Passing History...

In just his second season as Western's play caller, quarterback Brett Arrivey is moving up Western's career passing records.

Arrivey currently sits in eighth place all-time in career passing attempts at Western with 587. He needs 13 more attempts to pull even with Tim Thenell who attempted 600 passes from 1991-94 and 24 more to pull even with Mike Busby who attempted 611 passes from 1980-82.

While Arrivey has attempted many passes, most have been completions. Currently fourth on Western's career list for completions, Arrivey has 348 in his time for the Mountaineers.

Arrivey needs just four completions to pull even with Cameron Merrill in third who threw 352 completions from 2007-08, and 14 to pull even with Dan Brethauer in second who threw 362 from 2005-06.

Tackling to the Top...

Linebacker Jaden Terry moved into the Western career record books after the week four matchup against Adams State University, and continues to move up the list.

Terry is currently ninth in career tackles with 287. To move into eighth place, Terry will need 38 more tackles to pass Steve Gaber's 324 tackles from 1983-85.

Break On Through...

Two Mountaineers are getting close to breaking into the career record books.

In just his sophomore season, running back Austin Ekeler is 55 rushing yards shy of tying Ryan Beckman for the 10th most career rushing yards in Western history. Ekeler has 1,822 yards on the ground, while Beckman recorded 1,877 from 1997-98.

Week 1 Record Breaking Performances...

The Mountaineers charged to victory and also into the record books after the week-one victory.

Austin Ekeler recorded the fifth most rushing yards in a game by a Mountaineer with 247 yards. His 31 carries also tied for 10th place all-time at Western.

Thomas Chavira tied a Western record, sacking the Wayland Baptist quarterback four times, three of which came in the first half.

Chavira also recorded five tackles for a loss which is good enough for second all-time by a Mountaineer.

Kicker Ryan Winke hit a 51-yard field goal, tying Gary Savoren's attempt in 1976 for the 10th longest field goal all-time in Western history.

Gerald Coleman tied for second most all-time interceptions in a single game with two.

Familiar Territory...

Western State began their season in the state of Texas for the third time in four years.

For the fourth consecutive season, the Mountaineers faced an opponent from the state of Texas in the season opener. After beating Wayland Baptist 38-21, Western has gone 1-3 during that span.

Captain Oh Captain...

Captains for the 2014 season are quarterback Brett Arrivey, running back Austin Ekeler, punter Dakota Swinehart, and linebackers Jaden Terry and Kalvin Winter.

Preseason Acknowledgement...

Three Mountaineers made RMAC Preseason All-Conference teams.

Running back Austin Ekeler made the RMAC Preseason Offensive All-Conference Team and was only one of two sophomores to make an RMAC Preseason team.

Also making a conference preseason team was senior linebacker Jaden Terry. Terry enters his final season just 25 tackles shy of 10th place all-time in career tackles at Western.

Punter Dakota Swinehart made the RMAC Preseason Special Teams list as the lone punter. Swinehart made a total of 78 punts, landing 22 inside the opponents 20 yard-line in 2013. Swinehart averaged 42.1 yards per punt which is the 10th best among returning punters in Division II. Swinehart's 2013 total punting yards of 3,282 is the most yards of any returning punter in Division II.

Ekeler and Swinehart were also named to the 2014 Dream Bowl D-II Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Preseason All-Conference Team.

Let the Underdog Off the Leash...

Western State was picked ninth in the RMAC Preseason Coaches Poll. The Mountaineers received 22 points in the poll, finishing just behind Western New Mexico University and New Mexico Highlands University who both received 29 points.

Hello, My Name is...

The Mountaineer coaching staff will look a little more different than in years past. The Mountaineers brings in four new coaches to Western in 2014: JT Haddan (offensive line), Quad Sanders (defensive line), Sean Corcoran (linebackers), and Aarrhon Flores (wide receivers).

The Mountaineers also made a few adjustments in house as Ryan McDonough will take over as the offensive coordinator in 2014. Former Western player Rene Haro-Sipes also joins the staff after completing his playing career in 2013.

Head Coach Jas Bains

Jas Bains looks to lead the Mountaineers to victory in 2014. The Western State Colorado University Head Football Coach is in his fourth season at the helm.

Bains' first few seasons at Western have been known for his overpowering defense. In 2012, the Mountaineer defense led the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) in rush defense and ranked 16th in all of NCAA Division II, allowing only 1,139 yards. The Mountaineer defense followed that with another impressive defensive showing in 2013, again leading the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference (RMAC) in rush defense allowing 1,358 yards on the ground.

After a season as defensive and special teams coordinator for the Mountaineer football program in 2010, Bains began his first season as Head Coach during the 2011 season.

While Head Coach, Bains has spearheaded community engagement projects with the Gunnison County Partners Organization, the Colorado Department of Transportation and Gunnison County youth. The Mountaineers also hosted a free kids clinic in the spring of 2011 and will establish Mountaineer Buddies, a mentoring program with the Gunnison Community Schools.

Bains coached the top kick-blocking team in the RMAC in 2010 and one of the top kick-blocking teams in Division II. His defense was also ranked among the top half of the conference in interception return average and opponent fourth-down conversion.

Bains spent five seasons as a member of the coaching staff at Chadron State, with the final three as special teams coordinator and defensive secondary coach. He was part of a defensive staff that led the RMAC in total defense, passing defense and opponent first downs. He coached a punter and kicker to All-America honors as the special teams coordinator and tallied 30 blocked kicks in his five seasons. His punt and kickoff returners were consistently ranked among the top five in the nation.

Bains graduated from Fresno State in 2004 where he helped lead the Bulldogs to three bowl victories as a defensive back and special teams player against Georgia Tech, UCLA and Virginia. He transferred to Fresno State from Willamette University, where he started at safety as a true freshman.

A native of Fresno, Calif., Bains was the Clovis High School Athlete of the Year in 1999-2000. He was a two time all-conference safety, a member of state tournament wrestling teams and was a member of the baseball team.

Bains is often a featured speaker at conventions, workshops and clinics on the role of defense and special teams. He is also a talented and respected recruiter in the state of California, as evidenced by the significant increase of West Coast athletes on the Chadron State rosters.

Bains was a member of the Chadron State staff as a graduate assistant before becoming a member of the fulltime staff in early 2007. He earned his master's degree from Chadron State in December 2006.
