COUGARS VS HUSKIES

Washington State concludes its regular season Friday, Nov. 4, playing host to Washington at 7 p.m. at Lower Soccer Field with coverage on Pac-12 Washington. The Cougars hold a 15-9-8 record all-time against the Huskies. Last season, the sides met Nov. 5, 2021 in Seattle with the Cougs earning a 4-2 victory thanks to goals from Grayson Lynch, Alyssa Gray, Sydney Pulver, and Margie Detrizio. Since arriving in Pullman in 2015, Coach Shulenberg boasts a 4-2-2 record against UW.

CONTROLLING THE STATE OF WASHINGTON

Facing off against teams in their home state, the Cougs have shown they control Washington as WSU holds an impressive 72-15-9 all-time record against teams from the Evergreen State. Among those teams the Cougs have dominated their biggest rivals including Gonzaga (24-1-1), Seattle U (16-2-0), and Pac-12 foe Washington (15-9-8) outscoring those three 185-53.

DETRIZIO DOMINATION

Margie Detrizio leads the Cougs this season with 25 points. As the team's top goal scorer (10 goals) and assist leader (5 assists), Detrizio is tied for 3rd in the Pac-12 in points, tied for 5th in the conference in goals scored, and tied for 10th in assists. She is the first Coug with a 6-game point streak since WSU Hall of Famer Kiersten Dallstream tallied points in 6-straight games in fall 2009. Three times this season, Detrizio has scored multi-goal games, becoming just the seventh Cougar in program history with four multi-goal matches in their career, and the first since Morgan Weaver from 2016-19.

CAREER COUG MYKIAA MINNISS

With her 91st career start Sunday at USC, fifth-year senior Mykiaa Minniss moved into a tie as WSU's all-time career starts leader with former teammate Sydney Pulver. Minniss has started every single match of her Cougar career. With her next start, she will become WSU's all-time record for career starts. Assuming Minniss starts the final regular-season match, she would finish as WSU's all-time career starts leader with 92. Minniss has played 8,281 minutes in a Cougar uniform over five seasons.

DETRIZIO SHOOTING INTO THE RECORD BOOKS

Detrizio has a knack for finding the frame, as the Pac-12's leader in shots on goal with 2.2 per game, which is 9th nationally. The Chandler, Ariz., native is also leading the conference with 4.6 shots per game and ranks 6th nationally. With seven shots Sunday against USC, Detrizio pushed her season shot total to 83, into sole possession of 9th on WSU's single-season shots record list. She also brought her career shot total up to 155, and into the career record book for total shots by a player, at 10th all-time.

THREE COUGS ON MIDSEASON TOP 100 WATCHLISTS

In mid-October, TopDrawerSoccer.com released its midseason list of top players in the nation. Three Cougars appeared across the national and freshmen top 100 lists. Fifth-year seniors Sydney Studer and Mykiaa Minniss both appeared on the National Top 100 list. Studer was listed at No. 71, up from No. 73 in the preseason list. Minniss comes in at No. 78 after starting at No. 82 in the preseason list. Freshmen Lily Boyden notched her spot on the Freshmen Top 100 list, clocking in at No. 80.

COOPER RE-WRITING WSU RECORD BOOK

Sophomore goalkeeper Nadia Cooper is no stranger to re-writing the WSU record book, this season setting her sights on the career goalkeeping lists. With the Cougs' draw against Arizona, last Sunday, Cooper earned her fifth shutout of the season and 12th career shutout, moving her into 6th-most shutouts in Cougar history. Cooper made four saves in Sunday's match at USC, bringing her career save total to 104 and into the top-10 on WSU's all-time career saves list. With WSU's win versus Utah, Oct. 2, Cooper earned her 18th career win, moving into a tie for 6th all-time in WSU career wins. Cooper has spent all but 15 minutes of the 2022 season in goal, bringing her career total to 3,065 minutes in goal, 8th-most in program history.

SHULENBERGER BREAKS WSU ALL-TIME WINS RECORD

With the Cougars' win over Utah, Oct. 2, WSU Head Coach Todd Shulenberg earned his 89th career victory to become the all-time wins leader in Cougar coaching history. Shulenberg surpassed former coach Matt Potter, who put together 88 wins over nine seasons in Pullman. Shulenberg also holds the second-best win percentage in program history. In his career, he has a .631 win percentage.

MCLYN & HERNANDEZ-REPREZA ENTER TOP-10 GAMES PLAYED

With her start against the Trojans, Sunday, redshirt, fifth-year senior Aaqila McLyn made her 84th career appearance in Cougar uniform, moving her into sole possession of 7th all-time in WSU history for all-time matches played by a field player. If McLyn appears in Friday's regular season finale, she would sit in a tie with former teammate Morgan Weaver at 6th all-time. Fifth-year senior Elaiya Hernandez-Repreza is not far behind McLyn, with 80 career appearances in Cougar uniform, tied for 10th in program history. If Hernandez-Repreza were to get minutes in the remaining regular season match, she would sit in a tie for 9th in school history.

OFFENSIVE FIREPOWER CARRYING COUGS

So far this season, Wazzu has scored 29 goals (1.61 per game) from 11 different Cougars, led by Margie Detrizio with 10 goals. The Cougs are outshooting opponents 356-159 and the average of 21.9 shots per game ranks third nationally and second only to Stanford in the Pac-12. WSU is putting shots on frame at a 35% clip (130-of-368) and have limited opponents to just 70 total shots on target (3.9 per game). When the Cougs welcomed Colorado to Pullman at the end of September, they put 39 shots up on the Buffs, the most since last season's home opener against Arkansas State, and tied for 4th-most shot attempts in a single match in school history.

COUGS IN THE NWSL PLAYOFFS

Of the six teams which qualified for the NWSL Playoffs, all but one had a Coug on their roster. In total there were six former WSU soccer players in the postseason — the Chicago Red Stars with Brianna Alger, the Houston Dash with Ella Dederick and Makamae Gomera-Stevens, the Kansas City Current with Elyse Bennett, Portland Thorns FC with Morgan Weaver, and San Diego Wave FC with Sydney Pulver. With Portland Thorns FC's victory in the 2022 NWSL Championship, Weaver became the first Cougar to be crowned NWSL Champion and the second Wazzu alumni to win a professional championship this year (Klay Thompson, 2022 NBA Champions with Golden State Warriors).

HOME SWEET HOME

Lower Soccer Field has become something of a fan-fortress for the Cougs. In 2021, the team drew an average of 1,238 fans per match, the highest season average in program history. This season's home opener against Portland drew the fourth-largest crowd in program history with 2,408 fans in attendance. This season, Wazzu is averaging 1,090 fans per game, good for 22nd in the country. WSU has lost once at home in the last calendar year, against Arizona State, Oct. 20, 2022 and has only lost three home matches in the last three seasons.

LYNCH BACK WITH A BANG

Senior forward Grayson Lynch hopes to continue a strong run of form from last season. She notched her fourth goal of the 2022 campaign, Sunday, Oct. 2 versus Utah. Lynch has scored two goals from outside the penalty area. When she scored Sunday, Sept. 11 against Cal Poly, Lynch became the 22nd Cougar in program history with a 3-game goal streak.

SISTER DUOS POWERING NCAA SOCCER

When junior Jenna Studer transferred to Pullman, she joined her sister and fifth-year senior Sydney on the Cougar roster. The duo are one of 50 sets of sisters playing on the same team in Division-I soccer this season. The Cougs also have junior Marin Whieldon with older sister Shayna serving as the team's coordinator of operations. Wazzu is one of just 10 programs in the country with two sister pairings and the only known D-I program with a staff-athlete sister combination.

MARGIE & MYKIAA DYNAMIC ASSIST DUO

Mykiaa Minniss and Margie Detrizio have each put together a 3-game assist streak this season. Minniss recorded an assist in three-straight game from Aug. 28 vs Eastern Washington, through the Sept. 4 contest against Denver. Detrizio went on her own 3-game assist streak, between the Sept. 1 game at Seattle and the Sept. 11 victory versus Cal Poly.

STUDER'S LAST-MINUTE STUNNER

COUGS TABBED THIRD BY PAC-12 COACHES

Washington State was voted third by coaches of the Pac-12 Conference in this fall's preseason poll. The placement marks the highest selection in program history, including a pair of first-place votes for the first time.

PRESEASON PRAISE

The Cougs picked up some of their highest preseason honors in program history. WSU was selected No. 19 in the TopDrawerSoccer preseason poll, matching the highest preseason ranking in team history. Wazzu was also voted No. 20 in the United Soccer Coaches preseason poll, tying its best-ever preseason selection in a national coaches poll.

UNITED SOCCER COACHES NAME THREE TO PRESEASON WATCHLISTS

Three Cougs were named to the United Soccer Coaches Division I Players to Watch. Sophomore Nadia Cooper was named to the goalkeepers watchlist. Fifth-year seniors Mykiaa Minniss (D) and Sydney Studer (M) were also named as players to watch at their positions. Only returning student-athletes who were named to a USC All-Region team last season are eligible for the preseason watchlists.

THREE COUGS RETURN WITH ALL-REGION HONORS

A program record five Cougars were named to the 2021 United Soccer Coaches NCAA Division I Women's All-Pacific Region Team. Three return for the 2022 season, including first-team honorees Nadia Cooper and Mykiaa Minniss, alongside Sydney Studer on the second team.

COOPER RETURNS AS REIGNING GOALKEEPER & FRESHMAN OF THE YEAR

Sophomore goalkeeper Nadia Cooper returns for her second season, as the reigning Pac-12 Freshman and Goalkeeper of the Year. It was a historic run for the young netminder, becoming the first player in program history to earn not only the top freshman award but also the top goalkeeper award. Putting herself among the best to ever do it, Cooper finished the regular season 9-1-3 between the posts while tallying seven solo shutouts despite not taking over the starting job until Sept. 12. She would go on to set the Cougs' all-time record for consecutive shutout minutes with 523:56 minutes to begin her career.

DEFENSIVE CORE RETURNS

Defensively the Cougs were one of the best teams in the country last season, finishing the year with 12 shutouts and just 13 total goals allowed for a 0.59 GAA, the second-best goals against average in program history. They show no signs of letting up, returning a veteran backline, anchored by fifth-year senior captain Mykiaa Minniss and senior Bridget Rieken in the middle. The all-conference duo has been the heart of the Cougs' defense since joining forces in 2019 including leading the team to the College Cup as underclassmen and have played nearly every minute together for the last three seasons. Also, making her return in the lineup is Aaqila McLyn, a redshirt, fifth-year senior who suffered a season-ending injury last preseason and returns for a final campaign.

PRO COUGS

Establishing themselves among the elite teams in the nation has its perks as the Cougs now have pushed their best into the pro ranks of the NWSL with eight current pros having put on the Crimson and Gray. In each of the last two drafts the Cougs have seen their players go No. 2 overall with Morgan Weaver (2020 - Portland Thorns) and Trinity Rodman (2021 - Washington Spirit). In addition Averie Collins (2020 - Washington Spirit) and Makamae Gomera-Stevens (2021 - Houston Dash) have established themselves in the league while Ella Dederick was signed two a two-year deal by Houston. Outside of the five in the league, Brianna Alger who was selected by the Chicago Red Stars in 2021 heads to the league after completing her fifth season at WSU. In 2021, Elyse Bennett would go No. 7 to Kansas City while Sydney Pulver went No. 25 to new franchise San Diego. The Cougs seven picked in the draft ranks as the second-best in the nation.

WAZZU IN 2021

The Cougs finished the 2021 regular season third in the Pac-12 having posted a 7-1-3 record in conference play. The seven wins tied for the most in program history while the .773 win percentage was the highest in the history of Cougar soccer in conference action. Overall, the Cougs finished 14-3-4, tying for the second-most wins in program history after an NCAA Second Round exit to #6 Tennessee. Individually the Cougs took home a slew of awards led by All-American Elyse Bennett. Freshman keeper Nadia Cooper capped her stellar first year on the Palouse being named the Pac-12 Freshman of the Year as well as Goalkeeper of the Year while also earning all-region honors. In the NWSL draft, Bennett would go No. 7 while Sydney Pulver was taken No. 25 overall to give the Cougs seven draft picks in the last three seasons.
