KRISTEN MATTIO

Head Coach | Sixth Season at West Texas A&M
Evangel '03 | Marketing/Management

Kristen Mattio has continued the storied tradition of Lady Buff Basketball as she enters her sixth season at the helm of the West Texas A&M in 2020-21. She has registering an overall record of 139-29 during her time in Canyon for a winning percentage of 82.7% as the Nashville native is the fastest head coach in program history to reach the 125-win plateau.

WT claimed their 19th Lone Star Conference Regular Season/Divisional Title during the 2019-20 campaign with an overall record of 27-6 with a 19-3 mark in league action, advancing to the program's 26th NCAA Tournament before the sudden end to the campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Lady Buffs also excelled in the classroom as a member of the WBCA Division II Team Academic Honor Roll.

The Lady Buffs finished the 2018-19 season with an overall record of 29-4, claiming a share of the LSC Regular Season Title while also winning the LSC Tournament Title as they made the program's 25th overall appearance in the NCAA Division II Postseason with a run to the Regional Semifinals. Mattio was named the Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year for the second straight season while four Lady Buffs claimed All-LSC accolades including LSC Player of the Year Lexy Hightower who was named a D2CCA and WBCA All-American.

The 2017-18 Lady Buffs continued to be the measuring stick in the LSC as they claimed the regular season and tournament titles with an overall record of 29-5 with a 16-4 mark in league action. WT advanced to the Regional Finals with wins over Arkansas-Fort Smith and Metro State before falling to Lubbock Christian in the Title Game. Mattio was named the Lone Star Conference Coach of the Year, four Lady Buffs picked up All-LSC accolades while sophomore guard Lexy Hightower was named a WBCA Honorable Mention All-American.

In 2016-17, Mattio and the Lady Buffs had another standout year both on the court and in the classroom as the team won the Lone Star Conference Women's Basketball Academic Championship with a team grade-point average of 3.568 and finished 19th nationally in the WBCA Academic Top 25. WT sophomore Reagan Haynes earned the prestigious honor of winning the Elite 90 Award which goes to the top student-athlete with the best GPA at the National Championship round.

On the court in 2016-17, the Lady Buffs continued the success from her first season as the team was ranked as high as third nationally during the season and finished 15th in the final WBCA Top 25. The Lady Buffs finished third in the LSC with a 15-5 record and a semifinal appearance in the LSC Championship. WT earned an at-large berth in the NCAA South Central Regional where the Lady Buffs shined, winning their third regional in four years with a wins over Regis, Colorado State-Pueblo and Angelo State.

She went 28-5 overall and went 13-3 in her first season as head coach in the Lone Star Conference. Mattio guided the Lady Buffs the program's third-straight Lone Star Conference regular season title and a berth in the LSC championship game. WT received the No. 3-seed in the South Central Regional where the Lady Buffs defeated UC-Colorado Springs and Black Hills State, before falling to eventual national champion Lubbock Christian in the Sweet Sixteen. It was a matchup of the two best teams in the region all season.

Mattio was named head coach of the Lady Buffs on May 12, 2015, after serving two seasons as associate head coach under Mark Kellogg who took the head coaching position at Stephen F. Austin. Mattio, served under Kellogg in 2013-2014 and 2014-15 as the Lady Buffs went 62-6 with two Elite Eight appearances and one national runner-up finish. The Lady Buffs won two Lone Star Conference regular season and tournament titles, while winning two South Central Region Tournament championships.

Mattio assisted Kellogg at Northwest Missouri State last year and was Kellogg's top assistant for five years at Fort Lewis College. There, the Skyhawks went an impressive 143-20 and 93-8 in the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, capturing three-straight RMAC regular season titles and two RMAC tournament championships in 2010-11 and 2011-12. During her tenure at FLC, the Skyhawks made a trip to the NCAA Division II tournament each season. The highlight, however, was the 2009-10 season which saw the Skyhawks go 35-4 and advance to the national championship game where they fell to Emporia State.

Prior to Fort Lewis, Mattio spent one season as the assistant coach at Memphis Central High School in Memphis, Tenn., helping her team to a 25-8 record. While in Memphis, Mattio also worked with and coached youth at Memphis Athletic Ministries. Mattio first worked with Kellogg at Montana State University from 2003-2005 where they both were assistant coaches. While at MSU, she was responsible for the Bobcats' academics, film exchange, recruiting and community affairs.

Along with a stop as an assistant coach at Austin Peay State University in Clarksville, Tenn., Mattio spent one season as an assistant coach at her alma mater, Evangel University, in Springfield, Mo., where her team reached the Elite Eight in the NAIA Division II National Championships and posted a 29-9 record.

She played point guard and was a team captain for the Lady Crusaders while in college and was instrumental in leading Evangel to the NAIA Division II Sweet Sixteen. She led her team to two NAIA tournament appearance and three Heart of America Conference titles (2000-2003).

Mattio graduated from Evangel in 2003 with a bachelor's degree in marketing/management. She earned a master's degree in 2006 in sports and wellness leadership from Austin Peay.

CAMILLE PERKINSAssociate Head Coach | Seventh Season at West Texas A&M
Angelo State '11 | Psychology

Camille Perkins begins her seventh season as an assistant coach at West Texas A&M, entering her fourth season at the program's Associate Head Coach in 2020-21.

WT claimed their 19th Lone Star Conference Regular Season/Divisional Title during the 2019-20 campaign with an overall record of 27-6 with a 19-3 mark in league action, advancing to the program's 26th NCAA Tournament before the sudden end to the campaign due to the COVID-19 pandemic. The Lady Buffs also excelled in the classroom as a member of the WBCA Division II Team Academic Honor Roll.

The Lady Buffs finished the 2018-19 season with an overall record of 29-4, claiming a share of the LSC Regular Season Title while also winning the LSC Tournament Title as they made the program's 25th overall appearance in the NCAA Division II Postseason with a run to the Regional Semifinals. WT finished 23rd in the Women's Basketball Coaches Association (WBCA) Division II Top-25 Poll as four Lady Buffs claimed All-LSC accolades including LSC Player of the Year Lexy Hightower who was named a D2CCA and WBCA All-American.

The 2017-18 Lady Buffs continued their reign atop of the Lone Star Conference as they claimed the regular season and tournament titles with an overall record of 29-5 with a 16-4 mark in league action. WT advanced to the NCAA South Central Regional Finals with wins over Arkansas-Fort Smith and Metro State before falling to Lubbock Christian in the Title Game.

In 2016-17, Perkins helped guide the Lady Buffs to their third Elite Eight in four years and a 26-9 record overall. In 2015-16, Perkins helped lead the Lady Buffs to their third-straight Lone Star Conference regular season title and Sweet Sixteen appearance. In her first season, she helped lead the team to the LSC regular season and tournament titles and WT's second consecutive Elite Eight appearance with a 30-3 overall record.

She came to WT from Angelo State where she was an assistant coach for the Rambelles in 2013-14. Perkins was an All-LSC player for Angelo State from 2008-2011 and was a graduate assistant from 2011-2013. She finished her playing career at ASU as the second all-time leading scorer in program history and is the school-leader in free throws made (573) and attempts (749).

The Groesbeck, Texas, native, also is among the top five in the Rambelle women's basketball record book in points per game, field goals made, 3-pointers made, assists and steals as she averaged a career-high 17.2 points per game her senior season and was an All-LSC South Division First Team selection for the fourth time in her career. As a freshman, she earned LSC Freshman of the Year honors in 2008.

Perkins earned her bachelor's degree in psychology and a master's degree in education both from Angelo State.

KRISTIAN BRANSONAssistant Coach | Fourth Season at West Texas A&M
Baylor '14 | Education

Kristian Branson enters his fourth season as an Assistant Coach for the Lady Buffs.

In his three seasons in Canyon, Branson helped guide the Lady Buffs to a 85-15 overall record with three LSC Regular Season Championships, two LSC Tournament Titles and a trip to the NCAA Tournament in each of the three seasons. His responsibilities include guard development, coordinating travel, team budgeting, scouting and film on opposing teams, as well as duties related to recruiting.

Branson came to Canyon in the Summer of 2017 after spending one season as the video coordinator for women's basketball at Stephen F. Austin under former Lady Buff head coach Mark Kellogg. The team went 25-8, losing in the conference tournament championship game. Branson was charged with video sharing and breakdown of games and practice at SFA, while evaluating opposing players and highlight tapes. He also worked with the post players for the Lady Jacks.

Prior to SFA, Branson worked as an assistant women's basketball coach at University of Mary Hardin-Baylor helping guide his team to a 15-11 record, winning 11 of their final 13 games, and five players named all-conference in 2015-16. Branson worked under Mark Morefield, who was a former assistant at Baylor under Scott Drew.

In addition, he also has had stints as an assistant coach and junior varsity head coach at Vanguard College Preparatory, and head coach of the Centex Elite AAU Team. While coaching at the high school level in college, Branson coached four players who received college scholarships.

Branson is a native of Palmdale, California. He earned his bachelor's degree in education from Baylor University in 2014 and currently is pursuing a master's degree in mass communication from Stephen F. Austin.
