OPENING DRIVE NOTES

- The West Texas A&M Buffs will open their 106th season on September 1 when they travel to Glendora, Calif., to face Azusa Pacific at 9 p.m. (CT) Thursday evening.
- WT is 46-58 all-time in season-openers and the Buffs have gone 7-32 on the road with some missing years on home/away early in program history.
- The Buffs have dropped their two season-openers and six of seven with the lone win coming at Western State on Sept. 7, 2013.
- WT opens the season with three-straight road games marking the first time since 1997 when the team finished the season 7-4 and 3-3 on the road.
- Overall this season, WT will play seven road games which is the most in a regular season since 1988.
- Head coach Mike Nesbitt begins his fourth season at the helm of the Buffs as he is 19-12 with a NCAA quarterfinal appearance in 2013.
- The Buffs won their last four games of the season in 2015 and enter 2016 tied for the third-longest streak behind Central Oklahoma (5) and defending national champion Northwest Missouri State (15).
- Azusa Pacific went 6-4 and 3-3 in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference as the Cougars won at WT in the season-opener 27-24, battling back from a 21-0 deficit in the second quarter as they outscored WT 27-3 over the final 40 minutes of the game.
- This marks the first time WT has played in California since Sept. 1, 1990, with a 22-9 loss at Sacramento State. The Buffs are 8-7 all-time against teams from California and return to the state exactly 26 years later.
- The game at Azusa Pacific marks the third consecutive year WT has opened the season on Thursday (1-1). The two teams met on the first Thursday of the season last year in Canyon with APU winning 27-24. 2016 will mark sixth time in the last seven years (2014) WT has opened on Thursday.
- The Buffs went 6-4 and 3-3 in Lone Star Conference play last season and return 12 starters (4 off., 7 def., 1 sp) and 31 letterwinners from a year ago.

INSIDE THE SERIES

- The series is tied 1-1 with APU winning last season in the season-opener in Kimbrough Memorial Stadium, 27-24.
- ASU battled back from a 21-0 deficit in the second quarter, outscoring WT 27-3 in over the final 40 minutes of the game.
- WT won the first game in the series 75-13 in 2008 also at Kimbrough as it was APU head coach Victor Santa Cruz third season at APU, while current Buffalo head football coach Mike Nesbitt was an assistant on the 2008 WT coaching staff.
- The Buffs lead the series, outscoring APU 99-40 in the two meetings.
- WT is 3-2 all-time against current teams in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference (GNAC).

MEET THE COACHES

- WT head coach Mike Nesbitt is in his fourth year at the helm of the Buffs and is 19-12.
- He went 11-3 as interim head coach in 2013 before being elevated to head coach following that season.
- Nesbitt is coming off a 6-4 season in 2015 where the Buffs won their final four games of the season.
- Nesbitt took over offensive play calling duties this season as he and defensive backs coach Steven Wright are the lone two returning coaches from 2015.
- Nesbitt served as an assistant for the Buffs for four years and followed with stints at Stephen F. Austin and Houston before returning to WT in early 2013 as an assistant coach.
- Azusa Pacific head coach Victor Santa Cruz begins his 11th season at APU with a 59-49 record.
- He led APU to back-to-back 10-win seasons in 2013 and 2014 and was the head coach of the Cougars in each of the previous two meetings in the series against WT.
- Santa Cruz played collegiately at Hawaii and served at APU as an assistant for five years before getting the head job in 2006.

A WIN OVER AZUSA PACIFIC WOULD . . .

- Give WT a 1-0 season start for just the second time in the last eight years (2014).
- Give WT a 2-1 series record against Azusa Pacific with the teams tentatively scheduled to return to Canyon for the final game of the series in 2017.
- Give WT a 4-2 mark against current teams in the Great Northwest Athletic Conference.
- Nesbitt would improve to 1-1 against Azusa Pacific.
- Be the ninth win over a team from California (8-7) and the second win in the Golden State (1-3) in program history marking the first since a 49-7 win at the University of the Pacific on Sept. 24, 1966.
- Give head coach Mike Nesbitt his 20th win at WT (19-12).
- Be the 499th win in program history (498-495-22).
- Be the fifth consecutive win dating back to last season.
- Improve WT to 2-3 all-time on Sept. 1 (last a 26-24 loss at home to Colorado State-Pueblo, 2011).

LOOKING AT AZUSA PACIFIC

- The Cougars are coming off a 6-4 in 2015 and were 3-3 in the GNAC tying for third.
- APU returns dynamic running back Kurt Scoby who finished second in the conference in every rushing category as a freshman, averaging 110.8 yards per game on 162 carries with 11 TD's earning first team all-conference honors and Freshman of the Year accolades.
- The Cougars also have two-headed quarterback tandem of Chad Jeffries and Andrew Elffers. Jeffries earned second team all-conference honors as he completed 101 passes for 184.1 yards and seven touchdowns, while Elffers averaged 64.8 passing yards per game on 33 completions for 12 touchdowns, including six rushing and six passing.
- In the kicking game, Jamie Cacciatore and Jacob Hall return, as does talented return man Tyree Davis.
- Defensively, the Cougars are headlines by first team all-conference selection in Jonathan Thropay leading seven starters back. He had 80 tackles with 7.5 for loss, while second team all-league safety Taliuaki Suliafu returns.
- In all, 13 starters return for the Cougars who were picked second in the GNAC Preseason Poll and are receiving votes in the preseason AFCA Coaches Poll.
- APU has five offensive starters back, seven on defense and one special teams.

BUFFS IN THE NFL

- Currently the Buffs have 10 players in the NFL right now vying for spots on rosters.
- The 10 players on teams are more than any other NCAA Division II school currently.
- Each Monday during the season there will be a post on www.gobuffsgo.com recapping the NFL weekend from a WT perspective.

BUFF STUFF

- WT junior defensive back Hunter Streuling was selected as the Lone Star Conference Preseason Defensive Player of the Year.
- The Buffs were picked fourth in the LSC in the annual preseason poll as voted on by the league's sports information directors, coaches and select media representatives.
- Senior kicker Conner Hollabaugh was named to the Fred Mitchell Award Preseason Watch List as Hollabaugh was a finalist for the Fred Mitchell Award in 2014 and is a back-to-back member of the preseason watch list.
- The Buffs are receiving votes in the preseason AFCA Coaches Poll this season marking the seventh-straight year the team has either been ranked or receiving votes in the preseason poll.
- WT will have a new weekly coaches show called the "Buffalo Blitz" presented by Texas Farm Bureau Insurance at Feldman's Wrong Way Diner in Canyon on Thursday evenings from 6:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. beginning Sept. 8. Football, along with in-season coaches and student-athletes will be in attendance as fans will hear insight on Buff and Lady Buff athletics throughout the fall. The show will be streamed on Facebook Live and will be broadcast on 98.7 JACK FM with the voice of the Buffs Lucas Kinsey hosting. Check back with www.gobuffsgo.com for more information on the weekly Buffalo Blitz Show.
- The Buffs return to 98.7 JACK FM this season with the new play-by-play announcer of Lucas Kinsey having the home and away call of all WT football games, along with Brice Sheets returning to do color. The tandem will have WT associate athletic director and the voice of WT men's basketball Kent Johnson who will report from the sidelines at each football game.
- Fourth-year head coach Mike Nesbitt and second-year defensive backs coach Steve Wright are the only two returning coaches from last season for the Buffs. Nesbitt will take over offensive play calling duties in 2016 and he hired a new defensive coordinator (Thomas Rocco), new offensive line coach (Lloyd Spotted Wolf), defensive line (Bert Hill), linebackers (Charles Moss), running backs (Bryan Jones), wide receivers (Brandon Crosby) and special teams (Michael Collins).
- In looking at the initial depth chart, the Buffs defensively look to be using a 4-2-5 this season as opposed to a 3-4-4 as in previous seasons.
- Senior center Austin Carson has played and started in 35 games so far in his career on the offensive line which is the most starts of any senior on the team this season.
- The Buffs have a relatively young team in 2016 with just 16 seniors on the squad with 19 juniors and 90 underclassmen with 55 true freshmen.
- WT, however, does return an experienced quarterback in junior Ethan Brinkley as the LSC has a number of schools who will be breaking in new quarterbacks this season. The Buffs, Midwestern State, Texas A&M-Kingsville and Tarleton State all have returning QB's who played last season. Texas A&M-Commerce, Angelo State and Eastern New Mexico each will have new quarterbacks in 2016.
- Senior kicker Conner Hollabaugh is fifth in Division II in active career field goals made per game (1.29), sixth in field goal attempts per game (1.76) and 21st in field goal percentage at a .730 clip.
- Junior linebacker Carter James is 13th in career active tackles per game at 9.79, while ranking 56th in solo tackles per game at 4.0. Senior defensive lineman LaPear Willrich is 46th in assisted tackles for loss with 90.
- WT has five players from California on its roster this season, including junior wide receiver Michael Andrews (7), senior defensive back Davontae Merriweather (8), senior wide receiver Christopher Gilchrist (19), junior wide receiver Jermine Yesin (80) and senior wide receiver Junior Pomee (87). A number of others played junior college football in California before coming to WT.
- WT returns 92.9 percent of its passing yards from last season, but just 22.5 percent of rushing yards and 10.6 percent of its receiving yards. Overall 62.3 percent of the total offensive yards returns.

NESBITT'S NUGGETS - WEEK 1 AT AZUSA PACIFIC

Each week in this spot, excerpts from the Monday Media Interview with Coach Nesbitt will be posted. The complete interview can be found Monday afternoon's following the interviews on www.gobuffsgo.com on the athletic YouTube page.

About fall camp...
"One it's over, and nobody was seriously hurt as I think we might have lost one guy who we expected to play. Other than that it was good, I thought the guys did a great job with some new players, new coaches and the buy in factor was fantastic. The last couple of days we've had some rain, but other than that very excited for the season."

About the back seven on defense...
"Our back seven, linebackers and secondary had a great camp and really professional about the way they showed up and played in camp. I thought Lee Anthony Dawson, Rashaw DuPree and the who crew on the back end did a great job along with Tyler Walker coming back off an injury and Colton McDonald had a fantastic camp playing nickel. Our linebacker group had a great camp under Coach Moss and gotten better every day with Carter (James) and Trevor Myklebust playing really well."

About the offensive line...
"Young, young, young. They are smart guys though as Austin Carson and Garrett Neuman are anchoring it and hopefully they'll get some guys lined up and playing at a high level around them. Michael Whitfield has played well this camp as he played well early in the year last year and got beat up a little bit probably due to the lack of size. He now has gained his confidence back under Coach Spotted Wolf and you are seeing a different guy there and hopefully he will be able to show up and play at a high level again."

On the non-conference schedule and schedule as a whole...
"One it is difficult and we are playing seven on the road this season. The trip to California will be fun for our team and the team likes to travel and get excited on the road and playing in a different spot. We have some California kids on our team and are really excited to get back there. Davontae Merriweather will play in front of his family for the first time in about 20 games. There are a group of guys who are really fired up to be playing in front of their family. Hopefully it gives us a little bit of a buzz to get out there and play."

About the rematch with Azusa this season...
"They (Azusa) is a four quarter football team and you saw that when Azusa played Grand Valley State last season. Grand Valley played well for about 2 1/2 quarters and Azusa came roaring back and when you talk to the Grand Valley coaches they couldn't stop Azusa and get them off the field. They (Azusa) is a well-built team - a team built to play four quarters, a team who has a massive offensive line. We have to be ready to play four quarters against APU and they are a momentum-based team. When momentum is on their side and they are playing well, they keep getting better and better. We have talked about that limiting their momentum plays and win all four quarters to have a chance to win against them. Azusa Pacific defensively is fantastic with all of the back end back, secondary is very strong and the linebackers are solid. The offensive line is a little new and somewhat like us, but they are massive guys."

On the difference in calling the offensive plays this season...
"More for me is time management and what I miss the most from the play calling part is I have lost track of the defensive guys I spent a lot more time with them during practice, follow them around and be with them. I've tried to find some other ways to get to know them on the other side of the ball. I am still around the freshmen in the mornings with weights, but it has been the hardest thing not being around the whole team as much as I was in the past."

MIKE NESBITT

Head Coach / Offensive Coordinator
4th Year • New Mexico, 1996

Mike Nesbitt begins his fourth season at the helm of the Buffaloes and is 19-12 overall, after serving as interim head coach in 2013, where he guided the Buffaloes to an 11-3 season and a berth in the NCAA quarterfinals. He was elevated to head coach following the 2013 season.

The Buffs earned their second-straight NCAA Playoff appearance in 2013 and seventh in schoool history as senior quarterback Dustin Vaughan threw for 5,401 yards and 53 touchdown passes in 2013 as he finished as the 2013 Harlon Hill runner-up. Vaughan was the only quarterbaback at any level to throw for over 5,000 yards, his 5,401 yards is the most all-time in Division II and his 53 touchdown passes were the third-most all-time in Division II. Under Nesbitt's guidence, the Buffs finished eighth nationally in the final AFCA Coaches' Poll.

Nesbitt returned to the WT football program in 2013 as the assistant head coach and coach the offensive line for the Buffaloes before being elevated to interim head coach on Aug. 22, 2013. He came back to Canyon from the University of Houston where he spent the 2012 campaign as the Cougars' offensive coordinator.

Prior to the University of Houston, Nesbitt was the offensive coordinator at Stephen F. Austin where he mentored one of college football's most explosive offenses. A former Division I student-athlete (New Mexico) and NFL punter for the New Orleans Saints and Minnesota Vikings, Nesbitt has spent the majority of his collegiate coaching career crafting offensive game plans, including his one-year stint at S.F.A.

In 2011, Nesbitt had to replace Lumberjack two-time All-America quarterback and 2010 Walter Payton Award winner Jeremy Moses with a first-year quarterback, while also implementing his own brand of offensive football. Nesbitt's transition to S.F.A. was a success as sophomore Brady Attaway ranked No. 10 nationally in total offense, racking up 286.9 yards per game, while throwing for 3,181 yards and 27 touchdowns. Overall, the Lumberjack offense enjoyed Top 15 national rankings in passing offense (No. 6 - 318.8), scoring offense (No. 11- 35.7) and total offense (No. 11 - 439.4), earning Nesbitt recognition among his peers.

Despite replacing the top player in Football Bowl Subdivision play in 2011, S.F.A. nearly equaled its offensive and scoring output, racking up 439.4 total yards (compared to 442.9 in 2010) and scoring 35.7 points (36.3 in 2010).

Prior to S.F.A., Nesbitt spent four years at West Texas A&M coordinating the offense in 2010 while also working with the Buffalo receivers and quarterbacks. Nesbitt's offense averaged 529 yards per game in 2010, including 423 yards through the air. The Buffaloes ranked No. 2 nationally in total offense and No. 3 in scoring offense (42.0). West Texas A&M quarterback Taylor Harris also finished third nationally with 400 yards passing per contest, and was among the nation's leaders with 38 touchdown passes.

Nesbitt coached the West Texas A&M receivers in 2009. The Buffaloes hauled in 355 passes for 4,251 yards, the third-highest total in school history. Nesbitt also mentored current Seattle Seahawks receiver Charly Martin that year. Martin concluded his collegiate career with 95 receptions for 1,867 yards and 22 touchdowns to earn All-America honors.

Nesbitt has 17 years of coaching experience, including 13 years at the collegiate level. He spent two seasons in Brenham, Texas, as the offensive coordinator at Blinn College and helped coach the Buccaneers to a 19-3 (.864) overall record and the 2006 NJCAA National Championship. In addition to the team's success, Nesbitt's offense produced several All-Americans. Prior to his two seasons at Blinn, Nesbitt helped Howard Payne produce a 30-10 (.750) overall record in four seasons.

Nesbitt enjoyed a standout playing career at the University of New Mexico, where he was one of the nation's top punters. He finished second all-time in UNM school history averaging 45 yards per punt as a junior and led the nation in net punting that season. He also spent time in the NFL with the New Orleans Saints and Minnesota Vikings.

A native of Belen, N.M., Nesbitt received his bachelor's degree from UNM in 1996. He graduated with a master's degree in interdisciplinary studies from West Texas A&M in 2008. Nesbitt, and his wife Camille, have a son, Gavin who is a junior on the Buffalo football team.

Recapping the Last Meeting with Azusa Pacific

CANYON, Texas – The West Texas A&M football team jumped out to a fast start in the 2015 season-opener Thursday evening at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium, but were unable to hang on as the No. 19 Azusa Pacific Cougars roared back for a 27-24 victory.

The Buffs were led on the ground by senior Geremy Alridge-Mitchell who rushed for 117 yards and two touchdowns, while senior quarterback Preston Rabb added 91 yards on the ground as he was 25 of 44 with one interception for 131 yards and a touchdown. Senior Jarrian Rhone caught a game-high seven balls for 83 yards and a score.

It was truly a tale of two halves for the Buffs as they jumped out to a 21-0 lead midway through the second quarter, settling for a 21-10 lead at halftime. In the first half, WT rushed the ball 14 times for 161 yards and passed for 109 yards. WT held APU to just 56 yards rushing in the half on 22 carries and 122 passing yards.

The Buffs struggled offensively in the second half as the defense was on the field for a majority of the final half. In the second half, WT rushed the ball for 100 yards and passed for just 22 yards. APU, on the other hand, heated up rushing for 80 yards and passed for 213 yards.

APU was led by Kurt Scoby who had 22 carries on 78 yards, while Ryan Adams ha 12 carries for 24 yards and a score. Quarterback Chad Jeffries was 17 of 32 with two interceptions, while passing for 269 yards and throwing two touchdowns.

For the game, WT had 30 rushes for 261 yards, while passing for 131 yards and a total of 392 yards. APU rushed for 136 on 46 carries and passed for269 for a total of 405. A big difference in the second half was ball control as APU held the ball for 19:38, while WT had the ball for just 10:22. APU led in time of possession for the game 36:41 to 23:19.

Following a missed field goal on the Cougars' opening possession by freshman Jacob Hall, the Buffs methodically moved down field with two passes to Rhone and Rabb using his feet for a 21-yard gain. On a 3rd and nine from the APU 14, Rabb found Rhone for a score and a 7-0 lead.

APU punted on its next possession as WT took over at its own 18. Rabb again moved the Buffs down field. A pass interference penalty on APU on a 3rd and 12 gave WT new life in the drive. On a 4th and 1 for WT at its own 40, Alridge-Mitchell busted through the middle for a 60-yard touchdown run and a 14-0 lead.

On the first play of the second quarter, APU quarterback Andrew Elffers caught the Buffs napping and scored on a 42-yard rush, but the play was called back due to an offensive facemask penalty. Two more penalties followed on the Cougars as they were forced to punt.

WT punted on its possession, but junior Devontae Merriweather picked off the Jeffries pass at the APU 45 on the ensuing drive. From there, WT marched down field as Rabb connected on another long pass to Rhone and Alridge-Mitchell scored from two yards out for a 21-0 lead.

The Cougars got on the board midway through the second quarter courtesy of a personal foul and an unsportsmanlike conduct penalty racking up 30 yards for APU. From there, the Cougars scored on Adams' rush from one yard out for a 21-7 score. APU added a field goal with 28 seconds left in the half for a 21-10 score.

Following a 20-yard punt into a 15 mph wind by Blaine Aguiar, the Buffs took over midway through the third at their own 46. Rabb used his feet once again for a 16-yard rush on 3rd and 10 and a pair of runs by junior Eddy Williams set the Buffs up at the 21. The drive stalled there as junior kicker Conner Hollabaugh made the score 24-10 with a 38-yard field goal with 7:51 left in the quarter.

APU responded with a 13-play, 73-yard drive capping 7:03 as Hall kicked a 21-yard field goal for a 24-13 score heading into the final quarter. Jeffries used a 30-yard pass to Ethan Zeidler and a 25-yard pass to Scoby for a score cutting the WT lead to 24-20.

Following a WT punt, which APU fumbled but was able to recover, the Cougars used a 10-play, 78-yard drive consuming 5:26 on the clock to take the lead for the first time. On the drive, APU converted a 3rd and three on a personal foul penalty on the Buffs for a helmet coming off and then Jeffries tossed a 27-yard strike to Josiah Thropay for the 27-24 lead.

WT had the beginning of a good drive moving to its own 45, but a 5-yard loss and an incomplete pass forced the Buffs to punt with 4:04 left. Jeffries was intercepted for the second time in the game – this time by junior Tevin Creeks giving WT new life at the APU 40.

WT was unable to move the ball and got in a 4th and 15 situation as Rabb picked up 12 yards on the scramble turning the ball over on downs. APU ran out the clock for the win.

Defensively, the Buffs were led by sophomore Hunter Streuling who had 8.5 tackles with one pass breakup, including six solo stops. Creeks added 7.5 tackles with an interception, while Merriweather added 5.5 tackles and an INT. Seniors John Sheehy and Alex Tucci each had sacks in the contest.
