DR. JAMES L. GAUDINO
CWU President

Dr. James L. Gaudino assumed the position of president at Central Washington University on January 1, 2009.

Under his leadership, CWU has honed its student-centered focus while continuing to experience enrollment growth, broadened statewide access to higher education, expanded connections with university alumni and business leaders, constructed new campus academic and residential facilities, improved its infrastructure, and modernized and streamlined university processes and procedures. This has all been done in an era of steeply declining state funding for higher education.

In response to that, Gaudino has also led university efforts to think in entrepreneurial ways to help keep CWU on solid financial footing, while, at the same time, providing new and improved academic and social programs that university students want.

Before coming to CWU, Gaudino was the founding dean of the College of Communication and Information at Kent State University, which consisted of the Schools of Communication Studies, Journalism and Mass Communication, Library and Information Science, and Visual Communication Design. Under his leadership, it grew to become a center of innovation in the new information age.

Gaudino was previously the executive director of the National Communication Association (NCA), a scholarly society of 7,000 members that works to improve instruction and to produce research on topics of both intellectual and social significance related to human communication.

During his 15 years in the NCA national office, the association tripled its operating budget and overall net worth, expanded its annual convention and conference schedules, added four new journals to its publication catalog, was accepted into the American Council of Learned Societies, and became a leader in advocating for communication scholarship and instruction. While working at NCA, Gaudino also served as an adjunct professor at George Mason University and George Washington University.

Prior to taking the position at NCA, Gaudino was a faculty member in Michigan State University's Department of Advertising. His research interests include public relations and public opinion formation.

He has authored or co-authored numerous chapters, articles, monographs and convention presentations, including publication in the Journal of Broadcasting and Electronic Media, Annals of the American Academy of Political and Social Science, Journalism Educator, Communication Education and the Newspaper Research Journal.

Gaudino holds a doctorate in communications from Michigan State University and a master's degree in management from Troy State University. He is a graduate of the United States Air Force Academy and served in the U.S. Air Force in California, Turkey and Germany.

DR. DENNIS FRANCOIS
Athletics Director

Dr. Dennis Francois is in his second full year as director of athletics at Central Washington University. It was a busy first year.

Francois helped coordinate a new athletic facilities master plan, led the creation of a new athletic department strategic plan, implemented the inaugural Wildcat Alumni Challenge that resulted in a fivefold increase in the number of former student-athletes giving back to Wildcat Athletics, and appointed the department's first full-time strength and conditioning and student-athlete academic success coordinators—positions that are already having positive effects on CWU's student-athlete experience.

With Francois' addition of the Student-Athlete Academic Success program, the Wildcats continue to excel academically. Central athletic teams recorded a 3.0 average GPA last year, as 171 different student-athletes made the CWU honor roll (3.5 GPA or higher) and 70 student-athletes received Great Northwest Athletic Conference academic honors.

Francois guided the addition of men's and women's rugby to CWU's intercollegiate athletic lineup, as Central became the nation's first public institution to sponsor both sports at the varsity level. That included the hiring of Tony Pacheco as the university's director of rugby and men's head coach, and Mel Denham as the women's head coach. Francois also brought in Ian Shoemaker, as the head football coach, and Jeff Harada, as the women's basketball head coach.

Francois came to Ellensburg after serving as the associate athletic director for external affairs in the Department of Athletics at Drake University in Des Moines, Iowa.

At Drake, Francois supervised all marketing and promotional operations. He also worked with the university's athletic booster club to generate more than $750,000 in annual revenue, and managed the three highest tickets sales for the track and field Drake Relays.

Francois was Director of Athletics and Recreational Sports at Southern Oregon University (SOU) in Ashland, Oregon, from 2005 to 2008. During his tenure, scholarship support increased by 80 percent, while the athletic department realized a twenty-fold increase in external revenue through an extensive marketing and promotions plan. Francois developed a comprehensive Academic Support Services program.

Francois was a university professor of sport administration for eight years. His coaching experiences include assistant wrestling coach at Loras College and at Colorado Northwestern
Community College.

He earned a Ph.D in sports administration from the University of New Mexico, a master's degree in administration of athletics from Loras College and a bachelor's degree in communications management from Missouri State where he competed in wrestling.

Francois and his wife, Teresa, are the parents of two children, Sage (14) and Chloe (11).

IAN SHOEMAKER
Head Coach
1st season at CWU

Ian Shoemaker is in his first season leading Central Washington University. He joined the Wildcats after six seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at St. Cloud State University (SCSU) in Minnesota. Before coming to Ellensburg, Shoemaker helped lead SCSU to the NCAA Division II national playoffs three times in the last four seasons.

Under Shoemaker, the team's offensive attack establishing single-season school records for points scored in a season, total touchdowns, pass efficiency and completions, yards per pass and total offense. As a result, the Huskies' scoring average increased from 25.3 (2004-2007) to 32.8 (2008-2012) and the team's yards-per-game average increased from 363 to 402.

A native of Graham, Shoemaker graduated from Orting High School and Iowa's Grinnell College, where he was a four-year starter in both football and baseball, while earning a degree in psychology. He was the football team's Most Valuable Player and Offensive Back of the Year, and set school baseball records for single-season and career home runs.

Shoemaker began his coaching career at Western Washington University where he was a graduate assistant from 1997-99, coaching the tight ends and running backs, while working on a master's degree in sport psychology. Shoemaker then went to the University of Saint Mary in Leavenworth, Kansas, as the team's offensive coordinator. From 2000-2003, he was the passing-game coordinator at North Dakota's Minot State University.

He then was hired as assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Kenyon College in Gambier, Ohio, where he worked for three seasons, followed by a two-year stint as offensive coordinator at Baldwin Wallace College, also in Ohio, from 2006-08.

JOHN PICHA
Assistant Head Coach
26th season at CWU

John Picha, a longtime member of the CWU football program as both a coach and student-athlete, served as the Wildcats' interim head coach during the 2013, where he led the Wildcats to a 7-4 record. He is now the assistant head coach under Shoemaker.

Picha enters his 26th season as a member of the CWU coaching staff in 2014. Over the course of his career, he has helped the Wildcats to 13 conference championships, 11 postseason appearances, and one national championship. He has coached both on offense and defense, including a stint of more than a decade as the team's offensive coordinator.

In 2002, Picha was named the American Football Coaches Association's NCAA Division II Offensive Coordinator of the Year after helping guide the Wildcats to an 11-1 overall record and the program's first-ever NCAA postseason appearance.

Picha also served as the Wildcats' head track and field coach from 1995-99. He was the Pacific Northwest Athletic Conference men's Coach of the Year in 1995, leading the Wildcats to the conference title and a 17th-place finish at the NAIA National Championships.

A 1993 CWU graduate, Picha was a two-year letterman for the Wildcats as an offensive lineman. He earned honorable mention all-Columbia Football Association honors as a senior in 1987. As a junior, he received the team's Best Blocker Award.

Picha also played for two seasons at Wenatchee Valley College, where he earned second-team all-Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges (NWAACC) honors as a sophomore. He graduated from Rogers High School in Puyallup in 1984.

PAYAM SAADAT
Defensive Coordinator
1st season at CWU

Payam Saadat, who is entering his first season with the Wildcats, came to CWU after serving as the co-defensive coordinator at the United States Military Academy at West Point (Army) from 2009 through 2013.

In his first season at West Point, Saadat's Black Knights finished the year ranked 16th in the nation in total defense and third in pass defense. The following year, Army was again among the nation's leaders, ranking third in the country in turnover margin. The team's 30 takeaways tied for the 12th most in the nation.

Saadat also served at Cal Poly for five seasons, earning his master's degree in kinesiology there in 1998. He mentored the team's linebackers in 1996 and 1997.

Saadat left Cal Poly to join the Western Washington University staff, where he met coach Shoemaker. He worked with the Vikings for six years (1998-2003), coaching the defensive line and special teams, and serving as the team's recruiting coordinator and assistant strength and conditioning coach.

Saadat returned to Cal Poly as linebacker coach for the 2004 season. During the '04 campaign, Cal Poly's defense ranked first nationally in rushing defense and ninth in scoring defense. He was promoted to the Mustangs' defensive coordinator post in 2006.

A native of Santa Monica, Calif., Saadat played linebacker at Washington State University, graduating in 1994 with a bachelor's degree in biology. He earned WSU team awards for courage, inspiration and strength.

Saadat began his coaching career during undergraduate days at Washington State, followed by a similar role at Santa Monica College.

RYAN HARVEY
Assistant Coach
Tight Ends / Video Coordinator
5th season at CWU

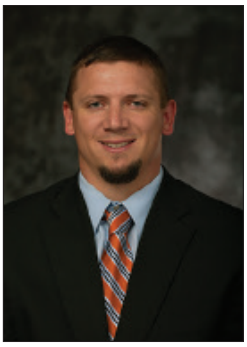
Ryan Harvey is beginning his fifth year with the Wildcat program, as the tight ends coach and video coordinator, which includes organizing and directing videographers, and ensuring that CWU's video complies with all conference rules and regulations.

Between 2007-09, Harvey was the assistant defensive coordinator, while coaching the wide receivers and defensive backs, at Sammamish High School. Between 2004-06, he also served as an assistant football coach at his alma mater, Orcas Island HS, where he was the receivers and linebackers coach. The Vikings made it to the state 2B quarterfinals in each of his three seasons there.

Harvey was also the head boys' and girls' basketball coach at Orcas Island Christian School, as he led both the boys and girls teams to 2004-05 Private Individual Christian Schools of Puget Sound state titles.

A native of Orcas Island, Harvey graduated from Orcas Island High School in 2004. He earned all-conference honors twice in football, as a wide receiver and kicker; twice in basketball, as a point guard; and four years in baseball, as a pitcher and catcher. He also played one-season of college baseball at Skagit Valley Community College, before an injury ended his career.

Harvey earned his bachelor's degree in history at CWU in 2013 and is now working toward a master's degree in athletic administration at Central.



NICK WHITWORTH
Assistant Coach
Cornerbacks/Special Teams
4th season at CWU

Nick Whitworth is beginning his fourth year with the Wildcats. Along with his work on-the-field, he is an American Football Coaches Association Division 2 committee member.

Whitworth came to CWU in 2011 to serve as special teams coordinator and running backs coach. In his three season, he has coached 11 all-Great Northwest Athletic Conference players, including three—cornerbacks Cedrique Chaney and Isaiah Davis, and kick returner Jesse Zalk—who are returning this season. Last season, his Wildcat special teams were No 5 nationally in punt return defense, No 11 in the nation in kick-off return average and 13th in the country in kick-off coverage.

Before joining the Wildcats' staff, he was offensive coordinator at the University of Montana Western, in Dillon, for one season.

From 2003-2010, he was the Idaho State University (ISU) special teams, recruiting and summer camp coordinator for former CWU head football coach John Zamberlin. Whitworth's 2010 special teams unit was No 1 in the Big Sky overall, coming in tops in net punting, kick-off defense, punt returns and second in kick-off returns. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant with the Bengals, working with the running backs and special teams, from 2001-2002.

A native of Mackay, Idaho, Whitworth was named all-conference, all-area and all-state at running back and linebacker at Mackay High School, where he graduated in 1997. He went on to play collegiately at Idaho State University, earning honorable mention all conference at both the running back and kick returner positions. Whitworth earned bachelor's degree in business administration and business finance there in 2001.

JACOB CLABORN
Assistant Coach
Offensive Line
1st season at CWU

Jacob Claborn is starting his first year with Central. A former player at California Lutheran University, he was a member of the coaching staff there from 2007 through 2011, serving as the run game coordinator, offensive line and tight ends coach. During the 2012-13 seasons, he was a graduate assistant at St. Cloud State University (SCSU), coaching the running backs and tight ends, where he worked alongside new CWU head coach Ian Shoemaker.

Claborn began his coach career during the 2004-05 seasons, coaching the offensive and defensive lines for the football team and assisting with the track and field squad at his alma mater, Righetti High School in Santa Maria, Calif, where he was a three-year football letterman. Then in 2006 he coached the defensive line Bellingham High School. In 2012, he was one of just 30 young coaches to be named to the Future Football Coaches Academy.

Claborn completed his bachelor's degree in exercise science and sports medicine at Cal Lutheran in 2004, and added a master's degree in education administration and leadership at SCSU in 2013.

JAY DUMAS
Assistant Coach
Wide Receivers
1 season at CWU

Jay Dumas is in his first year at CWU as the wide receivers coach. A 1999 graduate of Washington State University, he played four years (1992-96) for Cougars. He finished career with 96 catches for 920 yards and two touchdowns. He led the team as senior, making 50 grabs covering 463 yards. During his career, he also returned 90 punts for 705 yards (7.8 avg.). Dumas was an Honorable mention all-Pac-10 Conference choice as junior. Graduate of Curtis High School in Tacoma, he led the South Puget Sound League in receiving as senior with 34 grabs for 704 yards and 7 touchdowns. An SPSL all-star on offense and defense, he played on state Class AAA state teams as junior and sophomore.

From 2007-14, Dumas was the offensive coordinator at Davis High School in Yakima. He helped the Pirates' offense set numerous school records, along with coaching several all-state players. Between 2002-06, Dumas was the running backs and wide receivers coach at Montana State University. During his time with the Bobcats, they won the Big Sky conference title in 2003 and 2005, making the national playoffs both of those years and in 2006. From 1999-2002, he coached at Western Washington University, where he met CWU head coach Ian Shoemaker.

MIKE DUNLEVY
Assistant Coach
Linebackers/Safeties
1st season at CWU

Mike Dunlevy is in his first season as the linebackers and safeties coach for the Wildcats. From 2001-2014, he was the head coach at Averett University, an NCAA Division III program in Danville, Va. Dunlevy was named the USA South Coach of the Year in 2003. While at Averett, he coached 108 all-conference, 43 all-state, and six all-region selections. In addition, three of his players earned All-America honors. He also served on the NCAA Division III Football Championship Committee.

Overall, Dunlevy has 27 years of coaching experience in both college and professional football. He has also been the assistant head coach, defensive coordinator, defensive line and special teams coach at Waynesburg (Pa.) College; linebackers coach and special teams coordinator for the Ohio Glory of the World Football League; assistant defensive line and assistant secondary coach at The Ohio State University; and assistant secondary coach at the University of Toledo.

A native of Kettering, Ohio, Dunlevy played collegiate football for Otterbein University in Westerville, Ohio from 1984-86. He received his bachelor's degree there in education. Dunlevy added a master's degree in athletic administration from the University of Toledo in 1989. Away from the field, he has been active as a mentor in the Boys and Girls Club.

Central Washington University is committed to hands-on learning and discovery by our students. CWU puts our best professors in the classroom with students, who receive the individual attention it takes for them to transcend the limits of classrooms and books. Students get to do what they're studying in real-world, professional settings, which makes learning exciting and relevant.

Our short-hand for this remarkable experience? "Learn. Do. Live." Learn from the best faculty in quality programs. Do what you're learning—on stage, on the field, in the classroom. Live the life you want because you have the education you need.

Each year CWU graduates thousands of well-educated citizens who are prepared to begin high-demand careers in the workforce: accounting, aviation, construction management, engineering technology, paramedicine, teacher education and renewable energy, to name just a few.

In 1890, the state Legislature established the Washington State Normal School (WSNS) in Ellensburg for "the training and education of teachers in the art of instructing and governing in the public schools of this state." WSNS opened on September 6, 1891. It became Central Washington College of Education in 1937, Central Washington State College in 1961, and, finally, Central Washington University in 1977.

KARI GAGE
Head Athletic Trainer
Senior Woman Administrator

Kari Gage was named CWU's head athletic trainer and senior woman administrator (SWA) in 2008. Gage is responsible for the athletic training needs of CWU's 15 varsity sports. She directs a staff of two full-time assistant athletic trainers and four graduate assistants. Gage's primary responsibility on-field activity is serving as the trainer for the Wildcat football team. Along with those on-field responsibilities, she also guides organizational planning, university policy development and NCAA policy implementation.

Prior to becoming the head athletic trainer, Gage served for four years as an assistant athletic trainer at Central. She worked with the women's soccer, women's volleyball, women's basketball and baseball programs in addition to assisting with pre-season camp for the Wildcat football team.

As SWA Gage serves internally on the athletics executive board, athletic compliance committee, Hall of Fame selection committee and Title IX task force. She is also the athletic department's liaison to the CWU Student-Athlete Advisory Committee, where she is involved with improving CWU's student-athlete experience and community engagement. She also works to ensure Title IX standards along with commitment to diversity and inclusion are met.

Externally, she is a member of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference's management council and SWA committee, the NCAA Division II west region advisory committee for women's soccer and the National Association of Collegiate Women Athletics Administrators legislation and governance committee.

Gage, a native of Haines, Alaska, earned her bachelor's degree in 2002 at Eastern Oregon University, where she played women's basketball for two years (1998-2000) with the Mountaineers.

The Central Washington University football team is after its eighth Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC) title in 12 years in 2014. It's a team under new management. Ian Shoemaker takes the program reins from last year's interim head coach John Picha, who returns to the coaching staff as Shoemaker's assistant head coach.

Offensively in 2014, the Wildcats will be led by two Beyond Sports Network GNAC Preseason All Conference performers, running back Jordan Todd (Jr., Bellevue/Interlake) and wide receiver Jesse Zalk (So., Battle Ground/Prairie). Last season, the 5-7, 186-pound Todd finished second in the GNAC in rushing with 1,213 yards, while the 5-8, 160-pound redshirt freshman Zalk was seventh in the conference is receiving (47) and second in kick return yardage (31.0 yards per return).

Zalk was also named to USA College Football's pre-season NCAA Division II All-American team as a first-team return specialist and third-team wide receiver. Todd was named to the web site's second team.

Those Wildcat standouts will be operating under Shoemaker's high octane up-tempo, single back, multiple set offense, which he honed during the last six seasons as the co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Minnesota's St. Cloud State University.

Jake Nelson (So., Lake Stevens) is the incumbent starter at quarterback. As a redshirt freshman, he connected ion 62.3 percent of his passes for 1,282 yards and 13 touchdowns. He was also the team's second leading rusher with 261 yards on 79 carries. Also back are signal callers Justin Lane (So., Arlington/Lakewood), who started two games last season, and Colin Walsh (Jr., Troutdale, OR/Reynolds), who received a GNAC Faculty Athletic Representative's Scholar-Athlete award, which is awarded annually to the GNAC's most outstanding scholar-athletes. Walsh, who is majoring in accounting, has earned a 3.95 grade point average.

Along with Todd, toting the pigskin for the Wildcats will be Ishmael Stinson (Sr., Tacoma/Charles Wright Academy) who is returning from a knee injury that ended his season after just three games, Arthur Burns (Jr., Corona, CA/Centennial) and Nic Cooper (JR, Mulilteo/Kamiak). Redshirt Desmond Young (So., Seattle/Edmonds-Woodway) is also expected to compete for playing time.

"We're trying to build the process of the no-huddle—the tempos, personnel groups—and the way we are going to run the offense. I'm very happy with the talent level of our returners. When the quarterbacks, running backs, receivers and offensive line all get comfortable with our system, they will be able to further show and exploit their considerable skills."

-Ian Shoemaker, CWU head football coach

Zalk will lead a receiving corps that also includes starters Greg Logan (Sr., Graham/Graham-Kapowsin), the same school from which Shoemaker graduated, along with Christian Gasca (Jr., Lake Stevens), Jerret Hursey (Jr., Olympia) and Kent McKinney, Jr. (So., Seattle/O'Dea). Redshirts Nate Rauda (So., Seattle/Ballard) and Justin Peterson (So., Marysville/Lakewood) will further solidify wide receivers.

Returning tight ends are Colter Clinch (So., Bothell/Woodinville) and Tyler Stumph (So., Tacoma/Stadium), who is coming back from an injury that limited him to just six games last year. Returner Brady Pahukoa (Jr., Lake Stevens) and redshirt Kyle Self (So., Vaughn/Peninsula) will bolster the tight end position.

Up front, the Wildcat offensive line will have a new look after losing three starters. Sophomore right tackle Andrew Ulrich (So., Chehalis/W.F. West) and center Marshall Green (Sr., Tumwater/Black Hills) are the returning starters. Also back are, Calvin Hoohuli Jr. (Sr., Pahoa, Hawaii/ Kamehameha-Hawai'i), Matt Nilsson (So. Kirkland/Juanita), Kyle O'Donnell (So., Stanwood), and Josh Stolz (So., Vancouver/ Mountain View).

> "What you've seen in the past out of our defense is going to be pretty similar this year. We're going to make it pretty difficult to run, through the scheme we play up front. Then we're going to lean on a pretty talented group in the back end to play some man and other aggressive coverages to make it hard to pass on us as well."
> -Ian Shoemaker, CWU head football coach

Defensively, the Wildcats can boast the nation's top cornerback tandem in Isaiah Davis (Jr., Bremerton/South Kitsap), who led the GNAC in interceptions (6), and Cedrique Chaney (Jr., Kelso), the 2012 GNAC Freshman of the Year. Davis was selected as a 2014 D2Football.com first-team Preseason All American.

In addition, Davis was a first-team selection, while Cheney was named to the second team in USA College Football's pre-season NCAA Division II All-American publication. A deep secondary also returns part-time starter Cole Graves (Sr., Kirkland/Juanita), DeAndre Baines (Sr., Tacoma/Mount Tahoma) and Blake Williams-Miller (Jr., Everett).

The secondary will help anchor a strong defense that also features middle linebacker JB Torsy (SR, Dana Point, CA/Trabuco Hills), who was also named to the Beyond Sports Network GNAC Preseason All Conference team. He was third on the team in tackles last season (64), just two behind the team leader. Other returning linebackers include JoJo Brooks (Jr., Seattle/O'Dea), Mitch Haldane (Jr., Mountlake Terrace), and Tanner Lucas (So., Kent/Kentlake), who all started at least one game last season. Gabe Rego (So., Battle Ground/Union) and Kevin Haynes (So., Battle Ground) are also back.

The defensive line will be anchored by Tovar Sanchez (Jr. Seattle/Ingraham), who returns to wear the No 44 this season. The number is worn annually by a defensive player who exemplifies the high standards of the CWU defense: dedication, toughness, discipline and tenacity. It is awarded by the player who wore the jersey the previous season, in this case safety Stan Langlow. Sanchez, who was third on the team in tackles for loss last season with seven, will joined on the defensive line by returners James Fakkema (JR, Blaine), Carson Kass (SR, Naches/Naches Valley) and Matt Miller (JR, Spokane/Gonzaga Prep).

The Wildcats defense will be led by its new coordinator, Payam Saadat, who joined Central after spending the five seasons as the co-defensive coordinator at Army.

Special teams returners for the Wilddats are kicker Sean McDonald (Jr., Sammamish/Skyline), who connected on 31 of 32 extra points and eight of 13 field goals; along with Zalk and Davis on kick returns. Zalk averaged 31 yards per kick return last year, while Davis averaged 24.9 yards per kick return and 13.0 yards per punt return.

CWU captains for the upcoming season, voted on by team members, are Green, Sanchez, Todd and Torsey.

The Central Washington University football team went 7-4 last season, placing second in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference. That record could have easily been 9-2, or better.

Central lost home heartbreakers to Texas A&M University–Kingsville, on a fumble with 16 seconds left in the non-conference game, and eventual GNAC champion Azusa Pacific, on a fumble with just more than three minutes remaining. The Cats also dropped a six-point decision at Western Oregon and suffered a seven-point home defeat to Simon Fraser.

While all of the team's losses were extremely close, some of the wins were not, including the return meeting at Simon Fraser, won by Central 54-14, and a season-ending 44-0 blowout at Dixie State.

Offensively, the Wildcats were led by sophomore running back Jordan Todd (Bellevue/Interlake), who finished second in the GNAC, and 17th nationally, in rushing with 1,213 yards. He was named to the GNAC All-Conference first team and was a third team Dan Hansen Football Gazette All-Region selection.

Helping block for Todd was Mike Nelson (Carnation/Mount Si), a four-year starter at offensive tackle, and a fellow third team Dan Hansen Football Gazette All-Region pick. In addition, Nelson was named an American Football Coaches Association All-American, becoming just the fifth player in CWU's NCAA Division II history to earn that status.

Nelson, a four-time, first-team all-GNAC selection during his career, was acknowledged as the 2013 GNAC Offensive Lineman of the Year. Fellow offensive linemen, Neil Fuhrmann (Sumner/Cascade Christian), senior, was also selected first-team all-GNAC, while senior Brooks Abel (Kent/Kentwood) was named to the second team.

Redshirt freshman Jesse Zalk (Battle Ground/Prairie) distinguished himself by being named to the all-GNAC second team as both a receiver and kick returner. He was seventh in the conference in receptions (47) and second in kick returns (31.0 yards per return).

Defensively, the Wildcats were unquestionably among the nation's elite teams. CWU placed sixth in the country in scoring defense (15.7 points per game), No 8 in rushing defense (87.7 yards per game), 10th in pass defense efficiency (105.4), No 11 in total defense (298.0 yards per game), 18th in pass sacks (18), and 26th in turnover margin (0.7 per game). Central also led the GNAC in pass defense (210.3 yards per game), sacks (34), opponent first downs allowed (14.6 per game), and opponent third down conversions (31.1 percent). In addition, the Cats topped the conference in time of possession (34:03 per game).

Individually, senior defensive tackle Austin Schnizler (Ventura, CA/St. Bonaventure) was 23rd in the country in pass sacks (9.0), earning all-GNAC first-team honors. He was joined on the GNAC first team by senior safety Stan Langlow (University Place/Curtis), junior middle linebacker J.B. Torsey (Dana Point, CA/Trabuco Hills) and sophomore cornerback Isaiah Davis (Bremerton/South Kitsap), who was eighth in the nation in interceptions (6). Davis was also the second team all-GNAC punt returner after ending the season at No 20 nationally in punt returns (13.0 yards per return).

Second team GNAC all stars defensively were defensive lineman Tovar Sanchez, CWU (Seattle/Ingraham); outside linebacker Ridge Nielsen, CWU (Mesa, AZ/Mountain View); and cornerback Cedrique Chaney, CWU (Kelso).

The Wildcats also excelled on special teams in 2013, placing 11th nationally in kick returns, by averaging 24.2 yards per return, and No 5 in punt return defense (2.1 yards per return).

Off the field, five Wildcats, including four seniors, were named to the 2013 GNAC Academic All-Conference Team.

They included safety Cole Graves (Kirkland/Juanita HS), who is the only returner for 2014. He is majoring in a clinical physiology. The other four were: defensive end Gabe Bruno (San Francisco, CA/St. Ignatius Prep), who majored in mechanical engineering; punter Matt Burke (Laguna Hills, CA), economics; tight end Matt Christiansen (Spokane/East Valley HS), who double-majored in communication and law and justice; and Nielsen, business administration.

In order to be eligible for the academic squad, student-athletes must carry at least a 3.20 cumulative grade-point average, be in at least their second year of competition with the Wildcats, and be a current letter winner.

NCAA DIVISION II PLAYOFF FORMAT

All football-playing members of the Great Northwest Athletic Conference compete in the NCAA Division II Super Regional III, which also includes teams from the Great American Conference, Mid-America Intercollegiate Athletics Association and the Northern Sun Intercollegiate Conference. Six teams from this region, and each of the other three super regions across the country, qualify for the playoffs.

In order to be guaranteed a spot in the post-season, a GNAC team must finish among the top four teams in the final super regional poll.
