HOME SWEET HOME

Following a three-game road stretch, Western Michigan returns to University Arena on Wednesday evening to take on Toledo. It is the first home game for the Broncos since defeating rival Central Michigan in front of a crowd of 4,776 back on Jan. 24.

LAST TIME OUT

The Broncos closed out the 2025-26 MAC-Sun Belt Challenge with a 77-61 loss at Texas State on Saturday afternoon. Western Michigan cut a 13-point deficit all the way down to four with five minutes to play, but the Bobcats ended the game on a 16-4 to claim the victory. Trey Lewis paced the Brown and Gold with a career-high 19 points, while Jayden Brewer (13) and Carson Vis (10) were also in double-figures for WMU.

BALANCED BRONCOS

Western Michigan has featured a balanced attack all season long, with 11 different Broncos having scored in double-figures at least once, and five having posted at least one game with 20 or more points. Leading the charge with 14 double-digit scoring performances is Jayden Brewer, with Jalen Griffith not too far behind with 12. Six different players have been WMU's top scorer in a game this season, led by Griffith, who has paced the Brown and Gold eight times.

BENCH BOOST

WMU's depth of scoring has led it to having one of the top bench units in the nation. After getting 34 points from the reserves on Saturday at Texas State, the Brown and Gold lead the MAC and rank 36th in NCAA Division I at 30.0 bench points per game. Nine different players have scored in double-figures in a game off of the Western Michigan bench, with Jayden Brewer, Jalen Griffith, Brady Swartz (twice) and Justice Williams all having posted a 20-plus point scoring performance off of the bench this season.

SERIES HISTORY

Toledo comes into Wednesday's matchup with a 96-63 lead in the all-time series with Western Michigan. The Rockets won this season's first meeting at Savage Arena back on Dec. 30 for their 15th consecutive win in the series. The Broncos are looking for their first victory over UT since sweeping both meetings during the 2016-17 campaign.
