A CHAMPIONSHIP TRADITION

At West Texas A&M, Winning Basketball isn't something that happens every now and then, it's become an every-year occurrence. The combination of great coaching, outstanding student-athletes, top-notch facilities and the highest level of support have made Buffalo Basketball one of the NCAA's most successful basketball programs over the past 20 years.

12 NCAA Appearances

Not every team gets to play in this Division II invitation-only tournament. Since becoming a member of NCAA Division II, West Texas A&M has participated in the NCAA Tournament more times than not.

3 Honored Jerseys

You recognize outstanding players by displaying their jersey, and West Texas A&M has done such to honor three of its all-time greats; Joe Fortenberry, Reggie Ramey and Maurice Cheeks. Their numbers are present in the North end of the First United Bank Center.

1 NBA Legend

At the time of his retirement from the NBA in 1993, Maurice Cheeks was the NBA all-time leader in steals and ranked fifth all-time in assists. But, whether it was as one of the NBA's outstanding guards, leading the Philadelphia 76ers to the 1983 NBA Championship, or as the head coach of first the Portland Trail Blazers and later the Philadelphia 76ers, Maurice Cheeks (1974-78) was, and always will be, a Buffalo.

26 Championship Banners

The banners hanging from the rafters of First United Bank Center lend a visual, historical evidence to the fact that the levels of success achieved by the Buff Basketball program are more than mere participation awards.

4 LSC-South Titles

Since the Lone Star Conference went to a two-division format prior to the 1997-98 campaign, nobody has won more South Division titles than the Buffaloes.

HEAD COACH

19TH SEASON
WAYLAND BAPTIST '81

Head coach Rick Cooper is now in his 19th season at the helm of the WTAMU basketball program.

During a tenure which began with the 1993-94 campaign, Cooper has now taken the Buffaloes to nine NCAA Regional Tournaments, including four in the past seven seasons, while compiling 18 consecutive winning campaigns.

The 2010-11 campaign saw Cooper become one of just 13 active Division II coaches to have reached the 500 career win plateau, as well as lead the Buffs back to the NCAA post-season tournament.

In 2007-08, Cooper guided the Buffs' squad to another Lone Star Conference South Division regular season title, the school's 12th postseason appearance and was honored with his second NCAA South Central Region Coach of the Year award as well as his sixth LSC Coach of the Year honor.

Cooper, who holds a 502-219 (.696) overall record entering his 25th season as a head coach, is 350-172 (.670) in his 18th season with the Buffaloes, has never had a losing campaign at WT and is the first coach in WT men's basketball history to win 300 games, accomplishing the feat on Dec. 4, 2008 when the Buffs defeated #3-ranked Central Oklahoma, 80-67. On Jan. 8, 2004,

Cooper became WTAMU's all-time winningest head coach and just the second coach in school history with over 200 wins. He is a six-time LSC Coach of the Year, winning the award his first season in 1993-94, as well as in 1997-98, 1998-99 and in each of the last three seasons, 2005-06, 2006-07 and 2007-08.

Cooper was also named South Central Regional Coach of the Year by the National Association of Basketball Coaches in 1997-

At WTAMU: 350-172 (.670, 18 Years)

At Wayland Baptist: 152-47 (.764, Six Years)

Overall: 502-219 (.696)

WTAMU has averaged nearly 20 wins per year in Cooper's tenure at the helm. Cooper currently has compiled the fourth-best winning percentage. He tied the school record for most wins by a first-year head coach as he led the Buffs to a 20-10 mark in 1993-94.

Cooper led the 1997-98 team to many firsts. The Buffs set a school record by starting the season 15-0 and were ranked as high as fifth in the nation. In doing so, Cooper became the first WTAMU coach to lead the team to the NCAA Division II Elite Eight with an appearance. By season's end, WTAMU led all NCAA Division II schools in team field-goal percentage and was ranked in five national statistical categories.

Prior to arriving at WTAMU, Cooper led Wayland Baptist University in Plainview, Texas, to three NAIA national tournament berths in his six years as head coach. Cooper compiled a 152-47 record (.764) as the Pioneers' head coach in six seasons, which still stands as a school record. Further, he guided WBU to at least the NAIA district semifinal round in each of his six seasons.

Cooper also had a distinguished playing career at WBU. A four-year letterwinner, Cooper led the Pioneers to their first 20-win season and NAIA District 8 championship. Listed 16th on WBU's all-time scoring leader board with 1,214 points from 1977-81, he was a formidable post player. His playing honors include NAIA District 8 Player of the Week twice, Amarillo Chamber of Commerce Sports Achievement Award and first-team NAIA District 8 honors.

Cooper graduated from WBU in 1981 with a bachelor's degree in education, majoring in English and physical education. He obtained his master's of education degree in secondary education, specializing in physical education from WBU in 1984.

Cooper and his wife Janie have two children, Tyler, who lettered from 2005-08 at WTAMU, and Kori, who recently completed a career playing volleyball at the University of Nebraska, winning the 2006 National Championship.
