU has played a downtown game in every season since it opened (2010-11).
- » In that 12-year span, WSU is 157-19 (.892) in Wichita.
- » K-State is 2-2 at INTRUST Bank Arena with wins over Gonzaga (2013) and Colorado State (2015) and losses to West Virginia (2011) and Tulsa (2017).
- » Going back to the 2008, WSU has won 10 of its last 16 against Big 12 teams.

- » Winners of three-straight, the Shockers are coming off back-to-back true road wins over 2021 NCAA tournament teams, Mizzou and Oklahoma State. Their only loss came in OT to undefeated and 11th-ranked Arizona.
- » In Wednesday's 60-51 victory at OSU, the Shockers trailed 45-38 at the midway point of the second half but finished on a 22-6 run. Ricky Council IV made five-straight shots over that stretch on his way to a team-high 17 points. WSU forced 21 Cowboy turnovers and held the hosts to 37.5% shooting from the field.
- » WSU has now won seven straight non-conference road games. Each of the last six in that stretch have come against major conference foes (Clemson, Indiana, OSU, Ole Miss, Missouri & OSU again).
- » WSU has held five of its seven opponents this year under 60 points and forces an average of 17.7 turnovers-per-game. Foes are shooting just 26.3% from three (24th nationally).
- » Per KenPom, WSU ranks 14th nationally in turnover percentage. Opponents have turned the ball over on more than a quarter (25.3%) of their possessions.
- » Five of the Shockers' seven games this year have been decided by two possessions in either direction. WSU is 4-1 in those contests.

A SHOCKER WIN WOULD....

- » Improve their record to 7-1 and extend their winning streak to a season-best four games.
- » Extend their home winning streak to 13 -- tied for the 11th-longest in program history.
- » Make them 9-2 all-time at INTRUST Bank Arena with three-consecutive wins (and drop KSU to 2-3).
- » Make them 10-6 all-time vs. KSU in Wichita.
- » Narrow K-State's all-time series lead to 20-12.
- » Be their 11th in 17 tries against Big 12 schools going back to the 2009-10 season.
- » Be just their second in 12 tries vs. Bruce Weber.
- » Give Isaac Brown the best 30-game start in WSU's modern history (23-7).

A SHOCKERS LOSS WOULD...

- » Drop them to 6-2; snap a three-game win streak.
- » Be their first in Wichita since Dec. 12, 2020 against Oklahoma State and end a 12-game home win streak.
- » Be just their third in 11 downtown games.
- » Make KSU 3-2 at IBA.
- » Extend KSU's series lead to 21-11 (7-9 in Wichita).
- » Make WSU 1-11 against Bruce Weber.
- » Be just their 16th in Wichita in the past 10 years.
- » Be less good than a win.

UP NEXT

- » Next Saturday, WSU makes its first appearance at Charles Koch Arena in 26 days when it welcomes Norfolk State. The 6 p.m. tip airs on ESPN+.
- » Great seats are still available at 978-FANS (3267) or online at goshockers.com/Tickets.
- » WSU will host a special "Teddy Bear Toss." Fans are encouraged to bring a new or gently-used teddy bear, to be thrown onto the court at halftime. Bears will be donated to children at a local hospital.
- » Fans can show their Norfolk State ticket at the gate and receive free admission to Saturday's 2 p.m. women's game against Grambling State.
- » NFS represented the MEAC in last year's NCAA tournament, defeating Appalachian State by a point in the NCAA First Four before falling to eventual national runner-up Gonzaga in the first round.
- » WSU and NFS have never met on the hardwood.
- » WSU plays three of its next four games against HBCU's, continuing with Alcorn State (Dec. 14) and Prairie View A&M (Dec. 22).

THE SHOCKS, IN SHORT

- » Wichita State returns four of the top-five scorers, including American Athletic Conference co-Player of the Year, Tyson Etienne, from a team that came out of nowhere to win the league's regular season title.
- » Isaac Brown begins his second season as head coach after guiding the Shockers to a 16-6 record (11-2 AAC) and a First Four appearance while serving as the program's interim leader.
- » WSU has played in eight of the last nine NCAA tournaments and has the horses to get there again in 2022.
- » Veterans Etienne (6-2, So., G), Dexter Dennis (6-5, Jr., G) and Morris Udeze (6-8, Jr., F) started every game in 2021 and form the team's leadership core.
- » Etienne (16.2 ppg last year) is the AAC preseason player of the year and an All-American candidate. Brown deploys him in a variety of ways. The sophomore is a dangerous spot-up shooter out to 30 feet (2.9 threes on nearly 40% accuracy in 2021) and often serves as a defacto point guard due to his playmaking ability.
- » Dennis is a 3-and-D wing, often tasked with taking the other team's best scorer out of the game. He ranks in the top-10 on WSU's career 3-point list.
- » Udeze is an unorthodox, yet effective post presence, averaging 10.2 points on 60% shooting in 2021.
- » Also back from last year's rotation are Ricky Council IV (6-6, Fr., G), Craig Porter Jr. (6-2, Jr., G) and Clarence "Monzy" Jackson (6-7, So., F). All are poised for larger roles with the departure two other starters: third team All-AAC selection Alterique Gilbert (10.2 ppg, team-high 4.1 apg) and forward Trey Wade (6.7 ppg, team-high 5.7 rpg).
- » Brown also added a pair of experienced transfers at those positions in Division II All-American Qua Grant (6-1, Jr., G, West Texas A&M) and All-Southland forward Joe Pleasant (6-7, Jr., F, Abilene Christian).
- » Point guards Porter and Grant bring complimentary skill-sets. Porter is a stat-sheet stuffer who distributes, rebounds and even protects the rim. Grant is a bulldog who can break down defenses.
- » The Shockers use a similar platoon approach at the 4-spot, where Pleasant is an all-around contributor and steady presence and Jackson the frantic, "energy guy." Dennis has also logged time at that position as part of WSU's four-guard lineup.
- » A 2021 AAC All-Freshman pick, Council provides scoring punch off the bench, capable of creating his own shots (and knocking them down).
- » Freshman big man Kenny Pohto (6-11, Fr., F, Sunrise Christian Academy) brings size and a soft perimeter touch, while platooning with Udeze at the center spot.

LAST GAME

Dec. 1, 2021 | Stillwater, Okla. / Gallagher-Iba Arena

Wichita St.	31	29	-	60
Oklahoma St. -/rv	29	22	-	51

- » Down 45-38 at the midway point of the second half WSU finished the game on a 22-6 run.
- » Ricky Council IV made five straight shots during that stretch for 12 of his team-high 17 points.
- » WSU notched its third straight win at Gallagher-Iba. Prior to 2017, it had been 2-15 all-time in Stillwater.
- » OSU missed its last nine field goal attempts and saw a five-game winning streak snapped.
- » Council went 7-of-11 from the field, including 3-of-3 from distance, to go with seven rebounds, four assists, three steals and a block. The Shockers were an incredible +30 with Council on the floor.
- » Morris Udeze was another second-half catalyst, scoring seven of his 13 points over the final 10:13. Clarence "Monzy" Jackson added a season-high 10 points in just 17 minutes off the bench and Craig Porter Jr. grabbed a team-high eight rebounds and stacked up four assists and three steals.
- » Avery Anderson III led OSU with 17 points and Matthew-Alexander Moncrieffe supplied 10 rebounds.
- » WSU tallied 10 steals and induced 21 OSU turnovers.
- » OSU shot 37.5% and made just 9-of-19 free throws.
- » OSU scored the game's first 10 points and opened the second half on another 10-0 run. WSU rallied in both instances with a timely switch to zone defense. The Shockers used a 17-4 run to build a 31-29 halftime lead. They didn't score until the 12:48-mark of the second but regrouped behind Council's scoring binge.

ON THIS DATE: DEC. 5

- » Dec. 5 is WSU's most-successful date, by percentage (minimum 10 games played). Shockers teams are 18-3 with eight consecutive wins. WSU's last Dec. 5 loss came in double-overtime at George Mason in 1987.
- » The Shockers are 6-2 in December games under Isaac Brown with five-straight wins.

1964 – Helped by Dave Stallworth's 37, the Shockers set a school record for points in a 114-78 win over Long Beach State. The mark held for just over two years.

1981 – Tournament MVP Antoine Carr led a group of five double-figure scorers with 16 points to propel WSU past Cincinnati, 87-67, in the McDonalds Classic title game at Levitt Arena.

2001 – WSU's most-recent win over K-State came exactly 20 years ago (65-56 at Bramlage Coliseum). The Shockers snapped a 14-game road losing streak, helped by 20 points and 10 rebounds from Troy Mack and coach Mark Turgeon's 2-3 zone, which confounded the host Wildcats into a couple of long scoring droughts.

THREES COMPANY

- » Dexter Dennis and Tyson Etienne are both rocketing up WSU's all-time three-point field goal list. Dennis (149) is 10th and needs just four more to match David Kyles (153 from 2008-12) for ninth. Etienne (143) is tied for 11th with Paul Guffrovich.

13. Fred VanVleet	2012-16	141

- » Dennis needs one more three-pointer to reach 150 for his career. He would be just the 10th Shocker to achieve that milestone and the seventh-fastest (92 games).
- » Etienne's 144 threes in 59 career games is the most ever by a Shocker at that stage -- 17 more than current Phoenix Sun Landry Shamet, who drained 127 in his first 59 contests.

TRENDING:

- » 6-8 Morris Udeze has won the opening tipoff in six straight games. Three of those wins have come against 7-footers.
- » Qua Grant has at least one steal in each of the first seven games. He's the first Shocker to do that since Tekele Cotton (2014-15).
- » WSU is forcing 17.7 turnovers-per-game. Just two Shockers teams have averaged more over a full season. Gene Smithson's first two squads forced 20.3 (1978-79) and 18.6 (1979-80) respectively.

- » WSU entered the weekend as one of 16 schools with a home winning streak of a dozen-or-more games. Gonzaga owns the longest active string at 56, followed by Liberty (39), Prairie View A&M (35) and Houston (29).
- » Dennis is out to a slow start from three, hitting just 25.8% (8-of-31) through the first seven games. That figure is nearly 100 points below his career average but certainly no cause for panic. Dennis is traditionally at his best in February and March, where he's averaged 2.4 threes on 42.5% accuracy over the past three seasons.

WSU-OSU LEFTOVERS

- » The Shockers improved to 7-2 in true road games under Isaac Brown.
- » WSU's four-game true road winning streak, which began with victories over UCF and Tulane last spring, is the nation's fourth-longest. As of Friday, only Gonzaga (7), West Virginia (6), NC State (5) and Weber State (5) have longer active streaks.
- » Wednesday at Oklahoma State marked the first time that Etienne has failed to make a free throw since late in his freshman season. He had connected in 29-straight games prior to that -- the longest such streak by a Shocker since 2004.

JOINING THE DRAMA CLUB

- » Five of WSU's seven games this year have been decided by two-possession in either direction. The Shockers are 4-1 in those games.
- » In parts of two seasons under Isaac Brown WSU has played two-possession games against 21 of its 27 Division I opponents. The Shockers have won 14 of them (No. 1 nationally since the start of the 2020-21 season).

PORTER CARRIES THE LOAD

- » Craig Porter Jr. has been one of the most-valuable Shockers over the last two games, despite totaling just three points. He was the team's leading rebounder (7), assist man (4) and shot-blocker (2) at Mizzou. Wednesday at OSU he led the way with four assists and new career-highs for rebounds (8) and steals (3).
- » Porter is finding his groove in his first season as a starter. The junior point guard battled injuries and COVID protocol during his debut season while playing behind a pair of all-conference guards but is beginning to look like the stat-sheet-stuffer that helped lead Vincennes (Ind.) to an NJCAA national title.
- » Porter's career junior college numbers look like typos, but he's deceptively athletic. At 6-foot-2, he averaged 7 rebounds, 2 blocks and 6 assists.
- » In parts of two seasons at WSU, Porter owns a 2.05 assist-to-turnover ratio (45A, 22TO).

BENCH IMPRESSIVE

- » Four of the Shockers' top-six scorers on a per-minute basis are reserves. The quartet of Ricky Council IV (17.9) Kenny Pohto (16.3), Monzy Jackson (14.3) and Qua Grant (11.5) provide some serious firepower.
- » WSU's bench is contributing an average of 26.1 points-per-game or roughly 40% of the scoring -- an impressive number in light of how many close games the Shockers have played this season.
- » WSU has gotten at least 20 points out of its bench in each of the last six games, including a season-high 34 in Wednesday's win at Oklahoma State.

2. Ricky Council IV	17.4	7-2	11.1	25.7

4. Morris Udeze	16.2	7-7	9.0	22.2

6. Qua Grant	11.5	7-1	6.3	21.8

POWERED BY TYSON

- » All-American candidate Tyson Etienne is averaging just under 37 minutes-per-game (36:26) -- 22nd nationally.
- » Etienne averaged 2.9 threes-per-game last year, shattering Landry Shamet's school record. This year he's averaging 2.83.
- » Etienne was under the weather for the Nov. 13 game against South Alabama and missed the Nov. 16 game entirely. He returned to the lineup Nov. 19 and averaged 24.3 points and 4.7 triples in games against Arizona, UNLV and Mizzou.
- » Etienne attempted 27 shots in the overtime game against Arizona -- most by a Shocker since January, 1985 when Xavier McDaniel (the nation's leading scorer) hoisted 27 in an OT win over Creighton. Etienne's 15 three-point attempts in that game were one shy of the school record.
- » Opponents are devoting more resources to stopping Etienne, but the sophomore is comfortable serving as the decoy if it means better shots for his teammates. That was the case at Oklahoma State where the Cow-boys devoted significant resources to slowing Etienne (5 points) only for Ricky Council IV to beat them.
- » Just call him Tyson-at-the-End. The second-time sophomore is averaging 12.5 points on 46.2% three-point shooting (12-of-26) after halftime, compared to 3.8 points on 5-of-24 three-point shooting in the first half of games.
- » That's not a new development. In 2020-21, Etienne averaged 5.9 points (35.4%) in the first half and 10.2 (41.2%) thereafter.
- » Etienne has shown a penchant for late-game heroics. His three-pointer with 13 seconds left forced overtime against Arizona in Las Vegas. Two nights later, he drew a foul with 3.4 seconds to go against UNLV and calmly drained two free throws for a 74-73 win.
- » Etienne's deepest three-point attempt (and make) came just ahead of the buzzer in the season-opening win over Jacksonville State. Tied at 57, he dribbled down the clock then swished a step-back three from the edge of the center court logo with 2.2 seconds remaining. It was later measured at 31 feet, 9.5 inches.
- » WSU is 12-2 when Etienne scores at least 20 points. He's done it twice this season already.
- » Etienne topped 20 points 10 times in 22 games last season (tied for the AAC lead), including in seven of the 13 league games.

THE SERIES WITH K-STATE

- » K-State leads the all-time series, 20-11. The Shockers are 9-6 against the Wildcats in Wichita but just 2-14 in Manhattan.
- » WSU and K-State staged a closed-door scrimmage in 2009 but haven't played publicly since Dec. 10, 2003 (a 54-50 KSU win in Manhattan).
- » The Shockers last hosted the Wildcats on Dec. 14, 2002, also off campus. Due to construction at the Roundhouse, the game was played at the Kansas Coliseum.
- » K-State's last visit to the WSU campus came pre-renovation (Nov. 21, 2000). The Shockers opened the Mark Turgeon Era with a 76-66 victory at then-Levitt Arena.
- » The most notable series meeting came in the 1964 Midwest Regional Final, played inside the Roundhouse. Dave Stallworth (37 points, 16 rebounds) outdueled fellow All-American Willie Murrell (28 pts, 10 reb), but the Wildcats escaped Wichita with a 94-86 win.
- » A year later, WSU again advanced to the regional final round, this time defeating Oklahoma State to punch its first Final Four ticket. That game was played at K-State's Ahearn Fieldhouse

- » For years it was WSU's lone bright spot in Manhattan. The Shockers lost its first 12 road games at K-State before finally breaking through in 1996.

SCOUTING THE WILDCATS

- » KSU returns four lettermen from a team that finished 9-20 (4-14 Big 12) in 2020-21.
- » 6-foot-3 super-senior Mike McGuirl was an honorable mention All-Big 12 pick last year after averaging 11.8 points, 3.6 assists and 10 steal.
- » Also back are 7-footer Davion Bradford, 6-4 guard Selton Miguel and 6-0 guard Nijel Pack. That trio combined for 71 starts last year as true freshmen.
- » Pack has taken a leap forward in his sophomore season, averaging a team-best 15.8 points through the first six games. He's knocked down 18 threes on 48.6% accuracy.
- » KSU has also benefited from the addition of two talented four-year transfers:
- » 6-4 guard Mark Smith (Mizzou) is contributing 9.3 points and a team-best 7.5 rebounds and 5-foot-8 guard Markquis Nowell (Little Rock) averages 11.7 points and a team-high 2.1 steals-per-contest.
- » Picked ninth out of 10 in the Big 12 preseason poll, the Wildcats are out to a 4-2 start with their lone losses coming to nationally-ranked Arkansas and Illinois.
- » KSU is outscoring opponents by an average of 13.2-per-game and out-rebounding them by 4.5.
- » The Wildcats are limiting foes to 37.1% from the field (21st nationally) and 23.7% from three (sixth).

MATCHUP MASHUP:

- » K-State's Mark Smith faced WSU last year while playing for Mizzou. He scored a game-high 19 points and grabbed six rebounds in the Tigers' 72-62 win.
- » WSU's Director of Player Development, Nick Jones was as a student manager at K-State for five seasons (2009-14), the first three under Frank Martin and the last two under Bruce Weber. The Wildcats made the NCAA tournament in all five of his years, highlighted by a run to the 2010 Elite Eight and a share of the 2013 Big 12 regular season title.
- » K-State Executive Associate A.D. Casey Scott began his career in 1985 as WSU's Sports Information Director before being demoted into a senior administrator role.

WSU vs. WEBER:

- » WSU is 1-10 all-time against Bruce Weber but faces him for the first time at K-State. He guided Southern Illinois to nine victories in 10 meetings between 1998 and 2003 and added another in 2005 with Illinois.
- » At SIU, Weber won four of five visits to Wichita, including three of four at the Roundhouse.
- » WSU's lone victory over Weber came on Jan. 10, 2002 at Levitt Arena. Terrell Benton scored 26 points and the Shockers made 10-of-17 threes in an 88-79 upset over a Saluki team that would go on to play in the Sweet 16.
- » The Shockers last faced Weber on Nov. 25, 2005 at a tournament in South Padre Island, Texas and put a major scare into his 15th-ranked Illini. Warren Carter made a layup just ahead of the buzzer to put Illinois up 55-54. WSU's Karon Bradley made a half-court heave on the opposite end but released the ball a split-second too late. That Shocker team would regroup to win the Valley and make a Sweet 16 run of their own.

THE ROUNDHOUSE

Paul Suellentrop takes you inside Shocker Athletics all season long. Visit GoShockers.com/TheRoundhouse or follow @RoundhouseNews for the latest content.

Give yourself 60 seconds to vent your partisan feelings on Kansas State vs. Wichita State, no matter your rooting interest.

"Weird we couldn't work out a date while Fred and Ron were on the roster."

"The game does us no good."

"Scheduling is hard."

OK, with that done, we can agree on the inconsistent history of the games, the opportunities missed for roaring crowds in venerable college basketball venues and the matchups of All-Americans ghosted.

And let's hope things change in the future.

On Sunday, Wichita State and Kansas State meet on the basketball court for the first time since 2003, which seems odd for two fine basketball schools 130 miles apart. Sunday's game at Intrust Bank Arena (5 p.m. ESPNU) is the first of four scheduled meetings — next season in Bramlage Coliseum, Kansas City's T-Mobile Center in 2023 and Koch Arena in 2024.

Perhaps the current revival will produce more memorable moments than the previous games. It's an odd series, one sporadically renewed and with few heated highlights that stick with fans. The schools managed to play 31 times — with Kansas State winning 20 — while leaving few marks on either's history.

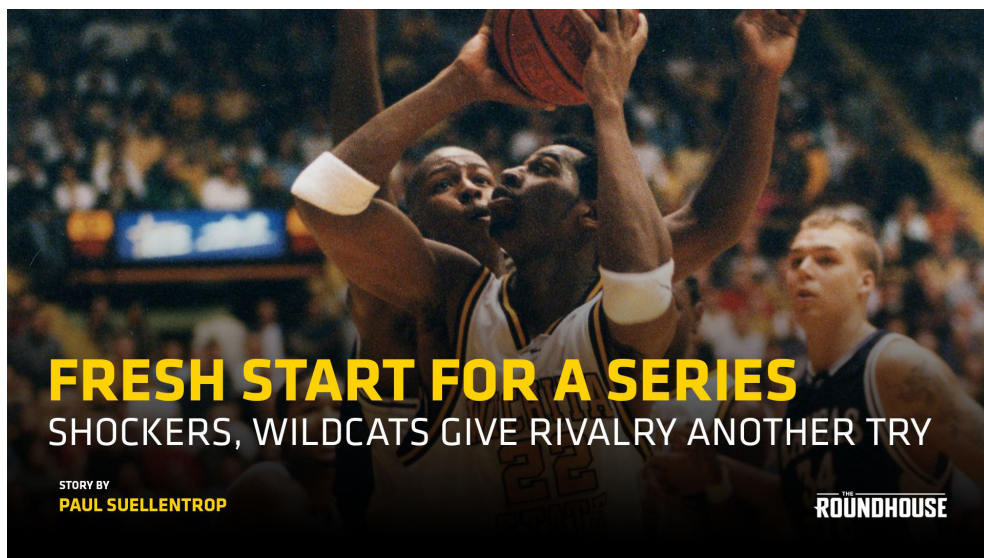

Shocker fans likely feel more fondness toward recent regular- and post-season series against VCU, George Mason and Alabama, or the meandering four-game sweep of LSU. In the 1960's, Michigan, Ohio State and Loyola of Chicago highlighted the non-conference schedule.

Kansas State fans might point to Sunflower Doubleheaders in the 1950s and 1960s or meetings with Indiana and Kentucky during that era. More recently, wins over No. 8 Florida (2012-13) and No. 21 Gonzaga (in Wichita in 2013-14) stand out.

The most significant Shocker-Wildcat game — by 130 miles — happened in 1964, in another era of college basketball. Kansas State handed the Shockers likely their most disappointing loss, 94-86 in Wichita. That win sent the Wildcats to the Final Four, in a time before it was known as the Final Four.

Even that game comes with an asterisk well-known to devoted Shocker fans of a certain age. Starting guard Ernie Moore, who averaged 17.4 points, played the second semester and in a Missouri Valley Conference playoff game for the Shockers. A three-man NCAA eligibility board ruled Moore ineligible for post-season play, and he sat out the NCAA Tournament.

The 1964 meeting is the lone game during that era in which both regularly advanced to the NIT or NCAA. Beyond that game, the teams rarely played when both excelled.

FRESH START FOR A SERIES SHOCKERS, WILDCATS GIVE RIVALRY ANOTHER TRY

STORY BY
PAUL SUELLENTROP

THE ROUNDHOUSE

From a Shocker perspective, pick a possible highlight: Greg Carney's 30 points in a 1969 win over the eventual Big 8 champions; Dwight Praylow's three-point play with two seconds remaining for a 63-60 win in 1986; a 1996 win in Manhattan behind Jason Perez's 20 points, or Mark Turgeon's first game as Shocker coach, a 76-66 win over the Wildcats with Terrell Benton scoring 23 in 2000.

Wichita State and Kansas State split six games — twice a season — from 1969-72. The schools didn't play from 1972-1985, depriving fans of matchups featuring stars such as Wichita State's Cheese Johnson, Antoine Carr and Xavier McDaniel and Kansas State's Mike Evans, Rolando Blackman and Ed Nealy.

The series resumed in the late 1980s. They split two games in the 1986-87 season when both advanced to the NCAA Tournament. Kansas State won a 1988 game 58-47 on its way to the Elite Eight with Mitch Richmond.

It continued in the 1990s, a decade neither fan base remembers with great fondness. Kansas State made two brief NCAA appearances from 1990-1999 and the Shockers stumbled through that period. The schools split four meetings from 2000-03.

What did we miss? Quite a bit.

Carr vs. Nealy in 1981. Toure Murry vs. Jacob Pullen in 2011. Cleanthony Early vs. Rodney McGruder in 2013. Dean Wade vs. Landry Shamet in 2017. Think about the T-shirts, coaching dramatics, packed arenas and smack talk unrealized.

Consider these potential matchups:

By 1961-62, coach Ralph Miller had the Shockers poised for a strong era with Moore, Gene Wiley and freshman Dave Stallworth. The Shockers went 18-9 and played in the NIT after beating No. 6 Purdue, No. 2 Cincinnati (eventual NCAA champion) and No. 9 Bradley. Kansas State finished 1962 ranked No. 6 nationally with a 22-3 record. The next season, the Wildcats shared the Big Eight title led by Willie Murrell. The Shockers went 19-8 with wins over No. 1 Cincinnati, No. 2 Ohio State and No. 3 Loyola on their way to the NIT.

Wichita State's best team of the 1970's won the MVC in 1976 to advance to the NCAA Tournament with Johnson, Bob Elmore and Cal Bruton. The Wildcats went 20-8 in 1976 and played in the NIT with the star backcourt of Evans and Chuckie Williams.

Shocker coach Gene Smithson returned the program to prominence in the early 1980s with stars such as Carr and Cliff Livingston. Wichita State defeated Iowa and Kansas before losing to LSU the Elite Eight in 1981. That season, Kansas State, led by Blackman and Nealy, also advanced to the Elite Eight before losing to North Carolina. A meeting the next season would have been just as tantalizing — the Shockers went 23-6 and rose to No. 2 in the national rankings, while the Wildcats returned to the NCAA Tournament and finished 23-8.

In 2000, Turgeon won his debut game against Kansas State and started rebuilding the Shockers. He took them to the 2006 Sweet 16. The next season, both teams played in the Las Vegas Holiday Classic with the 9-0 Shockers ranked No. 8 and the Wildcats coached by Bob Huggins on their way to the NIT. A loss by Wichita State to New Mexico derailed that possible matchup.

Gregg Marshall and Frank Martin took over their programs in 2007 and quickly got the teams into post-season play. In 2011, the Shockers won the NIT while Martin's Wildcats played in the NCAA Tournament for the second straight season. In 2012, 2013 and 2014, both teams played in the NCAA Tournament. A Kansas State loss to LaSalle in 2013 kept them out of Wichita State's path to the Final Four. In 2014, Kentucky handled Kansas State before its game against the top-seeded Shockers in St. Louis. In 2017, Wichita State, with Shamet, Conner Frankamp and Markis McDuffie, made its sixth straight NCAA appearance. Kansas State returned to NCAA play after a two-year absence. In 2018, both teams also played in the NCAA Tournament.

On Sunday, the Shockers and Wildcats get back together. It is never too late to start making basketball memories in Kansas.

WICHITA STATE AT INTRUST BANK ARENA

Wichita State annually hosts a non-conference men's basketball date downtown. The list of Shocker foes includes Tulsa (2010), UAB (2011), Southern Miss (2012 & 2018), Tennessee (2013), Saint Louis (2014), Utah (2015), Oklahoma State (2016) and Oklahoma (2017 & 2019). WSU is 8-2 all-time at the arena and has played four games there in front of capacity crowds. In 2021, WSU will host Kansas State at INTRUST Bank Arena in the first meeting between the in-state rivals since 2003.

Dec. 21, 2010 -- WSU 82, Tulsa 79

WSU's first appearance in the new building came against its oldest rival. The crowd of 14,112 was, at the time, the largest to ever watch a college basketball game in Wichita. David Kyles hit three treys in the first two minutes of the game and scored 14 of the Shockers' first 16 points. Garrett Stutz added 20 points, and the Shockers sent the fans home happy.

Nov. 25, 2011 -- WSU 68, UAB 46

One of the best defensive performances of the Gregg Marshall era came in year-two of the downtown series, when WSU held a UAB team fresh off a Conference USA title and a No. 5 seed in the NCAA Tournament to just 46 points.

Dec. 22, 2012 -- WSU 59, Southern Miss 51

In another defensive masterpiece against a Southern Miss squad that would go on to post 27 wins, WSU overcame a 12-point second half deficit by limiting the Eagles to four points over the final eight minutes.

Dec. 14, 2013 -- #12 WSU 70, Tennessee 61

WSU clinched the best start in school history by beating eventual Sweet-16 qualifier Tennessee, 70-61, to improve to 10-0. Tekele Cotton led the way with 19 points.

Dec. 6, 2014 -- #8 WSU 81, Saint Louis 52

The Shockers posted the most lopsided win in INTRUST Bank Arena history in December of 2014, crushing defending Atlantic-10 champion, Saint Louis by 29 points.

Dec. 12, 2015 -- WSU 67, #25 Utah 50

WSU committed just three turnovers while forcing 19 in a 17-point rout of nationally-ranked Utah. Markis McDuffie connected on four of his five three-point attempts.

Dec. 17, 2016 -- Oklahoma State 93, WSU 76

Darral Willis Jr. scored 24 points and grabbed 13 rebounds (nine of them on the offensive glass), but the double-double wasn't enough to overcome a red-hot OSU, which knocked down 14 threes.

Dec. 16, 2017 -- Oklahoma 91, #3 Wichita State 83

Freshman standout Trae Young scored 29 points and dished out an arena-record 10 assists to lead a Sooner team that came in ranked 24th in the Coaches Poll. A consensus first team All-American, Young was selected No. 5 overall in the 2018 NBA Draft. WSU's Darral Willis Jr. became the first player with multiple 20-point games at the arena, finishing with his second double-double in as many trips (20 pts, 12 reb).

Dec. 15, 2018 -- Wichita State 63, Southern Miss 60

Jaime Echenique's alley-oop from Ricky Torres provided the go-ahead basket with 40.7 seconds left and the Shockers -- who had led by as many as 17 points near the 14:00-mark -- survived USM's comeback bid.

Dec. 14, 2019 -- Wichita State 80, Oklahoma 75

Down eight points with 11:25 to play, WSU launched a 12-0 run. Tyson Etienne's three-pointer with 2:30 remaining put the Shockers in front to stay. WSU went 15-of-16 at the foul line in the second half and finished the game +17 on the boards. Trey Wade scored 11 points and grabbed a game-high 15 rebounds.

THE NCAA TOURNAMENT AT INTRUST BANK ARENA

- ▶ INTRUST Bank Arena has twice hosted NCAA Tournament action (2011 women's first and second round and the 2018 men's first and second rounds) and will do so again in 2022 (women's Sweet 16 and Elite Eight) and 2025 (men's first and second rounds).
- ▶ 2018 marked the NCAA men's tournament's first stop in Wichita since 1994, and basketball fever swept through the city. Tickets for all three sessions sold out months in advance, and more than 13,000 fans turned out to watch free open practice sessions on the eve of the tournament.
- ▶ In its first Wichita appearance since 1992, No. 1 seed Kansas swept through Penn and Seton Hall to advance to the Sweet 16.
- ▶ No. 3 seed Michigan defeated Montana in the first round, then stunned No. 6 Houston two nights later, 64-63, on freshman Jordan Poole's three-point buzzer beater.
- ▶ Seton Hall's Angel Delgado (24 points and arena-record 23 rebounds) recorded only the fifth 20-20 game in the NCAA Tournament's modern era (1979-Present), joining UNC's Tyler Zeller (2012), Wake Forest's Tim Duncan (1997), Maryland's Joe Smith (1995) and Houston's Hakeem Olajuwon (1983).
- ▶ NC State's Allarik Freeman briefly held the arena scoring record after putting up 36 points in a first-round loss to Seton Hall. Less than four hours later, Houston's Rob Gray topped it with 39 in a 67-65 win over San Diego State. Gray also supplied the game winner, splitting three Aztec defenders for an acrobatic layup with less than a second to go.

OTHER BASKETBALL AT INTRUST BANK ARENA

- ▶ INTRUST Bank Arena has hosted 20 NCAA Division I basketball games since 2010. In addition to the 10 Wichita State games and six 2018 NCAA Tournament contests, Kansas State has hosted four times, most recently in 2017 against Tulsa.
- ▶ The NBA's Oklahoma City Thunder has staged four exhibitions against New Orleans (2011), Dallas (2012), Chicago (2013) and Toronto (2014).
- ▶ In 2011, the arena staged early rounds of the NCAA Women's Basketball Championships. Green Bay emerged from a four-team pod that also included Michigan State, Little Rock and Northern Iowa to punch its ticket to the Sweet 16.
- ▶ No basketball team has won more games at the arena than the Harlem Globetrotters, who improved to 10-0 with a Feb., 2019 victory over the Washington Generals.

HIT THE TARGET; WIN THE PRIZE

- » Shocker teams traditionally rebound and defend well, while taking good care of the basketball, allowing them to win games even when the ball doesn't go in the net. And when those shots do go in -- it's usually game over for the opposition.
- » Over the last three seasons, WSU is 34-3 when hitting over 40% from the field and 33-2 when making at least a third of its three-point tries.
- » The Shockers have won 33-straight games when out-shooting their opponent.
- » Over the last three seasons, the Shockers are 38-2 when scoring at least 65 points (compared to 7-13 when scoring less than 65).

FOR STARTERS:

- » After some early tinkering Isaac Brown has used the same starting lineup in each of the last four games.
- » Brown used the same starters for 107 of a possible 110 starts in 2020-21 (the largest percentage of a Shocker five in the 40+ years that WSU tracked starters). Tyson Etienne, Morris Udeze and Dexter Dennis started all 22 contests last year.
- » Last month, Ricky Council IV started twice in place of an under-the-weather Etienne, who returned to the starting lineup last Friday against Arizona.
- » Craig Porter Jr. replaced Qua Grant at point guard after a strong opening day effort against Jacksonville State and has started five-straight.
- » Dennis has the team's longest string of consecutive starts (42) going back to 2019-20, and Udeze has started 29-straight going back to the 2020-21 opener.

DOWN BUT NOT OUT

- » The Shockers have twice rallied from double-digit deficits to win games. They trailed by as many as 11 near the 16:00-mark of the second half against UNLV (Nov. 21) and found themselves in an early 10-0 hole on Dec. 1 at Oklahoma State. Their most-impressive comeback came in a loss to Arizona when they wiped out a 16-point margin with 16:00 to go and briefly took the lead before falling in overtime.
- » WSU is 2-1 this year when trailing at the half and 7-5 overall in parts of two seasons under Isaac Brown.
- » Under Brown, the Shockers are also 7-5 when tied or trailing at the 5:00-mark of the second half.

GOOD OVERTIMING

- » The Nov. 19 overtime loss to Arizona snapped a three-game OT winning streak for the Shockers. They're now 2-1 in that category under Isaac Brown, having won a pair of conference games during his debut season (Dec. 22, 2020 at South Florida and at home against UCF on Jan. 30, 2021).
- » The win over UCF last season marked just the ninth overtime game in the 18 seasons since Charles Koch Arena's renovation that the Shockers have gone to overtime on their home floor. They're 6-3.

DON'T NEED TO SHOOT WELL TO HAVE A SHOT

- » Good teams find a way to win when the shots aren't falling. Opening week games against Jacksonville State and South Alabama marked the 20th and 21st times in the last four seasons that WSU has won while shooting less than 40%. That total ranks second nationally behind Houston (22).

DEXTER CLEANS UP

- » Dexter Dennis has been the subject of many a viral video but usually due to his highlight reel dunking. After the Nov. 16 win over Tarleton, he took a few minutes to help the WSU cleanup crew bag trash in the stands. That random act of kindness was captured by one of the local TV stations and quickly found traction on social media channels.

GREAT OUT OF THE GATE

- » Isaac Brown has won more than three-quarters of his games as Shocker head coach (22-7). A win over K-State would give him the best 30-game start in the program's modern era, ahead of Gary Thompson (1964-65) and Eddie Fogler (1986-87).

4. Harry Miller	1971	16-13	L

REMAINING NON-CONFERENCE SCHEDULE:

- » The Shockers are set to close out a rugged five-game stretch that began Nov. 19 at the Roman Main Event against Arizona and UNLV and continued with road games at Mizzou and Oklahoma State. They're 3-1, thus far.
- » The Shockers play a trio of December home dates against HBCU schools: Norfolk State (Dec. 11), Alcorn State (Dec. 14) and Prairie View A&M (Dec. 22). Norfolk State won a First Four game last spring. Prairie View ran away with the SWAC regular season title but stumbled in the conference tournament.
- » Future AAC rival North Texas comes to Wichita on Dec. 18. The Mean Green upset Purdue to reach the second round of last year's NCAA tournament.

1 MORE TIME

- » Tyson Etienne is one of seven 2021 conference player of the year winners who are back for another go-around with their original teams and one of just two from a multi-bid league, along with Villanova's Collin Gillespie (Big East).
- » Etienne was just the fifth Shocker individual to win a conference player of the year award. A star-studded list features Antoine Carr (1983), Xavier McDaniel (1984 and 1985), Paul Miller (2006) and Fred Van-Vleet (2014 and 2016).

► RETURNING CONFERENCE PLAYERS OF THE YEAR FROM 2021

Year	Player	Opponent
A-Sun	Darius McGhee	Liberty
American	Tyson Etienne	Wichita St.
AEC	Ryan Davis	Vermont
Big East	Collin Gillespie	Villanova
NEC	Alex Morales	Wagner
Summit	Max Abmas	Oral Roberts
WAC	Fardaws Aimaq	Utah Valley

ART OF THE DEAL

- » While many college basketball players are enjoying new opportunities to cash in on their name, image and likeness, Tyson Etienne has taken a slightly different approach.
- » The Shocker guard is something of an artist, dabbling in drawing and urban photography. He even taught himself to play piano while in quarantine.
- » During the preseason Etienne hosted an art show in Wichita to show off some of his photos of downtown New York City during the COVID-19 pandemic and raise money for charities, including Starkey, a local nonprofit that serves people with disabilities.

DENNIS THE MENACE

- » 6-5 wing Dexter Dennis can also make a strong case as one of the nation's top defensive players, typically tasked with shutting down the opposing team's top scoring threat.
- » Dennis has all the physical tools. He's big, fast and can jump out of the gym. But his mental approach sets him apart. Dennis obsessively studies film and devours scouting reports leading into each matchup. Coach Isaac Brown often uses him as an example to younger players looking to earn minutes. While Dennis' shot hasn't been falling through the first month of the season, he rarely leaves the floor because of his contributions as a rebounder and defender.
- » Last year he faced a number of touted prospects, including Mizzou's Xavier Pinson and Oklahoma State's Cade Cunningham. Dennis held both well below their averages. Pinson scored just three points in 29 minutes. He was 1-of-13 from the field (0-for-7 from three). Cunningham came in averaging over 20 points but finished with 10 points on 11 shots.
- » Against Tulsa on Jan. 13, Dennis held second team all-conference pick Brandon Rachal to five points on 2-of-15 shooting (1-of-7 from three).
- » In two games last year, Tulane's All-AAC guard Jaylen Forbes averaged 7.0 points (10 under his season average) on 1-of-22 shooting against Dennis.
- » In WSU's Feb. 18 upset of Houston, Dennis limited AAC co-player of the year Quentin Grimes to 13 points on 12 shots.

FACT: BEARS EAT BEETS. SO DOES TYSON.

Tyson Etienne is the hardest-working player in Shocker history. That's not hyperbole. In a preseason profile piece, The Athletic's C.J. Moore detailed some of the lengths that WSU's second-time sophomore will go to become a better basketball player.

- » Etienne adopted a vegan diet last season. A nutritionist maps out his meal plans each week, and teammates have seen him consuming a wide variety of exotic foods in the locker room, including raw beets.
- » He doesn't drink alcohol but keeps a large jug of water on him at all times. His beverages of choice are pediatric and cherry tart juice.
- » In the off-season Etienne works out an average of 4-5 times-per-day.
- » He rarely stays up late, recognizing the connection between a good night's sleep and optimal performance.
- » He avoids video games but made an exception during the 2020 COVID quarantine when he began playing NBA 2K to help him make pick-and-roll reads.

A COUNCIL OF RICKYS

- » Despite the roman numeral after his name Ricky Council IV is only a second-generation "Ricky." The Shocker guard is the youngest of three boys, all named after their father.
- » The eldest brother, Ricky Council II, played at Providence and UMBC. Ricky Council III, played JUCO hoops at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M. Older sister, Rhianna, played at UNC-Greensboro.
- » To avoid confusion at home, the boys are referred to by number: "2," "3" and "4."
- » Council credits those older siblings for making him a tougher, more physical player.

HE'S AMBIDEXTEROUS

- » Fourth-year guard Dexter Dennis learned basketball as a lefthander but, after a wrist injury and two subsequent surgeries, now plays predominantly with his right. Dennis broke his left arm and dislocated his wrist as an eighth-grader while attempting to dunk. He needed a second operation and a junior to insert a screw and correct growth of the bone. While recovering from the latter, he began shooting with his right hand and soon found it more to his liking.

THE NEXT ONE OF THE GREAT ONES

- » WSU is looking for its next point guard after the departure of Alterique Gilbert, a UConn transfer who earned third team all-conference honors in his lone season in Wichita.
- » Craig Porter Jr. and Qua Grant have taken the majority of the reps this year. The Shockers are at their best when one or the other plays well.
- » WSU has had an all-conference point guard in its backcourt for nine of the last 12 seasons. Eight of those teams advanced to the NCAA tournament.
- » Junior college transfers Clevin Hannah (2010 MVC 1st Team) and Joe Ragland (2012 MVC 1st Team) started that run. Malcolm Armstead (2013 MVC HM), a senior transfer from Oregon, led the Shockers to the 2013 Final Four in his lone season. WSU had a pair of future NBA guards at the controls from 2013-16 with Fred VanVleet and 2016-18 with Landry Shamet.

GETTING TO THE POINT:

- » Qua Grant scored over 1,700 points in three seasons at Division II West Texas A&M and twice earned First Team All-American honors. His teams went a combined 85-8 with a national runner-up finish last spring.
- » Now the junior combo guard finds himself in an unfamiliar position -- coming off the bench. Grant started all 93 games for West Texas but has been a reserve for the Shockers.
- » Grant is still adjusting to larger and quicker defenders at the Division I level but has shown flashes of brilliance.
- » Grant's ballhawking skills have translated well. He averaged close to 2.0 steals-per-game for the Aggies and has been one of the keys to a WSU defense that ranks among the national leaders in takeaways.

KIND OF A BIG DEAL

- » The Shockers were precariously thin at the center position heading into last year, which made Morris Udeze's emergence a godsend. The 6-foot-8 junior spent the summer of 2020 drilling on his shooting technique and went on to average 10.3 points (up six from his sophomore season) and 4.7 rebounds while shooting over 60% from the floor. He scored a career-high 22 points in the NCAA tournament game against Drake. Udeze owed his dramatic improvement to a combination of health, hard work and opportunity. He was a starter early in his freshman year before undergoing season-ending shoulder surgery and took some time to get back to 100%. He spent his sophomore year backing up all-conference center Jaime Echenique.

- » Udeze was one of the nation's most-improved foul shooters last season. After sinking just 46% over his first two years (32-of-69), he spent the summer quarantine drilling on free throws and connected on 68% in 2020-21 (51-of-75, .680).

BELIEVING IN I.B.

- » Last spring, Isaac Brown became the first rookie head coach to earn an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament since Wisconsin's Greg Gard in 2016. Notably, Gard and Brown both began their respective seasons as interim head coach before winning the permanent job.

▶ AT-LARGE BIDS BY ROOKIE HEAD COACHES // LAST 15 YEARS

Year	Player	Opponent	Seed	Finish
2020	Isaac Brown	Wichita St.	11	First Four
2016	Greg Gard	Wisconsin	7	Sweet 16
2012	Dave Rice	UNLV	6	Rd. of 64
2010	Chris Mack	Xavier	6	Sweet 16
2009	Russ Pennell (Interim)	Arizona	12	Sweet 16
2008	Frank Martin	Kansas State	11	Rd. of 32
2007	Tony Bennett	Washington St.	3	Rd. of 32

- » Brown became the third Shocker head coach to lead WSU to an NCAA tournament in his first season at the helm, joined by Eddie Fogler (1987) and Gary Thompson (1965).

▶ WSU'S CONFERENCE COACH OF THE YEAR WINNERS

Year	Coach	Notable
1954	Ralph Miller	Led WSU to its first NIT appearance
1965	Gary Thompson	MVC Champs, NCAA Final Four
1987	Eddie Fogler	MVC COY, MVC Tourney Champ
2006	Mark Turgeon	MVC Champs, NCAA Sweet 16
2012	Gregg Marshall	MVC Champs, NCAA No. 5 seed
2013	Gregg Marshall	Final Four
2014	Gregg Marshall	MVC Champs, 35-1, National COY
2021	Isaac Brown	AAC Champs, NCAA First Four

- » Brown finished with the highest first-year winning percentage in WSU's modern era ahead of Thompson (1965) and Fogler (1987).
- » Thompson, a longtime Ralph Miller assistant, made an immediate splash. WSU spent a week at No. 1 in the national rankings, won the MVC and went on to play in its first Final Four. Fogler (a former UNC assistant under Dean Smith) took a veteran team to 22 wins and the MVC tournament title.

▶ SHOCKER HEAD COACHES // BEST FIRST-YEAR WINNING PERCENTAGE

TAKING CARE OF BUSINESS

- » Four of the Shockers' six losses in 2020-21 came to NCAA tournament teams: Drake, Houston, Missouri and Oklahoma State). A fifth came on the road to NIT Champion Memphis.
- » In the first three seasons since the NCAA Selection committee's switch to the Quadrant system (2018-19 to 2020-21), WSU teams went a combined 39-2 in Q3 & Q4 games. The only losses came to Louisiana Tech in the 2018-19 season opener and to Cincinnati in the 2021 AAC tournament semifinals.

MAKE WAY FOR MONZY

- » Terms like "scrappy" and "sparkplug" are usually reserved for the vertically or athletically-challenged, but it can just as easily be applied to the 6-foot-7 Clarence "Monzy" Jackson. He is described as a relentless rebounder who never gives up on the offensive glass. Brown calls him "his energy guy" often inserting Jackson into the lineup when he feels like the team could use a lift.
- » Due to an over abundance of Clarences in his family, Jackson's mother, Juanita, began calling him "Monzy" as a child, a play on his middle name (Le'Mon). The nickname stuck.
- » Jackson wore pink shoes last February in honor of his mother who is a breast cancer survivor.

A DIFFERENT KIND OF BENCH DEPTH

- » Isaac Brown's coaching and support staff hasn't seen much turnover since his November, 2020 promotion from assistant coach to head coach, although some of the roles shifted during his first full off-season.
- » Lou Gudino was elevated to Associate Head Coach and Tyson Waterman added the title of Recruiting Coordinator.
- » Gudino previously served as Associate Head Coach at Indiana State and New Mexico, helping both schools to NCAA tournament appearances.
- » Waterman's connections on the East Coast and WSU's affiliation with the AAC have opened up new recruiting pipelines. His list of signees include all-conference performers Tyson Etienne and Alterique Gilbert and a pair of AAC all-freshman picks in Dexter Dennis and Ricky Council IV.
- » Brown also has a veteran voice in Billy Kennedy, a successful head coach for 21 years, most recently at Texas A&M (2011-19) and Murray State (2006-11). Kennedy joined the staff last fall to help his former pupil, Brown, transition to the head coaching chair and elected to stay on for the next phase the journey.
- » The longest-tenured staffer, Director of Basketball Operations Dominic Okon is in his 15th season.

THE GODFATHER

- » Former NBA great Marcus Camby has been a frequent attendee at WSU while watching his godson, Tyson Etienne. Camby was an All-American at UMass and a four time NBA all-defensive team pick during a pro career that spanned 17 seasons.

LOOKING UP TO LILLARD

- » WSU sophomore Tyson Etienne's favorite NBA player is Portland Trailblazer Damian Lillard, a lightly-recruited combo guard who scored nearly 2,000 points during his All-American career at Weber State. ... "He's someone that I really look up to," Etienne told The Roundhouse's Paul Suellentop. "Just the way he plays and carries himself on the court. His story. He was overlooked, but he ended up becoming a lottery pick when it was all said and done. I definitely try to mold my game after him."

OF MICS AND MEN

- » Play-by-play announcer Mike Kennedy is in his 42nd season with the team. The 73-year-old began calling Shocker games full time during the 1980-81 Elite Eight season. He's missed just two games during that span (both in 2020-21 while quarantining due to COVID-19 protocols).
- » Kennedy and his home broadcast partner Dave Dahl, are now in their 41st year together and are Division I college basketball's longest-tenured duo. Dahl, a three-year varsity letterman at WSU from 1968-71, missed the 2011-12 season during a successful campaign for district court judge, but the tandem has otherwise been in place since 1980-81.

SHOCKER HISTORY LESSON

- » Five Shockers have their jersey numbers hanging in the rafters: #13 Cleo Littleton (1951-55), #42 Dave Stallworth (1961-65), #54 Cliff Levingston (1979-82), #35 Antoine Carr (1979-83) and #44 Xavier McDaniel (1981-85).
- » Teammates on WSU's first NCAA Tournament team in 1964, Stallworth and Nate Bowman teamed up again to help the 1970 New York Knicks to an NBA title.
- » McDaniel, Levingston and Carr all played more than a decade in the NBA. Levingston was a member of the Chicago Bulls' first two NBA Championship teams while playing alongside Michael Jordan. Carr helped the Utah Jazz to a pair of runner-up finishes in 1997 and 1998.
- » A member of the Naismith Memorial Basketball Hall of Fame, Ralph Miller won 220 games in 13 years on the Shocker bench (1951-64) and led the Shockers to their first NCAA Tournament in 1964. When Miller retired from Oregon State in 1989, at the close of a 38-year career, he was the eighth-winningest coach in NCAA history (674-370). In 1997, Miller was honored with the NABC Golden Anniversary Award, given to NABC members who have devoted at least 50 years of outstanding service to the game of basketball.

WHAT'S A WUSHOCK?

- » Legend has it, the name "Shockers" first appeared in 1904 on a poster advertising a football game between Wichita State (then known as Fairmount College -- and the Chillico Indian). The team's manager chose the name because many of the players earned money during the off-season harvesting (or "shocking") wheat in the surrounding fields. When it came time to bring the name to life, student's created WuShock, a big, band, muscle-bound bundle of wheat whose name id derived from a period in time when the school was simply Wichita University or "WU".

HONORING "DAVE THE RAVE" STALLWORTH

- » On Dec. 1, 2018, WSU formally dedicated a life-size, bronze statue of All-American Dave Stallworth near the southwest doors of Charles Koch Arena. Former teammates helped raise $200,000 toward the project.
- » Stallworth -- a three-time All-American who led the Shockers to their first NCAA Tournament in 1964 -- passed away in March, 2017.

PROLIFIC SHOCKERS

- » 23 former Shocker alumni are active in the professional ranks and three took part in this year's NBA preseason.
- » Fred VanVleet is in his sixth season with the Toronto Raptors and the second of a four-year, $85 million deal. It's the largest contract in NBA history for a player who went undrafted out of college. VanVleet helped lead the Raptors to the 2019 NBA title.
- » This October, fourth-year guard Landry Shamet signed a lucrative contract extension of his own with the Phoenix Suns that will pay him $43 million over four years. The three-point sharp-shooter was traded to Phoenix on Draft Day 2021. He shot just under 40% from three over the last three years with the 76ers, Clippers and Nets.
- » 2020 graduate Jaime Echenique came close to playing his way onto an NBA roster this fall after spending the preseason with the Washington Wizards. He's currently with the club's G-League affiliate, the Capital City Go-Go and is hoping to become the first Colombian to ever play in the NBA.
- » Since 2013, six different Shockers have appeared in an NBA regular season game. In addition to VanVleet and Shamet, Ron Baker played parts of three seasons with the Knicks and Wizards (2016-19) before retiring due to mounting injuries. Toure' Murry saw time with the Knicks, Jazz and Wizards from 2013-15, Cleanthony Early was drafted by the Knicks and played for two years in New York (2014-16) and Mekel did tours with the Mavericks and Pelicans (2013-15).
- » Conner Frankamp has climbed the professional ladder over the last four years to reach the EuroLeague (the world's best outside of the NBA). After stops in Bulgaria, Greece and Spain he's signed with Zenit Saint Petersburg for the 2021-22 season.
- » Clevin Hannah (Class of 2010) and Gal Mekel (2008) never played together at WSU but will be teammates in 2021-22 for MoraBanc Andorra in Spain.

- » Wichita State's on-campus home, Charles Koch Arena [pronounced "Coke"], is often referred to as "the Roundhouse" for its unique circular shape. The building opened in December, 1955 and the 2021-22 season marks its 66th season of use.
- » The Shockers have won over three-quarters of their games in the arena all-time, at 742-226.
- » WSU's rise to national relevance began in 2003 with the completion of the Roundhouse Renaissance. A $25 million dollar construction project turned an aging Henry Levitt Arena into one of college basketball's best home environments. The building reopened as Charles Koch Arena for the start of the 2003-04 season.
- » In the 16 seasons since the renovation, the Shockers are 240-44 on campus.
- » WSU is 111-11 at CKA going back to the start of the 2013-14 season... 83 games in that stretch have come in front of capacity crowds (10,506).
- » Throw in an 8-2 record at downtown INTRUST Bank Arena, and WSU is 157-19 (.892) overall in Wichita in the last 12 seasons (2010-11 to present).
- » A streak of 244-consecutive regular season crowds of 10,000+ ended this year when local health restrictions forced the Shockers to cap capacity at 100. The streak lasted just shy of 16 years (Dec. 2004 to Dec. 2020).
- » WSU's home court advantage is owed largely to the school's passionate fan base, with a little assist from science. The arena's circular shape and highly-reflective dome roof amplifies sound and funnels it downward toward center court. During the 2018 finale against Cincinnati, decibel meter readings peaked at 120 db.
- » The Shockers have won 11-straight AAC home games dating back to last February. That's the league's second-longest active streak behind Houston.

HOME ALONE

- » WSU broke a seemingly unbreakable record this year. Prior to 2020, the all-time low crowd for a Shocker game at the Roundhouse (1955-pr.) was 2,477 (Feb. 1, 1960 against North Texas). Record-low since the 2003 renovation came vs. Buffalo (6,647) in the 2009 CBI.
- » The Shockers played their first two games last season behind closed doors before jumping to 525 fans (5% capacity) on Dec. 12 against Oklahoma State, 1,050 (10%) for the Dec. 18 Emporia State contest and 1,575 (15%) on Dec. 30 against Newman. Capacity increased to 20% for January games. WSU's band and mascot made their return on Feb. 3 and capacity went to 25% for the Feb. 7 contest against Temple (2,625).

Head Coach

ISAAC BROWN

College basketball's best feel-good story of the 2020-21 season earned a well-deserved sequel.

Isaac Brown returns for his second go-around as Wichita State's head coach after acing a four-month trial as the program's interim leader.

Brown took over just eight days before the season opener, but earned the job on a permanent basis after leading a Shocker team picked seventh to its first American Athletic Conference regular season title, as well as an at-large berth to the NCAA tournament. He was a unanimous choice for the league's coach of the year award.

Known around the game as a player's coach and all-around people person, Brown also proved himself resourceful in 2020-21. After opening the year 1-2 while playing and practicing shorthanded due to the COVID-19 protocol, his Shockers went on to win 14 of their next 16 games, including an upset of sixth-ranked and Final Four-bound Houston on Feb. 18.

Shortly after, Director of Athletics Darron Boatright replaced Brown's interim tag with a five-year contract.

On Mar. 1, 2021, Brown was introduced as the 26th full-time head coach in Shock-er history and the state of Kansas' first black head men's basketball coach.

WSU went on to finish 16-6 (11-2 AAC). With its berth in the First Four, Brown became the first rookie head coach to lead a team to the Big Dance since Wisconsin's Greg Gard in 2016.

Brown was tabbed NABC District 24

Coach of the Year and was a finalist for a handful of national coaching honors, including the Jim Phelan Award (national coach of the year), Joe B. Hall Award (top first-year head coach) and the Ben Job Award (top minority head coach).

Shocker guards thrived in Brown's system with sophomore Tyson Etienne earning the conference's co-player of the year honor. In addition, senior point guard Alterique Gilbert was third team all-conference and Ricky Council IV made the all-freshman team.

Brown, 52, is in his eighth season overall at WSU -- the first six as an assistant under Gregg Marshall -- and his 20th at the Division I level, having also served as an assistant at Louisiana Tech (2011-14), Arkansas State (2010-11), Arkansas (2007-10) and South Alabama (2002-07).

Combined Brown helped lead those five programs to 11 20-win seasons in 18 years with eight conference regular season titles, two conference tournament championships and 10 postseason appearances. Along the way he coached 58 all-conference selections and six NBA players.

The Shockers' 2021 American Athletic Conference title gives Brown championship rings from five different leagues (AAC, WAC, C-USA, MVC, Sun Belt).

WSU won over three-quarters of its games during Brown's time as a Shocker assistant (2014-20), going 157-50 (.758), highlighted by four-straight NCAA tournament bids (2014-18) and a run to the 2019 NIT semifinals.

NABC DISTRICT 24 COACH OF THE YEAR

In addition to Marshall, Brown has learned from a number of college basketball's top minds, including current Florida head coach Mike White at Louisiana Tech (2011-14). At Arkansas State he worked with a pair of Final Four coaches in head coach John Brady (LSU, 2006) and assistant coach Richard Williams (Mississippi State, 1996). Brown also spent eight years under John Pelphrey at South Alabama (2007-10).

His proximity to success is no coincidence. A 2020 Stadium writeup named Brown as one of The American's top assistant coaches. In 2019 he was invited to participate in the Top-Connect program, designed to identify and train future leaders in the college basketball coaching world.

As an assistant, Brown's work with the Shocker big men was noteworthy. WSU led its conference in rebound margin in four straight seasons from 2014-15 to 2017-18 and ranked second nationally in that category in each of the last two years.

Brown's most-recent big man success story is Jaime Echenique, a 6-11 center who came off the bench in junior college but developed into an all-conference performer for WSU. Echenique led the team in scoring and rebounding as a senior in 2019-20 and finished his career ranked among the school's all-time top-10 in blocked shots, despite playing just two seasons. In the summer of 2021, Echenique parlayed a strong showing in the Las Vegas League into a contract with the Washington Wizards.

Brown is a member of the Hall of Fame at Mississippi Gulf Coast CC. He was an all-region and all-state performer for the Bulldogs, averaging over 16 points and 7 assists as a sophomore. After a year at Texas A&M he finished his collegiate career at Northeast Louisiana (now La. Monroe), where helped the Warhawks to a 26-5 finish and the Southland Conference regular season and tournament titles. He scored 14 points on 3-of-5 three-point shooting in his final game -- an NCAA tournament loss to Iowa.

Brown earned his bachelor's in health and physical education from ULM in 1995.

32		<h1>JOE PLEASANT</h1>
		6-7	231	F	OVERLAND PARK, KAN.

OVERVIEW

2021-22 (Junior II):

Second Team All-Southland Conference performer transfers to WSU with two seasons of eligibility remaining.

Isaac Brown on Pleasant:

"Joe is a great kid, an excellent student and a clutch performer, as we witnessed during March Madness when he nailed two game-winning free throws against Texas. He shoots, passes and handles the ball well, which allows him to play multiple forward spots. Joe is the type of guy who can really stretch a defense because he can score it from just about anywhere. We think he'll be a great fit here."

Wichita St.	23	37	-	60

- » Tyson Etienne's deep, deep three broke a 57-all tie with 2.2 seconds remaining and helped WSU get by Jacksonville State in the season opener.
- » After JSU tied the game at 57 with 20 seconds to play, Etienne did the expected -- running down the clock for a final shot -- followed by the unexpected -- calmly swishing the game-winner from the edge of the center court logo (officially 31-feet-9.5-inches).
- » Neither side led by more than half-a-dozen points.
- » Etienne finished with a game-high 16. His heroics came on a night when he and his teammates otherwise struggled from long range. Prior to the last shot, he had made just 1-of-6 threes and WSU was a chilly 3-of-21.
- » Dexter Dennis added 14 points and a team-high eight boards for WSU, which shot 38.6% but converted 12-of-14 free throws, including 11-of-12 after halftime.
- » Freshman big man Kenny Pohto missed shoot around due to illness but stepped up with eight points on three dunks, two steals and a block in 18 minutes.
- » Kayne Henry paced JSU with 15 points on 4-of-5 three-point shooting and Darian Adams added 14 points and eight assists.
- » The Gamecocks shot 42.3% including 8-of-20 from distance but converted just 5-of-11 at the foul line.
- » The Shockers outrebounded the Gamecocks 37-31 and outscored them 15-4 on second-chance opportunities. They also won the turnover battle, forcing 17 while committing just 11. Eight different Shockers combined for 10 steals.
