THE JUMP BALL

ABOUT THE TOPS

• WKU Hilltopper Basketball completed a regular-season sweep of rival Middle Tennessee with an 82-80 victory on Saturday night inside E.A. Diddle Arena. Redshirt sophomore Teagan Moore tied his career high with 28 points off the bench in his return from a five-game injury absence. Senior forward Grant Newell added an efficient 20 points and seven rebounds, while LJ Hackman chipped in 14 as WKU shot 48.9% from the field and 87.5% at the free throw line, knocking down a season-best 28 free throws in conference play to seal the win and move to 14-11 overall and 7-7 in Conference USA.

• Depth has been a major strength for WKU this season as the Hilltoppers are averaging 33.0 bench points per game to rank first in CUSA and top-20 nationally. The WKU reserves have delivered a consistent scoring spark, topping 40 bench points five times, highlighted by 56 against Bethel, 54 against Evansville and 46 in both the Tennessee Tech and Campbellsville contests. The Hilltoppers have posted over 30 bench points in nine of their last 11 outings, including each of the last five games.

• WKU is among the top rebounding teams in the country, ranking top-25 nationally with 40.4 rebounds per game and top-15 nationally with 14.0 offensive boards per outing. The Hilltoppers have topped 40 rebounds in 15 contests this season, including eight CUSA games. In league play, WKU paces CUSA with 39.1 rebounds and 14.16 offensive boards per game.

• WKU has been forced to navigate a challenging stretch of injuries to key contributors this season, reshaping its rotation in both the frontcourt and backcourt. Graduate forward Bryant Selebangue suffered a torn Achilles against Marshall on Dec. 10 and is out for the year, while junior forward Louie Semona has been sidelined with a back injury following the Dec. 19 matchup with Tulsa. In the backcourt, graduate guard Terrion Murdix missed eight games after sustaining a knee injury on Nov. 27 against South Florida before returning to action on Jan. 8 at New Mexico State, and redshirt sophomore guard Teagan Moore was injured in the final minute of the Liberty game on Jan. 21, missing five contests before returning last Saturday against Middle Tennessee. Freshman guard Armelo Boone injured his ankle in practice following the Liberty game, sat out two games against Sam Houston and Kennesaw State, then returned to play three consecutive games before re-aggravating the same ankle, which kept him out of the Middle Tennessee game on Feb. 14 and leaves his status questionable for Wednesday's road game at Delaware.

• Redshirt sophomore guard Teagan Moore has emerged as WKU's go-to offensive option, pacing the Hilltoppers with 17.8 points per game to go along with 5.9 rebounds. He has reached double figures in 17 of his 20 appearances this season, scoring at least 15 points 16 times and posting seven 20-point outings. The Dry Ridge, Kentucky, native is putting together an efficient all-around shooting campaign, converting 50.5% from the field, 37.7% from beyond the arc and 81.0% at the free throw line. Those numbers place him among the league's elite, ranking third in CUSA in scoring (17.8 ppg), fourth in field goal percentage (50.5%) and fifth in free throw percentage (81.0%). Most recently, Moore matched his career-high with 28 points in WKU's 82-80 win over long-time rival Middle Tennessee on Saturday, Feb. 14, after missing five games due to injury. In that performance, he went 6-of-10 from the floor, 3-of-4 from 3-point range and a career-best 13-of-15 at the foul line, including a perfect 2-of-2 trip to seal the victory with three seconds on the clock.

• Senior forward Grant Newell has provided a reliable scoring punch in his first season on The Hill, averaging 12.0 points and 4.3 rebounds across 25 games. He has scored in double figures 18 times, including each of the last nine contests. Newell enters the week riding a hot stretch, totaling 43 points over his last two outings with 23 in the win over FIU and 20 more in the victory against Middle Tennessee. During that span, he has been highly efficient, shooting 15-of-26 (57.7%) from the field and 9-of-15 (60.0%) from 3-point range.

• Freshman guard Armelo Boone has emerged as one of the league's top newcomers, tying for a conference-best four CUSA Freshman of the Week honors while averaging 11.5 points, a team-best 6.5 rebounds and 1.3 steals. The Lexington, Kentucky, native has recorded three double-doubles this season — 16 points and 12 boards against Tulsa, 16 points and 13 rebounds at Sam Houston and 13 points and 13 rebounds against Liberty — to become the first WKU freshman with multiple double-doubles in a season since Charles Bassey in 2018-19.

• Graduate forward Blaise Keita has recently become a steady force in the paint for WKU, grabbing 44 rebounds over his last five games — the best five-game stretch of his Division I career. Against Middle Tennessee on Jan. 31, Keita dominated the boards with a career-high 14 rebounds while adding a season-high seven points, two steals and a block in a career-best 29 minutes, finishing with a game-high plus-20 plus-minus. Keita recorded 12 points and 10 rebounds in just 22 minutes for his second career double-double on Saturday, Feb. 5, against FIU. He shot a perfect 5-of-5 from the floor and 2-of-2 at the line, added a steal and finished with a team-best plus-15 plus-minus. It was his first double-double since Nov. 20, 2022 during his Nebraska tenure, when he had 14 points and 10 rebounds in a win over Arkansas-Pine Bluff.

WKU COMPLETES SEASON SWEEP OF MIDDLE TENNESSEE WITH 82-80 WIN ON SATURDAY

BOWLING GREEN, Ky. — WKU Hilltopper Basketball defeated Middle Tennessee 82-80 on Saturday night inside E.A. Diddle Arena.

The Hilltoppers (14-11, 7-7 CUSA) earned a two-point win over the Blue Raiders (12-13, 6-8 CUSA) in front of a season-high crowd of 4,023 at Diddle Arena, as Teagan Moore tied his career high with 28 points off the bench in his return from a five-game injury absence. Grant Newell added 20 and LJ Hackman scored 14 while WKU shot 48.9% from the field and 87.5% at the line to complete a 2-0 regular-season sweep of Middle Tennessee.

HOW IT HAPPENED

- Grant Newell set the tone early, scoring five of WKU's first seven points as the Hilltoppers took a 7-6 lead into the first media timeout. Newell opened the game by knocking down his first 3-point attempt and then finishing at the rim for his second basket, while Terrion Murdix added a driving layup for WKU's other early score.
- Middle Tennessee answered with an 8-3 run to go in front 14-10, but the Hilltoppers responded with a 12-2 spurt to regain the lead. LJ Hackman sparked the stretch with six points, hitting a 3-pointer and knocking down three free throws after being fouled on another 3-point attempt, before Newell and Teagan Moore buried back-to-back threes to push the WKU advantage to 22-16 with 9:22 left in the half.
- The Hilltoppers stretched the lead to nine at 27-18 after Leeroy Odiahi threw down an alley-oop dunk on a pass from Murdix and Moore converted an and-one at the rim. Middle Tennessee cut the deficit to 27-23 at the 7:14 mark, but WKU answered again as Newell scored five straight and Cam Haffner knocked down two free throws to make it 40-32 with just over two minutes remaining in the half. The Blue Raiders closed on a 5-2 run, trimming the margin to 42-37 at the break.
- WKU carried its momentum into the second half, using a 13-4 run to build a 55-41 lead with 16:04 to play. Blaise Keita, Murdix, Hackman and Moore all attacked the rim for baskets during the surge, with Hackman scoring twice on drives and Moore adding a free throw to cap the stretch.
- Middle Tennessee clawed back with a 16-5 run of its own, holding WKU without a field goal for nearly four minutes. Moore and Keita combined for five free throws during that span, helping the Hilltoppers maintain a 60-57 edge with 12:12 remaining.
- The game swung back and forth over the next several minutes as Moore, Newell and Murdix scored at the rim, but the Blue Raiders moved in front 69-66 with 6:47 to play, their first lead of the half.
- The Hilltoppers sank 14 free throws in the closing minutes, with Moore, Hackman, Newell and Ryan Myers all converting at the stripe. Moore led the way with eight makes at the line down the stretch, including two with three seconds left to secure the 82-80 victory.

- Moore tied his career-high with 28 points, shooting 6-of-10 from the field, 3-of-4 from beyond the arc and a career-best 13-of-15 at the free throw line. He also grabbed five rebounds and recorded a steal in 26 minutes off the bench.

QUOTABLES

- "Very happy to get that win. I thought when it was 55-41, we were playing very, very well, scoring the ball, guarding. Then, like a lot of good teams do, they made a run, kind of figured out what we were doing on defense and we struggled to contain them, especially Smith. I thought Smith really got going and caused us some problems, both scoring and playmaking. But when it got to 66-62, I thought we did a good job with continuing to dig down deep, attack the rim. I thought we rebounded the ball better there in the last five to eight minutes and there was one second-chance bucket they got that had been a little bit of an issue all night. So, it's always good to dig down deep and figure out how to make plays to win. I think when a team starts building that connection, which I think we've really done the last three weeks, sometimes things go your way. So, I thought we got a couple stops there late in the game that were big. Obviously, 1-for-2 free throw to tie the game, went down there and without a timeout. Terrion [Murdix], Teagan [Moore] and Grant [Newell] executed exactly what we wanted them to do. Obviously, we wanted to attack the rim, put pressure on the basket. Teagan was able to do that. We did a good job making free throws all night, and we survived that last possession. So, very happy to get the win. It's obviously big for our team. We'll try to keep getting better these next couple days and play at Delaware on Wednesday." — Mahurim Family Foundation Head Coach Hank Plona, on the win over Middle Tennessee.
- "I mean, I absolutely love it. That gives you the most confidence in the world when just being out for two weeks can give you an ovation like that when you come back, and just feeling the love from the Diddle crowd definitely gave me a boost for this game." — G Teagan Moore, on checking into the game for the first time in the win over Middle Tennessee.
- "I think it definitely boosted us. Especially at the very end of the game. I mean, I could barely hear myself think at that last free throw and they were trying to get two misses, but, definitely when an opposing team comes in here and has a run like that in the second half, it's very important for the crowd to get into it and to give us a boost for the rest of the game, and I think they did a great job." — F Grant Newell, on the crowd in the win over Middle Tennessee.
- "I feel like I was just trailing down. I saw it come out and I just took it back in and just stayed in the moment." — G LJ Hackman, on his late tip-in in the win over Middle Tennessee.

Hank Plona was named the 17th head men's basketball coach at WKU, Director of Athletics Todd Stewart announced on Tuesday, April 2, 2024. Plona came to The Hill as an assistant in 2023. Prior to WKU, Plona was the head coach at Indian Hills (Iowa) Community College.

In Plona's first year as head coach, the team excelled on its home court, going 12-4 at Diddle Arena, even while dealing with injuries to key starters and reserves. Plona's leadership also helped him become a finalist for the prestigious Joe B. Hall Award, presented annually to the top first-time Division I head coach. His debut season continued WKU's momentum after their 2024 NCAA Tournament appearance.

As an assistant coach at WKU during the 2023-24 season, Plona was integral in the Hilltoppers returning to the NCAA Tournament for the first since 2013. The Tops led the country in adjusted tempo (75.2 possessions per game, per KenPom) and averaged 80.2 points per game, their most since the 1994-95 season (80.4 ppg) and best in Conference USA. Overall, WKU went 22-12 and won the Conference USA Tournament as the league's No. 3 seed.

One of Plona's All-American stars from Indian Hills, Don McHenry, was named All-CUSA, first team All-District, and CUSA Tournament MVP. The Milwaukee, Wisconsin native started 66 games for the Hilltoppers from 2023-25, averaging a team-best 16.0 points per game. He also led the Hilltoppers with 136 assists, shooting 42.7% from the field, 33.0% from three and 83.7% from the free throw line. Plona also coached Enoch Kalambay at Indian Hills. Kalambay played in 62 games for WKU from 2023-25, starting 22, while averaging 7.1 points per game and 4.4 rebounds per game in 19.7 minutes per game.

Depth was a hallmark of WKU's success during the 2023-24 season, as the Hilltoppers were 17th nationally in bench scoring at 28.8 points per game. Eight players averaged at least 18 minutes per game and six Hilltoppers averaged over 8 ppg.

In eight seasons as a head coach at Indian Hills, Plona won 86.5% of his games and led Indian Hills to eight consecutive ICCAC regular-season titles, six postseason conference titles and the NJCAA National Tournament seven times.

Over those eight seasons, Plona coached the Warriors to a 225-35 (.865) record. IHCC qualified for the NJCAA National Tournament in seven of those eight seasons. Plona led the team to eight consecutive ICCAC regular-season titles, six postseason conference titles and four district championships.

In his last season, Plona led Indian Hills to a semifinal run at the 2023 NJCAA National Tournament, the team's best finish since 2014. They were ranked No. 1 in six different polls during Plona's tenure and ranked in the national rankings all but one week, including 39 Top-10 rankings and 18 Top-five rankings over his last four seasons alone.

Plona coached 12 All-Americans in his time at IHCC, along with 42 All-Region performers. A total of 59 of his players moved on from IHCC to Division I schools, and nearly 20 of those former Warriors are currently playing professionally around the globe. One hundred twenty-three student-athletes garnered Iowa Community College Athletic Conference (ICCAC) All-Academic honors for their work in the classroom. As a team, the Warriors were named an NJCAA Academic Team of the Year during the 2021-22 campaign.

Plona was named the ICCAC Coach of the Year on four separate occasions while earning five NJCAA District Coach of the Year honors. Under Plona's tutelage, six consecutive Indian Hills Men's Basketball players were named ICCAC DI Men's Basketball Players of the Year. Along with the success of moving players on to the next level, Plona has seen an abundance of former assistant coaches earn spots at high-level programs throughout the country.

Notably, Tomas Woldetensae landed with 2019 National Champion Virginia, while the following season, Tyon Grant-Foster was sought out by Bill Self and the Kansas Jayhawks. Recent seasons also saw three former IHCC players join Power Five schools in Maurice Calloo (Oregon State), Chris Payton (Pittsburgh) and J'Vonne Hadley (Colorado).

Prior to his first head coaching job, Plona was an assistant coach at South Plains College in Levelland, Texas for four seasons. The team made three national tournament appearances in Plona's four seasons there, winning the national title in 2012 with an undefeated record. His team also made it to the championship game in 2015, just prior to Plona being named head coach at Indian Hills.

Plona spent one season as an assistant coach at IHCC (2010-11) and one as an assistant coach at Arkansas Fort-Smith (2009-10).

The Avon, Connecticut native was a student manager and graduate assistant at Providence College under Tim Welsh and Keno Davis.
