JEN GREENY HEAD COACH

Jen Greeny completed her eighth season as the head coach at WSU, highlighted by leading the Cougars back to the NCAA Championship tournament and guiding WSU Volleyball to the Sweet Sixteen round for the first time since 2002.

This year was one of success. During the summer of 2017, four Cougars added national and international playing experience as members of National Teams: McKenna Woodford played on the U.S. Collegiate National Team (CNT)-Thailand, Taylor Mims played on CNT-Europe team that won Gold at the Global Challenge, Casey Schoenlein played on the CNT-Minneapolis squad, and Jocelyn Urias played on Mexican National Team at the FIVB Grand Prix.

The 2017 season was one of challenges with a nonconference schedule that featured six matches against 2016 NCAA tournament teams as well as the usual tough meetings against nationally-ranked Pac-12 opponents. WSU finished with a nonconference record of 11-1, an overall record of 18-16, and was 6-14 in Pac-12 for ninth with a RPI of 38 (out of 334 teams) and a strength of schedule ranked 10th-hardest nationally.

Returning to the NCAA Championship tournament was more impressive when taking into account junior outside hitter starter McKenna Woodford was lost to injury for the final 18 matches of the season, starter senior opposite starter Casey Schoenlein was lost to injury for the final seven matches and freshman S/OH starter Penny Tusa was lost to injury for the final seven matches. WSU had wins over No. 13 UCLA, No. 25 Colorado and an NCAA First Round win over Florida State before dropping a match to national champion Nebraska on its home court in Lincoln.

Greeny has coached or played in eight of WSU's 12 NCAA Championship tournament appearances.

Junior Taylor Mims embraced the position move from middle blocker to outside hitter and had the sixth-best offensive output (4.17 kills per set and 4.75 points per set) in the Pac-12, and her 599 points was 12th-best in the NCAA. Mims was accorded All-Pac-12 First Team honors as well as named to the All-America honorable mention teams for PrepVolleyball.com and VolleyballMag.com.

Great blocking was another key to the Cougars' success in 2017 as WSU was sixth-best nationally with 364.5 total blocks and 11th in team blocks per set at 2.89. Redshirt sophomore Jocelyn Urias and juniors Ella Lajos and Claire Martin provided the most stops at the net while sophomore libero Alexis Dirige became the 11th player in school history to reach 1,000 digs and did it in the fewest number of sets.

The Fall of 2016 was the most successful season for the WSU volleyball program since 2002. The Cougars tallied a 22-12 overall record and an 11-9 record for fifth place in the highly-competitive Pac-12 Conference after a preseason coaches' poll predicted a ninth-place finish. Seeing her success throughout the season, Greeny's fellow conference coaches voted her the 2016 Pac-12 Coach of the Year. WSU made history in 2016 with a trio of consecutive wins over AVCA Top 10 nationally-ranked teams in 10 days: at No. 4 Washington Sept. 21, at No. 9 UCLA Sept. 23 and versus No. 9 Stanford Sept. 30.

The Cougars earned an at-large bid to the NCAA Championship tournament for the first time in seven years and won a First Round match for the first time in 14 seasons. This season's 22 wins is tied for fifth-most in WSU volleyball program history and under Greeny's leadership, WSU has produced the best three season win-totals in the last 14 years with 18 wins in 2013, 16 wins in 2015 and 22 wins in 2016. Greeny's WSU teams have posted a 62-11 non-conference record during her six years as head coach. The Cougars compete in the country's strongest volleyball conference, the Pac-12, where for the last 17 consecutive seasons the conference has had six or more teams advance to the NCAA Championship tournament including the record of 10 teams in 2014.

Senior outside hitter Kyra Holt, an All-Pacific North Region and two-time All-Pac-12 selection, was a versatile all-round player leading the team on and off the court. Holt, the fifth player in WSU history to reach 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career, claimed school records in points (2,051) and attack attempts (5,074), and is in WSU's career top 10 lists in kills (1,777 - 2nd), kills per set (3.74 - 5th), aces (123 - 5th), and digs (1,172 - 7th). During the 2016 season Holt was the espnW National Player of the Week for Sept. 19-25, 2016 as well as Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week and earned a trio of nonconference all-tournament honors.

The Cougars led the country in total blocks in 2016 and was third-best nationally for blocks per set (3.23 bps) with sophomore middle blockers Taylor Mims and Claire Martin producing outstanding statistics. Mims was third-best nationally in total blocks (191) and eighth-best in blocks per set (1.49 bps) while Martin was 24th-best in total blocks (156) and 16th-best in blocks per set (1.41bps). Mims and WSU junior outside hitter Casey Schoenlein were named to the 2016 All-Pac-12 honorable mention team.

In addition to their WSU accomplishments, 2016 was full of accolades for members of the Cougars squad. Holt was selected to compete on the 2016 summer Pac-12 All-Star squad that toured China. McKenna Woodford and Schoenlein played and Greeny was an assistant coach on the 2016 USA Volleyball's U.S. Collegiate National Team - Europe Tour that won the 12th Annual Global Challenge tournament in Croatia. Tani Stephens, a senior defensive specialist, found great success in summer sand volleyball tournaments including playing in the AVP Seattle Open. Stephens graduated in December and will pursue her graduate degree and play collegiate beach volleyball this spring.

Greeny and her staff have tirelessly worked to return the Cougars volleyball program back to the national prominence it received when Greeny was a player and an assistant coach. To that end, the Cougars ranked No. 17 in recruiting class rankings from 2013-15 according to PrepVolleyball.com, which includes two classes ranked among the Top 21: No. 14 in 2013, and No. 21 in 2015, with the 2014 class garnering honorable mention accolades. Among the WSU recruits are six PrepVolleyball.com Top 100 players and two Gatorade State Players of the Year. Greeny credits her husband and lead recruiter, assistant coach Burdette Greeny, with achieving these fine recruiting classes.

Greeny became the 12th coach in the history of the Cougars volleyball program in March 2011. She has compiled a six-year record of 91-104 at WSU and has a 10-year career record of 203-128. As Jennifer Stinson, Greeny played and coached at WSU during the program's most successful years on the Palouse and when hired, Greeny made a commitment to not only restore the program but to take it to the next level of success.

Under Greeny's mentoring in 2011, Megan Ganzer became the fourth All-America player in WSU history and the first selected since 1996. Greeny, and her assistant coach Burdette Greeny, have coached eight All-Americans and several players who have had successful professional careers including Ganzer (Puerto Rico, Romania, and Germany), Kyra Holt (Puerto Rico and Spain), Camryn Irwin (Austria and Sweden), Chelsie Bettinson (Sweden) and Anile Clemente, a three-time All-American at Lewis-Clark State (Denmark). Kate Sommer, the first recruit signed to WSU by Greeny, claimed the school digs record in 2015 after accumulating 1,954 digs in her four-year career.

Greeny has also changed the academic culture of the program with 12 semesters of a team grade point average of 3.0 or better.

As the head volleyball coach at Lewis-Clark State College (Lewiston, Idaho) from 2007-10, Greeny accumulating an impressive 112-24 record (.824) while turning the Warriors' program into one of the premier NAIA teams. She took the reins of a struggling program and led it to success, winning four consecutive Frontier Conference regular season titles and four consecutive berths to the NAIA National Tournament. The Warriors finished in the top 13 in the nation each year and ended the 2010 season at 31-3 (.912), the best mark in the history of the program. Greeny was a four-time Frontier Conference Coach of the Year and the American Volleyball Coaches' Association's Northwest Region Coach of the Year.

Jennifer Stinson was a stellar multi-sport athlete at Davenport (Wash.) High. At WSU she became the seventh player in WSU history with 1,000 career kills. A three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection, Greeny's statistics are prominent in WSU's all-time career lists ranking fourth in block assists (360), fourth in total blocks (419), and sixth in solo blocks (59). She trained with the 1997 U.S. National volleyball team.

Greeny also excelled in the classroom where she was WSU's Athlete of the Year in 1998-99. She was a CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America first-team and second-team selection her final two years and was a Pac-10 Volleyball All-Academic selection three times. She received her bachelor's degree in education from WSU in 1999.

Greeny spent four and one-half years on WSU Head Coach Cindy Fredrick's volleyball coaching staff. At the time of her departure, Greeny had been involved in seven of the 11 seasons Cougar volleyball qualified for postseason action, three as a player, three as an assistant coach and once as head coach. During her playing career, WSU was ranked as high as fifth in the country and made the Elite Eight of the NCAA Championship Tournament. Greeny was instrumental in WSU's second and only other appearance in the Elite Eight of the NCAA Tournament, in 2002, this time as an assistant coach.

Greeny and her husband, Burdette Greeny, a former standout pitcher at WSU and an assistant volleyball coach at WSU, have two daughters, Lauren and Leah. She is a member of the Pullman Regional Hospital Foundation. Jen and Burdette Greeny were honored with a City of Pullman Chamber of Commerce Walk of Fame plaque in 2015; the 25th plaque in the Famous Sports Figures category which honors those who have a positive impact beyond Pullman High School or Washington State University.

BURDETTE GREENY

Associate Head Coach

Burdette Greeny brings a driven competitive nature and a dynamic intensity as both a coach and the lead recruiter to the Cougars volleyball program.

Greeny just completed his eighth season with the Cougars and was instrumental in WSU's three straight NCAA Championship Tournament appearances. He capped the 2018 season off by being named the AVCA Division 1 Assistant Coach of the Year as well. He joined the Cougar volleyball program in March 2011 as an assistant coach and was promoted to Associate Head Coach in February 2017.

The 2016 season was filled with milestones. WSU ended the season ranked No. 24 in the Final AVCA Coaches Poll with a 22-12 overall record: the most wins in a season since 2002, and tied for fifth-best all-time wins in Cougars history. WSU's 11-9 Pac-12 record, tied for fifth place in the highly competitive conference, was the most conference wins for the Cougars since 2002. The Cougars received an at-large bid to the 2016 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship Tournament for the 11th time in school history and advanced to the second round for the first time since 2002.

Receiving the 2017 NCAA at-large bid and advancing again to the Second Round was more impressive when taking into account junior starter at outside hitter McKenna Woodford was lost to injury for the final 18 matches, and starters senior Casey Schoenlein (opposite) and freshman Penny Tusa (setter/outside hitter) were both lost to injury for the final seven matches of the season. Junior Taylor Mims moved from middle blocker to outside hitter and earned All-Pac-12 First Team honors in addition to a second year of being selected to the PrepVolleyball.com and VolleyballMag.com All-America Honorable Mention teams.

The 2016 and 2017 advancement to the NCAA Second Round are the most successful back-to-back NCAA results for a Cougars volleyball team since the 1996 and 1997 seasons, when Head Coach Jen Greeny was a player.

Greeny's recruiting prowess is evident in the PrepVolleyball.com's national rankings. WSU is one of only 15 programs in the nation to have two Top 25 and one Honorable Mention recruiting class between 2013 and 2015. The 2013 and 2015 recruiting classes are two of the highest-ranked recruiting classes ever in any sport at WSU. Among Greeny's WSU recruits are six PrepVolleyball.com Top 100 players and two Gatorade State Players of the Year.

"Burdette has emerged as one of the best recruiting coordinators in the country and it definitely shows with the amount of talent and character in his recruiting classes," Cougar Head Coach Jen Greeny said. "The recruits have said Burdette is easy and fun to talk to, is an amazing communicator, and is extremely passionate about Washington State and Pullman. Burdette cares not only about a player's skills in the recruiting process but also about each individual and if they will fit in with our team core values."

The first high school recruit signed by Greeny was libero Kate Sommer who broke WSU's career digs record with 1,954 digs. Among the 2013 recruiting class, which was the first real recruiting class for the Greenys, ranked 14th-best nationally, was Kyra Holt who became an AVCA/VolleyballMag.com/PrepVolleyball.com All-America honorable mention, All-Pacific North Region and two-time All-Pac-12 selection. Holt could arguably be described as quite possibly the best all-around player ever at WSU, as she finished her career No. 1 in points, No. 2 in kills, No. 3 in kills per set, No. 5 in aces, and No. 7 in digs. Holt also found success in as a professional player in Puerto Rico in 2017 and is one of six players that Greeny has coached who has gone on to play professionally. Middle blockers Taylor Mims and Claire Martin were signees in the 21st-best national recruiting class in 2015. In 2016 as sophomores, Mims and Martin finished in the Top 25 nationally in blocks per set and total blocks. Greeny was integral to the recruitment and development of these front row players who became one of the elite blocking units in the nation. In 2016 WSU was number two in team total blocks behind national champion Stanford and third-best nationally in team blocks per set, a significant factor to WSU finishing fourth among all Power 5 conference schools and 26th overall in opponent hitting percentage, behind only AVCA Top 25 teams No. 4 Nebraska, No. 11 Kansas, and No. 12 North Carolina. In 2017, the Cougars were sixth-best nationally in team total blocks and 11th in team blocks per set.

Casey Schoenlein and McKenna Woodford became the first Cougar volleyball players to be named to a US National Team since 1997. Their CNT-Europe squad, with Coach Jen Greeny on the coaching staff, won the gold medal at the 2016 Global Challenge Tournament in Croatia (the first for a US National Team in the twelve years of the tournament). In 2017 CNT-Europe repeated as champions at the Global Challenge and Mims was an all-tournament selection. Woodford played on the 2017 CNT-Thailand team and Schoenlein was on the CNT-Minneapolis squad. Jocelyn Urias was on the Mexican National Team at the FIVB Grand Prix bringing WSU's total to four 2017 players on national teams, second only to the University of Texas for current players on national teams.

Burdette Greeny assisted his wife Jen at Lewis-Clark State College from 2007-10. He was an assistant coach for three seasons and one of 20 assistant coaches nominated for the 2009 NAIA National Assistant Coach of the Year Award. He was promoted to Associate Head Coach at LCSC in 2010. Greeny's recruiting resume at LCSC included three Junior College First Team All-Americans, one Junior College Second Team All-American, one Gatorade State Player of the Year, two state players of the year, and 12 first team all-state selections. In four years, 37 LCSC players were named to the conference all-academic teams and seven players were selected as NAIA Volleyball National Scholar-Athletes.

Greeny was an all-league selection in both basketball and baseball at Port Angeles (Wash.) High School. He was named one of the top ten pitchers in the state by Tacoma News Tribune (1993), drafted by the New York Mets but instead played basketball and baseball at Tacoma Community College (1993-95). He earned second-team All-West Region honors both years as a third baseman and set a school record for striking out 17 batters in a game. He pitched for WSU in 1997, winning the team's award for strength and conditioning. He signed as a free agent with the Milwaukee Brewers before the 1998 draft and was with the organization for two seasons.

Greeny earned a degree in humanities with an emphasis in English from WSU in 1999. From 2000 through 2007 he was the head coach in the Pullman American Legion Baseball organization where his teams won two regular season titles, one district title, and made the first appearance by a Pullman team at the state tournament since 1968 and tallied the first state tourney win in the program's 60-year history. Of his American Legion players, 88 percent went on to play college baseball. Greeny spearheaded the development of the Palouse Summer Series which brings to Pullman some of the best amateur select and American Legion teams in the state and Canada. He was the recipient of the 2005 Pullman Chamber of Commerce STAR (Supporting Tourism and Recreation) Award.

Burdette and Jen Greeny were honored in 2015 with a City of Pullman Chamber of Commerce Walk of Fame plaque. They have two daughters, Lauren and Leah. STAR (Supporting Tourism and Recreation) Award.

SHANNON HUNT

Assistant Coach

Shannon Wyckoff Hunt has made significant contributions to the success of the WSU volleyball program through her ability to hone the skills and techniques of the Cougars defense as well as her keen analysis of the nationally-ranked opponents.

Hunt joined the Cougar volleyball program as a volunteer coach in August 2011 and was promoted to assistant coach in the spring of 2013. She was instrumental in rebuilding the WSU program back into an NCAA Tournament team as it was when she was a student-athlete. The 2016 and 2017 advancement to the NCAA Second Round are the most successful back-to-back NCAA results for a Cougars volleyball team since the 1996 and 1997 seasons, when Head Coach Jen Greeny and Hunt were players.

The 2016 season was filled with milestones. WSU ended the season ranked No. 24 in the Final AVCA Coaches Poll with a 22-12 overall record: the most wins in a season since 2002, and tied for fifth-best all-time wins in Cougars history. WSU's 11-9 Pac-12 record, tied for fifth place in the highly competitive conference, was the most conference wins for the Cougars since 2002. The Cougars received an at-large bid to the 2016 NCAA Women's Volleyball Championship Tournament for the 11th time in school history and advanced to the second round for the first time since 2002.

Receiving the 2017 NCAA at-large bid and advancing again to the Second Round was more impressive when taking into account junior starter at outside hitter McKenna Woodford was lost to injury for the final 18 matches, and starters senior Casey Schoenlein (opposite) and freshman Penny Tusa (setter/outside hitter) were both lost to injury for the final seven matches of the season. Junior Taylor Mims moved from middle blocker to outside hitter and earned All-Pac-12 First Team honors in addition to a second year of being selected to the PrepVolleyball.com and VolleyballMag.com All-America Honorable Mention teams.

Under Hunt's guidance, libero Kate Sommer, the first WSU recruit by the Greeny staff, claimed the school digs record with 1,954 digs in her four-year career. Sommer's season totals of 521 digs (2014), 495 digs (2013), 479 digs (2015), and 459 digs (2012) rank fourth, sixth, seventh and ninth-best in WSU's single season school records. Stepping into the libero spot in the 2016 season was freshman Alexis Dirige, whose 3.83 digs per set was seventh-best in Pac-12 and tallying 486 digs for the season, seventh-best in WSU all-time single season records. Dirige did not suffer a sophomore slump in 2017, setting the WSU single-season record of 569 digs, and averaged 4.52 digs per set which was third-best in the Pac-12. Dirige had a 36-digs match which is the school record for most digs in a four-set match and tallied 37 digs in 3-2 win over No. 13 UCLA which is the second-highest digs total in a match in school history and second-highest for digs in a five-set match.

In 2016, the Cougars kept opponents hitting an average of .168 which was the lowest percentage in the Pac-12 Conference, 26th-best in the NCAA in 2016 and fourth-best in WSU all-time. This statistic is the best in the past 18 seasons: back to when Hunt and the Cougars were holding opponents to a .156 hitting percentage in 1997.

Hunt was an outstanding student and athlete at WSU from 1994 through 1997, and a teammate of Greeny. During Hunt's collegiate career the Cougars volleyball team played all four years in the NCAA Championship Tournament and advanced to the Elite Eight once and to the Sweet Sixteen once.

She was the first Washington State player to reach 1,000 kills and 1,000 digs in a career. Her 1,254 career digs was the WSU all-time list leader from 1997 until 2008 and is currently second-best all-time. Hunt tallied 1,051 career kills which was fifth-best at the time and now ranks ninth-highest in school history. In addition, her career 83 service aces total is ranked 11th-best at WSU.

Hunt competed at Prairie High near Vancouver, Wash., and was the state volleyball Player of the Year three consecutive years - twice in AA and once in AAA. She was the first four-time all-league selection in the history of the Greater St. Helens League. The Falcons' volleyball team finished fourth three times in the state championships. Her senior year Prairie also won the state AAA Academic title. Hunt was a starter on the Nike Northwest Juniors Club team all five years she played.

At Washington State, Hunt started on the left side as a freshman and missed only six matches in the starting lineup, due to injury, during her four-year career. As a sophomore Hunt's 376 digs led team and 3.72 digs per game was third-best in conference. She set a school record with 32 digs in a match at South Florida in 1995. She was named to two all-tournament teams as a junior and was an important cog in the Cougars' advancing to the NCAA Championships Elite Eight. As a senior, Hunt continued amassing kills and digs as an outside hitter, earned two more all-tournament honors, and helped lead the Cougars to the Sweet Sixteen at the NCAA Championships.

Hunt was recognized for her academic excellence with Pac-10 All-Academic second team and honorable mention selections as well as being named to the GTE/CoSIDA District VIII Academic All-America Teams three times.

After graduating from WSU in the spring of 1998 with a degree in education, Hunt taught at the elementary level in the Vancouver, Wash., and coached volleyball at Heritage High and Hockinson High Schools.

Prior to returning to WSU Hunt taught and coached in the Vancouver, Wash., area for a dozen years. She was the head volleyball coach at Prairie High School in Brush Prairie, Wash., for the 2000 through 2003 seasons where she tallied a state championship tournament berth and had three players advance from prep to collegiate volleyball careers. She was inducted into the Prairie High School Hall of Fame in January of 2015.

Hunt moved to the newly constructed Hockinson High School, also in Brush Prairie, Wash., where she was the head volleyball coach from 2004 through 2010. At Hockinson, Hunt led two Hawks' volleyball teams to state championship tournaments and had five players play collegiately after their prep volleyball careers.

Hunt lives in Pullman with her husband Joe, and their sons Grayson and Austin.

Kaysie Shebeneck

Operations Coordinator

Kaysie Shebeneck joined the Washington State volleyball program in May 2017. As operations coordinator, Shebeneck arranges all the team travel and meals, administers the video analysis and scouting service, and coordinates the student-athletes in promotional and community activities. Her duties also include managing the Little Spikers youth clinics and the summer camps.

A native of Racine, Wis., Shebeneck was a two-time Wisconsin Gatorade Prep Volleyball Player of the Year. She led the Burlington High School Demons volleyball team to back-to-back state championship titles (2011 and 2012) after a pair of top five placings. She was a two-time all-state tournament selection, tournament MVP and a two-time all-state first team selection by the Wisconsin Volleyball Coaches Association. Shebeneck was the 2012 All-Area Co-Player of the Year. She was selected to PrepVolleyball.com's top players by class all four years, an All-American in 2011 and 2012, was named 2011 PrepVolleyball.com's National Junior of the Year finalist as well as a finalist for the 2012 Andi Collins Award which recognizes the best senior setter in the nation. She was a Wisconsin Intercollegiate Athletic Association scholar-athlete 2013 finalist.

Shebeneck played for the Milwaukee Sting Club team for eight years, leading her team to four top-five finishes at the national championships. She earned AAU All-American honors after her club was runners-up in the 17 Open Division at the 2012 AAU Girls Junior National Volleyball Championship.

Shebeneck was a setter for the Texas A&M volleyball team where the Aggies tallied four NCAA Championship Tournament bids and won the SEC Conference title in 2015. She earned SEC Academic Honor Roll honors four times and was the team's Most Inspirational Player in 2014. She graduated in May 2017 with Bachelor of Arts degrees in Spanish and International Studies with a minor in Communication. She has five years of experience as an English as a Second Language (ESL) teacher in Wisconsin, Texas and Chile.

Shebeneck was a coach with the Aggie Elite Volleyball Club and coached at the Texas A&M Volleyball Summer Camps.

James Dorr

Volunteer Coach

James Dorr returns as a volunteer coach at Washington State University in 2017 after serving in that position for the 2015 season.

Dorr lettered four years as an outside hitter and libero on the men's volleyball at Limestone College (Gaffney, South Carolina), an NCAA Division II institution. He was a two-time Conference Carolinas All-Academic team selection. After receiving his bachelors' degree in psychology from Limestone College in 2013, Dorr came to Pullman to pursue his master's degree and worked in the Student Recreation Center. He played on the WSU Men's Club team and coached multiple volleyball camps as well as for the Palouse Area Club Volleyball U14 team.

An East Valley High School (Spokane Valley) graduate, Dorr played basketball and competed in track and field. He played forward on the basketball team and was known for his rebounding abilities. He threw the discus and shot put for the Knights' track team and advanced to the Washington State Interscholastic Activities Association (WIAA) state championships in both events. He was a four-year team manager for the EVHS girls' volleyball program, working for the legendary coach and his father, the late Jim Dorr.

Dorr was an outstanding scholar and was named his high school's Foreign Language Student of the Year and was a Spokane Scholar nominee for World Languages. He graduated with a 4.0 GPA, was his class valedictorian, and was named EVHS Male Scholar Athlete of the Year as a senior.

While in high school, Dorr played also play boys' club volleyball. He was an outside hitter and right side hitter for the Seattle Space Needle Volleyball Foundation Club, helping the program to a 10th place finish at the 2009 national tournament in Atlanta. He was also an outside hitter on the High Performance Continental Team.

Dorr completed his masters' degree in Counseling Psychology at WSU in the spring of 2015.

ACADEMIC ALL-AMERICA® TEAMS ARE SELECTED BY COSIDA

The Academic All-America teams program was created in 1952 by the College Sports Information Directors of America (CoSIDA) to honor college athletes who excel in not just sports but also in academics. To be eligible for the Academic All-American honors, a student-athlete must have at least a 3.20 cumulative grade point average (on a 4.0 scale), must be a significant contributor to the team, and be in at least their second season at their current school. District VIII includes schools in the states of Alaska, Arizona, California, Hawai'i, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, Washington, and British Columbia.

BOHLER GYM

The Best Volleyball-only Facility in the Pac-12

Home to Cougar Athletics since 1928.

One of the only facilities solely dedicated to volleyball in the nation.

Dominating home court advantage as fans are virtually on top of the action.

Cougars enjoy tremendous fan support from the University and the Pullman communities.

Volleyball specific gyms are the future and Bohler Gym is a testament to the commitment Washington State University has made to Women's Volleyball and to the growth of our sport.

Volleyball Magazine, May 2003

The Cougars' home court is now called Marcia Saneholtz Court at Bohler Gym in honor of the 28-year administrative veteran of Cougar Athletics who retired Oct. 1, 2007. Saneholtz was the WSU Senior Associate Athletics Director/SWA and was a long-time proponent of gender equity and a champion for all sports at WSU as well as in the Pac-10 and the nation. She was the NACWAA president (1992-93), on the board of directors (1987-94), and named 1997 Administrator of the Year. She also received the NAGWS Pathfinder Award in 2001 and WSU Woman of Distinction in 2003. Saneholtz will be added to the Inland Empire Scroll of Honor in the fall of 2009.
