ABOUT SEATTLE

Seattle University enters the week with a 29-18 overall record and first place in the Western Athletic Conference with a 16-5 conference record. Offensively, the Redhawks are led by Sheldon Stober's .365 batting average and Brock Carpenter paces the club with seven homers and 41 RBI. Head coach Danny Harrel is in his eighth season at Seattle.

STEMP AMONG PAC-12 LEADING HITTERS

Utility man Trek Stemp started the 2016 season on fire and hasn't let up, entering the week seventh in the Pac-12 Conference in batting average (.353), fifth in hits (61) and leading the league in stolen bases (12). The Kennewick, Wash. native recorded hits in the first 11 games before losing the hit streak with a pinch-hit fly out March 6. He followed that with a hit in 12 straight games before that streak ended and added another a 10-game streak. He owns a hit in 37 of the 41 games he has played in this season. Stemp redshirted last season but hasn't missed a beat since his return, recording 16 multiple-hit games including three 4-hit performances. He has started seven games in centerfield and 33 at second base.

STEMP NAMED PAC-12 CONFERENCE PLAYER OF THE WEEK

Washington State second baseman Trek Stemp was named Pac-12 Conference Player of the Week after helping WSU to a series win against No. 10 Oregon State. Stemp went 9-for-14 (.692), recording multiple hits in all three games including four in the series finale. The Kennewick, Wash. native slugged .769, scored four runs and drove in two. In the opener, Stemp tallied three hits and scored a run before registering two hits and a run scored in the game two win. In the rubber game, Stemp recorded four hits, his third 4-hit game of the season, and also scored twice and drove in two. It was the first career Pac-12 weekly accolade for Stemp and the first of the season for WSU.

HAMILTON ADJUSTS TO STARTING ROLE

Right-hander Ian Hamilton has pitched well after making the move from closer to starter this season. His 1-9 record doesn't reflect his effectiveness but the junior owns a 5.22 ERA and 52 strikeouts in 69 innings, all team-bests. Hamilton has also been on the wrong end of close ball games and the offense had scored a combined nine runs in his first seven starts before scoring nine in the win over Arizona State to give him his first win of the year. Against No. 10 Oregon State, Hamilton took a no-hitter into the seventh before allowing two hits. Hamilton was a two-time All-Pac-12 selection as a reliever, setting the school record with 28 career saves.

WALKER LEADING COUGAR BULLPEN, CLOSING IN ON RELIEF WINS RECORD

Sophomore right-hander Ryan Walker has excelled out of the bullpen this season, owning a team-best and eighth-lowest in the Pac-12 ERA (2.67) and tied for eighth-best in opponent batting average (.209). He has recorded six wins (tied for fifth in the Pac-12) and three saves (tied for 10th in the Pac-12) in 15 appearances this season, all out of the pen. The Arlington, Wash. native picked up a win after pitching five innings of one-hit ball to earn a win over Houston Baptist, earned his first career save after striking out six in four innings against Utah Valley. Walker earned the win at Stanford after not allowing an earned run in four relief innings and picked up the save against Arizona State with four scoreless innings. At Arizona, he added another win with 3.2 innings while allowing one hit and striking out five and against No. 10 Oregon State, he earned the win with three innings of relief and came back the next day to pitch the final two innings to earn the save. In a two-hit shutout win at Oregon, Walker fired six scoreless innings of relief to seal up the win. Of WSU's seven conference wins, Walker owns four of the wins and saved two others. His six relief wins this season are tied for second-most in WSU history, trailing the top mark of seven by Matt O'Brien in 2000.

ADAM CONLEY OPENS SEASON AS MARLINS NO. 3 STARTER

Former Washington State Cougar left-handed pitcher Adam Conley, a second-round pick by the Marlins in 2011, is in his second season in the big leagues with the Miami Marlins. Conley opened the year as the No. 3 starter and entered Tuesday night's start with a 2-1 record with a 3.72 ERA. Earlier this season, he no-hit the Milwaukee Brewers for 7.2 innings, striking out seven before leaving the game after throwing 116 pitches. Last season with the Marlins, making his debut in June and went on to make 11 starts and posted a 4-1 record with a .376 ERA in 67 innings.

NEW COUGS IN THE MIX

Washington State has seen 14 newcomers make their Cougar debuts this season including 11 freshmen. Freshman utility man Mason Cerrillo owns a couple big hits in Pac-12 play including a go-ahead two-run single in the 10-inning win at Stanford, a three-hit performance in a win over Arizona State and a go-ahead grand slam against No. 10 Oregon State. On the mound, nine pitchers have made their debuts this year including seven true freshmen. Redshirt-sophomore Damon Jones has had four straight solid starts for WSU, not allowing a hit in his three innings of work in the shutout win at Oregon and fired five no-hit innings in last Saturday's win over Utah. Freshman Parker McFadden, a 20th-round draft selection by the Seattle Mariners last June, picked up his first career win after striking out four against Prairie View A&M and later struck out six, allowed two earned runs in six innings to pick up the win over Northeastern. Freshman starter Ryan Ward, the Oregon Player of the Year last season, struck out six at Texas State in his first career start and picked up his first career win after striking out eight and allowing just one earned run in a five-inning start against Utah Valley.

WASHINGTON STATE POSTS TWO-HIT SHUTOUT AT OREGON

Washington State allowed just two hits in a 4-0 series-opening win over Oregon last Friday. The Cougars saw freshman catcher Ty Johnson go 4-for-4 with a pair of RBI to back starting pitcher Damon Jones and reliever Ryan Walker who combined to strike out nine and didn't allow an Oregon hit until one out in the sixth. Washington State scored three runs in the first and added one more in the third in WSU's first two-hitter since 2009 at Rice. Walker finished with six strikeouts in six shutout innings.

COUGARS TAKE SERIES FROM NO. 10 OREGON STATE

Washington State won the final two games of its home series against No. 10 Oregon State to take the series. The Cougars dropped game one 12-3 but received a solid starting pitching performance from Ian Hamilton to take game two 7-5 and the offense came alive to win the finale 8-3. It was WSU's first series win against OSU since 2010 and first series win against a Top-10 team since beating No. 6 Oregon in 2012.

COUGARS RALLY LATE AT TEXAS STATE TO GET MARTY LEES FIRST WIN

Washington State rallied with two runs in the ninth inning and scored two more in the tenth inning to beat Texas State 9-8 in 10 innings in the final game of a season-opening four-game series in San Marcos, Texas, also giving first-year Cougar Head Coach Marty Lees his first career win. Down four runs to start the seventh inning, the Cougars scored twice in the seventh and two more in the ninth to send the game extra innings. In the tenth, Stefan Van Horn, who entered the game in the eighth, launched a solo homer high over the left field fence on the first pitch he saw. Jack Strunc, who also entered the game in the eighth, followed with a double down the left field line and later came around to score on Derek Chapman's sacrifice fly to left field which proved to be the game winner. In the bottom half of the tenth, Texas State opened the inning with a double and RBI single. The next batter laid down a sacrifice bunt and was called safe at first to put runners on first and second with nobody out. The Bobcats bunted both runners up a base and WSU intentionally walked the next hitter to load the bases with one out. Lefthander Scotty Sunitich came up big for the Cougars striking out the final two hitters to seal up the win.

HAMILTON GARNERS PRESEASON ALL-AMERICAN HONORS

Junior pitcher Ian Hamilton was named to the Louisville Slugger Preseason All-America Second Team by Collegiate Baseball, one of two Pac-12 Conference pitchers placed on the first or second team, appearing as a reliever. He was also rated No. 44 among the Top-100 college prospects by Baseball America prior to the season. In 2015, Hamilton repeated as a member of the All-Pac-12 Conference team after finishing the year with a 1.67 ERA in 43 innings and tied for the Pac-12 lead with 13 saves. His total ranked him tied for 16th nationally as he became WSU's all-time leader with 28. The Vancouver, Wash. native earned Freshman All-America honors as a freshman in 2014 after setting a school record with 15 saves and posted a 2.70 ERA.

ABOUT ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH / PITCHING COACH DAN SPENCER

In his first official move as head baseball coach, Marty Lees named Dan Spencer as the Cougars' associate head coach. Spencer will oversee WSU's pitching staff and reunites with Lees as the two spent four seasons together at Oregon State, winning back-to-back College World Series titles in 2006 and 2007. Spencer coached three seasons with the New Mexico Lobos after serving the previous four years as the head coach of Texas Tech, compiling a 115-112 record. Before joining Texas Tech for the 2008 season, Spencer spent 11 seasons at Oregon State as the Beavers hitting coach (1997-2003) and pitching coach (2004-2007). He began his head coaching career at Green River Community College (1992-96) in Auburn, Wash. In 1992 and 1994 he was named the Northwest Athletic Association of Community Colleges Coach of the Year. A native of Vancouver, Wash., Spencer received his bachelor's degree in history from Portland State University in 1990. He and his wife, Susie, have three children: Wade, Logan, and Elizabeth.

ABOUT ASSISTANT COACH JIM HORNER

Marty Lees filled out his coaching staff hiring former WSU catcher and minor league manager Jim Horner as an assistant coach in June. Horner, a first-team All-Pacific-10 catcher for the Cougars in 1996, jumped at the opportunity to return to the Palouse after managing the Seattle Mariners Double-A affiliate Jackson Generals (Tenn.) for the 2014 season and the first half of the 2015 campaign. Horner owns seven-plus years of managerial experience, serving as the skipper of the Wisconsin Timber Rattlers (Seattle – Low-A) from 2006-07 before managing the High Desert Mavericks (Seattle - High-A) from 2008-10 and 2013. In 2009, he was named California League Manager of the Year and Seattle Mariners Staff Member of the Year after guiding the Mavericks to South Division first and second half titles. From 2011-12, Horner coached two seasons at Texas Tech as the hitting coach under then head coach Dan Spencer. Horner joined the coaching ranks immediately after completing a nine-year professional playing career, all with the Mariners' organization. He was a catcher in the Seattle farm system from 1996-2004. In 2000, Horner reached the Triple-A level with the Tacoma Rainiers. Horner played at Washington State for coaches Bobo Brayton (1993-94) and Steve Farrington (1995-96). The Twin Falls, Idaho native earned first-team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a senior after leading the Cougars with a .332 batting average. Horner was also named the Pacific-10 Conference Medal Winner for Washington State as WSU's top male student-athlete and received all-academic honors while earning a bachelor's degree in criminal justice. Jim and his wife, Katie, have four children: daughters, Madison and Reagan, and sons, Jackson and Tyler.

VOICE OF THE COUGARS - MATT CHAZANOW

Matt Chazanow, a veteran of Atlantic Coast Conference and Big East football and basketball broadcasts, begins his first season as the Cougars play-by-play announcer. Chazanow also calls the action for both Cougar football and men's basketball broadcasts.

Chazanow has extensive experience in broadcasting at the highest level of collegiate football, including calling national play-by-play broadcasts for ACC football, Big East and ACC postseason basketball, along with SEC and ACC postseason baseball. As a senior network manager at IMG College in Winston-Salem, N.C., Chazanow has spent the past seven years managing eight IMG college network broadcasts (Washington State, Arizona, Cal, Gonzaga, Oregon, Texas, UCLA and Washington).

Marty
LEES
Head Coach

Marty Lees became the 15th head coach in program history in 2015 after spending the last three seasons as the assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at Oklahoma State and the previous 11 at Oregon State. In those 14 years he has coached 10 teams that have reached the NCAA Tournament, including two national champions with Oregon State.

Last season the Cowboys posted a 38-20 record, falling in the NCAA Stillwater Regional, the first time in his three seasons Oklahoma State did not advance to the Regional Championship game. Along with helping lead the Cowboys to the NCAA Louisville Regional final in 2013 and a Big 12 Conference championship and NCAA Super Regional appearance in 2014, Lees thrived as Oklahoma State's recruiting coordinator. The Cowboys' first class with Lees on board was ranked No. 4 nationally by Baseball America and No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball, and followed that with a 2014 class that was ranked No. 5 by Collegiate Baseball for the second-consecutive year.

In January 2013, Lees came in at No. 6 on Baseball America's list of the nation's top 10 college assistant coaches; a list compiled from votes of 70 Division I head coaches across the country, as well as the input of more than a dozen scouts.

As the primary coach for OSU's infielders, Lees coached 13 Cowboy infielders who have earned All-Big 12 honors over the last three seasons, and in 2015, Oklahoma State recorded a .975 fielding percentage.

Lees arrived at Oklahoma State after spending the previous 11 years on the coaching staff at Oregon State, including the final three (2010-12) as the Beavers' associate head coach. Lees joined the Oregon State staff as a volunteer assistant in 2002 and moved to a full-time assistant coach in 2004. He helped coach the Beavers to three-straight College World Series berths from 2005-07, including back-to-back national championships in 2006-07.

He worked primarily as the defensive coach for infielders and catchers and also spent his last six years as the team's recruiting coordinator. While in Corvallis, he coached 30 All-Pac-10/12 Conference performers and 10 All-Americans. Under his guidance, Darwin Barney was the 2005 Pac-10 Freshman of the Year, while Chris Kunda was named the conference's defensive player of the year in 2006.

Lees also established himself as a top recruiter as each of his classes as recruiting coordinator ranked in the top 25 nationally. In 2008, the Beavers' signed a class ranked No. 3, and Oregon State's 2011 recruiting class ranked in the top 10 and included Michael Conforto, who earned All-America honors as a freshman in 2012.

A native of Lakeview, Ore., Lees earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Western Oregon in 1994. He and his wife, Kristy, have three sons, Brandon, Brady and Jacob.
