WELCOME TO WICHITA STATE

The Official 2023 Wichita State Softball Fact Book has been prepared by the Office of Athletic Communications to assist you in your coverage of Wichita State Softball.

The communications office maintains information on all current student-athletes as well as historical information on former student-athletes, events and athletic personnel. Please note the media/public policy regarding practice interviews and postgame procedure.

CREDENTIALS

All requests for working press, radio, television, photography or scouting credentials and parking passes should be made by emailing Weston Pletcher (wpletcher@goshockers.com) at least 24 hours before game time. Press box seating at Wilkins Stadium, home of Shocker Softball, is for working media only. All space for the working press, radio and television is allocated by the Wichita State Communications Office, which reserves the right to deny credentials to any outlet. Spouses, dates, children and non-workers are restricted from the press box. Any abuse of a working credential will result in the media agency losing credential privileges.

Gameday Parking at Wilkins Stadium
Media parking at Wilkins Stadium is available on a first-come first-served basis in the lot outside the entrance to the stadium. Further parking is available to the North outside Eck Stadium [Baseball]. Please contact the media relations office for further information.

Gameday Seating/Services
Seating at press row will be granted on a priority basis with Wichita State working staff, daily newspapers, and originating radio and television networks receiving first consideration. Press row is located beneath the home plate bleachers. Pregame notes packages, flipcards and updated statistics are available before each game and can be obtained inside the press box.Game statistics/box scores will be distributed at the end of each game as soon as time allows.

Ethernet
Ethernet connections are available on a first-come, first-served basis in the working press box.

Photographers
Only accredited photographers on assignment will be allowed on the playing surface at Wilkins Stadium. Photographers are not allowed in either dugout and are asked to remain away from the field of play during the game.

Shockers on the Air
Each Wichita State softball game is scheduled to be broadcast live over the internet through Shocker HD, the link can be found at goshockers.com.
Steve Strain will be the play-by-play commentator for the second straight year with former Shocker star Jamie Bredbenner as the color commentator.

Interview Requests
All player interview requests must be made through the Communications Office. Please make your interview requests a day in advance to allow adequate time in arranging the appointment. Media wishing to attend practice are advised to call the communications office in advance to find out practice times/locations. Interviews may be conducted before or after practice at the coaches discretion. Following each home game, head coach Kristi Bredbenner will be available for comment to the right side of the field, just down from first base past the home dugout.
After a brief cooling off period, requested players will be available to accredited members of the media for player interviews in the same location. The Softball locker room will be closed.

WILKINS STADIUM MASTER PLAN

Wichita State will embark on a $7.3 million Phase 1 renovation of Wilkins Stadium, home of Shocker softball, that will be made possible in part through a substantial $1.1 million estate gift from long-time Shocker athletic supporter and fan Linda Parke and a generous $100,000 gift from Jeanie and Ricky Brotherton.

"Over the last 18 months, Wichita State University has strategically invested significant resources in our softball program, intending to maximize immediate support and compliment the competitive growth our coaches and student-athletes have worked so hard to achieve," said Wichita State Director of Athletics Kevin Saal. "From renewed commitments to Coach Bredbenner and her staff, to new batting cages, lights, future home dugout and synthetic grass surface (to be installed upon conclusion of the 2023 season), we have invested over two-million dollars in our softball program."

The Wilkins Stadium master plan project will bring state of the art training and playing facilities to Wichita State softball student-athletes and coaches. The renovations include a 12,471 square-foot team complex which includes a locker room, coaches locker room, classroom, team room, athletic training room, staff offices, break room, work room, umpire locker rooms and laundry area. It will also include a 14,400 square-foot indoor practice facility that will feature a full indoor infield and batting cages along with storage areas and viewing areas for coaches. Turf will also be installed in the outfield and on the warning track, foul territory and apron areas at Wilkins Stadium in June of 2023.

Fan amenities include an enclosed concourse with a grand front entrance, berm outfield seating, a new scoreboard with videoboard, expanded seating areas, suites and press box, ticket office, concession stands, additional restrooms, merchandise store, fan netting and outfield suites. There will be a variety of seating options for 1,500 fans including chairback seating, bleacher seating and berm outfield seating as well as a new entryway into the parking lot connected to Wilkins Stadium.

The stadium renovation will also include a field technology area, spaces for the media, radio and TV booths, control room for the videoboard and a multi-use suite that can be used for multiple types of groups including recruiting events, team events, private companies, community members and other large groups.

The single-story team complex will be constructed on the southwest corner of Wilkins Stadium with the indoor practice facility built just north of the team complex.

"The investment the University is making into Wilkins Stadium and the softball program is phenomenal," said Head Softball Coach Kristi Bredbenner. "Fans of Wichita State athletics are one of the foundations of this athletic department and support outside of the cheers in the stands will give our student-athletes an opportunity to play and practice in a world-class facility. Over the last several years there has been a movement to support female sports. We are thrilled and thankful to have a lifelong female Shocker fan like Linda Parke provide a leadership gift in support of Phase I of the project. We cherish the relationship we have built with Ricky and Jeanie Brotherton and appreciate the investments they continue to make to the Shocker Softball program. The growth of Shocker Softball is a testament to all of the former and current student-athletes that have worked hard to leave the program better than they found it. I can't wait for each and every one of them to see the fruits of their labor and for our fans to pack the stadium to cheer on this program."

Bredbenner has been Wichita State's softball coach for the last 11 seasons and transformed the program into one of the top programs in the Midwest, consistently vying for NCAA Regional bids. Her record during that time is 320-252-1, including a 75-31-1 mark over the last two seasons, which could be considered the best two seasons in program history. She became Wichita State's all-time winningest coach in 2022 when she recorded her 314th career victory. Since joining the American Athletic Conference, Bredbenner's teams are 56-27-1 in league play.

"Since July of 2022, and in parallel with our recent investments, Wichita State University and Shocker Athletics have engaged in a comprehensive facility master planning process for Wilkins Stadium," Saal said. "These efforts provide a definitive plan through which we intend to build a consistent championship-level softball program positioned to maximize student-athlete development, recruitment and retention. In the coming months, we will remain laser-focused on acquiring the resources necessary to fuel our bold and progressive plans for Shocker Softball."

Minimum estimates for the Wilkins Stadium master plan project currently stand at approximately $17.5 million. GLMV Architecture and facility planners are completing design concepts and planning to build in phases.

Phase 1 of the project would include the softball team facility and the indoor practice facility at $7.3 million, Phase 2 would include the entrance/press box/ticket office and seating areas at $1.9 million, Phase 3 would include the remodeling of existing facilities/seating/fan experience elements at $3.5 million and Phase 4 would include the outfield area/event pavilions and paving at $700,000.

Construction estimates place the total at $13.4 million, with an additional $3.4 million for project soft costs, and $750,000 for the videoboard to put the total project at $17.5 million.

RICHARD MUMA

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY PRESIDENT

Richard (Rick) Muma was named the 15th president of Wichita State University on May 6, 2021.

Muma, who goes by Rick, was born in Wichita but raised in Houston. He earned a Bachelor of Science in Physician Assistant Studies from the University of Texas Medical Branch-Galveston, a Master of Public Health in Community Health from the University of Texas Health Science Center-Houston, and a Ph.D. in higher education administration from the University of Missouri-St. Louis.

He has more than 30 years of experience as a professor, administrator and physician assistant in internal medicine and infectious diseases.

Before assuming the presidency, Muma was executive vice president and provost of Wichita State, serving as the university's chief academic officer and providing academic leadership for the university's priorities – including enrollment, applied learning, funded research, and regional economic development.

While at Wichita State, he has also served as senior associate vice president for Academic Affairs and Strategic Enrollment Management and chair and professor in the departments of Public Health Sciences and Physician Assistant. Muma has also served as chair for Saint Louis University's Department of Physician Assistant Education and an assistant professor at the University of Texas Medical Branch-Galveston's Department of PA Studies.

Prior to assuming administrative roles at Wichita State, Muma was active in reshaping health profession education at Wichita State. Most notably, he was responsible for developing undergraduate degrees for paramedics and health science majors, a master's degree in physician assistant studies, and reorganizing the Department of Public Health Sciences to include undergraduate degrees in health management and health science and a graduate degree in aging studies.

Muma has published his research in notable journals and has edited four books, two on HIV infection and two others on patient education.

KEVIN SAAL

WICHITA STATE UNIVERSITY DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS

Kevin Saal was named Director of Athletics at Wichita State University on Wednesday, June 15, 2022.

Saal had been athletic director at Murray State University since March 2019.

In his role as Director of Athletics, Saal will be responsible for managing, planning and directing the operations of the university's intercollegiate athletics programs. He will also be responsible for managing oversight of sponsorships, fundraising, partnerships, marketing, public relations, strategic planning, compliance, academics, student-athlete development and performance, Name Image and Likeness (NIL), and hiring and mentoring coaches.

Saal, 44, is from Kansas. He worked at Kansas State University from 2000-05, where he was event coordinator and had administrative responsibilities supporting men's and women's golf and rowing. From 2005-07, Saal was director of operations at the University of Missouri-Kansas City.

In 2000, Saal received his master's degree in athletics administration from the University of Kansas, after spending time at the University of Arkansas – where he was a swimming and diving student-athlete – and Texas Christian University, where he earned his bachelor's in psychology. Saal is also nearing completion of his Doctorate in Education with a focus on P-20 and Community Leadership.

Saal and his wife Jennifer – also a native of Kansas– have two college-age sons: Jacob and Alex. Kevin and Jennifer are looking forward to their return to Kansas.

The American Athletic Conference consists of 12 prestigious institutions: the University of Central Florida, the University of Cincinnati, East Carolina University, the University of Houston, the University of Memphis, the U.S. Naval Academy (in football only), the University of South Florida Southern Methodist University, Temple University, Tulane University, the University of Tulsa, and Wichita State University (in basketball and Olympic sports).

Under the leadership of commissioner Mike Aresco, the American Athletic Conference has an impressive list of accomplishments, both in the competitive arena and the classroom. The American has taken its place at the forefront of intercollegiate athletics, with a collection of national team and individual championships and football and men's and women's basketball postseason victories that place The American among the elite Division I FBS conferences.

The American Athletic Conference was one of six finalists for the 2016 Sports Business Journal Sports League of the Year award, along with Major League Baseball, Major League Soccer, NASCAR, the National Basketball Association and the PGA Tour.

The American Athletic Conference holds media rights partnerships with ESPN and CBS Sports, which provide the conference with outstanding national exposure on the two industry leaders in sports television. In men's basketball, the television deal calls for all conference-controlled games to be televised, with more than 63 percent slotted for national broadcast or national cable - a minimum of 107 games. The entire postseason tournament is televised, including the championship game, which is on ABC or ESPN. Sixty percent of the American's women's basketball games are carried on national cable, regional sports networks or ESPN3, while the conference has a multi-year agreement with CBS Sports Network for coverage of select baseball games.

The American Athletic Conference serves its membership from a state-of-the-art office located in Providence, Rhode Island. The location of the conference headquarters - just steps from the city's Amtrak station and 10 minutes from T.F. Green International Airport - gives the conference easy access to its member schools. The conference headquarters also serves as the home of the American Digital Network, which provides live coverage of all 21 conference championships.

A new journey began for Wichita State Athletics July 1, as the Shockers officially joined the American Athletic Conference.

The move to The American presents the opportunity to regularly test Shocker student-athletes against traditionally strong competition, on a grander stage. This new chapter in Shocker Athletics is expected to provide excitement and challenges for the 15 programs that will compete in The American.

"This is the end of one phase and the beginning of another," said Darron Boatright, Wichita State Director of Athletics. "We're going to continue to push, we're going to continue to grow. We're going to continue to have the same expectations for our athletic department, our teams, our student-athletes and coaches, as we always have."

Wichita State athletic teams have excelled recently on the national stage. Men's basketball has made it to the NCAA Tournament six straight seasons and 14 times overall. The Shocker volleyball team has been to the NCAA Tournament nine of the last 10 years and 10 times in program history. The softball team recorded its first ever NCAA Tournament win in 2016 in the Oklahoma Regional. The Shockers have won Missouri Valley Conference Championships in all 15 of Wichita State's Division I sports. In 2015-16, WSU collected a school-record nine MVC team Championships (volleyball, men's basketball, women's golf, men's indoor and outdoor track & field, women's outdoor track & field, softball, men's tennis and women's tennis).

The Shockers sponsor 15 varsity sports. Men's sports include baseball, basketball, cross country, golf, tennis and indoor and outdoor track and field. Women's sports include basketball, cross country, golf, softball, tennis, indoor and outdoor track and field and volleyball. Wichita State participates in every sport sponsored by The American except football, rowing, soccer, swimming and diving and The American sponsors every sport the Shockers participate in.

"I want our student-athletes to compete for championships," said the late Wichita State President Dr. John Bardo. "I want them to be on the national stage, because that's why they do what they do. Joining The American gives us that opportunity."

COACHING STAFF

KRISTI BREDBENNER

HEAD SOFTBALL COACH | 12TH SEASON

Kristi Bredbenner is entering her 12th season as the Wichita State head softball coach. To date, Bredbenner has led the Shockers to four NCAA Regional Appearances (2016, 2018, 2021, 2022) including two NCAA Regional Finals (2018, 2021).

Bredbenner led Wichita State to the program's third regular season conference championship in 2021, and the program's first in the American Athletic Conference. Bredbenner is responsible for two of the program's three conference tournament championships in 2016 and 2021.

On April 24, 2022, Bredbenner became Wichita State's all-time winningest coach when she recorded her 314th career win.

For the first time in program history Wichita State punched its ticket to consecutive NCAA Regional appearances after earning an at-large bid to the 2022 NCAA Fayetteville Regional. The 2022 Shockers were among the nation's best offensive teams for a second straight season. Wichita State ranked second nationally in home runs, home runs per game, scoring, slugging percentage and on base percentage, while ranking third in batting average.

Bredbenner is also responsible for coaching the only two All-Americans in school history (Addison Barnard and Sydney McKinney). Barnard crushed her way even more into the Wichita State record books, while also adding her name to the NCAA record books. McKinney became the first two-time All-American after another sensational season for the Black & Yellow.

The 2021 campaign will go down as one of the best seasons in school history. Under Bredbenner's guidance, Wichita State tied the school record with a 13-game win streak during the season; and broke several single season records. Wichita State shattered the single season record for home runs with 103, while also setting new marks in RBI, runs scored, total bases and slugging percentage. McKinney was named the American Player of the Year, becoming the second Shocker to earn that title. Barnard was tabbed the Rookie of the Year and Kaylee Huecker took home Defensive Player of the Year honors. Additionally, the Shockers placed four on the All-Conference First Team (Barnard, McKinney, Madison Perrigan and Neleigh Herring). Bredbenner and her coaching staff also earned American Coaching Staff of the Year honors.

McKinney also became the program's first-ever NFCA All-American in 2021, earning third team honors after ranking third in the nation in hits and posting a school record .439 batting average.

Wichita State won six games vs. ranked opponents in 2021 - another school record - including a win at No. 6 Oklahoma State, the highest ranked win in school history. The Shockers also cracked the Top 25 in all four of the major polls for the first time in school history. Wichita State was ranked as high as No. 23 in the NFCA Coaches Poll.

Under Bredbenner, 41 student-athletes have earned all-conference accolades and 16 NFCA All-Region honors.

During the 2018 season, Wichita State's inaugural season in the American Athletic Conference, Bredbenner led the Shockers to a tied for third position in the regular season, falling in the opening round of the conference tournament to the eventual champions. After scheduling the 9th toughest non-conference slate in the NCAA, the Shockers earned the programs second ever at-large bid in school history to the NCAA Tournament. While at the Fayetteville Regional the Shockers picked up two wins over Oklahoma State in back-to-back days to earn a spot in the Regional Championship for the first time in school history.

During conference play, the Wichita State bats dominated The American by leading the league in batting average, slugging percentage, runs scored, hits, RBI's, doubles, home runs and total bases.

Individually, six Shocker athletes were named All-Conference, including 2018 AAC Player of the Year Mackenzie Wright, who became the third WSU athlete in history to earn All-Conference honors all four years of their career. Laurie Derrico and Bailey Lange also tabbed first team all-conference honors while Ryleigh Buck and Paige Luellen were tabbed to the second team.

In her first three seasons, Bredbenner took the Shockers from a 15-40 record in 2012 to a 34-21 record in 2014, culminating in the first Missouri Valley Conference regular season championship in school history earning the entire Shocker coaching staff the 2014 MVC Coaching Staff of the Year award.

As a team, the Shockers broke several team records in 2014 including the following: highest team batting average (.314 average)—was previously set at .305 in 1978, highest slugging percentage (.492 average)—was previously set at .446 in 1978, runs scored (314)—was previously set at 293 runs scored in 2005, most hits (472)—was previously set at 458 hits in 2005, and home runs (56)—was previously set at 52 home runs in 2005.

WSU also set new records in runs batted in (291)—was previously set at 268 RBI in 2005, total bases (740)—was previously set at 710 total bases in 2005, tied for the most doubles in a season (82), tied for the highest on-base percentage average (.389).

Individually, 2014 saw the Shockers send three to the All-MVC First Team (Cacy Williams, Melanie Jaegers and Brittany Fortner) and one to the All-MVC Second Team (Paige Luellen).

Williams was named the 2014 MVC Player of the Year and the 2014 MVC Newcomer of the Year as well, the first time in MVC history that the same student-athlete won both awards during the same season.

In 2013, the program began to take Bredbenner's vision. The Shockers were 19-33, a four-win improvement from 2012. Wichita State won five more games at home (7) than in 2012 (2) and won three more games in the Valley (10) than in 2012 (7). Wichita State also advanced to the first round of the MVC Tournament for the first time in two seasons, and the 2013 season marked the first MVC Tournament appearance under Bredbenner. Erin Carney was named to the All-MVC First Team as Brianne Bond, Carney, Jaegers, and Megan McCracken were each named MVC Scholar-Athlete Honorable Mention.

Wichita State's offense improved in several categories from 2012 to 2013. The Shockers raised their team batting average from .231 (2012) to .243 (2013), their slugging percentage from .328 (2012) to .369 (2013), walks from 87 (2012) to 112 (2013), and on base percentage from .292 (2012) to .316 (2013).

From a pitching standpoint, the Shockers' team ERA dropped from 5.37 (2012) to 3.92 (2013). WSU's total hits allowed dropped from 469 (2012) to 412 (2013), runs allowed from 321 (2012) to 247 (2013), home runs allowed from 64 (2012) to 41 (2013), and batting average against from .322 (2012) to .296 (2013). The Shocker softball pitching staff increased strikeouts from 159 (2012) to 207 (2013), and had 25 outings of three runs or less, including four shutouts.

In Bredbenner's first season at Wichita State, offset by numerous injuries to key starters and a lack of experience, Wichita State compiled a 15-40 record. Eight underclassmen made at least 27 starts for WSU. Bredbenner coached freshman Sydney Stuever and sophomore Rachel Milnark to the All-MVC Second Team. The young players were thrown right into the fire as a difficult early schedule prohibited them from easing into the college game. The Shockers played four of the eight teams that participated in the 2011 Women's College World Series including two games each against defending champion Arizona State and 2011 WCWS runner-up Oklahoma.

She previously coached at Emporia State University and joined Wichita State for the 2012 season after leading the Hornets to six straight postseason appearances. When she left Emporia State to join the Shockers, she was Emporia State's winningest head softball coach and the active NCAA Division II wins leader as a head softball coach.

Bredbenner led the Lady Hornets to two national championship appearances in 2006 and 2008, five regular season MIAA titles and five straight MIAA tournament championships. She also led Emporia State to the NCAA Tournament in each of her seasons as their head softball coach. While at Emporia State, Bredbenner was the MIAA Coach of the Year in 2007, 2008 and 2010, and her coaching staff was named NFCA Regional Coaching Staff of the Year in 2006 and 2008. Bredbenner also coached some of her student-athletes to Louisville Slugger/ NFCA All-America honors, MIAA MVP honors, MIAA Pitcher of the Year honors, All-MIAA First Team, Second Team and Honorable Mention honors, MIAA Freshman of the Year honors and MIAA Academic Honor Roll honors.

As a player, Bredbenner was a four-time All-MIAA pick, two-time Division II All-American and was named MVP of the conference in 2000. In her four years at Truman she claimed nearly every hitting record, including career and single season records for games played, at bats, hits, doubles, home runs, total bases, RBI's, walks, batting average, and slugging percentage. Her three home run day against the Hornets on April 7, 2000 is tied for fourth all-time on the Division II single game list.

The O'Fallon, Mo., native graduated from Truman in 2001 with a bachelor's degree in business/marketing and received her master's degree in physical education from Azusa Pacific University.

2017-2021	Wichita State Assistant Coach
2021-Pres.	Wichita State Associate Head Coach

Elizabeth Economon is entering her sixth season on staff as the hitting coach and second as associate head coach for the Shocker softball program.

Under Economon's guidance, the Shockers have consistently fielded one of the best hitting programs, not only in the American Athletic Conference, but in the country. After overseeing a 2021 team that set new single season records for home runs, slugging percentage, total bases, runs and RBI, Wichita State exceeded those numbers in 2022.

In 2021, Wichita State ranked in the top 15 nationally in home runs, home runs per game, slugging percentage, on base percentage, scoring and walks. In 2022, the Shockers' explosive offensive checked in at No. 2 nationally in home runs, home runs per game, slugging percentage, scoring and on base percentage. Their .348 team batting average was third-best in the nation.

Economon has helped Wichita State to back-to-back American Athletic Conference Player of the Year selections in Addison Barnard (2022) and Sydney McKinney (2021). McKinney became the first two-time All-American in school history after another record-breaking campaign in 2022. McKinney finished the season No. 1 nationally in hits (97) and batting average (.522), becoming the first Shocker to lead the country in either of those areas.

Economon was recognized as the 2022 Assistant Coach of the Year by ExtraInning Softball.

In Economon's first season with the program as the hitting coach, the Shocker squad dominated every batting category during American Athletic Conference play by leading the league in batting average, slugging percentage, RBI's, doubles, home runs and total bases. She helped coach 2018 American Athletic Conference Player of the Year Mackenzie Wright who individually led The American in batting average during league play.

Economon helped lead the Shockers to their second NCAA Regional appearance and to the first Regional Championship game in school history. Under her coaching the 2018 Shocker squad hit 59 home runs, the most in a single season in softball history.

After serving as the Head Coach for the Pittsburg State softball program from 2012-17, Economon led the Gorillas to a 42-19 record and an appearance in the NCAA Division II Central Regional in her final year. It was the first National Tournament appearance for the Gorillas since 1995.

She led the Gorillas to a 204-131 overall record in her six-year tenure and under her leadership the Gorillas won more than 28 games each season.

Four players earned All-America honors while 37 earned all-conference honors and 12 were named all-region during her tenure.

Economon began her coaching career as an assistant coach for Truman, her alma mater in Kirksville, Mo., from 2005-06. From there she spend time at New Mexico in 2006 and served as the volunteer assistant coach for the Lobos under Ty Singleton.

Following her time as a volunteer assistant, Economon took on head coaching duties at V. Sue Cleveland High School, a 5A school with over 1,500 students in Rio Rancho, N.M. In addition to her duties as head coach and physical education teacher, Economon established a club team out of Rio Rancho.

A native of St. Louis, Economon got a chance to return to the Midwest in 2010 when she was hired as an assistant coach at Southeast Missouri State in Cape Girardeau, Mo. Economon specialized in hitting and defensive instruction on the field and was primarily responsible for practice planning, monitoring student-athletes academic progress and coordinating the Redhawks camps. She also taught classes in the exercise science department.

Economon played for Truman from 2001-04 and earned All-America honors at shortstop three seasons and was named the league's Most Valuable Player in 2002 and 2003.

Elizabeth earned her bachelor's degree in 2004 in exercise science from Truman and earned a master's degree in 2007 in HHPR from Emporia State.

Economon and her wife Chelsea have two boys: Aidan and Asher.

PRESLEY BELL

ASSISTANT COACH | 2ND SEASON

Presley Bell begins her second season as an assistant coach and pitching coach for the Shocker Softball program.

Bell was promoted to a full time assistant in June 2021 after spending two seasons as a graduate assistant.

Under Bell's guidance, Alison Cooper earned American Athletic Conference All-Rookie Team honors in 2022.

In her second season as a graduate assistant, Bell stepped into a larger role working with the Shocker pitching staff and provided stability and leadership. Redshirt senior Bailey Lange went 22-8 in the circle and earned Second Team All-Conference honors under Bell's guidance.

Wichita State pitchers tallied seven shutouts in 2021, while holding opposing batters to just a .239 average.

Bell was an American Athletic Conference Second Team selection during her senior campaign at Houston after posting a 13-4 record in the circle. The Liberty, Texas, native threw 115.1 innings to go with a 1.52 ERA. Her ERA ranked 25th nationally and second in The American.

She appeared in 86 career games for the Cougars during her four-year career and was also a four-time All-Academic Team member and two-time NFCA All-America Scholar Athlete.

Bell received her bachelor's degree from the University of Houston in May 2019.

A two-time national champion at the University of Oklahoma, Nicole Pendley joined the Wichita State softball program in August of 2021.

Prior to Wichita State, Pendley spent two seasons as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State University.

A standout outfielder for the Sooners, Pendley brought home two national championships during her tenure at Oklahoma. The Rio Rancho, New Mexico, native was a three-time All-Big 12 honoree and earned three NFCA All-Region honors.

Pendley finished her career ranked sixth in games played (254) and RBI (189), seventh in home runs (47), eighth in at-bats (730), ninth in total bases (422) and runs (177) and tenth in extra-base hits (83) and total hits (240).

A competitor in big moments, Pendley was named the Most Outstanding Player at the 2018 Big 12 Championship and selected to the 2017 and 2018 All-Tournament Teams.

She was selected as the No. 12 overall pick in the 2018 NPF Draft by the USSSA Pride and also played with the Cleveland Comets in 2019.

In 2020, Pendley joined Athletes Unlimited for its inaugural season, playing 14 games of a possible 15 games. She was one of the first four captains in the league's history and participated in the first player draft to form Team Pendley in Week 1.

Pendley received her master's degree in workforce education leadership at Mississippi State in 2021 and a bachelor's degree in planned programs at the University of Oklahoma in 2019.

ASSOCIATE HEAD STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH

COLIN CORCORAN

Colin Corcoran was promoted to Associate Head Strength & Conditioning Coach in June 2022 and first arrived at Wichita State in October 2021 as an Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach.

Corcoran serves as the director of both sport science and the internship program for the Shocker's strength & conditioning department. He oversees the S&C efforts for the women's basketball and softball programs while serving as the primary assistant for men's basketball.

Corcoran comes to Wichita after spending just under four years at the University of North Florida. At UNF, he oversaw the strength & conditioning internship program, while working primarily with the baseball, women's soccer, men's golf, swimming, track & field, cross country, men's & women's tennis, and cheer programs. He also served as the primary assistant for men's and women's basketball during his tenure with the Ospreys.

Prior to UNF, Corcoran worked as a sports performance coach in the private sector at Sanders Elite Training Performance in Jacksonville from 2016-2018, working with a variety of sports ranging from the youth level to the professional level. He was the lead performance coach for the baseball, basketball, and softball athletes. He also garnered experience as a strength and conditioning intern coach with the University of Oregon's football team during the summer of 2018.

A native of Palm Harbor, Fla., Corcoran earned his bachelor's degree from Florida State University and his master's degree in physical activity and sport science from West Virginia University.

Corcoran has attained National Strength and Conditioning Association (CSCS) and Collegiate Strength and Conditioning Coaches Association (SCCC) certification.

ATHLETIC TRAINER

ALYSSA FINKE

Alyssa Finke has been an assistant athletic trainer at Wichita State since July 2022.

Finke works with the softball and spirit squad teams at Wichita State. Prior to coming to Wichita, Finke spent three years at Wayne State College as an assistant athletic trainer.

She received her master of science in nutrition and exercise science from South Dakota State in 2019. While at South Dakota State, Finke spent two years as a graduate assistant athletic trainer.

Finke obtained her bachelor's of science in athletic training from Winona State University in 2017, where she was an athletic training student for four years.

She is from Mankato, Minn. and is a member of the National Athletic Trainers Association.

WICHITA STATE

HISTORY AND RECORDS

1982-83 Wichita State softball team

THE BEGINNING OF SHOCKER SOFTBALL

Under the direction of 12 different head coaches, the Wichita State softball team has seen a steady climb in both success and notoriety since the programs 1970 inception. Recent seasons have been dominated by strong schedules, conference championships and NCAA Regional appearances but the history of Shocker softball dates back to the instrumental part of the women's athletics movement in the 1960's when at this period in time that Wichita State athletics began to incorporate competitive women's sports into sponsored athletic progams.

While the early days of Shocker softball were difficult, the women that helped begin Wichita State softball helped build the foundations that the successful program enjoys today, nearly half a century later.

Over the programs 48 years existence, Wichita State has produced 82 all-conference honorees and 28 conference scholar-athlete selections. Since 1985, 46 Shockers have been chosen as first team all-conference while 15 softball athletes have been named to the ESPN Magazine District VII All-Academic Team since 1992.

THE EARLY YEARS

While the movement to establish women's athletic programs began in earnest in 1969 with the announcement of teams forming in mid-September, softball was not created as a sponsored athletic program (as a club team) at Wichita State until April, 1970.

Yvonne Slingerland, the first head coach in WSU's history, led the Shockers between 1970-74 in which home games were played at nearby Heights High School and at Henrion Field on the Wichita State campus. WSU took on Emporia, Missouri of Bolivar, Kansas, Kansas State and Washburn within the programs first years, with some series still continued to this day.

Janet Pew was one of the first recognized female athletes, participating on four different varsity teams in 1971, including playing second base for the softball team.

Shocker records show Cathy Mustoe pitching a three-hitter with seven strikeouts in her first collegiate win, a 6-4 victory over McPherson College in April of 1972. The Shockers had 11 hits that day, three of which came from one of the program's first budding softball standouts, third baseman Debbie Jones, who was the only senior on the team in 1972. Other players noted on the '72 roster include outfielder Dana Mason, shortshop/pitcher Terre White, catcher Niki Nyquist, Judy Clawson, Lori Hughes, Carla Moore, Jody Nelson, Connie Long (who unofficially hit Wichita State's first grand slam) and Marilyn Buttram.

On July 1, 1974, Wichita State's women's intercollegiate athletic program was officially founded and teams became members of the Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (AIAW).

In 1975, Natasha Fife became the first women's director of athletics, simultationasly giving Shocker softball a new voice and new organization going into the late 1970's.

BUILDING UP SLOWLY

Sue Bair became the second head coach in softball history when she took over the program in 1975 and 1976. No records are kept for 1975, but a year later the Shockers went 7-10-1 which proved to be Bair's last year in charge.

Sharon Rauh, who also doubled as the women's volleyball head coach, took charge for the next three seasons and led the Shockers to the end of the 1970's. Rauh orchastrated Wichita State's first ever winning season in 1978 with a 18-15 record, before finishing 16-20 in '79.

After going 30-40 during a two-year stint under Mary Estes (1980-81), new coach Bethel Stout (1982-84) led Wichita State to its first-ever 20-win season in 1982 as the Shockers went 23-15. In 1981-82, the softball team joined all the women's programs in their move from membership to the disbanded AIAW to the NCAA Division I level. The women's teams at Wichita State competed in championships sponsored by the Missouri Valley Conference that year before becoming a charter member of the Gateway Collegiate Athletic Conference.

Over the next five seasons, WSU struggled while making the transition to the Gateway Conference and the NCAA, mainly due to the lack of stability within the coaching staff, with two new head coaches coming and going in Cindy Bristow (85-86) and Steve Sink (87-88). During that time Wichita State compiled a 97-156 record.

Jim Maynard entered the scene as the Shockers eighth head coach in the past 15 years, but began to restructure and rebuild a program that had experienced six-consecutive losing seasons. A Wichita native that was familiar with the softball community, Maynard promptly led the Shockers to a then school record 35 wins during his season in charge.

Adding more zest to an already stellar season, and after being picked to finish near the bottom of the league in the conference's preseason poll, the Shockers captured its sole Gateway Conference Tournament title in Cedar Falls, Iowa.

The Shockers, who entered the tournament as the No. 4 seed, surprised the whole field by winning their first-ever post-season tournament title. Wichita State defeated Indiana State 2-0 in the championship game to also earn the programs first ever automatic berth in history to the 1989 NCAA tournament. The Shockers fairytale season ended to eventual national runners-up, Oklahoma State, in the Midwest Regional by scores of 2-0 and 3-1.

Gateway Conference Player of the Year Patty Bautista, one of the most dominant pitchers to ever take the circle at Wichita State, led the Shockers in 1989. Bautista recorded a then league-best 24 wins as the starting pitcher, a 1.32 ERA, tossed 13 shutouts and fanned 184 batters in 271.1 innings pitched.

To this day, Bautista sits among the top-10 in a number of caterogies within the Shocker history books, leading all players with 103 complete games while her record of 25 shutouts stood for 15 seasons until Margo Pruis (2004-07). Bautista was chosen for the Gateway Conference's All-Decade Team with her 38 complete games in 1989 still standing as the most in Valley history.

In 1991, led by first team all-conference selection Jennifer Jay, the

Patty Bautista, 1986-89

Kristen Klumpp, 1991-94

Shockers won 26 games en-route to their second winning season in three years under Maynard. As a utility player, Jay ranks near the top of several WSU all-time pitching and hitting categories following one of the best careers in Shocker history.

After a second-place regular-season finish in 1992, WSU put together one of its most successful seasons ever in 1993, the first year within the Missouri Valley Conference.

Under Maynard's guidance, the Shockers set numerous (at the time) school records as Wichita State put together a 39-18 (.684) season, the first of four consecutive 30-plus win seasons. First-Team All-Valley catcher Lorie Broehl led the Shockers in 1993 with then single-season school records in RBI (41), home runs (7) and runs scored (39). All-Valley Second Team selection Kristin Klumpp, who was also named All-Midwest Region in 1992, also helped WSU's cause by hitting a team-high .341, scattering 12 doubles and drawing 30 walks.

The following year the Shockers went 31-24 (.564), but in 1995 the Shockers' 33-21 (.611) record earned them a second place finish in The Valley during the regular season and a No. 2 seed at The Valley Tournament.

Behind four All-Valley Second Team selections, including three time All-Valley honeree Jennifer Bachman, the Shockers strung together 11 consecutive wins (April 7-15) and ended the season by making a valiant run to The Valley tournament championship game. WSU fell to Illinois State 10-4, Wichita State's highest ever finish in the conference tournament which would be tied 10 years later in 2005 and 2006.

All-Midwest Region pitcher Stacey Hart and All-Valley First Team honeree Beth Wilson anchored a Shocker pitching staff that recorded a 1.94 ERA, while Christy 'Ozzie' Smith showcased her all-around abilities by making numerous extraordinary defensive plays and scattering team highs in hits (46) and triples (4).

Wichita State's student-athletes also excelled in the classroom in 1994 and 1995, leading every softball program in the nation both years with a 3.50 grade point average. On Oct. 5, 1995, the Shockers became the first team ever to be ranked No. 1 academically in consecutive years by the National Softball Coaches Association and their two No. 1 rankings at the time were the most ever earned by a single team.

In 1996, WSU went 31-31 (.500), and won 30 or more for the sixth time in 1998 after compiling a 30-32 (.484) record. Two-time All-Valley selection Emily Peters, whose 67 hits led The Valley in 1998, paced the Shockers in batting (.356), doubles (16) and home runs (4). Kelly Nelson tabbed Valley All-Tournament Team honors after a home run and scoring the winning run gave the Shockers a 2-1 victory over Creighton.

1998 also saw the grand opening of WSU's new softball facility. The 1,000 seat C. Howard Wilkins Stadium, cost $1.3 million and quickly catapulted Wichita State into owning one of the Midwest's premier softball diamonds and stadiums.

After 11 seasons at the helm of Shocker softball, Maynard resigned soon after WSU's 21-37 campaign. During his tenure at WSU, Maynard became the then all-time winningest coach in Shocker history by compiling a 313-328-1 (.490) record.

On July 19, 1999, Wichita State took another step in its effort to improve a program that had experienced many ups and downs by hiring Judy Favor. Favor arrived at WSU after reviving a mediocre NCAA Division II Columbus State (Ga.) program into a national powerhouse, including a 45-5 finish in her final season. She compiled a 17-37 record in 2000, with 7-13 mark in The Valley. Junior outfielder Patti Oleson was selected to the All-Valley First Team, the All-Region second team and was an honorable mention Valley Scholar-Athlete along with teammate Tracey LaMontagne.

In her second season in charge, Favor helped bring the team up three places to finish sixth in the conference. In 2001, Wichita State finished 23-30 overall, 11-14 in The Valley, with Oleson (then a senior) selected to the All-Valley first team for a second straight year. She set new WSU home run marks in both career and single season categories (24 and 10 respectively). Senior Andrea Kleckner was also selected to The Valley Second Team the same year. Oleson and sophomore Lisa Clary were selected to the academic All-District VII team with Oleson, Clary and sophomore Tina Lewis chosen for the Missouri Valley Conference Scholar-Athlete Team.

REACHING NEW HEIGHTS

On May 30, 2002, Wichita State named Tim Walton as the head coach of Shocker softball, beginning a new era in the story of the program. Walton exploded on to the scene, posting a record-breaking 39-20 mark en-route to The Valley tournament. Two players, Tina Lewis and Jody Lupo, were named All-Conference and selected to the All-Midwest Region team. Three Shockers were First Team All-Valley scholar athlete selections, while Lisa Clary and Lewis were named to the District VII All-Academic Team. Lewis also earned MVC Player of the Year honors, the first Shocker in history to do so. The same year the Shockers broke or tied over 20 school records and recieved votes in the national poll for the first time in school history.

After a successful first year, the second would be nothing short of spectacular for Walton as the Shockers posted 38 wins and compiled the best back-to-back season run in school history to that point, with 77 wins over the two year period.

Records fell frequently during 2004, including some of notable standards for Shocker fans. The single season home run mark of 10, formerly held by Patti Oleson, was shattered by sophomore Ashley Lynn who hit 13 home runs during the season. Lynn placed her name at the top of the home run list until 2007 when Cynthia Verhulst ripped 15 homers. Verhulst held the record for nine years until (now softball director of operations) Cacy Williams hit 16 to move into first position.

Junior pitcher LIndsay Craig became the school's all-time winningest pitcher (72) in 2004 while setting new strikeout standards in both single-season and career categories. Craig's records stood for three seasons until Margo Pruis eclipsed her in 2007.

Attendance was also at a new high during the 2004 season as more fans poured through the gates of Wilkins Stadium than in any year prior, including a then single game-high of 631 against UMKC on April 27, 2004. The Shockers finished 2004 ranked nationally in attendance for the second-straight season, and continued that tradition with record-breaking attendance during another magical season in 2005.

Wichita State's most successful campaign to date, the 2005 season, began on a difficult note as the Shockers were shutout during the season opener before falling to Texas Tech to start the year 0-2. What was important however, was how the Shockers finished the season as WSU would go 46-16 for the remainder of the year and receive its first-ever at-large bid to the NCAA Tournament.

In between start and finish, Shocker fans had plenty to talk about, including record-breaking performances, thrilling come-from-behind victories and a full slate of 32 home games including the Shocker Invitational and the 2005 State Farm MVC Championship.

The Shockers boasted four First-Team All-Valley performers as Lindsay Craig, Julie Darling, Britnee Barnett and Katie McGeeney garnered All-Conference honors along with second-team selection Stephanie De La Riva. McGeeney was named 2005 MVC Newcomer of the Year, just the second time a Shocker has recieved the honor.

WSU hosted the 2005 State Farm MVC Championship at Wilkins Stadium and made it to the championship game against Creighton, before falling 2-0 to the Bluejays on regional television. The Shockers had to wait anxiously to see if their season was good enough to warrant an at-large bid and on selection day, it was. The Shockers were named the No. 4 seed in the Norman, Okla., regional where they faced regional host and nationally-ranked Oklahoma and Pac-10 foe Oregon. The Shockers fell in both games, 2-0 and 3-2, to end the historic season.

For his successes, head coach Tim Walton left Wichita to became the head coach at Florida with the Shockers hiring Mike Perniciaro, formerly at Northwestern (La.), as the 11th head coach in WSU history. Perniciaro picked up where Walton left off in 2006, as he guided the Shockers to their first ever win over a top 10 program when Wichita State defeated No. 10 Baylor in early February. The Shockers wasted no time in dispatching other top 25 teams when WSU took down No. 25 BYU in late February, which helped lead the Shockers to a win at the Crowne Plaza Classic in Houston, Texas. Wichita State also brought home the Shocker Invitational title with a thrilling 3-2 win over conference-rival Missouri State in mid-March. WSU ended 2006 with a bang, advancing to play for the Missouri Valley Conference Tournament championship for a second-straight year. The Shockers became the only MVC team to appear on television each time the conference has shown the championship game, and WSU was one win away from a second-straight appearance at the NCAA Tournament. Britnee Barnett and Katie McGeeney were named all-conference selections while Margo Pruis and Julie Darling were named to the All-Academic team. Pruis was also named to the All-District VII Academic Team.

The 2007 campaign was another successful one for the Shockers and saw the end of one of the greatest pitching careers in school history. Margo Pruis became WSU's all-time winningest pitcher, shattering Lindsay Craig's former mark with her 77th career victory. Pruis finished her time in a Shocker uniform in style, placing herself third on the Missouri Valley Conference all-time wins list while becoming the first Shocker to record 800 career strikeouts. Pruis also placed third on that all-time MVC ledger.

The Shockers finished the year as one of the hottest teams in NCAA softball, with four wins against ranked opponents and an 18-3 finish to the regular season. Pruis and shortstop Britnee Barnett earned All-Valley honors, while Verhulst's 15 home runs earned her the then WSU single-season record, now owned by Cacy Williams.

WSU hit the national stage in 2008 as it recieved votes in the ESPN/USA Softball Top 25 for just the second time in school history after winning three-straight tournaments in February and early March. Senior Ashly Bright became the MVC strikeout queen by setting a MVC single-season mark of 366 strikeouts. Seniors Britnee Barnett and Katie McGeeney became the first Shockers to be named First or Second Team All-MVC all four years of their careers. McGeeney and Barnett still hold or feature in a number of Shocker record top-10's, notably runs scored (McGeeney with 159), most hits (Barnett with 250), most total bases (Barnett with 393) while both are tied for the most at-bats with 786.

2009 and 2010 proved to be tough seasons for the Shockers, recording under .500 records for the first time in seven years. One bright spark for the team was the performances of first baseman Jamie Hull, who as a junior led the team with six homers, 36 hits, eight doubles and 19 RBI's. Hull was named to the Second Team All-MVC in 2010 and as an honorable mention Scholar-Athlete. Catcher Heather Gerritse earned First Team All-MVC in 2010 and 2011 and second team honors in 2009 with Kara L'Huillier also earning a spot on the second team in '09.

After recording a record of 44-68 between the '09-10 seasons, Mike Perniciaro resigned at the end of the 2011 season (after six seasons in charge) and so began another new era for Shocker softball.

A NEW ERA

On April 6, 2011, Wichita State Director of Athletics Eric Sexton announced Kristi Bredbenner as the 12th head coach in the history of the Shocker softball program. Bredbenner's highly successful tenure at Emporia State earned her the Shocker spot after amassing a total of 326 wins in charge of the Hornets program, earning three Coach of the Year awards, five NCAA Division II Regional appearances and two NCAA Division II World Series Runner-Up accolades.

Success was not instant for Bredbenner as the 2012 season proved to be tough with the Shockers recording the second lowest winning percentage in school history (.273) behind the 1985 team who finished with .262.

But improvements began steadily, the 2013 season saw the Shockers finish with 19 wins behind a First Team All-MVC performer in Erin Carney, who sits in a couple of top-10 catergories in the Shocker history books. Spirited performances against No. 1 Alabama (losing 2-0) and No. 22 Nebraska (losing 3-1) paved the way for a more improved finish in conference play, reaching the Missouri Valley Conference tournament for the first time since 2011.

If 2013 saw steady improvement, the 2014 season really announced Bredbenner as the Shockers head coach with a bang, both exceeding expections and smashing records. Her first recruiting class backed by catcher Melanie Jaegers, outfielder Brittany Fortner and infielder Ali Vandever, began to set the high standards that would follow in the years to come.

Despite being picked to finish eighth in the preseason MVC poll, the Shockers set the tone for the year early with a four game win streak kicking off the season. A number of impressive performances, including freshman Paige Luellen going 4 for 7 over two games at the plate, helping the Shockers, with Luellen earning All-Tournament Team honors along with freshman shortstop Kelli Spring after accumulating nine RBI, two doubles, a home run and nine runs scored through four games.

Another rising Shocker star was Cacy Williams, a transfer from Emporia State that Bredbenner recruited to the Hornets before her own move to Wichita State, who offered big power hits in the first base position.

As the Shockers moved into conference play in March, they held a steady, but not spectactular, 13-8 record, highlighted by two seperate win streaks of four and five games respectively that included a thrilling 18-16 victory over Iowa State at Wilkins Stadium. That 34 run game featured a number of record breaking performances, notably by Williams, who went 3-for-4 enroute to breaking the Wilkins Stadium and school record with eight RBI's in one game. Williams hit two home runs, the first an RBI homer to right-center before hitting a grand slam in the bottom of the sixth. Melanie Jaegers also hit a two-run homer, Liz Broyles had two home runs and Paige Luellen also hit a home run to help the Shockers break three more records that included total runs scored, total hits and total RBI's in a single game.

As April rolled around, the Shockers were in a strong conference position after taking two wins from Loyola at Wilkins, sweeping Indiana State in Terra Haute, Ind., and taking two wins from Bradley to sit on a 7-2 conference record. Despite falling to No. 16 Tulsa and Kansas, conference play continued impressively with the Shockers taking another two games from Evansville before sweeping Northern Iowa and Drake. Southern Illinois took two games from the Shockers before Wichita State swept Illinois State in the final conference series of the year.

April also featured the first no-hitter since 2006 when freshman pitcher Katie Malone, a future Shocker star, no-hit Missouri State in a 12-0 victory on April, 16, 2014.

Williams' stellar year continued with a record breaking 16th home run of the year, a record that stands to this day, to help the Shockers capture the regular season championship with a 21-7 conference tally. In the MVC tournament semi finals, Wichita State fell to eventual winners Bradley but the Shockers were honored with numerous post-season awards for their spectacular season

Cacy Williams earned both Player of the Year and Newcomer of the Year honors, the first time in conference history a player earned both in one season. She also was named to the NFCA All-Midwest Region First Team and to the MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team after breaking the single season batting average record (.424), runs record (57), slugging percentage (.812), on-base percentage (.531), total bases (138), home runs (16), RBIs (47), hits (72) and walks (35) in her first season as a Shocker.

Melanie Jaegers and Brittany Fortner joined Williams as First Team All-MVC selections, while Paige Luellen tabbed second team honors.

As a team, Wichita State broke the highest batting average record (set in 1978 at .305) with a .314 average, highest slugging percentage (set in 1978 at .446) with a .492 average, runs scored (set in 2005 at 293) with 314, most hits (set in 2005 at 458) with 472, home runs (set in 2005 at 52) with 56, runs batted in (set in 2005 at 268) with 291, total bases (set in 2005 at 710) with 740, and tied the most doubles record at 82 and the on-base percentage record at .389.

After winning their first ever MVC Regular Season Championship, Kristi Bredbenner and the entire Shocker staff were named the 2014 MVC Coaching Staff of the Year.

Bredbenner's fourth season in charge in 2015 was another winning one with the Shockers finishing with a 34-23 record, 16-11 in the MVC. Despite a solid start, Wichita State entered February on a 9-9 record after playing a much improved schedule in an attempt to crack the NCAA tournament.

Sophomore Katie Malone established herself in the circle as the season progressed but as conference play hit the Shockers began dropping crucial close games, with six out of nine games decided by two runs or less, to enter April 2-7 in MVC play.

The Shockers began to find their bats in April, a six game win streak the highlight, including a sweep of Illinois State at Wilkins. Another six game win streak between April 22 and May 2 improved the Shockers record to 16-10 in The Valley, before the season ended with a 5-1 loss to Indiana State in the conference tournament quarter finals.

Seven Shockers were tabbed with conference honors; senior catcher Melanie Jaegers ended her career at Wichita State with the inaugural MVC Defensive Player of the Year award and All-Defensive Team honors. She also became Shocker softball leader in pickoffs, with 18 in one season.

Jeager was joined on the All-MVC First Team by Cacy Williams, Brittany Fortner and freshman Mackenzie Wright, the first freshman to earn the honor since Creighton's Bri Lingl in 2012 and the first Shocker freshman to earn the honor since Britnee Barnett in 2005.

Liz Broyles, Katie Malone and Kelli Spring tabbed Second Team All-MVC honors while Fortner also earned NFCA Southeast All-Region First Team honors for the second straight year.

If 2015 was considered a slightly lesser year, 2016 would see the Shockers back on track under Bredbenner; finishing at the top of the conference with an 18-6 record, their second best MVC record behind Tim Walton's 2005 squad who went 22-5.

Another improved schedule saw the Shockers up against five top-25 ranked opponents throughout the year, narrowly dropping games to No. 24 Texas A&M, 4-3, and No. 7 UCLA, 6-5, within the first few weeks of the season.

By the time conference played rolled around at the end of March, the Shockers sat on a 13-9 record. A four game win streak and a seven game win streak, including a sweep over Loyola and a win on the road at Kansas, moved the Shockers to the top of the conference before another huge win streak moved them into a battle with Drake for top of the conference honors.

Between April 16th and May 7th, the Shockers set the second longest win streak in school history with 12 consecutive wins, including sweeps over Missouri State, Bradley, Indiana State and Drake, to earn a second regular season conference title under Bredbenner.

Entering the MVC Tournament as the No. 1 seed, the Shockers took care of Southern Illinois 7-5 before a showdown with No. 2 seed, Drake, in the championship game. A 5-0 win, behind doubles from Mackenzie Wright and Brittany Fortner, gave the Shockers their first Tournament Championship in school history and an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament, another first under Bredbenner's tenure.

The Shockers traveled to Norman to face No. 3 seed Oklahoma, who were fresh off its fifth straight Big 12 Championship, with Tulsa and Ole Miss rounding out the lineup at the Regional site.

In front of the largest crowd in Norman Regional history, 1,731, the Shockers fell 7-2 with a Sooner grand slam the highlight reel for the game.

In game two of the Regional, Wichita State faced off against Tulsa, who fell in its opening game to Ole Miss, 5-1.

The Shockers historic season continued with another huge program milestone, winning the first ever NCAA Regional game in school history. Katie Malone pitched all seven innings, allowing four hits and one run, with Brittany Fortner singling through right field to score Cacy Williams from third base and Liz Broyles singling up the middle to score Mackenzie Wright from second to put WSU up two runs. Tulsa pulled one run back but the Shockers had enough to see out the game, 2-1.

Ole Miss was up next for Wichita State, with the winner advancing to the Regional Championship game vs. No. 3 Oklahoma. The Shockers season, however, came to a close with Ole Miss shutting down the Shocker bats, scoring four unanswered runs to end Wichita State's season at 36-21.

Senior Cacy Williams earned Missouri Valley Conference Player of the Year honors for the second time in three seasons. Williams joined Liz Broyles, Macklin Hitz and Brittany Fortner on the All-MVC First Team, while Paige Luellen, Jenni Brooks and Mackenzie Wright earned Second Team honors. Wright also made the Defensive Team for her performances as a catcher. Williams was also named to the NFCA All-Midwest Region first team with Hitz earning second team honors.

2017 proved to be another fruitful year under Bredbenner's tenure with the Shockers winning over 30 games for the third time in the three years.

For just the second time since 1993, Wichita State began the season 4-0 after taking care of Wright State, UC-Santa Barbara twice and Houston in the Houston Invitational.

After losing two games at the Littlewood Classic in Tempe, Ariz., the Shockers completed another perfect weekend at the UTA Invitational, scoring 38 runs and giving up 10, to move into March with a 9-2 record.

No. 9 Oklahoma came to town in front of a record attendance at Wilkins Stadium, 1,113 fans, but four errors on the night paved the way for a 7-3 loss to the Sooners. Paige Luellen led the way for the Shockers behind a three-run home run in the fourth inning until a series of errors allowed the Sooners to re-take the lead for good.

Conference play began in late March with a sweep of Drake at Wilkins, with pitcher Katie Malone proving her worth in the circle.

After going 1-2 against Illinois State and 2-1 vs. Loyola, the Shockers moved into April in a strong position near the top of the conference. A sweep over Indiana State helped Wichita State's cause before dropping two games to Northern Iowa and Southern Illinois pushed the Shockers back into fourth position.

Evansville came to town in the final regular season three game series of the year, with Malone's pitching causing havoc. The senior pitched all three games, threw 14.2 innings without allowing a single run on the weekend for a perfect 0.00 ERA while striking out 15 batters. After going 3-0 on the weekend, Malone set a Wichita State record for wins in a year with 25.

The Shockers entered the 2017 MVC tournament as the No. 4 seed, taking down No. 8 seed Loyola in Normal, Ill., with Malone throwing her 20th complete game of the year and recieving her 26th win of the year to increase her own school record. Laurie Derrico hit a solo home run with catcher Madison Perrigan also having a two-run homer to give the Shockers a 3-1 victory.

No. 1 seed Northern Iowa ended the Shockers' season in the next round with a three-run walk-off home run with Wichita State finishing with a final record of 32-30 and sending off a group of seniors that won two Missouri Valley Conference Regular Season Championships and one MVC Tournament Championship.

For her record breaking season, Katie Malone earned First Team All-MVC honors as a pitcher, with Kelli Spring, Mackenzie Wright and McKenzie Adams also joining her on the first team. Freshman catcher Madison Perrigan earned Second Team All-MVC alongside shortstop Laurie Derrico; Perrigan also earned All-Defensive Team honors. Derrico was also named to the All-MVC Scholar-Athlete First Team with Malone tabbed with an honorable mention.

The 2018 campaign was another positive step forward for the program in the inaugural season as members of the American Athletic Conference. Under Bredbenner's guidance the Shockers secured the fourth NCAA Tournament appearance in school history and first-ever appearance in a Regional Championship. Wichita State advanced to the finals of the Fayatteville Regional before falling to Arkansas. The Shockers collected a pair of wins in the regional over Oklahoma State before finishing the season 32-23 overall and a third place finish in The American.

Senior Mackenzie Wright took home American Player of the Year honors, while Laurie Derrico and Bailey Lange joined Wright on the All-Conference First Team. Paige Luellen and Ryleigh Buck landed on the All-Conference Second Team and Bailee Nickerson was named to the All-Rookie squad. With Wright's all-conference selection, she became just the third Shocker in school history to be named to the all-conference team four times.

Wichita State's team in 2021 reached new heights, shattering school records, sweeping both American regular season and tournament titles and reaching the program's fifth NCAA Tournament appearance. The 2021 Shockers became just the second team in school history to record 40 or more wins in a season, led by the program's first All-American in sophomore shortstop Sydney McKinney. McKinney was also named the American Player of the Year during a record-breaking season. McKinney broke the single season record for hits and batting average. Freshman Addison Barnard broke onto the scene and broke the single season record for home runs and RBI. Barnard (22) and senior Madison Perrigan (21) teamed up to combine for 43 of the team's single season record 103 home runs. Wichita State was one of only two teams in the nation to hit 100 or more homers in 2021. The previous school record was 59.

POLL HISTORY

Wichita State finally broke into the National Fastpitch Coaches Association (NFCA) Coaches Poll during the 2021 season. The Shockers entered the rankings at No. 25 after receiving votes the previous three weeks. Prior to 2021, Wichita State received votes during the 2018 campaign, but never cracked the Top 25. On April 20, 2021, Wichita State made history by entering the Top 25 in all four of the major polls.
