2015-16 RECAP

Last season, the Broncos finished 17-15 overall and 8-10 in the MAC, good for fifth in the MAC West. WMU opened up the season 7-3, with all three losses coming against top-25 teams (#24 Michigan State, #20 Northwestern, #8 Mississippi State). The Broncos went on the road and defeated the eventual MAC Tournament Champions in Buffalo (92-78) on Jan. 20, 2016. WMU earned the No. 7 seed in the MAC Tournament, knocking out Northern Illinois in the opening round 94-52, the largest win in the school history in a MAC Tournament game. Jessica Jessing went on to be named to the All-MAC Honorable Mention team.

WHO'S RETURNING

The Broncos bring back one full-time starter from a year ago in Meredith Shipman, who started all 32 games. Just 41-percent of WMU's total starts will be returning this season, as last seasons seniors Jessica Jessing, Deborah Meeks, Alex Morton, and Miracle Woods finished up their careers. Including Shipman, WMU brings back six players that started at least one game last season with sophomore Breanna Mobley (16), junior Teagan Reeves (12), junior La-Tondra Brooks (2), junior Najee Smith (2) and junior Alexis Parks (1). Also returning for WMU are sophomores Meredith Miller, Deja Wimby and Logan McCane, who appeared in 26, 24 and 22 games, respectively. Expected to make a large impact this season is Cincinnati transfer Marley Hill, who redshirted last season due to NCAA transfer rules. Junior Aneisha Carlisle, who did not appear in any games last season, will also be returning after receiving playing time in 2014-15.

NEW FACES

A total of four newcomers will hit the court for WMU this season, with two coming in as true freshmen and two college transfers. Incoming freshman include Kamrin Reed

(Holt, Mich. / Holt HS) and Emma Van-Zanten (Grand Rapids, Mich. / Northview). Reed was named the Lansing State Journal Comeback Player of the year after suffering a season-ending injury her junior season but came back to average 21.0 points, 3.2 rebounds, 2.2 assists and 2.1 steals per game. VanZanten was a three-time All-Conference player and holds her school record for career blocks. Transfer students include Jasmyn Walker (Valparaiso) and Jillian Fletcher (West Virginia State). Walker led Valpo in scoring and rebounding after starting every game last season for the Crusaders while Fletcher played one season at WVSU.

2016-17 SCHEDULE

The Broncos officially open up the 2016-17 regular season as Davidson comes to town on Nov. 13. WMU has 11 non-conference games on the schedule, including a home game with the BIG's Michigan State on Friday, Nov. 18 and a road game at another BIG foe Michigan on Monday, Nov. 21. The Broncos will also play in the Missouri-Kansas City Tournament against UMKC and Eastern Kentucky the two days following Thanksgiving. WMU will finish out the regular season with four of the final five games at home in MAC play.

IN THE GYM RANGE

Senior Meredith Shipman enters 2016-17 14th in career 3-pointers made (100) and eighth in career 3-point field goal percentage (.350). In early January, Shipman led the nation in 3-point field goal percentage and finished top-40 at the end of the season. She had multiple 3-pointers made in 20 games, including a 9-for-14 performance at Toledo where she set the school record for 3-pointers made in a single game. Shipman has made at least one 3-pointer in 13 straight games coming into 2016-17.

DOUBLE-DOUBLE MACHINE

Sophomore Breanna Mobley was nearly unstoppable down the stretch of the 2015-16 season, where she finished with six double-doubles in the final nine games of the season. She ended the season with 9+ rebounds in nine of the final 10 games and scored in double-digits in seven of the final nine games. She finished second in MAC play in offensive rebounding (3.5 orpg) and fifth in rebounding (8.6 rpg). Mobley finished with a career-high 26 points against Northern Illinois (2/24) and had a career-high 17 rebounds at Northern Illinois (3/5).
