OPENING DRIVE NOTES

- The Buffs return home for Homecoming 2017 Saturday at 5 p.m. at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium against Adams State. WT is 2-4 overall and has lost its last three games, while Adams State is 3-3 and dropped a 63-17 decision last week at #14 Colorado State-Pueblo, a team WT beat 24-21 earlier this season.
- WT's offensive struggles continued in the 37-9 loss last week at Texas A&M-Commerce as the Buffs managed just 12 yards rushing on 32 carries, while throwing for 175 yards and recording 187 yards of offense. It was the second-straight game of under 200 yards of total offense.
- Adams State has allowed 60 or more points in two of the last three games and 44 or more points each of the last three. Like WT, Saturday's 17 points at CSUP was the fewest scored by the Grizzlies this season, as was the nine by the Buffs at Texas A&M-Kingsville.
- The Buffs are 43-28-2 all-time on Homecoming and have dropped their past two with a 51-34 loss to Texas A&M-Kingsville last season and a 37-17 loss to Angelo State in 2015. Prior to that, WT had won nine-straight on Homecoming from 2005-2013 (also won in 2014, but win was vacated).
- Adams State will be the first team from the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference WT has faced on Homecoming in program history.
- WT leads the all-time series with Adams State, 5-1 and won the last three meetings, including a 63-20 decision in Alamosa, Colo., Sept. 8, 2007 as the teams haven't met on the gridiron since.
- Three Buffs had double-digit tackles in the loss at Texas A&M-Kingsville last weekend, including a game-high 15 tackles from senior linebacker Trevor Mykleubst.
- WT is looking to snap a three-game drought of interceptions as the Buffs had five picks in the first three games and none since. ASU has thrown five interceptions on the year with just one lost fumble, while recording four interceptions and recovering seven fumbles.
- The Buffs have not lost four-straight games in a season since 2004 when the team finished the year 2-8.
- WT coach Hunter Hughes is quite familiar with Adams State as he helped guide Colorado State-Pueblo's defense against the Grizzlies for the past nine years. Hughes is 8-1 against the Grizzlies while he was on staff at Colorado State-Pueblo as the defensive coordinator and has beaten ASU eight-straight times during that span.

2017 Schedule/Opponents/Highlights

INSIDE THE SERIES

- West Texas A&M leads the all-time series 5-1 and has won the last three meetings, including a 63-20 decision on Sept. 8, 2007, in Alamosa, Colo.
- The Buffs are 3-0 at home against the Grizzlies and 2-1 on the road as the Buffs have outscored Adams State 210-77 in the six meetings.
- WT posted a 48-0 shutout in Alamosa on Sept. 6, 1997, following the only loss for the Buffs as Adams State won in Canyon the year before, 13-10 (9/7/96).
- The Buffs won the first meeting in the series, 14-7 on Sept. 10, 1994, in Canyon.

MEET THE COACHES

- WT head coach Hunter Hughes is in his first season at the helm of the Buffs as he was hired from Colorado State-Pueblo on Dec. 13, 2016 as the 28th head coach in WT history.
- Hughes spent 10 years as Defensive Coordinator at CSUP where he guided the ThunderWolves to the program's first national championship in 2014 with a 13-0 shutout of Minnesota State. Hughes had a tremendous track record at CSUP as one of the top defensive units in the nation.
- He was named Footballscoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year finalist in 2014 and his "D" led all of Division II in scoring defense (12.8 ppg) INT's (29), defensive touchdowns (7) and turnovers gained (43).
- Adams State head coach Timm Rosenbach is in his third year at the helm of the Grizzlies and the team has gotten better each year under his guidance. Rosenbach was in the running for the Heisman Trophy finishing seventh in 1988 at Washington State as a prolific quarterback. He played in the NFL for the then-Phoenix Cardinals, but his career was cut short due to injuries.

A WIN OVER ADAMS STATE WOULD . . .

- Give WT a 3-4 record on the year
- Be the 44th win on Homecoming for WT (43-28-2) and snap a two-game skid on Homecoming
- Give Coach Hughes his third win at WT and first Homecoming victory
- Be the 507th win in program history (506-504-22)
- Give WT a 2-0 record this season against teams from the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference and a 36-10 record against current members of the RMAC all-time
- Be the sixth win in the series against Adams State (5-1)
- Be the 167th win at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium (166-131-3)
- Give WT a 7-3 record on Oct. 14, since 1946 and a 6-1 record at home on this date

LOOKING AT ADAMS STATE

- The high-octane offense of the Grizzlies enters averaging 36.8 points per game (24th nationally), while ranking eighth nationally in total offense at 494.8 yards per game and fourth nationally in passing at 351.8 yards per game.
- Adams State is led by quarterback Nick Rooney who is sixth nationally in passing touchdowns (7), 17th in passing yards (1,650), sixth in passing yards per game (330.0), fourth in completions per game at a 26.2 clip and fourth nationally in total offense at 339.8 yards per game.
- The Grizzlies have three players with six or more touchdowns led by Marquese Surrell with eight, ranking fourth nationally, while James Holtrop and Chad Hovasse each have six. Hovasse is 17th nationally in receiving yards at 605 per game. All three players rank in the top 37 in the country in receptions per game as Surrell is 24th at 6.3 per contest.
- On the ground, the Grizzlies are just as effective as Corey Brown is 34th nationally in rushing yards at 589 and 38th in rushing yards per game at 98.2.

ASU is 10th in the RMAC in red zone defense at .897 clip and 10th in the RMAC in total defense, allowing 486.8 yards per game with 241 yards on the ground and 255.8 through the air.
- Despite that, the Grizzlies have taken care of the football as they rank second nationally in fumbles lost (1) and have 11 turnovers forced to just six turnovers lost for a 0.83 margin, ranking 30th nationally. ASU is fourth nationally in punt returns at 25.33 per return and average 21.78 yards per kick return.
- Adams State has scored 25 or more points in all but one game this season, while scoring 30 or more in four games. Conversely, the defense has allowed 60 or more points in two of the last three games and 40 or more four times this season.
- WT, on the other hand, has not scored over 30 points in any game this season and allowed a season-high 37 last weekend at Texas A&M-Kingsville.

BUFF NEWS AND NOTES

- The Buffs struggled once again offensively on Saturday in the 37-9 loss at Texas A&M-Kingsville. In the game, WT had a season-low 12 yards rushing and recorded its second-straight game of under 200 yards total offense with 187, helped out by 175 yards through the air.
- The defense has been put to work each of the last two weeks as WT had 96 tackles against Eastern New Mexico on Sept. 30 and 87 last weekend at TAMUK. In addition, time of possession for the Buffs has dropped from over 33 minutes per game through the first four contest to just over 29 minutes for the season through six games.
- Despite the offensive woes at times, the Buffs have shown some positive signs as the team is third nationally in fewest penalties with 20, while ranking third in fewest penalties per game (3.33), second in fewest penalty yards (143) and lead the nation in fewest penalty yards per game (23.83).
- The Buffs are holding teams to just 14.37 yards per kick return ranking sixth nationally, while ranking 23 nationally in net punting at 37.0 per punt. The team is 38th nationally in punt return defense at 4.83 per return.
- Individually, freshman kicker Alex Schrag is 28th nationally in field goals per game at 1.17 as he is 7-12 in field goals and 8-8 in extra-points, while handling kickoff duties.
- Senior punter John Cummings is 35th nationally and second in the LSC in punting at 40.6 yards per punt. He has 33 punts with three touchbacks, eight fair catches, 10 inside the 20 and nine over 50 yards.
- Defensively the Buffs have been strong as senior Daelin Young ranks 22nd nationally and third in the LSC in sacks per game at 0.83. He has five sacks on the year for 41 yards. Young also ranks highly in solo tackles as he is averaging 5.2 per game, while averaging 1.2 tackles for loss per contest.
- The Buffs had seven turnovers forced in the first three games of the season with five interceptions, but have not gotten a turnover since. WT outscored the opposition 30-7 in points off turnovers in the first three games, but has been outscored 28-0 in the last three.
- Saturday's game features to be contrasting teams as Adams State has the prolific offense, while WT doesn't and the Buffs are putting up better numbers defensively than the Grizzlies.
- For the season, the Buffs are averaging a league-worst 251.7 yards per game, ranking ninth in the LSC, while averaging 103.8 yards rushing (sixth LSC) and 147.8 yards passing (eighth).
- Saturday saw the first action of redshirt freshman quarterback Skyler Bonneau as he went 3 of 7 passing for 50 yards and a long of 38. He was sacked twice. He also had five rushing yards on eight carries.
- Senior linebacker Trevor Myklebust had 15 tackles in the game with three solo stops and 12 assisted tackles. WT didn't record a sack in the game, marking the second-straight game of not registering a sack.
- The Buffs are averaging just 16.2 points per game ranking ninth in the LSC, while allowing just 24.3, which is good for fourth in the league.
- WT has struggled this season on third down as the team is 29 of 85 (34%). The Buffs have had just one game (at Tarleton State) where the team was over 50 percent on third down (11/18). On fourth down, WT is 3-8 for the season.

COLLEGIATE COACHING HISTORY

- West Texas A&M (Head Coach) - 2017-Present
- CSU-Pueblo - (Defensive Coordinator 2007-2016)
- Tennessee - Graduate Assistant (2006)
- Colorado - Graduate Assistant (2003-05)

Hunter Hughes was announced as the 28th head coach in West Texas A&M football history at a press conference on Dec. 13, 2016, in Legacy Hall of the Jack B. Kelley Student Center.

"We are thrilled to welcome Hunter to WT, the Texas Panhandle and we are excited about the future of Buffalo Football," WT Director of Athletics Michael McBroom said. "Hunter has a proven track record of emphasizing academic success, of consistently winning at a high level over an extended period of time and promoting a balanced and positive student-athlete experience that includes integration into the campus and community."

Hughes spent the last ten years as the defensive coordinator at Colorado State University-Pueblo and was the defensive mastermind behind the ThunderWolves' 13-0 shutout of then-No. 1 Minnesota State in the 2014 NCAA Division II National Championship, which handed CSU-Pueblo its first NCAA national title in school history. Hughes was hired in 2007 prior to the first season of CSUP football in 2008 to help build the inaugural class.

Since the 2008 season, Hughes has consistently put defenses on the field that not only lead the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, but rank among the top units in the nation. He was named FootballScoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year finalist in 2014 and guided the ThunderWolves' defense that lead all of Division II in scoring defense (12.8 points allowed per game), passes intercepted (29), defensive touchdowns (7) and turnovers gained (43). The defensive line totaled 3.8 sacks per game to finish fourth nationally and CSUP ranked 13th in total defense allowing just 296.8 yards per game.

In his nine seasons coaching at CSUP, the defense has produced 14 All-Americans and 67 All-RMAC performers.

"I am excited about being the head coach at West Texas A&M," Hughes said. "I know they have the type of players to compete and win a national championship. It is hard to leave a place that I was part of building from scratch, but the people here at West Texas A&M, and their commitment to the student-athletes, made this a simple decision."

Hughes and the ThunderWolves' defense continued to dominate in 2015 as he helped guide the team to its third appearance in the NCAA Quarterfinals in the previous four seasons. CSUP finished top 20 nationally in nine different defensive categories, which included third in scoring defense (15.8 ppg) and passes intercepted (24). The ThunderWolves also were 10th in rushing defense (94.6 ypg) and 11th in turnovers gained (31).

One of the most decorated Division II coordinators in the nation, Hughes earned FootballScoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year in 2011 as the ThunderWolves went 11-0 in the regular season. CSUP allowed a national-best 10.33 points per game and tallied 26 interceptions which also was top in Division II.

In the first four years Hughes was at CSUP, the ThunderWolves finished in the top 25 nationally in points allowed three times including ninth in 2010. In 2008, Hughes squad allowed the 37th-fewest points in the nation during the program's first season of competition.

Prior to CSUP, Hughes quickly rose through the coaching ranks as he was on staff at two of the most prestigious Division I programs in the country—University of Colorado and University of Tennessee.

While at Colorado, Hughes was a defensive graduate assistant from 2003-2006, assisting in coaching various defensive positions, as well as recruiting. At Tennessee, he served as a defensive graduate assistant focusing on linebackers and defensive backs in the fall of 2006 and spring of 2007.

Hughes graduated from Middle Tennessee State in 1991 and earned a master's degree from MTSU in 2001.

Buffs' Upset Bid Falls Short in Hughes' Debut

THE BASICS:

- Score: #13 Azusa Pacific 24, West Texas A&M 13
- Records: Azusa Pacific, 1-0, West Texas A&M 0-1
- Location: Canyon, Texas (Kimbrough Memorial Stadium)
- The Lead: The West Texas A&M football team battled valiantly, but a fumble scoop-and-score by No. 13 Azusa Pacific with one minute remaining sealed the win for the Cougars in the 2017 opener for both teams Saturday evening at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

HOW IT HAPPENED:

- Azusa Pacific scored on its first two possessions with a field goal and a touchdown on its first two drives, but the young Buffs settled down and held APU to just 40 yards in the second quarter after allowing 127 in the first.
- The Buffs had a chance to get on the board right before half, but freshman kicker Alex Schrag's 33-yard field goal sailed wide right.
- After just 52 yards in the first quarter, the Buffs tallied 73 yards in the second quarter with most on the ground as WT 76 yards on the ground for the half and 49 through the air.
- APU had 125 yards through the air as quarterback Andrew Ellfers went eight of 12 passing and backup running back Gavin McDaniel had 41 yards and a score on the ground. 2016 starter and All-Great Northwest Athletic Conference performer Kurt Scoby missed the game Saturday.
- WT played much more physical in the second half and sophomore Kevon Thomas took an interception to the house for 36-yards and the first touchdown of the season for the Buffs midway through the third, trailing 10-7.
- Ellfers moved the Cougars right back down the field and found leading receiver Weston Carr for a 27-yard score on the ensuing drive. Carr had nine catches for 161 yards and a score to lead all receivers. Ellfers went 15 of 22 for 236 yards a score and the pick-six.
- Schrag hit two field goals in the fourth to pull WT within 17-13 and began its final drive with 2:42 left. WT leading rusher, junior Warren Witherspoon, had the ball stripped by ASU leading tackler Aaron Berry and Adrian Shocks picked up the ball for the 46-yard return and 24-13 score.

INSIDE THE NUMBERS:

- Despite the loss, the Buffs had 223 yards rushing on 49 carries as Witherspoon had a career-high 138 yards on the ground on 24 carries. He had just 14 yards on the ground at halftime.
- Redshirt freshman quarterback Justin Houghtaling went nine of 21 for 94 yards in his debut as a starter. He had seven rushes for 26 yards, but was sacked three times for 26 yards.

- Berry had 16 tackles with 14 solo stops to lead all-tacklers with the forced fumble. Christian Caraveo had five tackles with one sack and two tackles for loss.
- Azusa Pacific improves to 3-1 all-time against WT and has won the last three meetings in the series, including two in Canyon.

Bufs' Upset No. 7 CSU-Pueblo in Thrilling Fashion

THE BASICS:

- Score: West Texas A&M 24, #7 Colorado State-Pueblo 21
- Records: West Texas A&M 1-1, Colorado State-Pueblo 21
- Location: Canyon, Texas (Kimbrough Memorial Stadium)
- The Lead: A field goal with four seconds left in regulation by West Texas A&M freshman kicker Alex Schrag gave WT a thrilling 24-21 upset victory over No. 7 Colorado State-Pueblo Saturday evening at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium. The Buffs battle back from a 21-3 deficit and forced four second half turnovers to spark the comeback.

HOW IT HAPPENED:

- Buffs had a chance to get off the field on the first drive with a 3-and-out, but CSUP quarterback Brandon Edwards got a first down pass off a scramble and got out of a potential sack for a first down. From there, Edwards moved the ThunderWolves inside the 20. Edwards found Ammon Johnson for 17 yards to the WT one and then Austin Micci scored on the ground for a 7-0 lead. CSUP converted two third and longs on the drive to keep it alive.
- WT moved right back down the field and scored a field goal, but the drive saw redshirt freshman quarterback Justin Houghtaling with three key rushes for 46 yards on the drive. CSUP methodically came right back down the field on another 10 play, 75 yard drive for a score as Micci scored his second touchdown on the ground for a 14-3 lead with 13:30 left in the first half.
- Following a three-and-out and a short punt into plus territory for CSUP, the ThunderWolves moved down into WT territory as Micci scored his third rushing touchdown of the game for a 21-3 lead with 10:02 left in the half.
- WT marched back down the field all on the ground as sophomore fullback Jordan Johnson scored from seven yards out for the first offensive touchdown of the season on an 11 play, 81-yard drive using 5:58 on the clock. WT went for two as junior quarterback Ben Arbuckle found senior tight end Junior Pome'e for two points and a 21-11 deficit with 59 seconds left in the half.
- For the half, the Buffs had 24 rushes for 133 yards led by Johnson with five rushes for 54 yards, while Houghtaling had eight rushes for 44 yards. The Buffs had just minus-two yards passing as Houghtaling was one for two passing. WT had 131 yards for the half on 26 plays and 5.0 yards per play.

- TAMUK got on the board first with a touchdown pass with 1:05 left in the first as Stehly Reden scored on a pass from Cade Dyal and a 7-0 lead on a fourth down play as TAMUK was bailed out by a holding call in the end zone on third and goal from the six.
