GAME NOTES

ON THE ROAD AGAIN

Following a bye over the weekend, Western Michigan hits the road once again on Tuesday evening as it visits undefeated Miami.

LAST TIME OUT

The Broncos have had a week off since falling 84-79 at Toledo on Dec. 30. Justice Williams paced the Brown and Gold with 20 points in his WMU debut, and was joined in double-figures by EJ Ryans (12), Trey Lewis (11) and Max Burton (10). Jayden Brewer led Western Michigan on the boards with 11.

A LONG TIME COMING

Justice Williams made his Western Michigan debut in last Tuesday's setback at Toledo and netted a team-leading 20 points. It marked the senior's first regular-season appearance in 665 days, after having missed WMU's first 13 games this season and the entire 2024-25 campaign at Robert Morris due to injury. Before Dec. 30, Williams' last regular-season action was back on March 5, 2024, when he suited up for RMU in the first round of the 2024 Horizon League Championship.

BALANCED BRONCOS

Western Michigan had four players score in double-figures for the second consecutive game in last Tuesday's contest at Toledo. With Justice Williams netting a team-leading 20 points, he became the 11th different Bronco to have a double-digit scoring game this season and the fifth to score at least 20 points in a game. Western Michigan has had six different leading scorers through its first 14 games, with Jalen Griffith having paced the Brown and Gold in scoring a team-high seven times. Leading the charge with eight double-digit scoring performances apiece are Griffith and Jayden Brewer.

GRIFF GETTING IT DONE

Jalen Griffith has made a big impact in his first season for the Brown and Gold. The junior has been in double-figures eight times, led Western Michigan in scoring a team-high seven times and has recorded five or more assists in six contests in 2025-26, including a career-high 10 to record the first double-double of his collegiate career in the win at SIUE on Dec. 6. Griffith leads WMU in both categories, ranking 10th in the MAC in scoring (15.5 PPG) and fourth in assists (4.5).

LET JAYDEN BREW

Jayden Brewer snagged a team-high 11 rebounds at Toledo, his team-leading fifth double-digit rebounding performance of the campaign. The FIU transfer has been a key addition for the Broncos this season, ranking second on the team in scoring at 13.0 points per game, and also leading the Brown and Gold and sitting sixth in the league in rebounding at 7.5 per contest. He heads into Tuesday night with 998 points in his collegiate career. The Indianapolis native also tallied three blocks against the Rockets, moving him up to 1.1 blocks per game, which ranks sixth in the conference.

DIALING LONG DISTANCE

The Broncos enter Tuesday having made at least one three-pointer in 469 straight games, dating back to the 2010-11 season. Brady Swartz has been WMU's top sharp-shooter, hitting three-pointers at a 47.1 percent clip, the second-best mark in the MAC.

SERIES HISTORY

Tuesday will be the first of two regular season meetings between the RedHawks and Broncos, with the rematch set for Feb. 28 in Kalamazoo. Western Michigan has won three of the last four meetings, but Miami heads into Tuesday's matchup with an 89-53 overall advantage in the all-time series. The two teams split last season's two meetings, with each team collecting a win on its home floor. WMU is 13-54 all-time in Oxford.

SCOUTING THE REDHAWKS

Miami is one of six remaining undefeated teams in NCAA Division I. The RedHawks moved to 15-0 and 3-0 in MAC play with a 76-73 victory over preseason conference favorite Akron on Saturday. Miami's hot start has been fueled by one of the nation's top offenses, as it comes into Tuesday averaging 93.7 points per game, the second-highest mark in the league and ninth-best in the nation. The RedHawks lead DI in overall field goal percentage (.536), and are also top-5 nationally in three-point percentage (.428) and made three-pointers (11.7).

HOMEWARD BOUND

Western Michigan begins a stretch of five out of six at home on Saturday afternoon against Eastern Michigan.

RETURNING TO THE FOLD

Western Michigan brought back just five players from the 2024-25 squad, with only three having seen action a season ago. Max Burton leads the returners, having played in all 32 games and starting 30 of them last year. EJ Ryans started the first eight games of his collegiate career before settling into a reserve role that saw him appear in 31 games. Michael Sulaka appeared in 23 games off of the bench last year as a redshirt freshman.

ROSTER REFRESH

Of Western Michigan's 15 players, 12 had yet to see the floor for the Brown and Gold entering the 2025-26 season. WMU welcomed in four NCAA DI transfers, one JUCO transfer, one from the Canadian college ranks and four true freshmen.

TRANSFER ACCEPTED

The Broncos brought in five transfers with NCAA Division I experience in guards Jayden Brewer (FIU), Jalen Griffith (Jacksonville), Trey Lewis (Purdue Fort Wayne) and Justice Williams (Robert Morris), as well as forward Hudson Ward (Penn State). Brewer and Williams had each played more than 70 games at the DI level, while Lewis had played in nearly 50. Griffith, who was an All-Region performer last year at Navarro College, appeared in 21 games as a true freshman at Jacksonville University in 2023-24. Center Declan Peterson was the lone transfer without DI experience, but spent last season with the University of Calgary, playing at the highest level of Canadian college basketball.

NEW KIDS ON THE BLOCK

Rounding out Western Michigan's newcomers for the 2025-26 campaign are true freshmen Sharod Barnes (Ypsilanti, Mich.); Orchard Lake St. Mary's, Brady Swartz (Grand Rapids, Mich.); Northview High School, Camden Thompson (Whitehall, Mich.); Whitehall High School and Carson Vis (Byron Center, Mich.); Grand Rapids South Christian High School).

MICHIGAN MADE

Eight of WMU's 15 players hail from the state of Michigan, which is among the highest any DI program has from a single state. All three returners who saw the court for WMU last season are native Michiganders Max Burton (Williamston), EJ Ryans (Grand Rapids) and Michael Sulaka (Macomb). That trio has been supplemented by transfer Trey Lewis (Ferndale) and the true freshman quartet of Sharod Barnes (Ypsilanti), Brady Swartz (Grand Rapids), Camden Thompson (Whitehall) and Carson Vis (Byron Center).

INTERNATIONAL AFFAIR

Western Michigan has players hailing from four different countries this season. In addition to the United States, Cameroon (Junior Sileu), Canada (Declan Peterson and Hudson Ward) and Italy (Nicholas Errica) are all represented on this year's roster.

CANADIAN CONNECTION

Newcomers Hudson Ward (Leduc, Alberta) and Declan Peterson (Bentley, Alberta) are Western Michigan's two native Canadians on this year's roster. Ward saw action for Team Canada at the 2022 FIBA Under-17 Basketball World Cup, while Peterson was selected number three overall by the Saskatchewan Rattlers in the 2025 Canadian Elite Basketball League Draft. Fourth-year assistant coach Manny Dosanjh is also from Canada, hailing from Brampton, Ontario.

PRESEASON POLL

Western Michigan was picked to finish 10th in the MAC preseason coaches poll for the third consecutive year. The Broncos have beaten the projections each of the first two seasons, having tied for sixth both times. Defending MAC regular season and tournament champion Akron was tabbed as this year's preseason favorite, garnering 11-of-13 first-place votes, while last year's runner-up, Miami, picked up the other two first-place votes. Five different teams earned votes to win the MAC Tournament in Cleveland in March, with Akron earning eight of the 13, Miami collecting two and Kent State, Ohio and UMass garnering one apiece.

SCHEDULE BREAKDOWN

Western Michigan's 31-game regular season schedule features 13 non-conference games to go with the 18-game MAC slate. WMU has 15 home games for the second consecutive year to go along with 16 road contests.

POWER SCHEDULING

The Broncos have made it a habit in recent years to schedule power conference foes during their non-conference slate, and did so once again in 2025-26. Western Michigan traveled down to Columbus to play at Ohio State on Nov. 20, and visited #23 Iowa on Dec. 14. This season made it eight in a row that the Brown and Gold faced at least one team from the Big Ten.

MAC-SUN BELT CHALLENGE

The 2025-26 campaign marks the third for the MAC-Sun Belt Challenge, a basketball scheduling alliance between the two leagues. The Broncos began this year's challenge with a 76-71 win over Coastal Carolina on Opening Night. WMU will travel to a to-be-determined SBC opponent on Feb. 7.

MAC SLATE

During its 18-game MAC slate, Western Michigan will play six foes twice: Akron, Bowling Green, CMU, EMU, Miami and Toledo. The Broncos play single games against the remaining six, hosting Ball State, Buffalo and UMass, and making trips to Kent State, Northern Illinois and Ohio.

DWAYNE STEPHENS

HEAD COACH // FOURTH SEASON // MICHIGAN STATE '93

Dwayne Stephens was hired as the 15th head coach in the history of the Western Michigan men's basketball program in April of 2022. He captured his first win at WMU on Nov. 10, 2022, against Goshen College.

The 2024-25 campaign saw Western Michigan return to the MAC Tournament, making it back-to-back appearances in Cleveland for the Broncos for the first time since the 2013-14 and 2014-15 seasons. Along the way, WMU collected five MAC road wins, its most in league play since 2013-14. The first MAC road win for the Brown and Gold came at Kent State, a place the Broncos had not won in over a decade. The final road triumph came at Bowling Green in the regular season finale, and punched Western Michigan's ticket to Cleveland.

Stephens' three years have featured a trio of All-MAC selections, an All-Freshman Team honoree and JaVaugh Hannah becoming the third player in program history to win the MAC Sixth Man of the Year award. Last year, Chansey Willis Jr. led the league in both scoring and assists on the way to becoming WMU's first All-MAC Second Team honoree since 2018.

Western Michigan has been one of the top rebounding teams in the MAC during Stephens' three years at the helm, leading the league and ranking in the top-35 in NCAA Division I in offensive rebounding in each of his three seasons. The Broncos have also been in the top-4 in the conference in both total rebounding and rebounding margin each year.

The Broncos have had continued success in the classroom as well under Stephens. In 2024-25, WMU led the conference with five Academic All-MAC selections, tied for the most in program history, and set new program records with four CSC Academic All-District honorees and seven named to the NABC Honors Court. WMU also earned the NABC Team Academic Excellence Award for the third straight year.

Before arriving at Western Michigan, Stephens spent the previous 19 seasons on Tom Izzo's staff at Michigan State. He returned to his alma mater as an assistant coach for the Spartans for the 2003-04 season, and spent eight seasons as an assistant at MSU before he was elevated to associate head coach for the 2012-13 campaign. In 19 seasons, Stephens helped the Spartans win six Big Ten championships, four Big Ten Tournament Titles and reach five Final Fours. Overall, Stephens coached in 20 consecutive NCAA Tournaments.

Stephens began his coaching career during the 1997-98 season as an assistant at Oakland University. In two seasons, he helped the Golden Grizzlies compile 27 wins during their transition to full Division I membership. Following his two-year stint at OU, Stephens spent four seasons as an assistant coach at Marquette. The Golden Eagles made NCAA Tournament appearances in each of his last two seasons, with the 2002-03 team reaching the Final Four.

During his time as a collegiate coach, Stephens has had numerous players go on to play professionally. A total of 19 players coached by Stephens at MSU and Marquette have been selected in the NBA Draft, and 23 former players have played in the NBA.

First Round Picks (8): Dwayne Wade, Maurice Ager, Shannon Brown, Gary Harris, Adreian Payne, Denzel Valentine Miles Bridges, Jaren Jackson Jr.
