NEWS & NOTES

THIS WEEK

Saturday will be the 57th between Western Michigan and Kent State, with the Broncos leading the all-time series at 36-20-1. The teams last met in on Oct. 16, 2021 in Kalamazoo for WMU's Homecoming game, defeating the Golden Flashes 64-31. Western Michigan has won the last three games of the series, dating back to 2016. The last win by KSU was in Kalamazoo in 2013, 32-14.

SCOUTING THE GOLDEN FLASHES

Kent State is still searching for its first win of the season, having dropped all seven contests so far and all three of its MAC games.

KSU's offense had struggled to score early on in the season but found its footing when it entered conference play, posting 30+ points in back-to-back games against Eastern Michigan and Ball State. Junior Tommy Ulatowski was a big part of that surge in offensive production. Ulatowski saw limited playing time until starting against Eastern Michigan, where he threw for 345 yards and three touchdowns. Against the Cardinals, a 37-35 loss, he threw for 394 yards and four touchdowns. KSU's offense struggled against Bowling Green in the 27-6 loss. Wide receiver Chrismon McCray ranks second in the MAC and eighth in the country with seven touchdown receptions and has 543 yards receiving. He had a career-high 213 yards on eight catches and three touchdowns against Ball State.

Junior defensive end Kameron Olds leads the conference with five sacks on the season and also has one interception. Junior linebacker Rocco Nichol has a team-high 58 tackles, while Naim Muhammed has a team-best three passes defended and a defensive touchdown on a fumble recovery and return. KSU's total defense sits at the bottom of the MAC, allowing 536.6 yards per game and 45.5 points per game.

THREE, IT'S A MAGIC NUMBER

Junior running back Jaden Nixon ran for three touchdowns for the second time this season. His other three touchdown game came against Ball State. Donning the No. 3, Nixon eclipsed 100 yards rushing for the fourth time this season, but it was the third time he did so in under 20 carries. The Las Colinas, Texas, native rushed for 112 yards on just 14 carries, boosting his season yards per carry average to a MAC-best and 20th in the nation, 6.43.

HISTORY

Western Michigan has a long history of producing talented tight ends: Greg Flaska, Keith Pretty, Greg Cowser, Dennis Dilley, John Fielder, Kelly Spielmaker, Jake Moreland, Mobolaji Afariogun, Tony Scheffler, Brandon Ledbetter, Donne Ernsberger and Giovanni Ricci. But none of them accomplished what redshirt junior tight end Blake Bosma did in WMU's win over Buffalo. Bosma became the first tight end to catch three touchdown passes in a game. The Holland, Mich., native had six catches for 85 yards to go along with his three scores.

The game also boosted Bosma's career-high for receptions in a season to 24. He also has a career-high with five touchdown catches and needs just 47 more yards to match his career-best in a season at 317.

#DISCIPLINE

Western Michigan heads into Saturday ranked first in the MAC and fourth in the nation in fewest penalties, with just 27 through seven games this season. WMU's 34.14 penalty yards per game also ranks seventh in the nation and best in the MAC.

It is quite the departure from previous teams. Last season, WMU finished 116th in penalties per game. In 2022, it was 89th. You have to go back to the 2016 season for the last time the Broncos finished in the top 25 in the category. WMU's magical undefeated regular season saw the Broncos rank 23rd in fewest penalties per game.

TWO OF THE VERY BEST

On Friday night two of Western Michigan football's all-time greats will be inducted into the Western Michigan Athletics Hall of Fame, along with four others for the 2024 class.

Before there was Skyy Moore, Dwayne Eskridge, Corey Davis, Jordan White, Jamarko Simmons and Greg Jennings; there was Steve Neal. Neal, a wide receiver from Benton Harbor, Mich., starred for the Broncos from 1998-2001. He was a three-time First Team All-MAC selection. Neal was the first receiver in program history to break 1,000 yards. He had 14 career 100-yard receiving games and left WMU with career records in receptions (235), receiving yards (3,599), and touchdown receptions (27). He also set season records in receptions (74), receiving yards (1,113 and 1,121) and touchdown receptions (11). Neal helped WMU to an appearance in the 2000 MAC Championship Game.

Tight end Tony Scheffler is the first at his position to be inducted into the WMU Athletics Hall of Fame. Scheffler, a native of Chelsea, Mich., starred from 2002-05 and was a two-time First Team All-MAC selection. He finished his career ranked second in WMU history among tight ends in receptions (117) and receiving yards (1,345). Scheffler had 13 career touchdown receptions and in 2005 was the first Bronco to ever be named a finalist for the John Mackey Award as the nation's top tight end, finishing fourth in voting. Scheffler, who also was a three-year letter winner in baseball, was drafted in 2006 in the second round by the Denver Broncos and played eight seasons with the Broncos and the Detroit Lions.

SEASON NOTES

IT ALWAYS FEELS LIKE SOMEBODY'S WATCHING ME

Senior center Jacob Gideon has seen his name scattered all over the award watch lists for offensive linemen during the preseason. The Union, Ky., native is on the watch lists for the Lombardi Award (nation's best linemen and line-backers), Rimington Trophy (nation's top center), and the Outland Trophy (nation's top interior lineman). Gideon, along with senior guard Addison West, also earned spots on the Senior Bowl Watch List. Gideon, West and senior wide receiver Kenneth Womack were named part of the Shrine Bowl 1,000

Senior linebacker Boone Bonnema also earned a spot on the Allstate Wuerffel Trophy Watch List, college football's premiere community service award. Senior quarterback Hayden Wolff was also named to the 2024 Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award Watch List.

GROUND AND POUND

Redshirt sophomore running back Jalen Buckley was one of 45 players to run for at least 1,000 yards last season. Buckley is just one of 27 of those that will play collegiately in 2024.

The Aurora, Ill., native rushed for 1,003 yards and 10 touchdowns to pace the Broncos. He was fifth in the MAC in rushing yards and was one of only two freshmen in the nation that reached 1,000 yards.

INTO THE BACKFIELD

Last season, the Bronco defense recorded 62.0 tackles for loss and 24.0 sacks.

When it comes to getting to the quarterback, WMU returns most of its numbers. Marshawn Kneeland led the team with 4.5 sacks last season and is now impressing with the Dallas Cowboys, but the next six players with the highest sack totals all return. Linebacker Donald Willis is the top returner after making 3.5 last season and is followed by Mason Nelson at 3.0, defensive end Corey Walker and linebacker Boone Bonnema at 2.5, and defensive tackle Isaiah Green at 2.0.

The same goes for stopping the ball in the backfield. The Broncos return 45.5 of those tackles for loss, including last year's leader in Walker, who had a career-high 8.5. Willis and fellow linebacker Jacob Wahlberg each had 6.5, while Nelson returns with 5.0. Green had 4.5 in his first season of FBS football, while Bonnema had 3.5. Cornerback Bilal Kone, and defensive ends Tyson Lee and Marcel Tyler each had 2.0.

DEGREE IN HAND

Western Michigan has 21 student-athletes that have already earned undergraduate degrees on the 2024 team.

Those Broncos are Armani Adams (FAU), Boone Bonnema (WMU), DeShon Bussell (WMU), Jacob Gideon (WMU), Tate Hallock (MSU), Keshawn King (Virginia Tech), Ted Kushi (Long Island), Quinlan Murphy (Notre Dame), Jordin Parker (New Mexico State), Ryan Rayback (Saint Anselm), Damari Roberson (WMU), Jack Sherwin (WMU), Chris Toudle (N.C. State), Adam Vandervest (WMU), Jacob Wahlberg (Purdue), Nyquann Washington (Tennessee Tech), Addison West (WMU), Kenneth Womack (Sacred Heart), and Luka Zurak (Butler).

RETURNING SCORING? THIS TIME, WE'VE GOT THAT

Last season the Broncos had just four returning rushing/receiving touchdowns spread among tight end Blake Bosma, wide receiver Anthony Sambucci and former quarterbacks Jack Salopek and Tyson Bourquet.

What a difference a year makes. Heading into 2024, the Broncos have 27 rushing and receiving touchdowns split among seven players. The development of young talent and additions from the portal saw the Broncos' scoring options grow. Reigning MAC Freshman of the Year, Jalen Buckley, leads all returners with 10 touchdowns, all on the ground. Seniors Zahir Abdus-Salaam and Sambucci both return five touchdowns, while graduate transfer and starting quarterback Hayden Wolff had two rushing touchdowns, and Bosma had two receiving.

PORTAL POWER

Western Michigan added 18 student-athletes via the transfer portal over the off season. Twelve came from FBS programs, while nine of those are from Power 5 schools. The Broncos also added two transfers from FCS programs, three from community colleges, one from Division II and one from the NAIA.

LANCE TAYLOR

HEAD COACH • SECOND SEASON • ALABAMA '02

Lance Taylor was named the head coach of the Western Michigan Football program on Dec. 8, 2022, becoming the 17th head coach in program history.

In his first season, the Broncos produced the MAC Freshman of the Year in running back Jalen Buckley. Buckley rushed for 1,003 yards and 10 touchdowns and was also named a Freshman All-American by the Football Writers Association of America and The Athletic. Taylor's offense also produced the MAC's leading receiver in Kenneth Womack, who had 76 receptions for 691 yards and one touchdown. In total, the Broncos had two First Team All-MAC selections in Womack and center Jacob Gideon, second team All-MAC defensive end Marshawn Kneeland, and Third Team All-MAC selections in Buckley, guard Addison West and wide receiver Anthony Sambucci. In the classroom, WMU continued its academic excellence with 16 Broncos being named Academic All-MAC. Taylor and the team also had a strong presence in the community, racking up 390 community service hours from Dec. 9, 2022 to Dec. 31, 2023. Kneeland was later selected in the second round of the 2024 NFL Draft by the Dallas Cowboys.

Taylor arrived in Kalamazoo after spending the 2022 season as the offensive coordinator at the University of Louisville. Prior to his time with the Cardinals, Taylor spent three seasons as the running backs coach and run game coordinator at the University of Notre Dame, guiding the Fighting Irish to a College Football Playoff appearance in 2022 and a New Year's Six Fiesta Bowl appearance in 2021.

During those three seasons with the Irish, Taylor guided running back Kyren Williams to a pair of 1,000-yard seasons in 2020 and 2021. Williams rushed for 1,002 yards and 14 touchdowns last season. As a redshirt freshman in 2020, he produced 1,125 yards and 13 scores to earn Freshman All-American accolades and was a finalist for Freshman of the Year.

Taylor had two coaching stints with the Carolina Panthers, where he coached Wide Receivers. In 2013 the Panthers finished 12-4, winning the NFC South.

In between his two coaching stops with the Carolina Panthers, Taylor coached running backs at Stanford, where he coached and mentored Heisman Trophy runner-up Christian McCaffery and recruited a second Heisman runner-up in Bryce Love. McCaffery and Love hold three of the top five rushing seasons in Stanford history. While with the Cardinal, Taylor won a Pac-12 Championship, a Rose Bowl and was named the 2015 FootballScoop.com Running Backs Coach of the Year.

Taylor spent the 2010 – 2012 seasons with the New York Jets as an offensive quality control coach and assistant tight ends coach. During the 2010 season, the Jets won their wild card game and divisional playoff game against the New England Patriots and appeared in the AFC Championship game.

In 2009, he coached wide receivers at Appalachian State, where under his guidance the Mountaineers set school records with 284 receptions and 3,621 receiving yards. The team finished 11-3, won the Southern Conference title and advanced to the Football Championship Subdivision semifinals.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant for Nick Saban at his alma mater, Alabama, from 2007-08.

A walk-on at Alabama before earning a scholarship, Taylor played in 38 consecutive games at wide receiver from 1999-2003 for the Crimson Tide. As a senior, he served as a special team's captain for (then) coach Mike Shula.

Taylor played professionally for the Colorado Crush and Columbus Destroyers of the Arena Football League, and AF2's Green Bay Blizzard and Louisville Fire from 2004-06.

Taylor graduated from Alabama in 2003 with a degree in management. Taylor's father, James, also attended Alabama and played running back under legendary head coach Paul "Bear" Bryant.

A native of Mt. Vernon, Alabama, Taylor's family includes his wife Jamie, son Jet, and daughter Jemma.

What They're Saying About Lance Taylor

Director of Athletics at Notre Dame, Jack Swarbrick

"Lance is one of the best young coaches in the country. He has a great knowledge of the game but what really separates him is the quality of his relationship with the student-athletes he coaches."

Current San Francisco 49er, Former Stanford Cardinal, 2017 8th Overall NFL Draft Pick and Heisman Finalist, Christian McCaffery

"Coach Taylor was instrumental in my development as a running back and as a football player. He helped me in so many ways in college and in the NFL during my time at the Panthers. A great football mind and an even better person."

LSU Head Football Coach, Brian Kelly

"I have known Lance to be extremely well organized, has a strong work ethic, creates strong respectful relationships with staff and is trusted by his players. He possesses an innovative football intelligence and can see the big picture when it comes to program culture. Lance has a wonderful family that shares in his pursuit of being a Head Coach and without question would be a great addition to any University looking for Leadership in its Football Program."

Former Notre Dame Running Back, 2020 ACC Freshman of the Year, and 2022 NFL Draft Pick, Kyren Williams

"From the day Coach Taylor arrived at Notre Dame, he trusted me and in my dreams. He challenged me in a way that ultimately made me better in football and every other aspect of my life, for which I will forever be grateful. Western Michigan is lucky to have Coach Taylor as their head coach because like he did with us running backs at Notre Dame, he is only going to make the team, the program, and culture better for the players to excel and live out their dreams."

Former Stanford Cardinal, Heisman Finalist, and 2019 NFL Draft Pick, Bryce Love

"Coach is one of the major reasons I ended up at Stanford. I'll always be thankful for everything he did to allow me to grow not only as a player but as a person."

Former WMU Bronco, 2x MAC Defensive Player of the Year, 2004 27th Overall NFL Draft Pick by Houston Texans, and 2X Pro Bowl Selection, Jason Babin

"Welcome to the Brotherhood Lance. We are lucky to have a man like Coach Taylor to lead our Bronco football program."
