CALIFORNIA HEAD COACH MIKE NEU

UPDATED 2/13/2024

California baseball called on a familiar face to write its next chapter as former Golden Bear pitching coach and major league pitcher Mike Neu agreed on July 5, 2017 to become the 11th head coach in program history.

Since taking the helm of the Cal baseball program, Neu has established a culture of player development and guided the Bears to 151 total wins and 74 Pac-12 victories in six seasons. Neu's 151 wins already ranks fifth most all-time, behind legendary coaches George Wolfman (484 wins), David Esquer (525 wins), Clint Evans (547 wins), and Bob Milano (682 wins).

Neu's Bears most recently went 24-28 overall and 12-18 in Pac-12 action in 2023, getting how down the stretch to advance to the Pac-12 Championship for the second consecutive year. Under Neu's guidance, Cal has advanced to the postseason in three of the five years Cal was eligible for the postseason (2020's postseason was canceled due to the COVID-19 Pandemic).

Cal was 5-11 in the COVID-shortened 2020 campaign. Neu oversaw a youth movement that included 11 freshmen earning playing time, three of which have developed into three-year position starters and another three that are expected to anchor the weekend rotation in 2022. Right-hander Joseph King was named a Freshman All-American by Collegiate Baseball and outfielder Brandon McLwain signed a non-drafted free agent contract with the New York Mets organization after the season concluded.

The 2019 campaign was capped by Cal's first trip to an NCAA Regional since 2015. The Bears punched their ticket as an at-large bid and the No. 2 seed at the Fayetteville (Ark.) Regional after finishing fourth in the Pac-12 and carrying a No. 31 RPI ranking at the conclusion of the regular season. Cal's 2019 success continued into the summer when seven Bears were selected in the MLB First-Year Player Draft, including first-round picks Andrew Vaughn (No. 3 overall, White Sox) and Korey Lee (No. 32 overall, Houston). Vaughn and Lee - both of which went undrafted out of high school - became the first duo in school history to be taken in the first round of the same draft. Vaughn, who was the program's highest-drafted player ever, was also named a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award for the second straight year.

In year one as the Golden Bears' skipper, Neu guided the Bears to a 32-22 overall record and 16-14 mark in the Pac-12. The 2018 season was highlighted by the emergence of Andrew Vaughn as one of the nation's top players. With Neu on hand in Los Angeles, Vaughn became the first Cal baseball player ever to win the prestigious Golden Spikes Award as the country's top amateur baseball player. On the mound, the 2018 Bears showed dramatic improvement in Neu's first season as head coach. Under his tutelage, Cal's pitching staff lowered its collective ERA by almost a full run (5.17 to 4.20) from the year before.

Cal's pitching coach from 2012 to 2015, Neu returned to Berkeley after two years as head coach at the University of the Pacific where he guided a rebuilding Tigers program to 40 wins over his two seasons. That turnaround started immediately in 2015 as Pacific won 12 games in the always-competitive West Coast Conference, the program's second-most conference wins since 1999.

Before making the move to Stockton, Neu established himself as one of the Pac-12's top pitching coaches and recruiters under head coach David Esquer, who recently stepped down following his 18th season as Cal's head coach. Under his tutelage, the 2015 Bears compiled a team ERA of 3.03, the second-best mark for a Cal pitching staff since 1976. That team reached the final of the Texas A&M Regional thanks in part to the contributions of three of Neu's pupils - Daulton Jefferies, Ryan Mason and Alex Schick - who would go on to be selected in the Major League Baseball draft.

Prior to his arrival in Berkeley, Neu's reputation in pitching circles was already well-known. Serving as head coach at Diablo Valley College from 2009-11, Neu led the Vikings to an 87-41 record and two Big 8 Conference titles. His 2011 squad was ranked No. 1 in Northern California and DVC pitchers led all California Community Colleges with a 2.13 team ERA.

As a player, the Napa, Calif., native enjoyed a standout career at the University of Miami before going on to play in the Dodgers, Marlins, A's and Reds organizations. Neu was called up to the Major Leagues with the A's on April 9, 2003, and compiled a 3.64 ERA in 32 relief appearances that season.

At Miami, Neu helped the Hurricanes win the 1999 College World Series and finished the year 3-1 with a 2.94 ERA and 110 strikeouts in 67 innings. Named a Collegiate Baseball All-American, Neu led the nation in strikeouts per nine innings (14.8) and was selected to the All-CWS team after earning three saves and appearing in all four of Miami's games in Omaha. Before transferring to Miami, Neu starred at Sacramento City College where he was named Northern California Pitcher of the Year, Bay Valley Conference Pitcher of the Year and a junior college All-American after going 15-0 with a 1.44 ERA and 139 strikeouts. He was also a standout for the same Vintage High program that produced Cal pitchers Jared Horn and Aaron Shortridge, setting Monticello Empire League records for career wins (21) and strikeouts (196).

Neu earned a Master's degree in physical education from Ball State in 2011. He and his wife, Nicole, have two sons, Damon and Maddax.
