COUGS VS BEAR

The Cougs host Cal at Lower Soccer Field for the first time since 2018 when WSU beat the Bears, 4-2. In that game Sydney Pulver and Brianna Alger both scored goals with Pulver's going down as the game-winning strike for the Cougs. WSU is riding a two-match winning streak against Cal as the two meet for Sunday after a year hiatus as the 2021 spring contest was cancelled due to Covid-19. Last time the two met came in 2019 in Berkeley when the Cougs picked up a golden goal from Makamae Gomera-Stevens. While the Bears hold the edge in the overall series at 16-11-3 the Cougs hold the edge in Pullman having gone 8-5-1 at Lower Soccer Field.

The Bears come to Pullman off a 1-0 loss to Washington in Seattle Thursday night. The loss was the Bears second in Pac-12 play as they enter the match 1-2-1 in the first three weeks of conference play. The lone common opponent so far for the Cougs and the Bears is Colorado a match which Cal drew, 2-2, in 20T to start Pac-12 play in Berkeley. Karlie Lema leads the Bears' attack with four goals while Angelina Anderson has posted five wins and four shutouts in goal.

COOPER, PULVER NAMED PAC-12 PLAYERS OF THE WEEK

For the first time since the 2018 season the Cougars nabbed two Pac-12 weekly awards as freshman Nadia Cooper was named Goalkeeper of the Week while fifth-year Sydney Pulver took home Defensive Player of the Week. The pair of first-time winners were the first duo of WSU honorees since Morgan Weaver (Offensive) and Rachel Johnson (Goalkeeper) earned two of the three weekly awards on Oct. 30, 2018.

In a season that defensively is shaping up to be a historic run for the Cougs, the weekend was no different for the Cougs as WSU swept their road trip to the Rocky Mountains for the first time since 2015, earning a pair of shutouts at Utah and Colorado. The pair of cleansheets ran the Cougs' season total to nine including a perfect six of six on the road in 2021.

While not tested often thanks to the Cougs' constant pressure in the attack and smothering defense in the back, Cooper was always up to the task when called upon including posting a season-high five saves Sunday at Colorado. Not only did Cooper stop every shot that came her way she even got into the offensive attack herself with the game-winning assist in the 58' minute to Elyse Bennett. The goalkeeper assist was the first for a Coug netminder since Rachel Johnson tallied the offensive stat in WSU's 3-0 win over Idaho, Sept. 6, 2018.

In Pulver, the Cougs' soft-spoken leader continued her excellent play in the midfield, putting together another pair of contests that while quiet on the stat sheet played loudly on the field. Always a calming presence, Pulver became the program's all-time leader in matches played Thursday at Utah appearing in her record-setting 87th contest, a mark she added to Sunday in her home state at Colora

LAST TIME OUT

A battle until the final whistle, a 29' minute goal would prove to be the difference as Washington State (9-2-1, 3-1-0) fell to No. 14 Stanford (9-3-0, 3-1-0), 1-0, Thursday night at Lower Soccer Field. In what proved to be an evenly played game between two Pac-12 opponents looking for their footing in the conference title race it was the Cardinal who came out on top after finding the early goal and making it hold up for over an hour on the Palouse.

PULVER THE ULTIMATE IRON-WOMAN

One of the most durable players to ever put on the Crimson and Gray 5th year Sydney Pulver became the program's undisputed all-time leader in games played with 87 career appearances when the opening whistle blew at Utah.

Each time she steps on the pitch her record grows having played in 89 career matches.

Additionally, Pulver has been a stalwart in the starting lineup with 82 career starts, 3rd all-time.

Pulver netted her third career goal in the season opener, scoring her first career tally from the penalty spot. The goal was her first since the 2018 season. She would add her first assist of the year on the game-winner at Kansas, Sept. 12. She came up with her second career game-winner at Denver Sept. 16 while tallying a second assist against Arizona Sept. 24.

LYNCH BACK WITH A BANG

Just one year removed from hip surgery, junior Grayson Lynch is back to full force as the third-year striker has found her groove offensively. Using her speed and deft touch, Lynch sits second on the team lead with a career-best 6 goals on the year, a number which ranks 8th in the Pac-12.

Scoring in bunches, Lynch has notched a pair of braces on the year with her first career brace coming at San Diego State, Sept. 2. She added a second at Northern Colorado, Sept. 19. Lynch is the first Coug with a pair of multi-goal games in a season since all-american Morgan Weaver tallied four multi-goal games in 2019.

She also leads the team with two game-winners on the year.

DEFENSE DOMINATING

The strength of the Cougars entering the 2021 season the defensive unit has not disappointed anchored by the veteran core of senior captain Mykiaa Minniss and junior Bridget Rieken in the middle. The duo have been the heart of the Cougs' defense since joining forces in 2019 including leading the team to the College Cup as underclassmen and have played nearly every minute together for the last three seasons.

On the year the Cougs have allowed just four goals (0.33 GAA) while posting nine shutouts.

The 4 goals against ranks tied for #1 in the country while the 0.33 GAA ranks percentage points off the lead in 3rd.

KEEPING IT CLEAN ON THE SCORE SHEET

On pace for a historic defensive season in 2021, the Cougars have been nearly perfect on the year having posted 9 shutouts and just 4 goals against in 12 contests.

The 9 shutouts puts the team just one shutout away from becoming the 7th Cougar squad with double-digit shutouts in a season and within reach of the all-time record of 15 set in 2013.

The Cougs set the record for consecutive-shutouts Sunday at Colorado with their 6th-straight, snapping the previous mark of 5 set in 2013. They would capture the consecutive shutout minute record with nearly a full month of shutout soccer posting a record 578:45 minutes of scoreless soccer before #14 Stanford snapped the run.

COOPER IN AN AIR OF HER OWN

Taking over the starting job in net for the Cougs at Kansas on Sept. 12, true freshman Nadia Cooper showed why she was one of the highest recruits in program history as the first-year netminder became the first true freshman since 2000 to earn a shutout in her first career start. She would do herself one better in game two, shutting down a high-powered Denver attack, Sept. 16, on the road to become the first true freshman in program history to record shutouts in her first two career starts. In all, Cooper has allowed just one goal in eight appearances, conceding for the first time against #14 Stanford.

Her 0.15 GAA ranks 1st in the nation.

She set the Cougs' all-time record for consecutive shutout minutes with 523:56 minutes to begin her career, snapping all-time great Gurveen Clair's record set in 2013.

OFFENSE FINDING ITS STRIDE

Coming out blazing on the new year the Cougs' offense has been on the attack, dominating the offensive third to the tune of 21.25 shots per game, 8th most in the nation. The constant pressure has bore fruit as the Cougs have scored 29 goals and are 31st in the nation at 2.42 goals per game.

The Cougs have seen 10 different scorers find the back of the net led by Elyse Bennett with 7 goals and Grayson Lynch with six. Eight different Cougs have netted game-winners on the year with Lynch leading the way with two winners.

Starting with Alyssa Gray's brace against Eastern Washington Aug. 28, the Cougs recorded a brace in three-consecutive contests (Gray, Lynch, and Bennett & Bridget Rieken) for the first time since 2000 when they went four-straight matches.

Bennett and Rieken became the first set of Cougar teammates to each notch 2 goals in a game together since Katrina Stroh and Alix Rustrum each scored twice in the Cougs' 8-0 win over Gonzaga Sept. 22, 2002. Lynch leads the way with two multi-goal games.

Junior Enzi Broussard has found herself in the middle of the attack having produced a career-best five assists while adding three goals for 11 points, third on the team.

BENNETT CLIMBING THE COUGS' SCORING TOP-10 LIST

Taking over as the Cougs' primary target up top in the spring, 5th year Elyse Bennett is back at it netting her first goal of the season against Eastern Washington. She scored her second-career brace against Hawai'i while adding an assist for a career-best 5-point contest.

Last season she made the most of her opportunities scoring a team-best six goals while adding one assist for good measure. She finished the season seventh in the Pac-12 in total goals and was named Third-Team All-Pac-12.

For the year, Bennett has 7 goals and 3 assists and leads the team with 17 points (4th in the Pac-12).

For her career, Bennett has notched 23 goals and 11 assists. She ranks T6th all-time in goals scored and 8th in points with 57. She has played 84 career games 4th all-time.

TRANSFERS MAKING THEIR MARK

Entering the year with big expectations off their successes at their previous schools, Sydney Studer (Oregon State) and Enzi Broussard (West Virginia) have not disappointed as the duo have made an immediate impact for the Cougs.

For Studer, the all-region honoree last season opened up her WSU scoring tally with what would be the game winner at San Diego State scoring in the 17' on a header at the back post. Last season, Studer scored a Beaver best seven goals, six of which came in the air. She has also helped cement the Cougs defensively in the midfield helping the way to six shutouts on the year. She has added a pair of assists for good measure.

Broussard has been the Cougs' best playmaker having produced a team-best five assists including setting up the Studer strike. She added her first career Cougar goal against Seattle U Sept. 9 and her first career Pac-12 goal in her first conference game against Arizona Sept. 24. The goal also marked her first career game-winner.

She tied the program record with an assist in three-straight games while also tying for second all-time with three assists in a game against Hawai'i. Broussard needs 2 assists to break into the Cougs' single-season top-10 for assists.

SOPHOMORE STANDOUTS

Proving their mettle amongst an array of record-setting veterans and a slew of fresh-faced newbies, the Cougars' sophomores have come out blazing in their first real full year of action, setting the pace and tone for the attack. Sophomore Alyssa Gray has been the best to start the year, posting a five-point night (2 goals, 1 assist) against Eastern Washington, the most for any Cougar since all-american Morgan Weaver in 2019. Adding to Gray's impact, it was sophomores Margie Detrizio and Marin Whieldon who assisted on her two goals while Jayla Land finished off the all sophomore hat-trick in the opening half against the Eagles with her first career goal on just her second career shot. Detrizio would get in the scoring column against Hawai'i for her first goal of the season.

TRIO OF FRESHMEN MAKING AN INSTANT IMPACT

Rounding out the Cougs depth around the pitch a trio of freshmen have made an immediate impact in Reese Tappan, Khalia Gathright, and Nadia Cooper. The newbies have found their place among the WSU defense with Tappan and Gathright finding time as outside backs with Cooper between the posts. Tappan wrapped up her high school career as a two-time state champion and two-time all-league selection at Liberty HS while Gathright was a club national champion while playing for SoCal Blue. Cooper was a stalwart in the US National Team system having been called up to the U17 National Team for multiple tournaments.

Tappan was the first of the three to earn a start finding her way into the first XI in the season opener while Gathright jumped into the mix in game two. Tappan has started 9 of 12 contests while Gathright has started 4 of 12.

Cooper picked up her first career start Sept. 12 at Kansas after appearing off the bench twice prior. She became the first true freshman to win her first career start since Lindsey Jorgensen defeated Portland State, 9-0, Sept. 24, 2000. It was also the last time a true freshman recorded a shutout in her first career start as a Cougar.

ROAD WARRIORS

Making a point to travel well and make a statement away from home, the Cougars have taken their talents on the road this season with an impressive 6-0 mark away from Lower Soccer Field. The Cougs have earned six of their nine shutouts on the road. Impressively, the Cougs have outscored their opponents 14-0 in hostile venues, jumping on their opponents early with 7 of their 14 goals coming in the opening 30 minutes. Additionally, the Cougs have scored 2 in the opening five minutes and 4 in the first 20 minutes of action.

ALGER MAKES HER RETURN

After 206 total days and nearly 1,243 minutes of action, 5th year Brianna Alger made her triumphant return to the pitch for the Cougs in the 28' of play at San Diego State, Sept. 2. Alger came into the fall with unfinished business after seeing her 2021 spring season come to an abrupt end just 40 minutes into the year suffering a season-ending knee injury at Seattle U.

Alger, the 25th selection in the 2021 NWSL Draft, earned all-region and all-conference honors in 2019 after moving to left back for the first time in her career. She finished the year with 10 assists, ranked 5th in the Pac-12 and first among defenders.

Alger started her first game of the season at Kansas, Sept. 12, and promptly tallied her first assist of the season. She has posted two assists on the season (both to Bennett).

She has 14 career assists, tying for 8th all-time in program history.

RECORD ATTENDANCE

Playing in front of fans for the first time in nearly two years, the Cougs saw a record crowd show up to Lower Soccer Field for the season opener as 3,147 Cougar faithful poured in to see WSU take on Arkansas State. The crowd marked the first time in program history over 3,000 fans made their way to Lower Soccer Field, shattering the previous mark of 2,812 against Montana Aug. 30, 2019.

Four of the six top attended games in program history have come in the Cougs' home opener, all of which saw over 2,000 fans make their way through the gates to fill both the stands and the hill side.

With 2,243 fans against Eastern Washington (the 5th most all-time) the Cougs saw 2000+ fans in back-to-back games for the first time in program history. They saw 1381 come through the gates against Hawai'i one of the best Sunday afternoon attendances in program history.

In six games the Cougs are averaging 1582 fans at Lower Soccer field, 7th most in the nation.

SUPER SENIORS RETURN

After seeing their senior season cut short due to COVID-19, five Coug super seniors (Alger, Bennett, McLyn, Pulver, Zucchetto) return for a fifth season to put a final stamp on their legacy. One of the most decorated classes in the history of the program, the super seniors put together a four year run to rival that of any class to ever wear the Crimson and Gray. Throughout their first four years, the seniors won 45 games while advancing to at least the second round in each of their first three years, a program first. In addition, the seniors brought the Cougs to new heights as freshmen, advancing to the program's first Sweet 16 before surpassing the feat in 2019 with a trip to the first College Cup. The class just missed out on setting a record for wins in four years, falling short of the 2015 senior class which holds the wins record at 50 games. (However, the class saw their true senior seasons cut short due to COVID-19, playing just 12 games).

CONTROLLING THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Facing off against teams in their home state the Cougs have shown they control Washington as WSU holds an impressive 70-15-9 all-time record against teams from the Evergreen State. Among those teams the Cougs have dominated their biggest rivals including Gonzaga (24-1-1), Seattle U (15-2-0), and Pac-12 foe Washington (14-9-8) outscoring those three 179-50.

REGIONAL DOMINANCE

Controlling the region for over three decades, the Cougs have dominated their regional rivals (Eastern Washington, Gonzaga, and Idaho) going a combined 44-2-1 while outscoring the trio 170-to-18 in those 47 games. The majority of those games have come against the Bulldogs where the Cougs are 24-1-1 all-time with a 105-to-9 goal advantage (spurred on by early 1990s offense that included the two highest scoring games in program history 15-0 (Oct. 30, 1991) and 13-0 (Sept. 15, 1990).

MCLYN OUT INDEFINITELY

Entering the year with huge expectations, 5th year Aaqila McLyn saw her season come to an early end on the first day of training as the veteran outside back suffered a leg injury that will keep her out of action indefinitely.

McLyn had been a stalwart on the rightside for the Cougs throughout her four seasons on the pitch playing in 66 games while starting 56. The veteran previous missed time her sophomore season after suffering a season-ending injury early in Pac-12 play but returned in 2019 to help lead the Cougs to the College Cup. McLyn has a nose for the dramatic having set up game-winning goals in the Cougs' biggest wins in program history including the winner against #2 UCLA as a freshman in 2017 and again a year later against the then ranked #8 Bruins in Los Angeles.

PRO COUGS

Establishing themselves among the elite teams in the nation has its perks as the Cougs now have pushed their best into the pro ranks of the NWSL with five current pros having put on the Crimson and Gray. In each of the last two drafts the Cougs have seen their players go No. 2 overall with Morgan Weaver (2020 - Portland Thorns) and Trinity Rodman (2021 - Washington Spirit). In addition Averie Collins (2020 - Washington Spirit) and Makamae Gomera-Stevens (2021 - Houston Dash) have established themselves in the league while Ella Dederick was signed as a free agent by the OL Reign. Outside of the five in the league, a sixth is guaranteed on its way in Brianna Alger who was selected by the Chicago Red Stars in 2021 but elected to play a final season at WSU before reporting to her pro team.

SOCCER SELECTED FIFTH BY PAC-12 COACHES

Getting back to business in 2021, the Washington State soccer team was selected to finish fifth in the Pac-12 Preseason Coaches Poll. The Cougs were picked in the top-half of the conference for the third-straight season as they look to vie for the Pac-12 title and push their way back into the NCAA Tournament. The reigning Pac-12 champion Bruins of UCLA were selected to repeat as conference champs while USC and Stanford each received first place votes. Washington rounds out the top-four teams in the poll finishing just ahead of the Cougars.

RIEKEN PAC-12 DPOW - SEPT. 6

For the first time in her standout career, junior Bridget Rieken was named the Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Week Sept. 6. Rieken is the first Cougar to earn a weekly award in 2021 and the first since Marissa Zucchetto earned Goalkeeper of the Week to close out the spring season last year. Rieken led the Cougs to back-to-back shutouts allowing just six total shots against SDSU and Hawaii. In addition she scored her first career goals against Hawaii notching a brace in the 7-0 win.

In addition she was named to the TopDrawerSoccer Team of the Week for her play.

GOALS ON GOALS ON GOALS

Hosting Hawai'i Sept. 5, the Cougs put on a show scoring 7 goals, the most scored by a Cougar squad in nearly two decades, the last outburst coming in an 8-0 win over Gonzaga, Sept. 22, 2002. The seven goals saw five different scorers with Elyse Bennett and Bridget Rieken each notching a brace. It was the first time the Cougs have had a pair of teammates score multiple goals in a game since that Gonzaga contest when Katrina Stroh and Alix Rustrum each netted twice. In the game, Enzi Broussard recorded three assists to tie for the 2nd most in a single game for the Cougs and the first three assist outing since Kaitlyn Johnson set a program record with four assists against North Dakota State, Sept. 4, 2016.

NON-CONFERENCE PLAY CLOSES FOR THE COUGS

The Cougs closed on non-conference play 6-1-1 putting them near the top of the standings entering Pac-12 play. In eight games the Cougs outscored their opponents 24-3, finishing with six shutouts including three-straight on the road. The lone blemish of the early season came against Seattle U as the Redhawks eked out a 2-1 win over the Cougs in Pullman Sept. 9. Despite the loss the Cougs rebounded with a road run at Kansas, Denver, and Northern Colorado outscoring their opponents 8-0 in the final two weeks.

The Cougs six shutouts in non-conference play matches their mark in 2017 for the most in the Shulenberg era and the most since posting 7 to start the 2013 season (a record breaking year for WSU with 15 total shutouts). Under head coach Todd Shulenberg the Cougs are an impressive 43-7-4 in non-conference play.
