GAME NOTES

- The Wolves head into this week coming off a 38-16 loss at home to Angelo State.
- WOU committed a season-high four turnovers while not forcing a turnover for just the third time this season and breaking a five-game streak of forcing a turnover (four of those games with multiple turnovers).
- WOU's Damon Hickok with his four catches for 68 yards now has 120 career receptions for 1,806 yards - becoming the 10th WOU player in history to reach 1,800 yards receiving. He's 16 yards away from the No. 9 spot held by Trevor Gates (2009-11). Hickok is also six catches away from tying the No. 10 spot on the WOU all-time list for receptions with Mark Smith (1975-78) at 126.
- This season, Hickok is fourth in the LSC in catches (40) and receiving yards (630).
- The Wolves got a season-high 93 rushing yards from Kainoa Sayre in Saturday's contest against Angelo State.
- WOU sophomore cornerback Andrew Simpson's six interceptions this season is tied for second in NCAA D-II while his 17 passes defended is second in the NCAA. The six interceptions in a season is tied for the fifth-most in WOU history (the record is 10 set by Dave Sturgis in 1966).
- Malcolm Liufau's three forced fumbles are tied for the third most in the NCAA this season.
- In an odd stat, the Wolves lead the LSC in fumbles forced (9) but are last in fumble recovered (1).
- WOU ranks 22nd in the nation and third in the LSC in rushing yards per game at 189.5.
- WOU is 24th in D-II in interceptions with 12.

- WOU freshman kicker Keaton Emmett, a two-time LSC Special Teams Player of the Week, is third in the LSC in kicking points (61) and just three points behind the conference leader.
- Western Oregon head football coach Arne Ferguson enters his 20th year (19th season due to no 2020 season because of the pandemic) and his 39th year overall at Western Oregon (spending just one season outside of Monmouth in 1992). He was a first-team all-conference player for the Wolves from 1985-88, began coaching at WOU in 1989, became the defensive coordinator in 1997 and the head coach in 2005. His 109 wins is the second most in WOU history, behind only Bill McArthur's 180 wins in 36 seasons.
- WOU NFL players: (Years in NFL): Tyrell Williams (2015-21), Kevin Boss (2007-12), *Jeff Charleston (2006-12)
 Note: Jason Slowey was drafted in the sixth round of the 2012 NFL Draft before an injury in camp cut his career short
