USD to Battle SDSU and WSU this Week

TIP OFF: The University of San Diego women's basketball team (6-0) will remain in San Diego this week, as they travel east on Interstate 8 to take on cross-town rival San Diego State University on Thursday in a 6:30 p.m. non-conference game at Viejas Arena. USD then returns home on Sunday to take on Washington State at 1 p.m.

THE RANKINGS: The University of San Diego women's basketball team has moved up three spots to No. 9 in the latest College Insider Mid-Major Top-25 poll, after beginning the season 3-0. USD is one of four WCC schools to appear in this poll. Gonzaga is the highest ranked WCC school at No. 1, then comes Saint Mary's just ahead of USD at No. 8, and BYU finishes off the group ranked No. 17.

LAST TIME OUT: Junior forward Maya Hood put on quite the performance, as her double-double of 23 points and 11 rebounds helped lead the University of San Diego women's basketball team to its sixth consecutive win, downing Akron University 86-65. With the win, the Toreros remain perfect on the season at 6-0, and continue to match the best start in program history. With the loss, the Zips fall to 1-4 overall. Hood led all players with her 22 points on 8-of-14 shooting from the field, and she pulled down a season-high 11 rebounds to post her third double-double of the season. Cori Woodward was the second of four Toreros in double figures, as she had 16 points on 3-of-7 shooting from the field, and she dished out a season-high six assists. Malina Hood scored 16 points as well on 5-of-9 shooting, while being limited to 18 minutes due to foul trouble. Sydney Williams rounded off the double-digit scorers, as she had 10 points on 3-of-6 shooting from the field, including hitting a pair of 3-pointers. As a team, USD shot 54.0% from the field, while Akron was limited to just 40.0% shooting. The Toreros out rebounded the Zips, 37-25, and USD committed 19 turnovers, compared to Akron's 15. For the Zips, Anita Brown led the way with 22 points on 9-of-22 shooting, while DiAndra Gibson added in 14 points, and both Greta Burry and Hannah Plybon each had 10 points. Burry and Gibson led the team's rebounding effort with six apiece.

WELCOME TO 1,000: Senior guard Malina Hood became the 17th player in program history to eclipse the 1,000 career point mark this past Friday with her 26 points on 8-of-16 shooting from the field against Valparaiso. Hood has now moved her career total to 1,026. Hood now begins her assault on moving up the USD scoring charts. She needs to score 145 more points to move into 10th all-time, which is currently held by Jill Shaver (1990-94).

MAYA, OH MAYA: Junior forward Maya Hood had a monster week for the Toreros, as she paced the offense with 22.5 ppg, while averaging 10.0 rpg, and she shot an impressive 64.3% from the field. Hood began the week with a 22-point, and nine rebound performance in a win against Valparaiso. She then backed that up with her third double-double of the season, as she scored 23 points on 8-of-14 shooting, while also pulling down 11 rebounds. Hood has now scored in double figures in all games this season, and is USD's second leading scorer at 17.3 ppg, while leading the rebounding effort at 9.5 rpg.

WOODWARD SETS A CAREER-HIGH: Junior guard Cori Woodward had a monstrous game in USD's win over Akron, as the Vancouver, Wash. native scored a career-high 16 points, to go along with dishing out a career-high six assists. Woodward is now averaging 6.3 ppg.

SYDNEY'S WORLD: Sophomore post player Sydney Williams had been a quiet offensive threat for the Toreros this season. Williams is currently USD's third leading scorer at 10.0 ppg. She has managed to score in double figures in four of the first six games, including tying a career-high of 16 in the win against CSUN.

HOW'S THIS FOR BALANCE?: Malina Hood continues to be USD's leading scorer, but was is more impressive than her 19.8 ppg, is the fact that USD has at least four players score in double figures in every game so far. This past Saturday was no exception, as Maya Hood scored 23 points, while Cori Woodward and Malina Hood each had 16 points, and Sydney Williams added in 10 points.

TOREROS TABBED FOURTH: Gonzaga University is once again the preseason favorite to win the West Coast Conference regular season title in the annual poll of the WCC's 10 head coaches. The Bulldogs received six first place votes and 78 points. BYU was picked to finish second, just two points behind the Zags, while Saint Mary's rounded off the top three with 61 votes. The Toreros of San Diego came in fourth with 58 votes, followed by San Francisco (51), Pacific (40), Santa Clara (30), Loyola Marymount (25), Pepperdine (20) and Portland (11).

THAT'S FOUR STRAIGHT: With USD's thrilling 63-53 win over Pacific on February 13, 2015 the Toreros had recorded their 20th win for a fourth consecutive season. Never before in program history, had USD posted four consecutive 20-win seasons. This was the fifth 20-win season in program history, and all of them have come under the watchful eye of head coach Cindy Fisher. All of the 20-win teams have gone on to play in the postseason, highlighted by the 2011-12 team that made it to the Final Four of the WNIT, led by the program's all-time leading scorer, Dominique Conners. Last season's squad made it to the second round of the WNIT, but fell to eventual WNIT champion UCLA.

MALINA TABBED PRESEASON ALL-WCC : Senior guard Malina Hood represented the Toreros on the preseason All-WCC team for the second consecutive year. Hood led USD in scoring last year with 15.5 points per game, scoring in double-digits in 21 of her 26 games. She broke her own school record for three-pointers made in a season with 77.

THEW.TV: This season San Diego will be featured on the West Coast Conference's digital platform, several times. All of these home productions will have a multi-camera high definition broadcast with Paula Bott calling all the live play-by-play, and providing color commentary, will be Torero Hall of Famer Susie (Erpelding) Barosso. USD will have all 15 home games live on TheW.tv, as well as a select few road games. The Toreros will also be on BYUTV when they travel to in Provo on Feb. 18, as they take on NCAA Tournament participant BYU.

HEAD COACH CINDY FISHER

Cindy Fisher was named the University of San Diego head women's basketball coach on April 19, 2005.

In her 10th year in charge of the Torero women's basketball program, coach Fisher led USD to an unprecedented fourth consecutive 20-win season, as USD posted a 25-7 overall record, finished second in the WCC at 14-4 and USD made its fourth consecutive trip to the WNIT. USD managed to secure a pair of home postseason games, defeating Long Beach State in the first round, before losing to eventual WNIT champions UCLA in round two. Along the way, Fisher helped guide Sophia Ederaine to the WCC Defensive Player of the Year, as the senior forward led the nation in blocked shots with 152. This blocked shots mark also broke a 22-year old single-season blocked shots record at USD. Ederaine was the first Torero to win the league's Defensive Player of the Year distinction. Under her tutelage, the senior class was able to graduate with an overall four-year mark of 97-25.

In her ninth year at the helm of the Torero women's basketball program, Fisher helped lead USD to an overall record of 24-9, the second most wins in program history, and reached the Sweet 16 round of the WNIT for the second time in three years. USD opened the season with a perfect 15-0 record, which led to the programs first-ever national ranking of No. 24 in both the Associate Press and Coaches top-25 polls. The 15-0 start was the best not only in program history, but for any athletic team at USD in the division I era. The WNIT appearance marked the first time in program history that USD has made three consecutive postseason appearances. Under the watchful eye of head coach Cindy Fisher, the Toreros had three players take home All-WCC honors, highlighted by first-teamer Amy Kame.

In her eighth season at the helm of the program in 2012-13, Cindy Fisher managed to do something no other coach in the history of the program had done before, the Toreros posted a second consecutive 20-win season. USD posted an overall record of 22-10, the second most wins in program history, and reached the second round of the WNIT. USD also had a 12-4 mark in the WCC, good for sole possession of second place in the West Coast Conference, and San Diego managed to reach the championship game of the WCC Tournament. This marked only the second time in program history that USD has made back-to-back postseason appearances, and both times have come under the watchful eye of Cindy Fisher. USD did all of this despite losing a pair of 1,000-point scorers, and the team's leading rebounder from the previous season's record setting team. Under coach Fisher's tutelage, the Toreros produced the WCC Freshman of the Year in Maya Hood, and had three total players earn All-WCC honors, highlighted by first-teamer Amy Kame.

The 2011-12 season was a historical one for the Toreros, as it is now the greatest season in program history. Under Fisher's tutelage, the Toreros soared to new heights, and were in uncharted waters. USD posted a program best 26-9 overall record, posted a 12-4 mark in WCC play (the most wins in WCC play in program history) and they recorded the program's first ever post season win. Not only was it the first ever post season win, but the Toreros advanced all the way to the Final Four of the WNIT, before falling to eventual WNIT champions Oklahoma State. With Fisher's guidance, USD saw Dominique Connors become the program's all-time leading scorer, as well as earn first-team All-WCC honors along with Morgan Woodrow. USD also saw Amy Kame take home All-WCC honorable mention accolades as well. Needless to say, this was USD's most exciting season in program history!

In the 2010-11 season, Cindy Fisher had the team playing at its best basketball at the right time of year, as USD had an impressive run through the West Coast Conference Championships, winning two games in two days to advance to the semifinal game of the Championships against WCC-runner-up Saint Mary's. The Toreros then nearly pulled off of a third straight victory to make the championship game, but a last second shot fell just short, which ended USD's season. Under Cindy Fisher's tutelage, both Sam Child and Dominique Connors earned All-WCC accolades, and Sam Child was named to the All-WCC Tournament team.

In her fifth season, Cindy Fisher once again had her team playing its best at the right time of the season, as the Toreros had an unprecedented run in the WCC championships, winning three games in three days to reach the championship game for the second time in as many years. The Toreros produced three players to the All-WCC team and Dominique Connors was the lone freshman named to the All-WCC Tournament team.

In her third season at the helm of the program, she guided the Toreros back to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in eight years. The 2007-08 season also marks back-to-back post season appearances for the Toreros under Fisher's watch. Fisher helped lead USD to a 19-12 overall record and a West Coast Conference Tournament championship. She helped guide three players to All-WCC honors, with Amanda Rego and Amber Sprague each earning first-team honors and Sam Child being selected to the All-WCC freshman team.

In only her second season at the helm of the program, Cindy Fisher orchestrated the biggest turn around in school history, a 12-game improvement from 9-19 in the 2005-06 season to a 21-9 record in 2006-07 season. The turn around was the fourth best in the nation. USD has set a lot of records along the way as they have recorded the first-ever 20-win season in program history, finished second place in the West Coast Conference for the first time in program history and had the best overall start in program history at 6-0 and in conference play at 6-0. Under her tutelage, the Toreros placed three players on the All-WCC lists highlighted by Amanda Rego being named the WCC Co-Player of the Year. Rego and Amber Sprague both took home first-team All-WCC honors and Morgan Henderson was named to the All-WCC Freshman team. For her efforts, Fisher was named the 2007 WCC Co-Coach of the Year.

During her first season at USD, the Toreros showed remarkable improvement. The Toreros did record a huge 15-point win over Santa Clara on the road and were close in games against Georgia Tech, Boise State and against Loyola Marymount in the first round of the WCC Championship Tournament. Fisher also helped guide Tiara Harris to an All-WCC selection and Kelly Wither to an All-WCC Freshman team selection.

Fisher, the University of Nebraska's top assistant for two seasons, and former head coach for Wyoming between 1998-2003, became USD's third head coach dating back to the program's inception in 1978-79. She took over for Kathy Marpe who stepped down after directing the program for 25 years.

Fisher helped lead Nebraska to back-to-back appearances in the WNIT during her two seasons with the Huskers. In 2004-05, the team finished 18-14 overall and 8-8 in the Big 12. The Huskers recorded the program's first win over a top-5 team with its 103-99 victory over eventual NCAA National Champion, Baylor, in January of 2005. They also posted Big 12 wins over No. 14 Iowa State and Oklahoma, both NCAA Tournament participants. Fisher recruited and coached Big 12 Newcomer of the Year, Jelena Spiric, and recruited and developed post player, Danielle Page, who earned Big 12 Rookie of the Week honors twice. Fisher's final recruiting class at Nebraska might have been her best, as she went deep into Alaska to find, recruit, and sign Big Twelve Player of the Year and first round draft pick Kelsey Griffin.

During the 2003-04 campaign, the Huskers finished 18-12 overall, and produced one of the top 10 turn-arounds in NCAA Division I women's basketball with 10 more victories. The team earned two wins over top 25 teams; the team cracked the top-25 national rankings for the first time since 1999; and the 2004 recruiting class was ranked 28th nationally.

In five seasons as the head coach at Wyoming, Cindy Fisher compiled a 59-81 record. However, Fisher's accomplishments at Wyoming go well beyond her overall coaching record. Cindy Fisher's Cowgirl teams showed improvement in each of her five seasons, culminating with an 18-12 mark in 2002-03. The 18 wins were the school's most victories since 1989-90. She also led the Cowgirls to their first postseason appearance since 1989-90 with a trip to the 2003 WNIT, where Wyoming notched a first-round win over Montana. The WNIT win over Montana marked the first postseason victory in Wyoming women's basketball history. Her 2001-2002 team at Wyoming finished No. 1 in the country in academic excellence with a team GPA of 3.486.

Before taking the job at Wyoming, Cindy Fisher spent three seasons as an assistant coach at Old Dominion. She served as the Lady Monarchs' recruiting coordinator and scheduling coordinator and prepared scouting reports, while also acting as the team's public relations liaison. During her three-year stint, ODU compiled a 92-8 record, including a 34-win season and a pair of 29-win seasons. Old Dominion advanced to the national championship game in 1997, and qualified for the Sweet 16 in each of her three seasons. Fisher also built up her coaching resume with stops at Weber State (1994-95), Mesa CC in Arizona (1988-90; 1993-94), and Illinois State (1992-93; graduate assistant, 1990-92). From Cheyenne, Wyoming, Cindy Fisher was a three-year starter at Cheyenne Central High School, before competing at Eastern Wyoming College in Torrington. Her career was cut short by a hip injury, but she earned her associate's degree in 1984. She transferred to Arizona State and graduated with a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education with an emphasis in Exercise Physiology in 1988.

After graduation, she served as a physical education instructor at Mesa Community College from 1988 to 1990, before completing her Master's Degree in Physical Education with an emphasis in Administration of Sport at Illinois State in 1992.
