Possibly the best player ever to wear the Black and Old Gold was Blake Moore, an offensive lineman for Wooster from 1976-79. The native of Signal Mountain, Tenn. was a fourth-generation Fighting Scot. In fact, his great grandfather is believed to have played on Wooster's first football team in 1889. Moore started all four seasons, won the Gregory Award as the top lineman in the Ohio Athletic Conference twice, and was a two-time Associated Press Little All-American before moving on to play professionally. After graduation from Wooster, he signed a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals and legendary G.M. Paul Brown. Moore made the squad and remained with the Bengals for four years (1980-83), highlighted by participating in Super Bowl XVI. In 1984, Moore was picked up by Green Bay and played with the Packers for two seasons. Following his NFL career, Moore entered Harvard Law School, graduating cum laude in 1989.
