THAT'S INTERESTING ...

- The Wolves enter the week having won four in a row after beating Eastern New Mexico 49-20 on Saturday - the most points WOU has scored in a game since Nov. 13, 2021 (55-16 win over Lincoln (CA)).
- The four-game winning streak for WOU is the longest for the Wolves since 2019's GNAC title season. A fifth win in a row would be the longest win streak since 2015 when the Wolves won six games in a row.
- Kainoa Jones showed off his versatility at the QB position in Saturday's win over ENMU, going 9-for-12 passing for 153 yards and a touchdown while rushing for a team-high 94 yards and three touchdowns.
- Andrew Simpson picked off a pair of passes against ENMU - returning one for a touchdown. A WOU player last picked off two passes in a game was Joey Sinclair on Oct. 22, 2022 against ... Eastern New Mexico.
- WOU is looking for its first win over UTPB, having gone 0-2 against the Falcons - a loss in each of the last two seasons. It's one of two teams in the Lone Star Conference the Wolves have yet to beat (the other is Angelo State).
- In last season's loss, WOU trailed then-ranked No. 22 UTPB 28-3 before scoring a pair of touchdowns in the final four minutes to make the final 28-17. Brenden Hodge had a breakout game for WOU, catching seven passes for 139 yards and a touchdown - including a 74-yard touchdown reception.
- The game features two of the top four teams in the LSC in sacks - UTPB is first with 18 while WOU is second at 14.
- WOU is second in the LSC in red zone offense - scoring 19 out of the 22 times this year when getting inside the opponents' 20-yard line.
- WOU's Tony McAdoo leads the LSC in kickoff return yards (282) and is fourth in yards per return (23.5).
- WOU kicker Keaton Emmett was named the LSC Special Teams Player of the Week on Oct. 7 after scoring 10 points in WOU's 34-10 win at Western New Mexico. He finished 2-for-3 on field goals with a 42-yarder as his long while going 4-for-4 on point after attempts.

- Against Cal Poly, Dominique Loggins became the first WOU player in the Wolves' NCAA era (since 2001) to rush for 100 yards against a NCAA Division I opponent - rushing for 100 yards and two scores against the Mustangs.
- Kainoa Jones' 224 passing yards against Cal Poly was a career high.
- Western Oregon head football coach Arne Ferguson enters his 20th year (19th season due to no 2020 season because of the pandemic) and his 39th year overall at Western Oregon (spending just one season outside of Monmouth in 1992). He was a first-team all-conference player for the Wolves from 1985-88, began coaching at WOU in 1989, became the defensive coordinator in 1997 and the head coach in 2005. His 107 wins is the second most in WOU history, behind only Bill McArthur's 180 wins in 36 seasons.
- WOU two-time all-conference linebacker Malcolm Liufau is averaging a team-best 6.8 tackles per game - good for ninth in the LSC. Tackling is in the bloodline as he's the younger brother of Dallas Cowboys rookie and former Notre Dame linebacker Marist Liufau.
- The Wolves return 10 players that earned All-LSC recognition last year:
 - First Team: Thomas Johnson (snapper)
 - Second Team: Tommy McKedy (OL), Dominique Loggins (RB)
 - Honorable Mention: Keating Hinkley (OL), Brenden Hodge (WR), Keyvaun Eady (WR), Kade Hustler (FB), Joseph Northcutt (DE), Gio Antonini (DE) and Malcolm Liufau (LB)
- WOU NFL players include (Years in NFL): Tyrell Williams (2015-21), Kevin Boss (2007-12), *Jeff Charleston (2006-12)
 Note: Jason Slowey was drafted in the sixth round of the 2012 NFL Draft before an injury in camp cut his career short
 *Played at WOU his first three seasons before transferring to Idaho State.
