WESTERN MICHIGAN HEAD COACH TIM LESTER

Tim Lester was named the 16th head football coach in school history on Friday, January 13, 2017.

Lester has risen through the coaching ranks after completing a Hall of Fame playing career at Western Michigan. He was a four-year starter at quarterback at WMU from 1996-99, leading the Broncos to a Mid-American Conference championship appearance his senior season. Lester also made a stop as an assistant coach at his alma mater during the 2005 and 2006 seasons. A native of Wheaton, Ill., Lester earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics from Western Michigan in 2000 and was inducted into the Western Michigan Athletic Hall of Fame in 2011.

In his second season leading Western Michigan in 2018, he guided the Broncos to bowl eligibility for the fifth-straight season, a program record, and a trip to the Famous Idaho Potato Bowl. Five Broncos earned All-MAC honors, including two First Team selections, LeVante Bellamy and Luke Juriga. WMU led the MAC in Academic All-MAC selections with 20 and five of them went on to earn MAC Distinguished Scholar Athlete honors.

In his first season as head coach at Western Michigan in 2017, the Broncos led the Mid-American Conference with 12 all-conference selections and had 16 Academic All-MAC selections, five Distinguished Scholar-Athletes and a CoSIDA Academic All-District selection. As a team, the Broncos posted a 3.08 GPA, the second highest in program history. Offensive lineman Chukwuma Okorafor collected six All-America honors and Wyatt Pfeifer was an All-American as a long snapper.

Several school records were broken as running back Jarvion Franklin became WMU's all-time leading rusher with 4,867 career yards, and also set a school record for most career touchdowns with 56. Darius Phillips became the FBS all-time leader for career returns for TDs with 12 and tied the FBS record with five career pick-sixes. Phillips was named MAC Special Teams Player of the Year for the second-straight season and had 100-yard kickoff returns in back-to-back weeks to open the season against No. 4 Southern California and Michigan State. Both Okorafor (3rd round, Pittsburgh) and Phillips (5th round, Cincinnati), as well as defensive back Sam Beal (3rd round, NY Giants) were NFL draft picks.

Prior to taking the head coaching position at Western Michigan Lester was the quarterbacks coach at Purdue in 2016, mentoring sophomore signal-caller David Blough to 25 touchdown passes and 3,352 yards, averaging over 279 yards passing per game.

Lester served as Syracuse's quarterbacks coach from 2013 to 2015 and doubled as offensive coordinator in 2014 and 2015.

Prior to working at Syracuse, Lester was the head coach at Division III Elmhurst (Illinois) College from 2008 to 2012. Over five seasons, he posted a 33-19 record for a .635 winning percentage, second highest in school history. In his final season in 2012, he led the Blue Jays to a 10-2 record and a College Conference of Illinois and Wisconsin (CCIW) championship as well as Elmhurst's first NCAA playoff appearance. Lester was named the CCIW Coach of the Year that season.

Lester also served as an assistant at North Central College (2007) and Elmhurst (2002-03). He was the head coach at Division II Saint Joseph's College in 2004, receiving Independent Football Alliance Coach of the Year honors.

Lester started his playing career at Western Michigan with a bang, earning MAC Freshman of the Year honors in 1996. He was a Second Team All-MAC selection his junior and senior seasons. He finished his Bronco career ranked fourth in FBS history in passing yards (11,299) and sixth in touchdown passes (87). Lester set 17 school passing records and eight MAC records.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

New Mexico 28, Western Michigan 12

Aviation Bowl • December 9, 1961 • Dayton, Ohio

Western Michigan made its postseason debut in the inaugural Aviation Bowl on December 9, 1961.

New Mexico struck for early touchdowns in the first and third quarters to defeat the Broncos 28-12 in a chilled event. Freezing weather, including sleet and snow, nearly grounded the inaugural (and only) Aviation contest and limited the game to approximately 4,000 fans even though advance sales had surpassed 5,000.

The Broncos were led by quarterback Ed Chlebek, who completed 18 passes for 207 yards and one touchdown.

WMU fell behind 14-0, but bounced back on a Bob White scoring run from four yards out. New Mexico added two more scores before Chlebek found Dave Cooke in the end zone from five yards out for the final score of the game.

California Raisin Bowl • December 10, 1988 • Fresno, Calif.

Twenty-seven years after its first bowl trip, Western Michigan made its second after capturing nine wins and winning its first Mid-American Conference title.

Western Michigan fell behind by two scores before fighting back to take a 17-14 lead into halftime.

The Bulldogs hopped ahead 14-0 with 55 and 38-yard touchdown passes from Mark Barsotti to Andre Alexander. WMU rallied as Robert Oliver hauled in a 31-yard pass from Tony Kimbrough for the team's first touchdown.

Robert Davis followed with a 51-yard rushing TD to tie the game. John Creek made good on a 29-yard field goal to give the Broncos a 17-14 lead at the half.

The two teams traded touchdowns in the early portion of the third quarter before Fresno State scored two more TDs later in the frame with a running attack that had Darrell Rosette score from four yards away and Myron Jones from 26.

WMU closed the gap to five points on a Kimbrough six-yard score in the fourth quarter, but the ensuing two-point conversion failed the the Broncos were kept out of the end zone, sealing the Fresno State victory.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

Cincinnati 27, Western Michigan 24

International Bowl • January 6, 2007 • Toronto, Canada

Western Michigan played in its third bowl game in program history, taking on Big East opponent Cincinnati in the 2007 International Bowl and falling 27-24.

Cincinnati raced out to a 24-0 lead with 10 minutes to play in the half, but the Broncos scored 17 unanswered points in the latter portion of the second quarter to cut the deficit to 24-17 at intermission.

With WMU trailing 27-24 in the final frame, the Broncos missed a 51-yard game-tying field goal to force overtime with less than two minutes to play.

Cincinnati jumped ahead 24-0 with a 25-yard interception return for a touchdown, a pair of 21-yard touchdown passes from Nick Davila to International Bowl Most Valuable Player Dominick Goodman and a 37-yard field goal.

The Broncos used trickery to get the offense started. Sophomore cornerback E.J. Biggers found a streaking Jamarko Simmons on a 76-yard option pass off a double reverse in the second. Quarterback Ryan Cubit then hit Herb Martin with a 30-yard touchdown pass. Next, Matt Ludeman intercepted a pass to set up a 29-yard field goal by Nate Meyer as WMU pulled within a touchdown, 24-17.

The Broncos tied the score at 24-24 in the fourth quarter on a seven-yard rushing touchdown by Brandon West. Cincinnati kicked a 33-yard field goal with 6:11 remaining to go ahead 27-24. The Broncos then missed the potential game-tying field goal and Cincinnati ran out the clock.

Rice 38, Western Michigan 14

Texas Bowl • December 30, 2008 • Houston, Texas

On a night when Western Michigan seemed to come up just short or just long, the Broncos could never get any momentum in a 38-14 loss to Rice in the Texas Bowl.

The Owls took a 7-0 lead with 5:21 to go in the opening quarter as Chase Clement scampered 26 yards into the end zone. Clement finished with 307 yards and three passing TDs on the night. He also caught a touchdown pass in the third quarter.

Western Michigan had five offensive possessions in the first half and the final four resulted in two punts and two interceptions. The Broncos' Achilles' heel throughout the first half and most of the game was third downs, offensively and defensively. Western Michigan was one-for-seven in the first 30 minutes, while Rice was a staggering nine-for-12 in the first half alone. Rice's second score, a 30-yard field goal from Clark Fangmeier to take a 10-0 lead, was aided in part by a pair of 15-yard penalties on WMU over a span of three plays. The lead grew to 24-0 by the break with Clement finding Toren Dixon from six yards out at the 6:53 mark of the second quarter and James Casey from 45 yards out with 1:15 to go.

The lead swelled to 38-0 after a Clement TD catch in the third and 18-yard scoring strike to Jarett Dillard in the fourth. WMU quarterback Tim Hiller found Kirk Elsworth from two yards out for the Broncos' first score, at 6:33 in the fourth. The TD pass broke Tim Lester's single-season mark, giving Hiller 35 scoring strikes on the year and 75 for his career. Hiller added another TD toss, from 13 yards to Schneider Julien with 25 seconds to play.

BOWL GAME SUMMARIES

Purdue 37, Western Michigan 32

Little Caesars Pizza Bowl • December 27, 2011 • Detroit, Mich.

Western Michigan rolled to 485 yards of offense, but fell 37-32 to Purdue in the Little Caesars Pizza Bowl. Quarterback Alex Carder finished 31-of-57 for 439 yards and three touchdowns while Jordan White had 265 receiving yards.

The Broncos jumped out to an early lead just six minutes in after a Boilermaker fumble set up a White touchdown on a flea-flicker. The ensuing two-point conversion gave WMU its first lead in a bowl game in program history at 8-0. A Purdue one-yard touchdown pass at the end of the first made it 8-7 after one.

The second quarter belonged to the Boilermakers, who outscored the Broncos 20-7. In the third, WMU got a 21-yard field goal, but Purdue scored when Caleb TerBush hit Gary Bush for a 33-yard touchdown for a 34-18 advantage. The Broncos responded with a Tevin Drake 1-yard touchdown plunge.

During the third, White became the Mid-American Conference's all-time leader in career receiving yards, set the MAC record for receiving yards in a season and tied the MAC record for career receptions.

With less than five minutes in the game and the Boilermakers ahead 37-25, Carder connected with Chleb Ravenell for a five-yard score to make it 37-32. After forcing a Purdue punt, Carder took a big hit and fumbled, sealing the Purdue win.

Air Force 38, Western Michigan 24

Famous Idaho Potato Bowl • December 20, 2014 • Boise, Idaho

Western Michigan was rewarded with its sixth bowl appearance in program history after a historic turnaround from 1-11 in 2013 to an 8-4 regular season in 2014.

The Broncos led Air Force twice early in the game, but the Falcons pulled ahead with a pair of touchdowns in the second quarter and held on for the win.

Corey Davis scored all three of WMU's touchdowns and was named Western Michigan's MVP of the game. His first strike was on a 47-yard pass from Zach Terrell, putting WMU up 10-6 in the second. Davis' second TD was a 35-yard toss from Terrell, pulling Western Michigan within six, 23-17, with 13:26 left in the game. The final touchdown was a 51-yard haul with 3:16 remaining.

WMU recovered a fumble on the opening play and Andrew Haldeman banged in a 25-yard field goal for a 3-0 lead. Air Force scored a one-yard TD before a bad snap resulted in no extra point. Davis' 47-yard TD grab put Western Michigan up 14-6, but Falcon running back and game MVP Shayne Davern broke free for a 55-yard touchdown run. Air Force scored another TD for a 20-10 advantage.

Trailing 23-10 in the fourth, the Broncos gave one last push, cutting the deficit to six points with Davis' second TD catch at the start of the frame. With less than 10 minutes to play, Air Force's Dexter Walker returned a fumble 60 yards for a score. A nine-yard touchdown run by the Falcons' D.J. Johnson with 5:20 remaining all but sealed the win.

Western Michigan 45, Middle Tennessee State 31

Popeyes Bahamas Bowl • December 24, 2015 • Nassau, Bahamas

WMU captured the first bowl victory in school history, defeating Middle Tennessee State, 45-31, in the Popeyes Bahamas Bowl.

With the score tied 24-24 entering the fourth, Western Michigan pulled away and took a 14-point lead after back-to-back one-yard touchdown runs by Mid-American Conference Freshman of the Year Jamauri Bogan. Bogan was named Offensive MVP of the game and finished with four TDs and 215 yards.

Bronco safety Rontavious Atkins came up with a critical interception that set up Bogan's final touchdown and halted a potential game-tying drive by the Raiders. WMU Linebacker Grant DePalma was named Defensive MVP after 12 tackles.

Middle Tennessee State scored on its opening possession on a 46-yard touchdown run by Richie James. Western Michigan trailed 14-7 and 17-10 in the first quarter before pulling even on Corey Davis' 80-yard touchdown reception.

WMU took its first lead of the game in the third, when Bogan ripped off a 46-yard touchdown run. MTSU countered with a 17-yard TD catch by Christian Collis.

[8] Wisconsin 24, [12] Western Michigan 16

Goodyear Cotton Bowl Classic • January 2, 2017 • Arlington, Texas

Wisconsin tight end Troy Fumagalli made a leaping eight-yard touchdown catch in the fourth quarter and the Badgers won 24-16 in the Cotton Bowl to deny Western Michigan an undefeated season.

The TD catch by Fumagalli with just over 12 minutes left, in the back of the end zone between two defenders, came three plays after a rare interception thrown by Zach Terrell and made it 24-10.

The Broncos (13-1) made it to the last FBS team other than No. 1 Alabama in 2016 with a chance to be undefeated. But Wisconsin (11-3), which finished with 11 wins for the fourth time in seven seasons, was clearly bigger and stronger — especially up front. The Big Ten Badgers set the tone early, with rushing touchdowns on their first two drives to take a 14-0 lead against the Group of Five team.

Fumagalli had several other highlight catches, including a one-handed 20-yard grab on the Badgers' opening drive, and a 26-yard catch to convert third-and-eight after Western Michigan scored in the fourth quarter.

Terrell combined with All-America receiver Corey Davis for 51 career touchdowns, tying the FBS record on an 11-yarder on fourth down with 3:27 left. Even with cornerback Sojourn Shelton's arms wrapped around him in the back of the end zone, Davis broke free to make the catch.

Western Michigan's senior quarterback had 33 touchdowns and only four interceptions this season, the last pick by Wisconsin linebacker T.J. Edwards.

BYU 49, Western Michigan 18

Famous Idaho Potato Bowl • December 21, 2018 • Boise, Idaho

Western Michigan saw its season come to an end after falling 49-18 to Brigham Young University at the 2018 Famous Idaho Potato Bowl at Albertson Stadium on the campus of Boise State University.

Brigham Young got on the board first after a poor punt gave the Cougars the ball at the WMU 27. Zach Wilson connected with Dylan Collie from 26 yards out for a 7-0 lead with 2:20 to go in the first quarter.

After being held in check by the BYU defense, WMU's fortunes changed thanks to the defense. The Cougars attempted a trick play, but Corvin Moment forced a fumble that was recovered by Stefan Claiborne at the BYU 40. On fourth-and-three, Jamauri Bogan picked up the 43rd rushing touchdown of his career, evening the game with 3:07 in the half.

WMU forced a punt and Kaleb Eleby got the offense to the BYU 20, where Gavin Peddie connected on a 37-yard field goal to send the Broncos to the half with a 10-7 lead.

Brigham Young responded with 28 points in the third. Wilson found Collie in the end zone for the second time of the game to take a 14-10 lead before three more touchdowns pushed the Cougars ahead 35-10 heading to the fourth. Eleby ran in from one-yard out after a 54-yard completion to D'Wayne Eskridge to cut the score to 42-18. BYU added a late touchdown by Bray El-Bakri for the 49-18 final.
