OPENING KICK

West Texas A&M makes the trip across the state to take on Texas A&M-Kingsville on Saturday, Nov. 9. Kickoff is scheduled for 3 p.m. at Javelina Stadium in Kingsville.

The game will be broadcast locally on KCPN-LP (Channel 33) and online at www.myhighplains.com.

FIVE KEY STORYLINES

Through nine games, WT's offense has produced 27 drives over 50 yards, 22 of those ending in touchdowns. The Buffs had four such drives against Texas A&M-Commerce (85, 75, 69, 52) with three touchdowns including a 28-yard touchdown from Nick Gerber to PJ Leonce.

Gerber has a completed 30 passes over 15 yards this season, seven of those going to his favorite target Juwan McCall. The senior wideout has seen seven of his team-high 28 receptions go for over 15 yards including a season-best 55-yard touchdown reception against Western New Mexico. Semaj Mitchell and Chase Sojka have six receptions followed by Jordan Johnson (4), Markel Stephens-Peppers (3), Jamaal Hamilton (2), Jeremie Karngbaye (1) and Leonce (1).

The Buffs rushed the ball a season-high 50 time against in their Lone Star Conference Showdown against the Lions. Duke Carter IV took a bulk of the carries (20) with Logan Vallo, Jordan Johnson and Nick Gerber chipping in nine carries each. It also marked the second time under third-year head coach Hunter Hughes ran the ball that much in a game.

With his 14-tackle performance against the nationally-ranked Lions, Frank Honang became the sixth Buff to record over 100 tackles in a season since 2009. The Saginaw native has recorded double digit tackles in six games in 2019 where he ranks in the Top 10 nationally in forced fumbles (6th) and total tackles (8th).

Tobias Harris enters the final two games of the regular season with 363 punt return yards, six short of breaking Curley Watters program record set back in 1966. The former LSC Freshman of the Year is also 61 yards short of breaking Watters record for career punt return yards. Harris currently leads the nation in combined kick return yards (872) and ranks second in punt return average (24.2).

SCOUTING TEXAS A&M-KINGSVILLE

Texas A&M-Kingsville is coming off their first LSC win of the season last week against Western New Mexico. The Javelinas put up 485 yards of offense en route to their first win over Division II opponent this season.

The offense (28.8 ppg) is led by senior Koy Detmer Jr., who has started in the past two games throwing for 746 yards and five touchdowns. The nephew of former Heisman quarterback Ty Detmer threw for a career-high 450 yards and three touchdowns in the Javelina's 45-33 setback to Tarleton. Luis Lopez is the leading rusher for the Javelinas with 91 carries and 526 yards. His 11 rushing touchdowns are the second-most in the conference.

Darrian Hambrick and Devin Millburn have been the top two wide receivers for the Javelinas this season combining for 90 receptions for 1,089 yards and five touchdowns. Donte Ross and Ryan Martinez have both recorded over 20 receptions.

Tre'Michael Tutt is the leading tackler for a Javelina defense that is allowing 36.8 points per game. Tutt has recorded double digit tackles twice this season including 22 against in a loss to Eastern New Mexico. Jacob Clarkon has recorded a team-high 13.5 tackles for loss and four sacks combined with an interception, fumble recovery and two forced fumbles.

The Javelinas are led by fifth-year head coach Daren Wilkinson. The Valley Center, Calif. native is 21-33 during his time in Kingsville including a 9-3 season in 2016.

A LOOK AT THE SERIES

WT is 15-18-1 all-time against the Javelinas including 6-8 in Kingsville. The Buffs have won seven of the last nine games including a thrilling 35-31 comeback last season in the final game at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium.

THE BASH BROTHERS

Much like The Mighty Ducks' dynasty of the early 90s, the Buffs have their own bash brothers in Honang and Hayden Dennis. The linebackers are on the verge of becoming the first teammates to record 100 or more tackles in the same season since 2012.

Taylor McCuller and Kyle Voss achieved the feat seven years ago when McCuller recorded a school-record 165 tackles. The Red Oak native also recorded 11.5 tackles for loss and 3.5 sacks while ranking 13th in the nationally in tackles per game.

GOOD TO BE BACK

Logan Vallo carried the ball nine times for 27 yards and a touchdown in his first game in over a month. The San Diego, Calif. native scored the opening touchdown for the Buffs with a 2-yard run on their opening drive of the game. Through five appearances, he has rushed the ball 42 times for 176 yards and three touchdowns including a season-long 27 yarder against Western New Mexico.

Logan Vallo returned from injury to score the opening touchdown in the Buffs 34-20 setback to No. 24 Texas A&M-Commerce on Saturday. He finished the game with nine carries for 27 yards and a touchdown.

A LOOK INSIDE THE NUMBERS

The Buffs defense has forced 11 fumbles this season, which is the sixth-most in Division II football. Honang has forced a team-high four with Eric Collins and Michael Onozie chipping in two each.

Gerber ranks fifth in the conference and 49th in the nation in completions per game. The redshirt sophomore has completed 16.2 passes per game through his first nine starts where he has thrown for the 65th most yards in DII (1,649).

Seven different Buffs have rushed for a touchdown this season including a team-high seven from Jordan Johnson. WT's swiss army knife in six of WT's nine games including a two-touchdown performance against William Jewell in Week 2. In total, the Eagle Lake product has accounted for 10 touchdowns (7 rushing, 2 receiving, 1 passing).

A win on Saturday would give WT their fourth road win of the season, the most since 2016. It would also give Hunter Hughes his seventh win of the season, surpassing last season's total of six.

THIS DAY IN BUFF HISTORY

WT is 4-3-1 all-time in games played on Nov. 9 dating back to the 1946 season where they lost 28-7 to Hardin-Simmons.

It has been six years since the Buffs played on Nov. 9 when they defeated West Georgia 63-23 behind the six-touchdown performance from Dustin Vaughan. Aaron Harris also contributed two touchdowns on the ground.

BUFFS RECORD ON NOV. 9 (SINCE 1946)

1946	Hardin-Simmons	L, 7-28
1957	Abilene Christian	W, 12-2
1963	New Mexico State	T, 24-24

2013	West Georgia	W, 63-23

AFCA DIVISION II POLL

The LSC was represented by three schools in the latest American Football Coaches Association (AFCA) Division II Coaches Poll. Tarleton moved up a spot to third following a 66-7 victory over Midwestern State while Angelo State and A&M-Commerce remained at 21st and 24th respectively.

AROUND THE LSC

TSU could clinch the outright LSC title with losses by A&M-Commerce and ASU as they face non-conference foe William Jewell in Liberty, Mo. The Lions return to Commerce to face UT Permian Basin while the Rams travel to Portales, N.M. to face Eastern New Mexico. Western New Mexico and Midwestern State are scheduled to kickoff at 1 p.m. in Wichita Falls.

WT HEAD COACH HUNTER HUGHES

Third-year head coach Hunter Hughes is 15-16 since taking over the program in 2017. The 2011 FootballScoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year is 1-1 against the Javelinas after their thrilling 35-31 victory in the final game at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium last year.

LIVE COVERAGE

Saturday's game will be broadcast locally by the Nexstar Media Group on KCPN. An online stream will also be available on www.myhighplains.com. Lucas Kinsey and Brice Sheets will have the call on the free audio stream available on GoBuffsGo.com. For more information, visit the Football Schedule Page at GoBuffsGo.com.

UP NEXT

The Buffs finish the regular season on Saturday, Nov. 16, when they host Midwestern State on Senior Day. Kickoff is scheduled for 2 p.m. at Buffalo Stadium.

WT is 15-16 all-time against the Mustangs with their last win coming on Oct. 22, 2016 in Canyon.

LONE STAR CONFERENCE

HUNTER HUGHES

Head Coach | Third Season at West Texas A&M
Middle Tennessee State '91 | Physical Education

Hunter Hughes is in his third season at the helm of the Buffs after being announced as the 28th head coach in program history at a press conference on December 13, 2016, in Legacy Hall of the Jack B. Kelley Student Center.

During his second season in Canyon in 2018, WT finished with their first winning record in three years at 6-5 which included a four-game winning streak and a win over a Top 25 opponent for the second consecutive season. The Buffs were named Dave Campbell's Team of the Week following their 28-26 victory over No. 14 Central Washington in the Wildcats first-ever night game at Tomlinson Stadium in Ellensburg, Washington where Duke Carter IV ran for a career-high 259 yards and a touchdown.

Under Hughes, Tobias Harris was named the Lone Star Conference Freshman of the Year after ranking in the Top 10 nationally in interceptions per game, combined kick return yards and punt return touchdowns. Carter IV, Eric Collins and Travis Vornkahl all earned 2nd Team All-LSC honors while John Cummings earned D2CCA 2nd Team All-American honors along with being named a Google Cloud Academic All-American.

In 2017, Hughes and the Buffs won his first game of his WT career with a thrilling 24-21 victory at Kimbrough Memorial Stadium over his former school Colorado State-Pueblo as the ThunderWolves were ranked No. 7 nationally entering the game. Hughes went 3-8 in his inaugural season and had eight players named to the all-conference team, with two being selected to the LSC All-Academic Team and senior Dillon Vaughan earning LSC Academic Player of the Year honors, CoSIDA First Team Academic All-America accolades and the prestigious Fred Jacoby LSC Male Scholar-Athlete of the Year. Vaughan also earned the WT President's Award this season.

Prior to his arrival in Canyon, Hughes last ten years as the defensive coordinator at Colorado State University-Pueblo and was the defensive mastermind behind the ThunderWolves' 13-0 shutout of then-No. 1 Minnesota State in the 2014 NCAA Division II National Championship, which handed CSU-Pueblo its first NCAA national title in school history. Hughes was hired in 2007 prior to the first season of CSUP football in 2008 to help build the inaugural class.

Since the 2008 season, Hughes has consistently put defenses on the field that not only lead the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, but rank among the top units in the nation. He was named FootballScoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year finalist in 2014 and guided the ThunderWolves' defense that lead all of Division II in scoring defense (12.8 points allowed per game), passes intercepted (29), defensive touchdowns (7) and turnovers gained (43). The defensive line totaled 3.8 sacks per game to finish fourth nationally and CSUP ranked 13th in total defense allowing just 296.8 yards per game.

In his nine seasons coaching at CSUP, the defense has produced 14 All-Americans and 67 All-RMAC performers.

Hughes and the ThunderWolves' defense continued to dominate in 2015 as he helped guide the team to its third appearance in the NCAA Quarterfinals in the previous four seasons. CSUP finished top 20 nationally in nine different defensive categories, which included third in scoring defense (15.8 ppg) and passes intercepted (24). The ThunderWolves also were 10th in rushing defense (94.6 ypg) and 11th in turnovers gained (31).

One of the most decorated Division II coordinators in the nation, Hughes earned FootballScoop.com Division II Coordinator of the Year in 2011 as the ThunderWolves went 11-0 in the regular season. CSUP allowed a national-best 10.33 points per game and tallied 26 interceptions which also was tops in Division II.

In the first four years Hughes was at CSUP, the ThunderWolves finished in the top 25 nationally in points allowed three times including ninth in 2010. In 2008, Hughes squad allowed the 37th-fewest points in the nation during the program's first season of competition.

Prior to CSUP, Hughes quickly rose through the coaching ranks as he was on staff at two of the most prestigious Division I programs in the country – University of Colorado and University of Tennessee.

While at Colorado, Hughes was a defensive graduate assistant from 2003-2006, assisting in coaching various defensive positions, as well as recruiting. At Tennessee, he served as a defensive graduate assistant focusing on linebackers and defensive backs in the fall of 2006 and spring of 2007.

Hughes graduated from Middle Tennessee State in 1991 and earned a master's degree from MTSU in 2001.
