THAT'S INTERESTING ...

- The Wolves are on a roll heading into their homecoming game against the Javelinas, winning five in a row for the first time since winning six in a row in 2015.
- Last week's win over UTPB was WOU's first over the Falcons in three tries. The only team the Wolves haven't beat in the Lone Star Conference is Angelo State.
- In the overtime win over UTPB, true freshman kicker Keaton Emmett came up big for the Wolves, going 3-for-3 on field goals - including kicking the game-winner in overtime from 29 yards and booting a 48-yard field goal - tied for the fifth-longest field goal in Wolves history and tied for the longest for WOU since Jesse Correa hit a 50-yard field goal in 2014. Emmett scored 12 points in the contest and was named the LSC Special Teams Player of the Week for the second time this season. The Lake Oswego native leads the LSC in kicking points with 46.
- Senior running back Dominique Loggins for the third time this season hit the century mark in rushing last week, rushing for 137 yards on a season-high 25 carries. He's now fourth in the LSC in rushing with 629 yards.
- 6-foot-4 safety Tyler Copeland continues to shine during his sophomore campaign as he picked off his third pass of 2024 in overtime against UTPB - meaning the Wolves just needed to score on their possession to win the game. He's second on the team in tackles with 36.
- In conference-only stats, WOU leads the conference in scoring (35.2) and is second in scoring margin (17.2)
- In conference play, Texas A&M-Kingsville is last in the conference in pass defense - allowing 277.8 yards per game, but first in rush defense (64.6 yards per game).
- TAMUK's Roger Hagan is third in the LSC in rushing with 660 yards.

BY THE NUMBERS

1 Sacks allowed by WOU in five conference games.

99

Yards away senior receiver Damon Hickok is from reaching the WOU all-time top 10.

1 Points WOU received in this week's AFCA Top 25 Poll - first points in 2024

- WOU's Damon Hickok is third in the conference in receptions (29) and yards (464).
- Hickok is now 99 yards away from reaching WOU's all-time top 10 in receiving yards. His 1,637 career receiving yards is 99 behind Tom McCartney's total of 1,736 yards. His 108 career receptions is 20 outside the top-10 (Sean Fullerton is at No. 10 with 128).
- WOU's Tony McAdoo leads the LSC in kickoff return yards (282 yards - 23.5 per returns, 3rd in LSC).
- TAMUK's Xavier Henderson and Dearcus Hednricks are tied for second in the LSC in tackles for loss with 9.5.
- WOU corner Andrew Simpson sits tied for second in the LSC in interceptions with three (along with teammate Tyler Copeland). Simpson is tied for the third-most pass breakups with six.
- The Wolves are tied for first in red zone offense, converting 88 percent of their chances (22 of 25) inside their opponents' 20 for points (17 touchdowns, five field goals). Their opponent TAMUK also is at 88 percent (22 of 25, 16 touchdowns, six field goals).
- TAMUK is first in the LSC in red zone defense, holding opponents to a percentage of 58.8 (10-for-17).
- Both teams are near the top of the conference in time of possession average with TAMUK second at 31:33 per game while WOU is third at 31:06 per game.
- The Wolves are third in the LSC in interceptions with eight
- In an odd stat, the Wolves lead the LSC in fumbles forced (7) but are last in fumble recoveries (1).
