Ron Lenz Players of the Year

Jonas Randolph, Mars Hill (N.C.)

Offensive Player of the Year

Harlon Hill finalist and national rushing leader Jonas Randolph led Mars Hill to its first NCAA post-season berth.

Randolph averaged 197.27 rushing yards per game to lead Division II. His 2,170 yards this season and 5,608 career yards established new South Atlantic Conference records.

He had six games of 200 or more rushing yards and nine games of over 100 rushing yards.

Jamarkus Gaskins, Albany State (Ga.)

Defensive Player of the Year

The SIAC Defensive Player of the Year, Jamarkus Gaskins had 73 total tackles (42 solo) to help lead Albany State to an appearance in the NCAA playoffs.

Gaskins notched 17 tackles for losses totaling 75 yards, including 10 sacks. He also recorded five pass breakups, recovered three fumbles and forced another.
