ABOUT UTAH VALLEY

Utah Valley owns a 4-5 record but owns a victory over No. 5 Oregon State on opening weekend. The Wolverines are led offensively by Trevor Howell and Stone Ramsey who each own a .421 batting average and Greyson Bogden has already slugged three homers. Head coach Eric Madsen is in his eight season at UVU. WSU lead the all-time series with Utah Valley 10-3 after sweeping the last series 3-0 in Pullman in 2011.

STEMP'S HOT START IN TEXAS

Utility man Trek Stemp has started the 2016 season on fire, leading the Pac-12 Conference in batting average (.500) and hits (16) and is second in on-base percentage (.541). Stemp redshirted last season but hasn't missed a beat, recording at least one hit in all eight games including a pair of 4-hit performances last weekend. In the five games last week, Stemp led the Cougars with a .619 batting average, totaled four multiple hit games, posted an on-base percentage of .667, was a perfect 3-for-3 in stolen bases attempts. In the win over Prairie View A&M, he tallied four hits, four RBI, scored three times and stole two bases.

FRESHMEN ARMS MAKE THEIR DEBUTS

WSU has seen eight pitchers make their debuts in the first two weekends including six true freshmen. Starters Parker McFadden and Ryan Ward have shown promise as each have made two starts in the first two weeks of their collegiate careers. McFadden, a 20th-round draft selection by the Seattle Mariners last June, picked up his first career win after striking out four and allowing two earned runs over 4.1 innings in the 14-3 victory over Prairie View A&M. Ward, the Oregon Player of the Year last season, has been just as impressive. He struck out six at Texas State in his first career start and followed with another strong outing, striking out three and allowed one earned run over three innings against Houston Baptist Sunday. Freshman relievers Davis Baillie, Kevin Calderhead and Chandler Greenfield each have not allowed a run in a combined seven appearances.

COUGARS RALLY LATE AT TEXAS STATE TO GET MARTY LEES FIRST WIN

Washington State rallied with two runs in the ninth inning and scored two more in the tenth inning to beat Texas State 9-8 in 10 innings in the final game of a season-opening four-game series in San Marcos, Texas, also giving first-year Cougar Head Coach Marty Lees his first career win. Down four runs to start the seventh inning, the Cougars scored twice in the seventh and two more in the ninth to send the game extra innings. In the tenth, Stefan Van Horn, who entered the game in the eighth, launched a solo homer high over the left field fence on the first pitch he saw, his second straight game with a home run. Jack Strunc, who also entered the game in the eighth, followed with a double down the left field line and later came around to score on Derek Chapman's sacrifice fly to left field which proved to be the game winner. In the bottom half of the tenth, Texas State opened the inning with a double and RBI single. The next batter laid down a sacrifice bunt and was called safe at first to put runners on first and second with nobody out. The Bobcats bunted both runners up a base and WSU intentionally walked the next hitter to load the bases with one out. Sophomore lefthander Scotty Sunitsch came up big for the Cougars striking out the final two hitters, both looking, to seal up the win.

HAMILTON GARNERS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

Junior pitcher Ian Hamilton was named to the Louisville Slugger Preseason All-America Second Team by Collegiate Baseball, one of two Pac-12 Conference pitchers placed on the first or second team, appearing as a reliever. He was also rated No. 44 among the Top-100 college prospects by Baseball America prior to the season. In 2015, Hamilton repeated as a member of the All-Pac-12 Conference team after finishing the year with a 1.67 ERA in 43 innings and tied for the Pac-12 lead with 13 saves. His total ranked him tied for 16th nationally as he became WSU's all-time leader with 28. The Vancouver, Wash. native earned Freshman All-America honors as a freshman in 2014 after setting a school record with 15 saves and posted a 2.70 ERA.

COUGAR BULLPEN RETURNS COUPLE FAMILIAR FACES

In addition to Hamilton, the Cougars return three members of the pitching staff who were major contributors last season. Junior lefthander Layne Bruner closed out the 2015 season allowing just one earned run and one hit over his final seven appearances (5 2/3 IP). Sophomore lefthander Scotty Sunitsch made 24 appearances last year including a pair of starts and finished the season with 26 strikeouts over 33 2/3 innings. Sophomore righty Ryan Walker produced an impressive freshman campaign in 2015, posting a 2.72 ERA while holding opposing hitters to a .221 average over 25 appearances including seven starts. Walker earned a spot in the rotation over the final month, earning Pac-12 Pitcher of the Week honors in early May after scattering four hits and striking out 12 and holding opponents to a .105 batting average over a combined 11 2/3 innings in two starts against Washington, and Arizona including a career-best seven strikeouts in seven shutout innings.

Marty
LEES
Head Coach

Marty Lees became the 15th head coach in program history in 2015 after spending the last three seasons as the assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State and the previous 11 at Oregon State. In those 14 years he has coached 10 teams that have reached the NCAA Tournament, including two national champions with Oregon State.

Last season the Cowboys posted a 38-20 record, falling in the NCAA Stillwater Regional, the first time in his three seasons Oklahoma State did not advance to the Regional Championship game. Along with helping lead the Cowboys to the NCAA Louisville Regional final in 2013 and a Big 12 Conference championship and NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2014, Lees thrived as Oklahoma State's recruiting coordinator. The Cowboys' first class with Lees on board was ranked No. 4 nationally by Baseball America and No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball, and followed that with a 2014 class that was ranked No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball for the second-consecutive year.

In January 2013, Lees came in at No. 6 on Baseball America's list of the nation's top 10 college assistant coaches; a list compiled from votes of 70 Division I head coaches across the country, as well as the input of more than a dozen scouts.

As the primary coach for OSU's infielders, Lees coached 13 Cowboy infielders who have earned All-Big 12 honors over the last three seasons, and in 2015, Oklahoma State recorded a .975 fielding percentage.

Lees arrived at Oklahoma State after spending the previous 11 years on the coaching staff at Oregon State, including the final three (2010-12) as the Beavers' associate head coach. Lees joined the Oregon State staff as a volunteer assistant in 2002 and moved to a full-time assistant coach in 2004. He helped coach the Beavers to three-straight College World Series berths from 2005-07, including back-to-back national championships in 2006-07.

He worked primarily as the defensive coach for infielders and catchers and also spent his last six years as the team's recruiting coordinator. While in Corvallis, he coached 30 All-Pac-10/12 Conference performers and 10 All-Americans. Under his guidance, Darwin Barney was the 2005 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, while Chris Kunda was named the conference's defensive player of the year in 2006.

Lees also established himself as a top recruiter as each of his classes as recruiting coordinator ranked in the top 25 nationally. In 2008, the Beavers' signed a class ranked No. 3, and Oregon State's 2011 recruiting class ranked in the top 10 and included Michael Conforto, who earned All-America honors as a freshman in 2012.

A native of Lakeview, Ore., Lees earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Oregon in 1994. He and his wife, Kristy, have three sons, Brandon, Brady and Jacob.
