NOTES

FAST START

Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne were recognized with Conference USA weekly accolades in the league's first week of distribution this season after last week's wins. Briggs was selected as the Offensive Player of the Week while Dieudonne was chosen as the Setter of the Week.

MORE AWARDS

A week later, Dieudonne hauled in another Setter of the Week award after facilitating the Tops to a .329 hitting clip with 64 assists across the team's pair of weekend sweeps. Dieudonne added her third C-USA Setter of the Week nod on Feb. 22 following a 2-0 weekend against Charlotte.

BIG WEEK = BIG AWARDS

On Feb. 22, Lauren Matthews was tabbed the C-USA Offensive Player of the Week. Not done there, Matthews would also earn the AVCA's recognition of National Player of the Week.

Matthews averaged 6.50 kills per set, 1.17 blocks per set, 0.17 digs per set for an outrageous 7.42 points per set and .630 hitting percentage across the two matches. The junior connected for kills on 23 of her first 24 swings of the match and deep into the third set was on pace to break the NCAA single-match record of .950 for 20 or more attempts. She finished with a career-high 25 kills in the three-set sweep of Charlotte for an average of 8.33 kills per set which went up to 9.00 points per set when factoring in her trio of blocks. Matthews' .828 hitting percentage in Monday's match is the second-best percentage of hitters with at least 20 attempts in all of NCAA Volleyball this season. More impressively, Matthews' 25 kills are the most in a three-set match across the entire country this season.

PATCHES

WKU Volleyball will be wearing "AC" patches on all of its jerseys this season to honor the life of Hilltopper legend Alyssa Cavanaugh who passed away on December 25, 2020. Cavanaugh is the most-decorated player in program history. MORE ON P. 6

QUICK PAUSE

WKU Volleyball is back in action after last weekend's matches at Old Dominion were postponed due to a positive COVID-19 result in the Hilltoppers' Tier 1 testing group.

PRESEASON C-USA POLL

After a 2019 season that saw WKU Volleyball continue to climb to new heights, the Conference USA coaches have picked the Hilltoppers to win the league's East division this season. Lauren Matthews was selected as the Conference USA Preseason Player of the Year and was joined on the Preseason All-Conference team by teammates Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne.

While team divisions have never been used in Conference USA Volleyball, they've been utilized for softball and football in years prior in addition to being added for other sports this year. Travis Hudson's crew was predicted to win its division this spring while Rice beat out North Texas in the Coaches Poll for the top spot in the West division.

CENTURY MARK IN C-USA

When including regular-season and Conference USA Tournament matches, WKU Volleyball owns a record of 101-7 against fellow C-USA teams entering this weekend's contests with the 49ers.

WELCOME TO THE HILL

For the first time in WKU Volleyball history, WKU Volleyball learned it'd be hosting the NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds during the 2019 season. With a 31-1 record along with the Conference USA regular season and tournament championships, the Red and White locked up the program's 10th automatic – and 12th overall – bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Joining the host Hilltoppers on The Hill on Dec. 5 and 6, 2019, were Kennesaw State, Louisville and Samford. WKU would sweep Kennesaw State in the opening round to advance to the Second Round for the fourth time in program history. On Friday night, WKU and Louisville would face off in a battle. While the Cardinals came away with a hard fought five-set win, Hilltopper Nation created an atmosphere that was talked about nation wide.

RECORD NUMBERS

Hilltopper Nation showed up by the masses to support the Lady Toppers inside Diddle Arena with record-setting crowds on back-to-back nights for the NCAA Tournament. Thursday night, 4,514 were in attendance to watch the Tops win their fourth-ever NCAA Tournament match. One night later, 5,023 people came through the arena doors to watch the rematch between WKU and Louisville. While the Tops bowed out of the tournament, a statement was made that Diddle Arena was near the top of the list of volleyball atmospheres across the country. The two-day attendance of 9,537 ranked fourth of the 16 host sites behind only the three national attendance leaders across the NCAA Volleyball season, Nebraska, Hawai'i and Wisconsin. Friday night's attendance alone topped the two-day total of eight of the other sites.

30-WIN SEASONS

For the seventh time in the last nine seasons, WKU Volleyball has reached the 30-win plateau, finishing 32-2 on the season. Nine of those 30-win seasons have come under Hudson. WKU was the first team in all of NCAA Volleyball to 30 wins in 2019 in addition to lead all NCAA teams in wins with 32, tying just Boston University Women's Hockey and South Carolina Women's Basketball.

ALL-AMERICAN

After earning Player of the Year honors from the AVCA's South Region and Conference USA, Lauren Matthews became the ninth different Lady Topper to earn All-American honors in WKU Volleyball history – all coming under head coach Travis Hudson. After missing nearly a month of her freshman season to an injury, Matthews exploded for a dominant sophomore campaign that resulted in her being an AVCA Honorable Mention All-American. Matthews' selection gives the WKU program 21 AVCA All-America selections since 2005.

YEAR 25

Head Coach Travis Hudson concluded his 25th season of coaching on The Hill in 2019. Overall, Hudson's career record was 642-215, good for a .749 winning percentage at that point. Since earning his first regular-season title in 2000, Hudson has 15 under his belt, including one in each of the seven years from 2011-17. After earning the tournament title in 2019, Hudson has led the Red and White to 10 conference tourney crowns since 2002.

A few months after WKU Volleyball packed Diddle Arena for a couple volleyball match, Hudson received a phone call from university president Dr. Timothy Caboni, informing the veteran coach he had been selected to WKU's prestigious Hall of Distinguished Alumni. Hudson was inducted into the HODA in October 2020.

IT'S LONELY AT THE TOP

Lauren Matthews, Sophia Cerino and the WKU team combined to lead the NCAA in five different categories across the 2019 season. Matthews led all players in hitting percentage, working at a .448 clip. Cerino would lead the nation in both aces (83) and aces per set (0.70), ripping through opponents' serve-receives. As a team, WKU led the country in sweeps (23) and winning percentage at .941.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returned for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson was one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive,

HOPE FOR HARLIE

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 15-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then,

Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Hilltopper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2004, nine-year-old Jaclyn Murphy was diagnosed with a medulloblastoma, a malignant brain tumor. While undergoing treatment, she was inspired by a large framed photo on the hospital wall of a joyful, young woman lacrosse player celebrating her team's NCAA championship.

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit :FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .749 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

TOP-25 RANKINGS

WKU Volleyball came in at No. 25 in the 2021 AVCA Preseason Spring Coaches Poll. After concluding the 2019 Poll at No. 22, the Tops are back in action after not playing enough in fall 2020 to qualify for the rankings. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 nine of the last 10 seasons. The Red and White moved up a spot to No. 24 in the Jan. 26 poll. Most recently, the Tops climbed a couple more spots to No. 20.

RECEIVING VOTES

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 11-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2010 campaign. The 2018 season marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

20-WIN SEASONS

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 20 seasons (2000-19), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Lady Toppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

ALL-TIME VS. RANKED TEAMS

Following a pair of ranked wins at Rice, WKU is now 2-1 on the 2019 season against top-25 opposition. The squad's lone loss came to No. 24 Louisville on Sept. 6. WKU is now 8-18 all-time when facing a top-25 squad including a 7-10 mark since the beginning of the 2012 campaign.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 12-11 against Power Five opponents.

WKU Volleyball is now 2-0 all-time against Arizona State and 3-6 all-time against Pac-12 programs (3-3 in last six meetings).

Additionally, on the first day of Louisville's Fleur de Lis Tournament, WKU faced off against Arizona State and No. 24 Louisville, marking the first time since 2013 that the Red and White faced two Power Five opponents in the same day. WKU has met two Power Five squads on the same day a total of five times in program history, splitting the day four times and sweeping the day once (2012).

WKU downed Ohio State out of the Big Ten in a 3-0 sweep on Friday night of the Lady Toppers' Holiday Inn - University Plaza Invite. The Red and White swept the Buckeyes in the second-straight meeting, taking a decision on each team's home court.

The Tops closed the season with its second loss to Louisville on the season in the second round of the NCAA Tournament. The Cardinals handed WKU its only two losses on the season and would advance to the Elite Eight after upsetting Texas in Austin.

651 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

He enters the weekend series with a career record of 651-215. He became just the 15th active coach in all of NCAA Division I Volleyball to reach the 650 milestone.

2019 REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

After being picked to finish third in the 2019 Preseason Coaches Poll while collecting one lone first place vote, WKU Volleyball had a bone to pick with the league - so the Lady Toppers went out and beat all of them en route to a perfect 14-0 regular season record and championship. With that title, the Red and White have collected the regular season championship five of their six seasons in Conference USA. WKU is the fifth team in C-USA to post an unbeaten conference record and fifth in program history to do so as well.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Following the 2019-20 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 14th consecutive season with a 3.514 GPA. The honor marks the 18th time a Hilltopper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

In total, 227 Division I women's teams were honored with WKU representing one of nine Conference USA programs on the list including: Charlotte, Louisiana Tech, Middle Tennessee, North Texas, Old Dominion, Rice, Southern Miss and UTEP in addition to the Red and White.

ALYSSA CAVANAUGH

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL).

Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Hilltoppers to 123 wins, four NCAA Tournament Appearances and eight total C-USA championships.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant but, unfortunately, she would continue to face challenges from the after-effects of the procedure and diagnosis.

From her volleyball fame, she was able to use her platform to help advocate for others in need of a bone marrow transplant, even after she received hers. Alyssa would help raise awareness for the Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation; an organization that helped the Cavanaugh family throughout this Leukemia journey.

Alyssa passed away on Dec. 25, 2020 at Norton Hospital in Louisville, Ky., at the age of 24.

Ultimately, her impact during her time on this Earth was unquantifiable. Although she was here for only 24 years, her legacy lives on infinitely because of the quality in which she lived them.

WKU Volleyball will wear an "AC" patch this season in honor of Alyssa.

ALYSSA CAVANAUGH: YOU WERE MADE FOR GREATNESS
