MATCHUP AT A GLANCE

• The Matchup

William & Mary welcomes nearby Norfolk State to open the 2023-24 season. Tip is scheduled for 5 p.m. at Kaplan Arena and is part of a women's-men's double header for W&M hoops.

• The Opponent

Norfolk State enters the new season after a strong 22-23 campaign. The Spartans won the MEAC Championship to earn a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Larry Vickers team finished with a 26-7, 11-3 MEAC record while touting the nation's top scoring defense, only allowing 50.7 ppg. The Spartans are the preseason favorites in the MEAC and had four players selected to preseason all-conference teams.

• A Look Back

The Erin Dickerson Davis era in Williamsburg got off to a fantastic start in year one. The Tribe posted a 18-12 record, eight more wins than the year before, and a 12-6 mark in conference play. The 12 CAA wins tied for the most league wins in program history, matching the 2020-21 squad's 12-6 mark. W&M made it to the conference semifinals a year ago and recorded their first postseason win since 2019.

• Cream of the Crop

W&M finished the regular season fourth in the CAA. The top-four finish was only the second time the Tribe had accomplished the feat since the turn of the century. The only other time was 2020-21 when they finished third.

• Home Cookin'

The Tribe start the new campaign with a three-game homestand in the season's first week. The last time W&M opened a season with three consecutive home games was in 1986.

• In-State Battles

The Tribe's 23-24 schedule features a plethora of Commonwealth opponents. The Tribe will face nine in-state teams this year over 10 contests, with seven of their 11 non-conference games being against Virginia teams.

• Preseason Prognostications

The CAA released their 2023-24 preseason poll last month with the Tribe selected ninth out of 14 teams. The leagues head coaches voted on the poll with Towson picked to repeat at regular season champs. Stony Brook, Northeastern and Charleston also recieved first-place votes.

• Used to the Limelight

Nylah Young was selected to the preseason All-CAA Second Team last month. Young, a transfer from nearby Hampton, was All-CAA third team with the Pirates last year averaging 14.1 ppg and 6 rpg. Before Hampton joined the CAA, Young was All-Big South Second Team as a sophomore and all-rookie team as a freshman.

• Welcome to the Show, Rook

W&M adds a trio of freshmen this season in a pair of guards, Cassidy Geddes and Monet Dance, and a forward, Cate Carlson.

• "Not Running From a Dogfight"

William & Mary's non-conference schedule is a challenging one to say the least. The Tribe will face three NCAA Tournament teams from a year ago, in Norfolk State, James Madison and Virginia Tech (Final Four). Four teams on this year's non-con schedule had 20+ wins a season ago. Coach E mentioned the tough schedule on CAA media day, "This conference is dogfight every game, the best way to get ready for a dogfight is fighting other dogs in the non-conference."

• The Brown Family Can Ball

Senior guard Lanni Brown has quite the basketball history in her family lineage. Her father, Dee, had a 13-year career in the NBA with Celtics, Raptors and Magic, averaging 11.1 ppg and 3.7 apg over his career. Lanni's sister, Lexie, was the ninth pick in the 2018 WNBA Draft and won a WNBA Championship in 2021 with the Chicago Sky. Lexie averaged 12.4 ppg this past season, now with the L.A. Sparks.

• Gone 'Portaling'

W&M added three new players this season from the transfer portal. Nylah Young (Hampton), Bella Nascimento (Manhattan) and Anahi-Lee Cauley (Villanova) will all be rocking the Green and Gold this season.

• Shoes to Fill

With the loss of Riley Casey (18.0 ppg), Sydney Wagner (16.2 ppg) and Bre Bellamy (7.6 ppg), the Tribe will need to replace roughly 63% of their scoring from a year ago. Either Casey or Wagner led the Tribe in scoring 30 of their 32 games last season.

• King's Fork Connections

Nylah Young and assistant coach Sugar Rodgers share a high school alma mater, attending King's Fork in Suffolk, Va. Rodgers, who was the all-time leading scorer at Georgetown and a WNBA champion with the Minnesota Lynx, set all kinds of records at King's Fork. Young went on to break Rodgers' single-game points record at the school, scoring 52 as a senior and scoring over 1,000 career points before graduating in 2019.

• Back to the Hardwood for Bolden-Morris

Director of Basketball Ops., Milan Bolden-Morris returns to basketball after spending a year as an offensive graduate assistant for Michigan football. She became the first woman to join a Power 5 football staff since the 1980s and helped the Wolverines to the College Football Playoff. Bolden-Morris returns to hoops in her first year with the Tribe. She was the leading scorer for Gerogetown in 2021-22 after beginning her career at Boston College, earning ACC all-rookie team honors.

HOME OF THE TRIBE: KAPLAN ARENA

About Kaplan

The home of the Tribe since 1971, Kaplan Arena hosts W&M basketball, volleyball and gymnastics. On the concourse and lower levels of the building are coaches and staff offices, serving as the homebase of the William & Mary athletic department. Named in 2016 after Jim ('57 basketball) and Jane ('56) Kaplan, the arena seats 8,600 for basketball, but can hold up to 11,300 for non-sporting events. Kaplan has played host to the likes of: the Beach Boys, Billy Joel, the Grateful Dead, Chicago and the Police, while also hosting speeches by former presidents Jimmy Carter and Gerald Ford. The facility also houses numerous locker rooms and the main weight rooms for the Tribe athletic programs. In the fall of 2023 state-of-the-art upgrades were made to the arena, including a new controllable lighting system, sound system and center-hung videoboard. Changes to the weight rooms were recently completed as well.

THE COACH "E" FILE

Erin Dickerson Davis was named as the sixth Division I head coach in Tribe women's basketball history on April 12, 2022.

In 2022-23, Davis led William & Mary to 18 wins — the most by a first-year head coach in program history. Additionally, the 12 CAA wins by the Tribe matched the record for most in a single-season. Under Davis, the Green and Gold finished the regular season fourth in the league and advanced to the program's sixth conference semifinal. The team finished first in the CAA at the free throw line, shooting 78.6%, and was second in 3-point field goals made per game at 7.3.

Davis also saw graduate guards Riley Casey and Sydney Wagner take their respective games to the next level as the duo was named preseason All-CAA. Casey went on to rack up 12 20-plus point games in '22-'23, fourth-best all-time, before being named CAA Scholar Athlete of the Year, and earning a spot on both the VaSID and All-CAA first teams. Meanwhile, Wagner was named Second-Team All-CAA and captured a spot on the All-Tournament Team. Casey also finished her final season with the Tribe sitting No. 2 on the team's single-season scoring list. Wagner capped off her incredible career in Green and Gold as the program's seventh-leading scorer.

Before arriving in Williamsburg, Davis served as the Associate Head Coach at Wake Forest University where she helped lead the Demon Deacons to a pair of postseason appearances, highlighted by the program's first NCAA Tournament berth in 30 seasons.

Davis joined the Wake Forest staff in 2020 as an assistant coach and was promoted to associate head coach in 2021. During her time with the Demon Deacons, she recruited and coached three All-Atlantic Coast Conference selections. She assisted with leading and managing all aspects the program, including the development and implementation of daily practice plans, and leading the program's offensive efforts and scouting strategies. She also coordinated all on and off-campus recruitment efforts of student-athletes.

Prior to Wake Forest, Davis was assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgetown University from 2017-20. In the 2018-19 season, the Hoyas had its most overall wins (19) in seven seasons and reached the quarterfinals of the WNIT. The team reached the second round of the WNIT in 2017-18 as well.

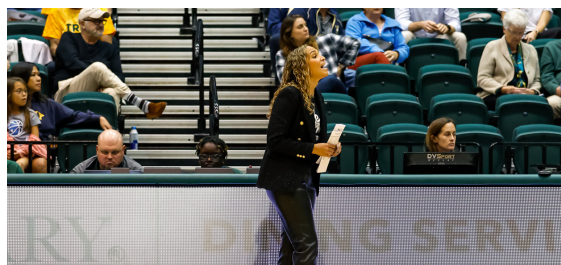

At Georgetown, she recruited and coached four All-Big East selections, one Defensive Player of the Year and one Most Improved Player of the Year. She helped the program sign a 2018 recruiting class that ranked first in the Big East.

Davis also held coaching positions at Towson University from 2015-17 (associate head coach/recruiting coordinator); Illinois State University from 2013-15 (assistant coach/recruiting coordinator); La Salle University from 2010-13 (assistant coach) and at Furman University from 2009-10 (assistant coach). Overall, she has recruited and coached 16 all-conference selections.

In 2021, The Athletic named Davis one of 22 assistant women's basketball coaches ready to lead their own program. She was also named a 2017 Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Thirty Under 30 honoree.

Davis has a master's degree in sports industry management from Georgetown University and a bachelor's degree in learning and organizational change from Northwestern University. While at Northwestern, she was a four-year scholarship athlete and letter winner in women's basketball. She was team captain for all four years.

A Chicago native, Davis and her husband, Thomas, are the parents of daughter, Lyla.
