NOTES

SETTING THEMSELVES APART

The Hilltoppers are the only to rank in the top 10 in both hitting percentage and opponent hitting percentage in NCAA Volleyball this season.

WKU is hitting .353 (2nd) this season and holding opponents to a .126 (10th) rate.

SINGLE DIGITS

In its final home Conference USA series, WKU held FIU to single digits in the final two sets between the sides (25-8, 25-9). FIU became the first team WKU has held to single points in two different sets this season. WKU has now held seven different opponents to a total of eight sets in single-digit scoring at the conclusion of the C-USA Tournament.

In WKU's Feb. 8, 2021 sweep of Florida Atlantic, the Hilltoppers would hold the Owls to just five points in the opening frame, the fewest in the rally-scoring era by an opponent (since 2001). On March 27, WKU would hold Old Dominion to just 6 points in a frame.

THERE'S A FIRST TIME FOR EVERYTHING

WKU Volleyball picked up its first win in program history over a current Big 12 squad as the Hilltoppers downed West Virginia, 3-1. The Mountaineers were ranked in the AVCA Top 15 in the fall on numerous occasions before opening their spring slate in Diddle Arena on March 12. WKU is now 1-6 all-time against Big 12 teams.

MAXIMUM CAPACITY

No. 21 WKU Volleyball earned a 3-1 victory over West Virginia in front of a maximum-capacity crowd of 1,203 fans inside E.A. Diddle Arena Friday, March 12.

WEEKLY AWARDS

Paige Briggs and Nadia Dieudonne were recognized with Conference USA weekly accolades in the league's first week of distribution this season. Briggs was selected as the Offensive Player of the Week while Dieudonne was chosen as the Setter of the Week.

MORE AWARDS

A week later, Dieudonne hauled in another Setter of the Week award after facilitating the Tops to a .329 hitting clip with 64 assists across the team's pair of weekend sweeps. Dieudonne added her third C-USA Setter of the Week nod on Feb. 22 following a 2-0 weekend against Charlotte. In the March 2 awards, Dieudonne added her fourth Setter of the Week nod of the season while Briggs added her second Offensive Player of the Week honor. Dieudonne added one last nod in the final week of distribution.

VOLLEYBALL IN THE COMMONWEALTH

Four teams from the state of Kentucky earned a spot in the 48-team NCAA Tournament. Joining the Tops in the Bubble are Kentucky, Louisville and Morehead State. The only state represented by more schools this season is Texas. The Lone Star state is represented by Texas, Rice, Texas State, Baylor & TAMU Corpus Christi. The state of Kentucky saw three teams advance to the Sweet 16 - the most of any state.

BIG WEEK = BIG AWARDS

On Feb. 22, Lauren Matthews was tabbed the C-USA Offensive Player of the Week. Not done there, Matthews would also earn the AVCA's recognition of National Player of the Week.

Matthews averaged 6.50 kills per set, 1.17 blocks per set, 0.17 digs per set for an outrageous 7.42 points per set and .630 hitting percentage across the two matches. The junior connected for kills on 23 of her first 24 swings of the match and deep into the third set was on pace to break the NCAA single-match record of .950 for 20 or more attempts. She finished with a career-high 25 kills in the three-set sweep of Charlotte for an average of 8.33 kills per set which went up to 9.00 points per set when factoring in her trio of blocks. Matthews' .828 hitting percentage in Monday's match is the second-best percentage of hitters with at least 20 attempts in all of NCAA

Volleyball this season. More impressively, Matthews' 25 kills are the most in a three-set match across the entire country this season.

SENIOR CLASS AWARD FINALIST

Nadia Dieudonne was recently narrowed down from one of 30 candidates to one of 10 finalists for the Senior CLASS Award. She is the only Power 5 player to make the cut. The honor is awarded to student-athletes who have notable achievements in four different areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

STRAIGHT SHOOTING

WKU has dropped just six sets all season winning 69 of 75 total sets played this season. WKU's second match against Marshall was the first time all season the Tops trailed in a contest after the Herd claimed the opening frame to end WKU's 25-consecutive sets won streak. West Virginia would also claim the opening frame over the Tops before the Red and White responded with three-straight sets. Washington State forced the first five-set match of the season against WKU.

PATCHES

WKU Volleyball will be wearing "AC" patches on all of its jerseys this season to honor the life of Hilltopper legend Alyssa Cavanaugh who passed away on December 25, 2020. Cavanaugh is the most-decorated player in program history. MORE ON P. 6

WELL-DESERVED SUPERLATIVES

WKU hauled in six total AVCA South All-Region accolades the organization announced Tuesday. Paige Briggs earned Region Player of the Year honors while Travis Hudson earned the seventh Region Coach of the Year award of his career. Briggs, Nadia Dieudonne, Lauren Matthews and Katie Isenbarger were tabbed First Team All-Region while Kayland Jackson earned Honorable Mention status.

QUICK PAUSE

WKU Volleyball is back in action after its Feb. 14 & 15 matches at Old Dominion were postponed due to a positive COVID-19 result in the Hilltoppers' Tier 1 testing group. That series will now be played the final weekend of the regular season, March 26-27.

CENTURY MARK IN C-USA

When including regular-season and Conference USA Tournament matches, WKU Volleyball owns a record of 112-7 against fellow C-USA teams entering the Conference USA Tournament.

WELCOME TO THE HILL

For the first time in WKU Volleyball history, WKU Volleyball learned it'd be hosting the NCAA Tournament First and Second Rounds during the 2019 season. With a 31-1 record along with the Conference USA regular season and tournament championships, the Red and White locked up the program's 10th automatic - and 12th overall - bid to the NCAA Tournament.

Joining the host Hilltoppers on The Hill on Dec. 5 and 6, 2019, were Kennesaw State, Louisville and Samford. WKU would sweep Kennesaw State in the opening round to advance to the Second Round for the fourth time in program history. On Friday night, WKU and Louisville would face off in a battle. While the Cardinals came away with a hard fought five-set win, Hilltopper Nation created an atmosphere that was talked about nation wide.

RECORD NUMBERS

Hilltopper Nation showed up by the masses to support the Tops inside Diddle Arena with record-setting crowds on back-to-back nights for the NCAA Tournament. Thursday night, 4,514 were in attendance to watch the Tops win their fourth-ever NCAA Tournament match. One night later, 5,023 people came through the doors to watch the rematch between WKU and Louisville. While the Tops bowed out of the tournament, a statement was made that Diddle Arena was near the top of the list of volleyball

HOPE FOR HARLIE

Harlie Bryant has not lived a typical 15-years-old's life. Though she is active and lively, Harlie has been through a lot after being diagnosed with a brain tumor behind her eyes in the spring of 2011. Since then,

Harlie has had CT scans, MRIs, surgeries, chemotherapy and more. With everything going on in her life, though, Harlie has kept a positive spirit.

Harlie's positive spirit is now being spread throughout the WKU Volleyball program after the Lady Toppers and Harlie were joined by the Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ), a charitable, non-profit organization that strives to enhance and strengthen the support system built around children with pediatric brain tumors. Through the program, adopted children become part of the team and build unique friendships. Children also gain an incredible group of caring role models to look up to when they need the extra support.

Harlie is now a Hilltopper. At every home match, she is with the team in the huddle and at introductions while she cheers with her family from the sidelines. The team's secret weapon, she is a constant reminder to the WKU student-athletes and coaching staff to keep fighting no matter what stands in the way.

For more information about Harlie and her journey, visit HOPEFORHARLIE.ORG and follow on Twitter via @HOPEFORHARLIE.

FRIENDS OF JACLYN FOUNDATION

In 2004, nine-year-old Jaclyn Murphy was diagnosed with a medullo-blastoma, a malignant brain tumor. While undergoing treatment, she was inspired by a large framed photo on the hospital wall of a joyful, young woman lacrosse player celebrating her team's NCAA championship.

In 2005, two unrelated friends of the Murphy family told Northwestern University's Lacrosse coach about Jaclyn's story and asked them if they could help. The team promptly adopted Jaclyn as an honorary member. Jaclyn's strength, courage, relentless spirit and joy for life inspired everyone. The team began to play for Jaclyn and achieved a magical "perfect season," winning Northwestern's first NCAA championship in 64 years. Just three years after the program started, Jaclyn even predicted the final score, 13-10, in the championship final.

When Jaclyn was in the middle of the team's celebration, her parents realized that Jaclyn's relationship with the players - her adopted sisters - had a positive effect on her happiness and health. The Northwestern players knew that their relationship with Jaclyn had opened their eyes and hearts to a deeper appreciation for life.

Soon afterward, Jaclyn shared a big dream with her father. She wanted other children with pediatric brain tumors to have similar experiences of being honorary team members. The Murphys understood that it is ultimately the love and support of others that gives people the inspiration and courage to get through this challenging journey.

In 2005, Denis and Lynda Murphy started The Friends of Jaclyn Foundation (FOJ) to improve the quality of life for children with pediatric brain tumors and their families by pairing them with college and high school athletic teams. The FOJ program has grown incredibly to over 300 children who have been adopted by high school and college teams across the country.

For more information about FOJ, visit FRIENDSOFJACLYN.ORG.

NOTES

atmospheres across the country. The two-day attendance of 9,537 ranked fourth of the 16 host sites behind only the three national attendance leaders across the NCAA Volleyball season, Nebraska, Hawai'i and Wisconsin. Friday night's attendance alone topped the two-day total of eight of the other sites.

30-WIN SEASONS

In 2019 for the seventh time in the last nine seasons, WKU Volleyball reached the 30-win plateau, finishing 32-2 on the season. Nine of those 30-win seasons have come under Hudson. WKU was the first team in all of NCAA Volleyball to 30 wins in 2019 in addition to leading all NCAA teams in wins with 32, tying just Boston University Women's Hockey and South Carolina Women's Basketball.

2019 ALL-AMERICAN

After earning Player of the Year honors from the AVCA's South Region and Conference USA, Lauren Matthews became the ninth different Hilltopper to earn All-American honors in WKU Volleyball history – all coming under head coach Travis Hudson. After missing nearly a month of her freshman season to an injury, Matthews exploded for a dominant sophomore campaign that resulted in her being an AVCA Honorable Mention All-American. Matthews' selection gives the WKU program 21 AVCA All-America selections since 2005.

STRONG AND STEADY

Less than 18 months removed from his heart attack, Travis Hudson returned for his 25th season at the helm of the WKU Volleyball program. After collecting his 600th career win last season, Hudson was one of just 31 head coaches in all of DI volleyball returning for their 25th or better season. Even more impressive, Hudson is one of just 11 to spend their entire career at the same school.

The WKU veteran head coach has racked up a .749 career winning percentage - bettered by only Penn State's Russ Rose of the 11 one-program coaches. Hudson has averaged more than 25 wins per season across his career, bested by just Rose - a seven-time NCAA Champion - again.

TOP-25 RANKINGS

WKU Volleyball came in at No. 25 in the 2021 AVCA Preseason Spring Coaches Poll. After concluding the 2019 Poll at No. 22, the Tops are back in action after not playing enough in fall 2020 to qualify for the rankings. WKU has now appeared in the top 25 nine of the last 10 seasons. WKU Volleyball jumped two spots to the No. 18 ranking latest poll - the best ranking in program history since the program's best-ever mark at No. 16 in 2013.

RECEIVING VOTES

WKU Volleyball has now received votes in 11-consecutive seasons in the AVCA Coaches Poll, dating back to the 2010 campaign. The 2018 season marked the lone season in that span that the Red and White never broke into the top-25 ranks.

20-WIN SEASONS

It's no secret that what Travis Hudson has accomplished at WKU is special, but just how special are we talking?

For the past 21 seasons (2000-21), WKU has won at least 20 matches every single year. The Hilltoppers are one of just five programs in DI with an active streak of at least 20 seasons. During the last 20-year span, all five teams to win 20 or more games every season have been led by the same head coach.

ALL-TIME VS. RANKED TEAMS

WKU is now 10-18 all-time when facing a top-25 squad including a 9-10 mark since the beginning of the 2012 campaign following its Championship match win over No. 24 Rice and Second Round win over No. 18 Washington State.

POWER FIVE WINS

Since joining Conference USA prior to the 2014 campaign, WKU Volleyball is now 14-11 against Power Five opponents.

The Hilltoppers' have claimed two Power 5 victories this season, coming on March 12, 2021 over West Virginia inside Diddle Arena and April 15, 2021 against Washington State.

665 AND COUNTING

With his Oct. 21, 2018 win over Middle Tennessee, WKU Volleyball veteran head coach Travis Hudson secured his 600th career victory. Hudson joins an elite group of leaders to hit the milestone and is just the 19th active DI volleyball coach to achieve the feat.

Hudson became the 58th DI volleyball coach all-time to win 600 or more matches in their career and is one of just 18 to do it all with the same team. Hudson is also the only coach in Conference USA history with 600 or more wins all at the DI level.

He enters the weekend tilt against Old Dominion with a career record of 665-215. He become just the 15th active coach in all of NCAA Division I Volleyball to reach the 650 milestone.

2019 REGULAR SEASON CHAMPIONS

After being picked to finish third in the 2019 Preseason Coaches Poll while collecting one lone first place vote, WKU Volleyball had a bone to pick with the league - so the Lady Toppers went out and beat all of them en route to a perfect 14-0 regular season record and championship. With that title, the Red and White have collected the regular season championship five of their six seasons in Conference USA. WKU is the fifth team in C-USA to post an unbeaten conference record and fifth in program history to do so as well.

TRAVIS HUDSON: OFF THE COURT

The off-season between WKU Volleyball head coach Travis Hudson's 23rd and 24th seasons on The Hill was quite possibly the most memorable one of his tenure with the Lady Toppers. Following a five-set loss to No. 4-seed, and host, Kentucky in the Second Round of the 2017 NCAA Tournament, Hudson delivered an emotional message that resonated across the country as he quickly became an internet sensation. With countless texts, tweets, emails, calls, direct messages, letters - you name it - Hudson's prideful message had been heard as thousands of people reached out to the veteran Western Kentucky head coach.

Fast forward to Easter weekend 2018. On a rare Saturday off from spring season, Hudson was catching up on yard work when he headed to the hardware store. He ended up in the emergency room, actively experiencing a widow-maker heart attack. Such heart attacks have around a 12 percent survival rate, but Hudson - a cheater of death on numerous occasions now (bus crash, melanoma, heart attack) - drove himself to the ER.

Back on the court days later, Hudson returned to direct his 24th year of volleyball from his alma mater.

EXCELLENCE IN THE CLASSROOM

Following the 2019-20 school year, WKU earned the AVCA Team Academic honor for the 14th consecutive season with a 3.514 GPA. The honor marks the 18th time a Hilltopper team has earned the recognition since 1999.

ALYSSA CAVANAUGH

On Wednesday, Sept. 5, 2018, the WKU Volleyball family received the heartbreaking news that recent graduate and four-time All-American Alyssa Cavanaugh had been diagnosed with Acute Lymphoblastic Leukemia (ALL).

Cavanaugh made the news public a day later.

During her four decorated seasons with WKU Volleyball, Cavanaugh helped the Hilltoppers to 123 wins, four NCAA Tournament Appearances and eight total C-USA championships.

WKU Athletics and the Cavanaugh family teamed up to host a Bone Marrow Registry event across four home events during the week of Oct. 29 with Hilltopper Basketball, Lady Topper Basketball and WKU Volleyball all participating. More than 650 people joined the registry through the event.

While the drive did not lead to any bone marrow matches for Cavanaugh, an unexpected twist brought the news she'd been hoping for. Her father, Eric, was found to be a match for his daughter - news the family announced on Jan. 15, 2019. Less than two weeks later, Cavanaugh shared that she was finally in remission.

On Feb. 19, 2019, Cavanaugh would undergo a successful bone marrow transplant but, unfortunately, she would continue to face challenges from the after-effects of the procedure and diagnosis.

From her volleyball fame, she was able to use her platform to help advocate for others in need of a bone marrow transplant, even after she received hers. Alyssa would help raise awareness for the Bone Marrow & Cancer Foundation; an organization that helped the Cavanaugh family throughout this Leukemia journey.

Alyssa passed away on Dec. 25, 2020 at Norton Hospital in Louisville, Ky., at the age of 24.

Ultimately, her impact during her time on this Earth was unquantifiable. Although she was here for only 24 years, her legacy lives on infinitely because of the quality in which she lived them.

WKU Volleyball will wear an "AC" patch this season in honor of Alyssa.
