Lady Buff Soccer Set to Face Southwestern Oklahoma State and Southern Nazarene...

The West Texas A&M women's soccer team will play its final two matches of its non-conference schedule this week. The Lady Buffs will make the short trip to Weatherford, Okla. to play Southwestern Oklahoma State on Thursday, Sept. 15 at 4 p.m. After the match against the Bulldogs, WT will return home for a match against the Crimson Storm of Southern Nazarene on Saturday, Sept. 17 at 3 p.m. at The Pitch.

What is Next?...

The Lady Buffs will open their Lone Star Conference schedule on the road against Texas Woman's and Texas A&M-Commerce. WT will face off against the Pioneers on Friday, Sept. 23 at 7 p.m. before taking on the Lions on Sunday, Sept. 25 at 1 p.m.

About Southwestern Oklahoma State...

Southwestern Oklahoma State has been on a tear since dropping their first match of the season to nationally-ranked Central Missouri. The Bulldogs have won three of their past four matches outscoring opponents 28-2. Two of those victories ended 11-0 in favor of SWOSU.

The Bulldogs already have two players over 20 points just five matches into the season as Almata Rabo has scored ten goals and five assists while Sandra Nabweteme has eight goals and four assists. The freshman duo has a combined 81 shots including 38 on goal while having scored all three game-winners this season. Olivia Butler ranks second on the team with four assists while Mika Stroh and Kendall Harris both have two goals apiece. Courtney Flores is the goalkeeper of choice as she has started all five matches for the Bulldogs. The senior enters the week with three shutouts, 19 saves and only five goals allowed. Flores has twice been named the Great American Conference Goalkeeper of the Year during her career.

The Series with Southwestern Oklahoma State...

WT and Southwestern Oklahoma State will meet for the 18th time in school history and seventh time in Weatherford. The Lady Buffs lead the series 16-0-1 with the lone draw coming in 2013.

About Southern Nazarene...

The Crimson Storm picked up their first win of the season on Tuesday night with a 2-0 victory over Oklahoma Christian. SNU used second half goals from Hannah Robinson (63:09) and Meagan Chase (85:07) to pull away from the Eagles.

Chase leads the team in goals with two while Kylee Payne, Shelby Martinez Alyssa Gltzke all have one assist on the season. Natasha Fuentes has started all four matches in goal for the Crimson Storm making 23 saves on 61 shots faced. She picked up her first shutout of the season against OCU while lowering her goals against average to 2.05.

The Series with Southern Nazarene...

WT and Southern Nazarene will face off for the third time in school history. The series is tied 1-1 after the Crimson Storm defeated the Lady Buffs 2-0 last season.

A Look Back...

The Lady Buffs won their only match last week after Saturday's match against Lubbock Christian was cancelled due to playing conditions. WT defeated New Mexico Highlands 3-1 in their home opener on Thursday, Sept. 8 in front of 175 fans.

WT fell behind in the 2nd minute after Zinn Hanning-Marrufo's free kick from just outside the box deflected over a WT defender into the back of the net. But the Cowgirls lead was short lived as Marlene van Mourik scored her first career goal for the Buffs in the 4th minute. The freshman from Hovborg, Denamrk made the most out of a through ball from Katelyn Taschler before beating the keeper.

The Lady Buffs pulled ahead in the 23rd minute on a beautiful strike from Khadidra Debesette. The sophomore controlled the ball off her chest before volleying the ball into the back of the net from 20 yards out.

Ronni Ajeot put the match out of reach in the 66th minute when she toe poked a loose ball into the back of the net to give the Lady Buffs a commanding 3-1 lead.

Lone Star Conference in the Rankings...

After a 4-0-0 start to the season, Texas Woman's is now the highest ranked Lone Star Conference team heading into week three of the regular season. The Pioneers are No. 15 in the latest NSCAA rankings followed closely by the 18th ranked Lions of Texas A&M-Commerce.

NUMBERS TO KNOW

One Lady Buff made her debut this past week against New Mexico Highlands. Alex Habala, a freshman midfielder from Arlington, Texas, played four minutes in the Lady Buffs 3-1 victory over the Cowgirls.

6...

Southwestern Oklahoma State is one of six schools (min. 3 matches) that has never beaten WT the others being Adams State, Colorado Christian, Texas Wesleyan, UT Permian Basin and University of the Southwest. The Lady Buffs are a combined 42-0-1 all-time against those programs.

11...

Freshman forward Marlene van Mourik nearly broke a school record in his first home game as a Lady Buff. The Hovborg, Denmark native finished the match against NMHU with 11 shots, one shy of the school record.

20...

With her goal against the Cowgirls, Khadidra Debesette became the career active leader in points with 20. She has scored nine goals and two assists during her two-year career at WT.

21...

The Lady Buffs finished their match against NMHU with a 21-7 advantage in shots. It marked the first time this season they outshot their opponent.

40...

Sophomore Khadidra Debesette's one game-winning goal ranks her 40th in the nation. She also ranks second in the Lone Star Conference in that category.

49...

Senior Kaitlin Steele has started a remarkable 49 matches for the Lady Buffs. The left back from Andrews, Texas will presumably make it 50 when WT faces SWOSU on Thursday night. She has started in all but four matches since her freshman campaign.

CHAD WEBB

HEAD COACH • SEVENTH SEASON
WEST TEXAS A&M

Chad Webb enters his seventh season at the helm of the Lady Buff soccer team after being introduced as the second head women's soccer coach in program history on January 13, 2010 as the duties of men's and women's head coach were split due to the success of both programs.

Webb was previously an assistant to Butch Laufer for 14 seasons, after a tremendous four year career as a Buffalo in the mid 90's.

During the 2015 season, Webb lead the Lady Buffs to a 10-10-1 including a spot in the Lone Star Conference Championship game. WT defeated, #1 seed Angelo State 1-0 in the semi-finals before falling to Texas A&M-Commerce 4-0 in the final.

In the fall of 2014, the Lady Buffs finished the year with a 7-11 mark overall. The year prior, going into the final weekend of the regular season in 2013, Webb led the Lady Buffs to two big Lone Star Conference wins to make the LSC Tournament as the #4 seed. WT opened up the tournament with a 1-0 victory over the host, #1 seed Angelo State, before falling to Midwestern State in the Championship game in PKs.

Webb guided the Lady Buffs to an outstanding season in 2012 as the team went 13-7-1, winning both the regular season and conference tournament championships en route to the NCAA Tournament for the first time under Webb and first since 2009. Following the season, Webb was named LSC Coach of the Year and Panhandle Sports Soccer Coach of the Year.

The 2011 campaign saw the Lady Buffs fight through numerous season ending injuries to make their 14th appearance in the LSC Tournament as the #6 seed. WT topped Eastern New Mexico in the Quarterfinals before falling to Midwestern State in OT to end their season with a 9-10-1 overall record.

2010 saw the Lady Buffs register an 8-7-3 overall record and finish seventh in the LSC standings with a 4-6-1 mark, missing the conference tournament by one spot.

Before taking control of the Lady Buffs in 2010, Webb had been an assistant coach with the women's soccer program for 13 seasons, where his main responsibilities revolved around the everyday operations and coaching of the program. He handled the bulk of the recruiting duties for the Lady Buffs, while also assisting with the Buffalo men's team, as well.

Webb, a native of Lubbock, Texas, holds a USSF "A" license, has been active in the community as the Director of Coaching for Amarillo Lightning and enjoys developing youth soccer talent in the Texas Panhandle. He conducts many soccer camps and clinics throughout the area each year, and, in 2002, was named Coach of the Year for the North Texas State Soccer Association.

He earned both his bachelor's (1998) and master's (2002) degrees in Mass Communication from WTAMU.

Webb lives in Amarillo with his wife, Joy, their two children, Autumn and Samuel, along with their many dogs.
