BILLY DONLON

HEAD COACH

FIFTH SEASON

Head Coach Billy Donlon

On April 14, 2010, Billy Donlon officially took over the Wright State University men's basketball program after four years as the WSU associate head coach and he has not taken a breath. The eighth head coach in the history of Wright State basketball has become a popular speaker on and off campus with his enthusiastic message-- Wright State is the place to be.

He immediately went to work to shape the Raider program for years to come through recruiting, scheduling and hiring the right assistants. Donlon did just that as his Raiders posted 19 wins in his first season, signed new players and helped two players receive Horizon League honors as Vaughn Duggins was a first-team player and N'Gai Evans was selected to the second team in 2011 and the Horizon League Newcomer of the Year in 2012. His Raiders opened Donlon's rookie campaign at Indiana as he signed on to play other nationally-respected programs such as Charlotte, Cincinnati, Richmond and Air Force in 2010-11.

Not one to back away from a challenge, Donlon took his team to Italy in August, 2011 and inked deals to play Ohio State, Florida as well as Utah, Idaho State and Cincinnati again in 2012-13.

Part of his hard work came to fruition in March of 2013 as he was named the Horizon League Coach of the Year as his Raiders, picked to finish last, took the third seed in the League Tournament and finished the season at 23-13, 10-6, tying the school record for Division I wins and advancing to the semifinals of the College Basketball Invitational (CBI). Donlon was also named a finalist for the Skip Prosser Man of the Year Award and the Hugh Durham Coach of the Year Award given to the nation's top Mid-Major coach.

The 2013-14 season saw the Raiders place third in the Horizon League, then advance to its second straight championship game. AJ Pacher was named second team while Matt Vest was placed on the League's All Defensive Team. Vest, Pacher and Cole Darling have all signed professional contracts in Europe to continue their playing careers. The Raiders also received a bid to the College Insider Tournament (CIT) where it advanced to the quarterfinals.

Donlon, a native of Northbrook, Illinois, outside of Chicago, spent four years on Brownell's staff at Wright State. Before coming to WSU in the spring of 2006, he was an assistant for Brownell at UNC Wilmington for four seasons. During his eight years with Brownell, Donlon helped guide their teams to three NCAA Tournaments, including in 2007 with the Raiders. During the four years at WSU, the Raiders have won at least 20 games each season under Brownell.

"Coach Donlon has brought not only an ability to continue what has been laid in place but also a wealth of basketball knowledge and expertise to his new position," said Wright State Director of Athletics Bob Grant. "We have great confidence that Billy will continue building our program and take Raider basketball to another level of success."

Donlon, a former UNCW star, played an integral role in the success at Wilmington and Wright State. Donlon returned to his alma mater after completing a professional playing career in Germany and coaching stints at American and St. Peter's.

During his time in the coaching ranks, Donlon has worked in all areas of coaching, including floor coaching, scouting, planning practice, recruiting, scheduling and public relations. The exuberant 33-year-old has been a major part of every area, especially during the four seasons as the Raider assistant, posting an 84-45 overall record. WSU's league record of 49-21 set a new four-year mark for Raider teams.

Over this period, he has helped develop four all-league players, four named to the all-defensive team and two selected to the newcomer team as well as Horizon League Player of the Year DaShaun Wood in 2007.

Donlon received one of the Colonial Athletic Association's most prestigious honors in his senior year. He was selected as the recipient of the Dean Ehlers Award for Leadership, presented annually to the player who embodies the highest standards of leadership, integrity and sportsmanship through academic and athletic achievements.

Donlon began his coaching career as an assistant at American in 1999-00 and then moved on to St. Peter's for one season in 2000-01.

Donlon played professionally in Bourg en Bresse in France and with the Avitos Giessen team in Giessen, Germany. In May 2001, he returned to the court as the starting point guard for the Irish National Team.

WHAT OTHERS ARE SAYING ABOUT DONLON...

“Billy has been around the game his entire life. He was always a coach on the floor as a player which is why I’m not surprised he has turned into an outstanding coach. His basketball pedigree with his father and the coaches that he played for and coached under is very impressive. His passion for the game is second to none. He really relates well to the players and has a great knowledge of the game. Billy has an amazing future ahead of him. Wright State is lucky to have him as their Head Coach.”-Chris Collins, Northwestern University Head Coach

“I’ve known Billy since he was a young kid during my time at Providence College. Billy comes from a great, great family and has been around basketball his entire life. He’s a terrific person, a terrific coach, and I know he will do an outstanding job at Wright State.”- Billy Donovan, Head Coach, University of Florida

“Bill Donlon is what so many student-athletes should look for in their future coach. He not only knows the game, but is able to teach it . The poise, basketball IQ, and work habits he had as a player are now an everyday part of his coaching philosophy. I love to talk basketball with Bill whenever I see him!”- John Beilein, Head Coach, University of Michigan

SCOTT WOODS

ASSISTANT COACH FIFTH YEAR

Assistant Coach Scott Woods

After three years as the Director of Basketball Operations, Scott Woods was named as an assistant coach in April, 2010. Scott came to Wright State after coaching stints at Saginaw Valley State, Manchester College, and DePauw University.

Woods, from 2004–07, played a large role in reviving Saginaw Valley State, a Division II program. The 2006–07 SVSU squad recorded its highest conference placement since the 1997–98 campaign, tying for third in the North Division of the Great Lakes Intercollegiate Athletic Conference.

While an assistant coach at Manchester College, Woods was part of a staff that reached the 100-win mark faster than any coaching staff in school history. During his tenure, the best season at Manchester came in 1998–99 when the Spartans went 24-5. That squad advanced to the NCAA Division III Sweet Sixteen and won the Indiana Collegiate Athletic Conference championship. That team also finished 10th in the final NABC Coach's Poll.

“Coach Woods has great experience in all aspects of our program,” stated Wright State head coach Billy Donlon, “His ability to teach the game will greatly benefit Wright State University.”

“Having spent time within the Wright State community, I could not be more excited to have the opportunity to be a part of a great situation and future,” said Woods. “The university and basketball program are both full of first-class people.”

Woods graduated in 1993 from Rose-Hulman Institute of Technology where he was an all-conference basketball selection as a junior and senior. In 2003 he was inducted into Rose-Hulman's Athletic Hall of Fame.

CHRIS MOORE

ASSISTANT COACH FIFTH YEAR

Assistant Coach Chris Moore

Chris Moore enters his fifth season as an assistant coach with Wright State University. With over 20 years coaching experience, Moore brings an outlook from nearly every level of basketball.

Prior to his arrival at Wright State, the Louisville, KY native was an assistant for four seasons at Morehead State University. While at MSU, Moore teamed with head coach Donnie Tyndall to lead the Eagles to an average of 18 wins per season and two post-season tournament appearances. He directed MSU's recruiting efforts, which resulted in two classes being ranked in the nation's Top 40. Clark Francis' Hoop Scoop tabbed MSU's 2007 class 31st and 2008 class 34th nationally. Both classes were also ranked No. 1 in the Ohio Valley Conference.

Moore helped MSU enjoy record setting success, including an OVC tournament championship in 2009, back to back 20-win seasons for the first time in school history, and an NCAA tournament win; The first for the school in 25 years.

Moore also served as the Eagles academic liaison and helped raise and maintain the basketball team's grade point average to a 2.9 overall during his time there.

Before joining the Morehead State staff, Moore made stops at Bellarmine University, Indiana-Southeast University and the University of Cincinnati.

While at Indiana-Southeast, Moore worked as an assistant to head coach Walt Corbean. That year, the Grenadiers won a conference championship and advanced to the national tournament.

In two seasons at the University of Cincinnati, Moore was part of a staff that guided the Bearcats women's program to a record of 49-15, an NCAA and NIT appearance, a Conference USA tournament championship in 2002 and a Top 25 ranking; A first for the program.

Over the past 14 years, Moore has had the honor of coaching 14 players who have gone on to play professionally. That group has included:

- 13 All-Conference performers,
- 2 Conference Freshmen of the Year,
- 2 Conference MVPs,
- 3 All-Americans and
- 3 NBA / WNBA draft selections...Kenneth Faried, K.B. Sharp and Debbie Merrill.

Faried is currently in his third season with the Denver Nuggets and was a member of the NBA 2012 all rookie team. He finished his career at Morehead State as a three-time OVC defensive player of the year, two- time OVC player of the year, an All-American and the NCAAs all time leading rebounder.

Moore was a three-year letterman at Kentucky State University. He earned Academic All-America honors in 1990-91 and served as team captain as a senior.

He holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from KSU (1991) and a master's degree in sport administration from the University of Louisville (2000).

Moore has one son, Christian.

ASSISTANT COACH

FIFTH YEAR

Brendan Mullins joined the Wright State staff as director of basketball operations in July, 2010 and was elevated to assistant coach in September, 2012. Before coming to WSU, Mullins served one year as director of operations at Green Bay.

“Brendan has brought the program experience and knowledge of the Horizon League and the Midwest,” WSU Head Coach Billy Donlon said. “He is a fine young coach with background in coaching almost his entire life. He is very competitive and energetic, which are attributes that I try to surround myself with.”

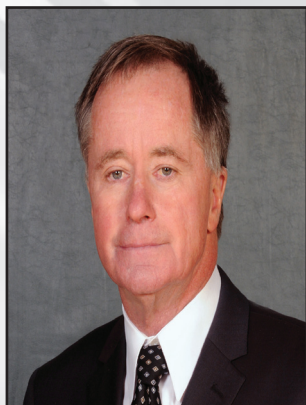

Before spending time at UWGB, Mullins was an assistant coach at Mercyhurst College in Pennsylvania for two seasons after an excellent playing career at Saint Michael's College in Vermont.

Mullins has also gained coaching experience as an instructor and coach on other levels. He served as an assistant at Downers Grove South High School. In 2003, he founded his own business, called the Mullins Basketball Academy, for training boys and girls from the ages of 9-17 in basketball skills. In four years, the camp grew to 160 participants and spread to seven different towns.

BILL DONLON, SR.

DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS THIRD YEAR

Bill Donlon, Sr.

When a position came open Wright State head coach Billy Donlon didn't have to look far when he asked his father, Bill Donlon, Sr. to be part of the Raider staff.

Donlon, Sr., formerly an assistant coach at Providence (1982-87) and Northwestern (1987-94), has most recently been the dean of students at Lake Forest High School outside Chicago. During his time at Providence, Donlon, Sr. helped lead the Friars to the Final Four in 1987 and led the recruiting effort that included Billy Donovan, current University of Florida head coach.

"Having someone with both my dad's experience and success on staff will be of great benefit to our entire program," WSU head men's basketball coach Billy Donlon said.

Donlon began his coaching career at St. John Villa Academy on Staten Island, New York, before moving to Maria Regina High School in Uniondale, New York, where his teams posted a three-year mark of 44-16. He then served three years as head coach at Methuen High School in Massachusetts, posting 49 wins and earning the school's first two berths ever to the state tournament. At Methuen, one of Donlon's players was Gary McLain, who went on to help Villanova to its 1985 NCAA title.

A native of Sunnyside, New York, Donlon, Sr. graduated from Virginia Commonwealth University with a degree in social relations in 1969. After starting two years on VCU's basketball team, he pursued graduate work in sociology at John Jay College in New York.

DJ WYRICK

DIRECTOR OF PLAYER DEVELOPMENT FIFTH YEAR

DJ Wyrick

After two years as a graduate assistant and two years as the administrative assistant, head coach Billy Donlon moved DJ Wyrick into the position of Director of Player Development in 2013.

"DJ has an outstanding work ethic as our graduate assistant and now on our full-time staff," Donlon said. "He understands our program and his loyalty and passion is infectious."

A Cincinnati native, Wyrick received his bachelor's degree in public administration in 2008 from Miami University following a standout playing career at Miami's Hamilton branch campus where he scored over 1,000 career points as the team captain. Wyrick received his master's degree in Physical Education from Wright State in 2011.

Wyrick coordinates team travel, organizes film exchange and video editing, assists with scouting and serves as the director of the Billy Donlon Basketball Camp. He and wife Jessica reside in Cincinnati.

1993 Mid-Continent Conference Champions

March 9, 1993 marked a significant day in Wright State athletics history. It was the day when the men's basketball team reached the NCAA Division I Tournament for the first time. It was just their sixth season in Division I and second year in a conference. The Raiders played Indiana in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Indianapolis, Indiana on March 19, 1993. Bill Edwards was named the Conference's Player of the Year.

2007 Horizon League Champions

14 years passed since the last time the Raiders appeared in the NCAA Tournament but March 6, 2007, marked a momentous day as WSU defeated nationally-ranked Butler for the Horizon League crown. WSU squared off against Pittsburgh in the first round of the NCAA Tournament in Buffalo, New York, on March 15, 2007. DaShaun Wood was named the League's Player of the Year.

Retired Number: 42 Bill Edwards

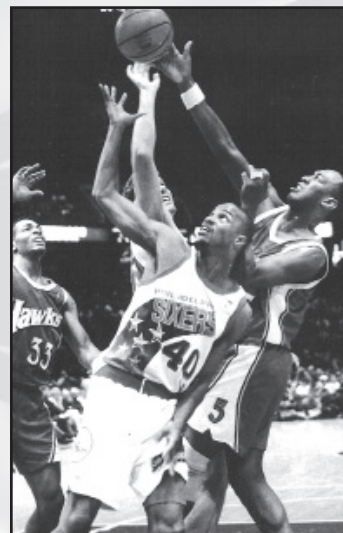

Bill Edwards

Only one number in the proud history of Wright State University men's basketball has ever been retired. That number is 42. It was worn by the programs' all-time scorer from 1989-93, as he led the Raiders to the NCAA Tournament at the RCA Dome. During his playing days he set many records, including most points in a career (2,303), in a game (45) and rebounds in a career (907). Only four other numbers have been retired by the Wright State athletics department: Joe Smith, a major league pitcher current with the Los Angeles Angels of Anaheim; Brian Anderson, currently color commentator for the Tampa Bay Rays television crew; Hylton Dayes, currently head soccer coach at the University of Cincinnati, and former baseball coach Ron Nischwitz.

DaShaun Wood

DaShaun Wood

When DaShaun Wood ended his collegiate career, many compared his numbers and impact to Bill Edwards. Well, his numbers may not be as high but his impact for the program trying to find an identity is very comparable. He finished second to Edwards with 1,849 points and is the only WSU player to have garnered at least 1,800 points, 500 rebounds, 450 assists, and 200 steals. His name will be forever inscribed in the Raider record book. DaShaun signed a multi-year million dollar contract to play in Italy in 2008 and currently plays in Germany.

Vitaly Potapenko

Vitaly Potapenko

Vitaly came to Wright State from the Ukraine before the 1994–95 season and quickly became a fan favorite as he reached the school's 1,000 point club in less than 50 games. During his two-year stay at WSU, he was named to the first-team all league both years. He was chosen 12th overall in the 1996 NBA Draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers. After spending his first few years in Cleveland, he was traded to the Boston Celtics and was a main component in their playoff runs under Rick Pitino. Potapenko played for the Seattle SuperSonics, and the Sacramento Kings to end his NBA 10-year career. Vitaly spent the 2010–11 season as an assistant coach with the Indiana Pacers and is now an assistant with the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Raiders in the Pros

More often than ever, former Raiders are showing up in all levels of professional basketball.

The best known has been Vitaly Potapenko.

Todd Brown plays in Austria.

The 6-10 forward was picked 12th overall in 1996 NBA Draft by the Cleveland Cavaliers. The Lottery Pick also played for the Boston Celtics, Seattle Sonics and Sacramento Kings before spending the 2010-11 season as an assistant coach for the Indiana Pacers.

With a strike looming for the 2011-12 season, the "Ukraine Train" is an assistant coach in the Developmental League of the NBA.

In Europe, Bill Edwards was called the best American player in Italy. He represented the United States as a member of the 1998 World Games in Greece, bringing home the Bronze medal. Edwards spent time with the Cleveland Cavaliers and the Philadelphia 76ers.

Two other Raiders were drafted by the NBA in the early 1980's: Gary Monroe (Portland Trailblazers) in 1983 and Rodney Benson (Indiana Pacers) in 1981.

DaShaun Wood was one of the best players to don a WSU uniform and now plays a pivotal role in the success of his team in Germany. Wood plays in the same league as former Raider Vaughn Duggins of the Walter Tigers. From the 2010-11 team, N'Gai Evans (FF Feni in DaShaun Wood plays in Germany.

Macedonia) and Cooper Land (Asker Aliens in Norway) also signed pro contracts in Europe.

Other former Raiders that have signed and played professional basketball include Jesse Deister (Germany), Mike Nahar (Holland), Vernard Hollins (France), Todd Brown (Austria), Cory Cooperwood (Finland), Israel Sheinfeld (Greece), Scottie Wilson (Latvia), Zach Williams (France), Thad Burton (France), Delme Herriman (England), Inus Norville (Cyprus), Cain Doliboa (France), Bruno Petersons (Latvia), Seth Doliboa (Developmental League).

Matt Vest plays in Germany.

Cooper Land plays in Japan.

Cole Darling plays in Hungary.

AJ Pacher plays in Switzerland.

Vaughn Duggins plays in France.

Delme Herriman plays in England.
