GREG COLLINS

- >> 50 wins at WKU
- >> 70.0 percent winning percentage in Diddle Arena
- >> 20 wins in two of three seasons

Following six seasons on the WKU coaching staff, Greg Collins was named the 11th head coach in Lady Topper Basketball history on March 27, 2018, and is in his fourth season as the head coach in 2021-22.

Due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Lady Toppers played a reduced and altered schedule in 2020-21. WKU played only 22 regular season games, the fewest games for the Lady Toppers since the 1974-75 season.

WKU came into the 2020-21 season as one of the youngest teams in the country and that youth showed with 14 games decided by less than 10 points, including six one-possession games. Overall, WKU featured six true freshmen and one redshirt freshman.

Hope Sivori had a breakout season, locking up C-USA Co-Freshmen of the Year honors along with All-Freshmen Team accolades. Raneem Elgedawy joined Sivori in earning postseason awards. Elgedawy was named to the All-C-USA First Team after missing the first half of the season. Meral Abdelgawad also brought home hardware after being tabbed to the C-USA All-Defensive Team.

In 2019-20, Collins led the Lady Toppers to their eighth straight 20-win season marking a new program record topping the previous seven-season 20-win streak from 1982-83 to 1988-89 set by former head coach Paul Sanderford. WKU finished the season 22-7 overall and 14-4 in Conference USA.

The Lady Toppers defended Diddle Arena, going a perfect 13-0 on their home court in 2019-20. WKU was one of only 10 NCAA Division I teams to complete an undefeated home slate in 2019-20.

After breakout seasons in 2018-19, Dee Givens and Raneem Elgedawy continued their surge in 2019-20. Both were named to the All-Conference USA First Team after stellar seasons. Givens was also tabbed to the C-USA All-Defensive Team.

After starting the C-USA portion of the schedule 0-2, the Lady Toppers bounced back winning 14 of their last 16 games that included a 10-game winning streak. WKU finished the season with a 31st place RPI ranking, reaching the top 30 several times throughout the season. WKU was projected

In his first season at the helm of the program, Collins led the Lady Toppers to a 20-15 overall record and guided the program to its 1,000th all-time win.

Givens enjoyed a breakout season in Collins' first year, emerging as one of the most electric players in C-USA and earning First Team All-C-USA honors following the season. Elgedawy also made a jump from her Freshman of the Year campaign, becoming WKU's most reliable post option inside and picking up Second Team All-C-USA accolades.

Sitting at 14-13 after a four-game skid in mid-February, Collins righted the ship as WKU won four of its final six games, including a home win over archrival Middle Tennessee and two games in the Postseason WNIT to reach the 20-win plateau.

Collins has been instrumental in the emergence of the Lady Toppers on the national scene over the last 10 seasons, helping to lead the program to four conference tournament championships and NCAA appearances over that span. In the seven years since WKU's move to C-USA, Collins has helped to push WKU to two regular season titles and three tournament championships.

In Collins' six seasons on the Lady Topper staff before being named head coach, WKU won 154 games, the most among all C-USA teams in that timeframe. Under his tutelage, WKU has produced three C-USA Players of the Year, including 2018 winner Tashia Brown, and has had 13 First Team All-Conference selections.

His presence has also been felt on the recruiting trail where he helped WKU secure a top 100 signing class in 2014, including Kentucky Miss Basketball Ivy Brown.

Prior to coming to WKU, Collins spent five seasons as an assistant coach at the University of Arkansas. The Razorbacks finished 24-9 in his final year with the team in 2011-12, advancing to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. Collins also helped guide Arkansas to WNIT appearances in both 2009 and 2011.

His impact also extended into recruiting where he was key in signing the highest ranked player in the Razorbacks' top 25 class of 2008 - Louisville native C'eira Ricketts. Ricketts was named SEC Freshman of the Year following her first season, and went on to become an Associated Press All-America selection.

Prior to going to Fayetteville under head coach Tom Collen, Collins was on the staff for five seasons at Louisville. The Cardinals made three straight NCAA Tournament appearances during that time, and earned the program's first-ever Top 25 ranking. U of L won 70 percent of its games during Collins' tenure.

Collins was responsible for the development of the U of L post players, helping develop a pair of WNBA draft picks in Lori Nero and Jazz Covington.

Collins went to Louisville after serving as an assistant athletic director and assistant coach at DuPont Manual High School in Louisville. Along with his assistant athletic director duties, he was the junior varsity head coach and the assistant varsity coach. While at Manual, the Lady Crimsoms advanced to the semifinals of the state tournament in 2000 and recorded a runner-up finish in 2001.
