SERIES HISTORY

- USF marks the third WCC opponent for the Cougars of the 2016-17 season after defeating LMU and SMC last weekend.
- The two teams have met six times with WSU leading 4-2 overall. The last meeting came in 2009 in Pullman with the Cougs winning 74-57 on Dec. 19.
- Friday's meeting will be the seventh all-time between the two sides and the third at home for the Cougars (second at Beasley Coliseum).

LAST TIME OUT

- Last week the Cougars defeated a pair of WCC opponents with wins over LMU (W, 92-45) and Saint Mary's (85-69). The wins marked the third-straight season WSU has won its opening two contests at home.
- Four players scored in double figures for the Cougars in the 85-69 victory over Saint Mary's.
- Junior guard Caila Hailey recorded her first career double-double with 11 points and 11 rebounds while junior forward Louise Brown added 14 points and eight rebounds, hitting a pair of three-pointers.
- The Cougars forced 24 turnovers and received 33 points from its bench while holding the Gaels to 41 percent shooting.

UP NEXT

- The Cougars are home again Sunday, hosting Oklahoma State University (2-0). The Cowgirls have started their season with a pair of victories having defeated Arkansas State (W, 76-34) and Tennessee State (W, 86-48).
- Kaylee Jensen leads the Cowgirls' attack averaging 20.0 ppg while grabbing 10.5 rbg.
- As a team the Cowgirls average victory has been by +40 points.
- The Cowgirls beat the Cougars, 70-60, in Stillwater last season to snap WSU's 5-0 start to the 2015-16 season.
- OkSU will play LMU on Thursday night.

DOUBLE-DOUBLES ON THE YEAR

- In just two contests on the year the Cougars have already produced two double-doubles as sophomore Alexys Swedlund and junior Caila Hailey have filled up the stat sheet.
- Kicking off the year with a bang, Swedlund produced her first career double-double against LMU last week by scoring 14 points and grabbing 12 rebounds. She did a bulk of her work at the line where she went a perfect 6-for-6.
- Two days later, Hailey followed suit with her own career first, tallying 11 points and 11 rebounds in the Cougars win over Saint Mary's. The junior guard went 5-for-10 from the floor and cleaned up the offensive glass grabbing a whopping 8 offensive boards.

COUGARS SIGN TWO STANDOUTS TO NLI

Washington State signed guard Celena Molina and center Taryn Shelley to National Letters of Intent, head coach June Daugherty announced Wednesday. Molina, a 5-10 guard out of Konawaena High School in Kailua-Kona, Hawaii, is the younger sister of current Cougar freshman guard Chanelle. Entering her senior season, Molina is a two-time All-State Feb 15 selection by the Honolulu Star Advertiser and a three-time All-Big Island Interscholastic Federation selection while helping KHS to state titles the past two seasons. Molina is also a two-time All-State selection in volleyball and was part of the state champion 4x400 relay team in track. Molina plays for coach Bobbie Awa, the mother of former Cougar guard Dawnyelle Awa, and is the cousin of current Cougar volleyball player Alexis Dirige. Shelley, a 6-3 center out of Shorewood High School in Shorewood, Wash., is a two-time All-Wesco selection and is rated a 3.5 star prospect according to Prospectnation.com. Shelley is coming off an impressive junior campaign where she earned All-Wesco first team honors after leading the team with 13.8 ppg and 7.6 rpg in league play. Shelley averaged 16.3 ppg and 20 rpg during district play last season including a 32-point effort and was named Prep Athlete of the Week once, Prep Basketball Starr twice and All-USA Girls Basketball Performer of the Week by King5 TV once during the season. Shelley also lettered in volleyball four times, earning All-Wesco second team honors as a junior and later All-Tournament Team accolades at the state tournament.

ITS RAINING THREES

- Opening the season in front of 2,078 fans last Friday, the Cougars put on a show draining 13 three-pointers in their 92-45 victory over LMU. The 13 threes were tied for the second-most in WSU single-game history game. Five different Cougs hit two in the win.
- Two days later the Cougars followed up their performance with six more from deep in the win against Saint Mary's.
- Alexys Swedlund and Louise Brown lead the way with 4 threes each.

CLEANING UP THE GLASS

- Setting a school record on the boards to start the season, WSU came up with 64 rebounds in its win over LMU. The Cougars held a 64-36 advantage on the glass in the contest.
- Keeping the play alive, the Cougars came up with a cool 28 offensive rebounds that resulted in 27 second chance points.
- Caila Hailey leads the way with a 7.5 rpg including having posted 11 offensive rebounds of her 15 total rebounds.

COUGARS LOOK TO CONTINUE BLOCK PARTY FROM LAST SEASON

- The Cougars broke the WSU single-season record with 120 total blocks during the 2015-16 season.
- WSU averaged 4.0 blocks per game led by redshirt-freshman Nike McClure and true freshman Maria Kostourkova. The freshman duo headlined the Cougar frontline with 25 and 23 blocks, respectively, fourth- and fifth-most in WSU freshman history.
- WSU has five blocks on the year in two contests led by Kostourkova's 2.

BORISLAVA 'BOBI BUCKETS' HRISTOVA AT IT AGAIN

- Last season as a true freshman Borislava Hristova turned heads in her first season with the Cougars. The Varna, Bulgaria native led the team with 16.3 points per game, second-best in the conference by a freshman and sixth-best overall.
- The three-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week selection set the WSU freshman scoring record with 490 total points. During her first season in Pullman, Hristova set the WSU freshman records in total points, field goals made (200), points per game (16.3), and free throw percentage (.881). Nine times Hristova scored at least 20 points, breaking a freshman record that had stood for over 26 years.
- This season, she has picked up right where she left off leading the scoring efforts of the Cougars with 18.0 ppg, an average which ranks 9th in the Pac-12. She posted her first 20+ point effort of the season in the opener against LMU, leading the Cougars to the victory with 22 points on 9-of-12 shooting.

STARTING OFF STRONG

- The Cougars are off to a 2-0 start to the year for the third-straight season as the look to continue their early season success from a season ago.
- Last season WSU began the year 5-0 for the first time since 1998 before suffering its first loss of the year to Oklahoma State, whom the Cougars play again this Sunday.
- The Cougars would go on to start the year 8-1 before falling to Saint Mary's, a loss already avenged on this season.
- The honor for the best start in school history goes to the Cougars' 1978-79 squad that started the season 10-0 before falling to Oregon.

YOUTH PREVAILS FOR THE COUGARS

- One of the younger teams in the nation the Cougars sport a roster that features 10 underclassmen including five sophomores and five freshmen while boasting just one senior.
- As was the case last season, the young Cougars are led by Borislava Hristova who is averaging 18.0 ppg on the season after earning All-Pac-12 Freshman Honors a season ago.
- Sophomore Alexys Swedlund has put her stamp on the new year with her first career double-double against LMU as the 5-11 guard went for 14 points and 12 rebound in the win. She co-leads the team with four three-pointers.
- Newcomers Kayla Washington and Chanelle Molina have proven themselves early for the Cougars as Washington is averaging 6.5 ppg and 6.0 rpg in just 10 minutes per contest while Molina has come up with 7.5 ppg and sits second on the team in assists at 3.5 apg.

NOT SO FAST YOUNG GUNS

- Not to be outdone by the young Cougars who are raring to run, the junior core continues to be a rock from which the team looks to build.
- Guard Caila Hailey came up with her first career double-double against Saint Mary's in the victory as the Inglewood native posted 11 points and 11 rebounds, eight of which came on the offensive glass.
- Junior big Louise Brown is one of three Cougars to be averaging double-figure scoring posting 10.0 ppg while grabbing 5.0 rpg. She is tied with Swedlund for the team lead with four three-pointers on the year.
- Guard Pinelopi Pavlopoulou leads the attack with 4.5 assists per game while also showing off her defensive skills leading the way with 3.0 steals per contest.

COUGARS' DEPTH SHINES

- Last season, nine Cougar players appeared in all 30 games during the season, and nine players averaged over 10 minutes per game. WSU's bench players outscored the opponent's bench 24 times last season and the Cougar reserves outscored opponent reserves by an average of 12.1 points per game.
- In two games this season, 12 players have seen action in both contests with all 12 averaging at least 10.0 minutes per game. The bench has scored 75 of the Cougars' 177 points on the year.

DAUGHERTY REACHES 100 WSU WINS

- Head coach June Daugherty earned her 100th-career win at Washington State with the Cougars' 74-66 victory at Colorado, Jan. 4.
- Daugherty has guided the WSU program to a 109-177 record in her 10th season in Pullman after becoming the third coach in Cougar history to reach 100 WSU wins. Sue Durant boasted a 134-99 record in nine seasons (1974-82) and Harold Rhodes guided the Cougars to 194 wins over 17 years at WSU (1983-99).
- Daugherty is no stranger to success, having reached 400-career wins, and currently owns a 419-391 record over her 28-year coaching career.

TWO MINUTE DRILL

- Thirteen times last season WSU played a game that was within two possessions (six points) in the final two minutes. In six of those games the Cougars were leading, and in seven games they were trailing. WSU owns a 5-8 record in such games.
- The Cougars finished 4-2 when leading in the final 120 seconds and 1-6 when trailing down the stretch, having pulled off a last-second comeback at Arizona, Feb. 21. In addition, WSU was within two possessions of pulling off upsets of No. 16 Stanford and No. 9 Oregon State with less than four minutes remaining. The Cougars went 2-6 in games decided by five points or fewer.

LAST SEASON

- Washington State finished ninth in the Pac-12 Conference with a 5-13 record and a 14-16 overall record. The Cougars found early-season success, jumping out to a 5-0 start. Led by freshman phenom Borislava Hristova, WSU clinched the 2015 Bank of Hawaii Rainbow Wahine Classic title.
- In her ninth season at the helm of the women's program, June Daugherty led a youthful team to the Cougars' best start since 1989-90. WSU completed its nonconference season with a 9-2 record before entering the country's toughest RPI conference. Washington State swept Colorado and Arizona and picked up a Pac-12 win over No. 25 USC.

HRISTOVA AND HAILEY EARN ALL-PAC-12 HONORS

- Freshman Borislava Hristova and sophomore Caila Hailey received All-Pac-12 honors. Hristova was selected to the All-Pac-12 Team by media members and was named to the Pac-12 All-Freshman Team. Sophomore Caila Hailey received an honorable mention to the Pac-12 All-Defensive Team.

FOUR COUGS EARN PAC-12 ALL-ACADEMIC AWARDS

- Senior Mariah Cooks headlined a quartet of Cougar players that earned Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mention. Cooks earned the honor for the third-consecutive season, while sophomores Bianca Blanaru, Louise Brown, and Pinelopi Pavlopoulou garnered honorable mention in their first year of eligibility.

June
DAUGHERTY
Head Coach
10th Year

Washington State University Head Coach June Daugherty enters her 10th season with the Cougars, having led the charge toward a new era in WSU women's basketball. Just as she had done at each of her two previous stops, Daugherty, who has coached more than 800 career games, has begun turning around the WSU women's program, leading the Cougars to two-consecutive WNIT appearances in 2014 and 2015, bringing in top-ranked recruiting classes, improving attendance numbers and overseeing student-athletes who place premiums on academics and community service.

In her ninth season at the helm of the Cougars, Daugherty guided a youthful team to the school's best start since the 1989-90 season. WSU went 9-2 in nonconference play before entering Pac-12 play and the toughest RPI conference in the country. Under Daugherty's leadership, freshman Borislava Hristova earned All-Pac-12 and Pac-12 All-Freshman Team honors, breaking WSU freshman records in 20-point games, total points, scoring average, field goals made, and free throw percentage. The Cougars finished the season with a 14-16 record and a 5-13 record in Pac-12 play, finishing ninth with season sweeps of Colorado and Arizona. Daugherty also oversaw the defensive success of WSU's frontline, which tallied a school-record 120 total blocks. The Cougars picked up a top-25 win over No. 25 USC with a decisive 73-61 victory.

Off the court, the Cougars continued to shine in the classroom with four Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mentions in 2015-16. WSU earned national recognition as part of the NCAA's Public Recognition Awards for the 2013-14 academic year. WSU earned the honor for the second-straight season with a multi-year Academic Progress Rate (APR) score among the top 10 percent of all squads in the country. WSU posted a perfect four-year average score of 1,000 in 2014-15, and was one of 43 women's basketball teams honored for its accomplishments. WSU, along with Stanford, were the only two Pac-12 Conference schools recognized.

Under Daugherty, Washington State has reached the Pac-12 Conference Tournament semifinals two times, 27 student-athletes earned all-academic honors in the last eight years, and five players signed professional contracts to play overseas in the last four summers including Lia Galdeira who was selected No. 19 overall by the Washington Mystics in the 2016 WNBA Draft, the first player drafted in program history.

During the 2014-15 campaign, Daugherty hit a personal milestone, earning her 400th career win as the Cougars defeated Utah Feb. 15. Daugherty continued to build on the success of the previous season, as WSU earned a second-consecutive postseason berth for the first time in school history. The WSU women's basketball program earned national recognition, recording one of the biggest wins in program history with a 70-64 victory over No. 10/8 Maryland, an eventual No. 1 seed and Final Four participant, in Puerto Rico, November 29.

During the 2013-14 season, Daugherty led the Cougars to one of the best campaigns in program history, earning a trip to the WNIT, the program's first postseason appearance since 1991, and posted 17 wins, the most since 1995-96. WSU also notched four wins over ranked teams, including one on the road against No. 10 Nebraska and went on to post nine conference wins for the first time since 1994-95. Guards Lia Galdeira and Tia Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history. The Cougars received some national recognition late in the year, receiving votes in the Top-25 USA Today Coaches' Poll following their Pac-12 Tournament run, becoming the first WSU team to be mentioned in a poll since the 1990-91 season.

In 2012-13, Daugherty led a team that featured six freshmen and three sophomores to the Pac-12 Conference Tournament quarterfinals for the second straight season, beating Arizona State in the opening round before falling to top-seeded Stanford. The Cougars improved three spots in the conference standings from a season ago, finishing eighth. WSU produced some notable wins while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, beating No. 20 Ohio State, posting a road victory over regional rival Gonzaga and sweeping the season series with Arizona State. The Cougars finished the year with a program record for blocks in a season with 114.

Also under Daugherty's guidance in 2012-13, the Cougars backcourt received recognition from the conference as Lia Galdeira, the second-leading freshman scorer in the country and three-time Pac-12 Freshman of the Week winner, earned a number of All-Pac-12 accolades as a freshman after pacing the Cougars in scoring, rebounding, steals and minutes. Sophomore point guard Tia Presley also earned all-conference honors despite being limited to seven conference games due to injury. Daugherty also saw center Carly Noyes cap off her impressive career by becoming the school's all-time leader in blocked shots, games played and career starts.

The 2011-12 campaign saw Daugherty lead the Cougars to one of the most successful seasons in program history while playing one of the toughest schedules in the country (No. 27). WSU posted the most wins since 1995-96, recording 13 overall victories and the second double-digit win season under Daugherty while improving their final RPI by 50 spots from the season prior. The Cougars saved its best for last, beating UCLA the final weekend of the regular season before posting the program's inaugural wins at the conference tournament. WSU knocked off Oregon State and USC in the first two rounds to advance to the nationally-televised semifinal against California held at the Staples Center in Los Angeles.

Additionally, Daugherty led the Cougs to the program's inaugural win over a Big Ten Conference opponent (Wisconsin) and the first win over a Big East Conference opponent (Marquette) in over 20 years. Daugherty's team followed nonconference play by winning its first three games of Pac-12 play for the first time since 1977-78. The 2011-12 Cougars made their mark on the record book as well, posting the most rebounds, the sixth-most points, fourth-most threes, fifth-most assists and second-most assists in WSU single-season history. 2011-12 also saw Daugherty's first WSU recruiting class cap their impressive careers as a pair of 1,000-point scorers exited along with a three-time academic all-conference selection in addition to the three players who received invites to the WNBA combine. Headlining the group was guard Jazmine Perkins who finished her career as a three-time all-conference selection and WSU's all-time leader in games played and the first player in school-history, male or female, with 1,200+ points, 700+ rebounds and 250+ steals.

2010-11 saw the Cougars take another step forward under Daugherty's guidance while playing the No. 27 toughest schedule in the country. WSU posted the most conference wins, the highest scoring average and highest shooting percentage since 2000-01. The Cougars posted their highest finish since the 1997-98, tying for seventh after posting season sweeps over California and Oregon State and beating Oregon and Oregon State on the same weekend to record their first weekend sweep in conference play since 2001.

Daugherty's players have received quite a bit of postseason attention since her arrival on the Palouse. In her first season guard Katie Appleton garnered her first-career all-conference honor after being named All-Pac-10 honorable mention. Guard Kezia Kelly was named Freshman All-Pac-10 honorable mention. April Cook and Jazmine Perkins took home a slew of honors following the 2008-09 season, earning mention on the All-Pac-10 Team and the Pac-10 All-Freshman Team. Perkins was also named to the Pac-10 All-Defensive Team. In 2009-10, Cook garnered her second-straight honorable mention all-conference honor, and freshmen Carly Noyes and KiKi Moore combined for a number of accolades. Daugherty continued to produce all-conference selections last season as Perkins and Sage Romberg garnered All-Pac-10 honorable mention honors while Romberg was placed on the Pac-10 All-Freshmen team and Ireti Amojor received All-Pac-10 All-Freshmen honorable mention. It marked the third consecutive season that Daugherty had at least one freshman garner all-conference recognition.

Dating back to her years at Washington, Daugherty has placed at least one individual on the All-Pac-10/12 team each year since 1997. A pair of Cougs received All-Pac-12 accolades in 2011-12 as Perkins received all-Pac-12 honorable mention while both Perkins and Carly Noyes earned all-defensive team honorable mention. In 2012-13, Galdeira and Presley received all-conference honorable mention with Galdeira also earning a spot on the all-defensive and all-freshmen teams. This past season, Galdeira and Presley both earned spots on the All-Pac-12 Team, becoming the first pair of Cougar teammates to earn all-conference honors in the same season in program history.

Daugherty, whose career record stands at 387-360 (.518), has more than 20 years of experience working with WNBA-caliber talent. She began her head coaching career at Boise State, where she coached for seven years (1989-96) and compiled a record of 123-74 (73-31 Big Sky Conference). Under her watch, the Broncos not only made the NCAA Tournament for the first time in school history, but achieved their first national ranking and won their first regular season conference title. In 1992, the Broncos won the Big Sky regular season championship, and in 1994 they shared the conference crown with Montana and earned an at-large bid to the NCAA tournament. At the conclusion of the 1993-94 season, Daugherty was named Big Sky Co-Coach of the Year.

After turning things around at Boise State, Daugherty continued her success at Washington, where she coached for 11 seasons. After finishing ninth in the Pac-10 in 2000, Daugherty led the Huskies to their first conference title since 1990, the greatest turnaround in conference history. She led Washington to nine postseason appearances in 11 seasons - six NCAA Tournament appearances and three WNIT appearances - and led the Huskies all the way to the NCAA Women's Basketball Championship Elite Eight in 2001.

Daugherty helped a number of players earn individual honors at Washington, with Giuliana Mendiola becoming the school's first Pac-10 Player of the Year, and four players earning District VIII All-America honors. Home attendance soared under Daugherty's watch at both Boise State and Washington. The Broncos averaged 500 fans per game before Daugherty's arrival. During her tenure, more than 2,000 fans were coming to watch every game, placing Boise State in the nation's top 30 for home attendance in each of her seven seasons. Washington led the Pac-10 in home attendance in both 2002-03 and 2003-04. The team chemistry formed on the basketball court is a direct result of creating a family atmosphere with Daugherty's staff and players. Daugherty creates a home away from home for her basketball family, consisting of coaches, players and support staff. This environment culminated in 16 players combining for 49 selections to the Pac-10 All-Academic Team at Washington, and 30 student-athletes on the Big Sky Conference All-Academic Team at Boise State. In her six seasons at WSU, ten players have combined for 21 All-Academic selections.

Daugherty's basketball family is involved not only in providing everything necessary to achieve academic excellence, but also the means to becoming involved in community service. Daugherty leads by example, speaking at meetings for the Chamber of Commerce, the Kiwanis and for many women's groups. A major advocate for healthy heart awareness, Daugherty was named the Sudden Cardiac Arrest Association's National Coach of the Year in 2008. Since becoming a survivor of sudden cardiac arrest Daugherty has become one of the nation's most visible spokesmen, filming a nationally-aired commercial, speaking at fund-raisers for the Hope Heart Institute and the American Red Cross and helping WSU sponsor the inaugural "Cougs Have Heart" basketball game to raise awareness for heart disease.

Daugherty is a member of the Women's Basketball Coaches' Association and is a former member of its Board of Directors. She is also a member of both the State Farm Coaches' All-America Team and the Russell Athletic/WBCA Coach of the Year selection committees and is currently serving on the WBCA Ethics Board, the WBCA All-America selection committee for Region 8 and is the captain of the Pac-12 coaches committee. Daugherty often serves as a clinician for the NCAA YES Clinic at the Final Four, and she has been active in USA Basketball and was an assistant coach for the West Team at the 1995 Olympic Sports Festival.

Daugherty also places high priority on keeping the top local high school talent at home in the Northwest. In her first season with the Cougars, Washington's 3A State Player of the Year Katie Grad (Auburn-Riverside) and Shadle Park's all-time leading scorer Lexie Pettersen (Spokane) were each a part of her nationally-ranked recruiting class. Her second recruiting class featured Carly Noyes of Moses Lake, Wash., a three-time conference player of the year at Moses Lake HS. Her 2010 class, two-time Evergreen Conference Most Valuable Player and 2009-10 Seattle Times All-State (all-classifications) honoree Brandi Thomas, of Elma, Wash., went Crimson. This season, Daugherty welcomes Wyoming's two-time Gatorade Player of the Year in Jordan Kelley (Gillette, Wyo.), one of the top-rated low post players out of Canada in 6-3 Shalie Dheensaw (Victoria, B.C.) who has started for the Canadian U17 National Team and speedy three-time all-state selection out of Spokane's Gonzaga Prep Tia Presley (Spokane, Wash.). The 2012 recruiting class featured six players from all over the country including Lia Galderia who was named Hawaii Player of the Year three times.

Several of Daugherty's athletes have gone on to coaching careers at both the high school and collegiate level, including Lisa Fisher, an associate head coach with the Cougars in 2006.

Daugherty served as an assistant coach at Stanford under head coach Tara Vanderveer prior to taking over the Boise State program. She helped guide the Cardinal to one of the finest seasons in school history, finishing the 1989 season with a record of 28-3, an undefeated Pac-10 season and a trip to the NCAA Tournament. Daugherty also had a two-year stint on the Kent State staff as an assistant coach from 1983-85.

Daugherty played collegiate basketball at Ohio State from 1974-78, where she led the Buckeyes to the Big Ten Championship in 1977 and 1978. She is still ranked amongst the school's top 25 in career scoring with 1,137 points. She also ranks fifth in career rebounds (829), is tied for 17th in career field goals made (500) and shares the single-game school record for blocked shots (12 against Michigan State in 1976). At the conclusion of her senior season, she earned first-team All-America honors and was a Wade Trophy finalist the first year the award was presented.

Just prior to the start of the 2001 season, The Ohio State University honored Daugherty with an induction into the OSU Athletic Hall of Fame. Daugherty will be inducted into the Westerville High School in December, 2011.

Following graduation in 1978, Daugherty contributed as both a player and coach on several international teams, including a period as a player and coach for the Union Sportive Vierzon Club based in France.

Daugherty, a native of Columbus, Ohio, is the daughter of Naomi and Jim Brewer and has two brothers, Mark and Neil Brewer, and one sister, Ruth Williams. She and her husband Mike are the parents of twins Doc and Breanne.
