NEWS & NOTES

FIRST PITCH

The West Texas A&M Buffaloes close out their non-conference schedule on Sunday afternoon as they take on the Colorado State-Pueblo ThunderWolves in a South Central Regional matchup at Rawlings Field with first pitch set for Noon CT in Pueblo.

A LOOK AT THE THUNDERWOLVES

Colorado State-Pueblo enters Sunday with an overall record of 1-7 following a 3-1 victory over Montana State-Billings on Saturday afternoon in Pueblo. CSUP started off the season with home losses to St. Edward's (twice) and UCCS before suffering a four-game sweep on the road at San Francisco State.

Reggie Williams leads the way offensively for CSUP as the senior infielder from Castle Rock, Colorado is hitting .385 with one double and one triple for 13 total bases and a slugging percentage of .500 to go along with seven walks and seven strikeouts for an on-base clip of .543. Zach Pratt has gone 0-1 on the mound for the ThunderWolves with a 4.80 ERA as the junior from Belton, Missouri has allowed 14 runs (eight earned) on 14 hits with seven walks and 15 strikeouts in his 15.0 innings of work.

CSUP HEAD COACH BOBBY APPLEGATE

Bobby Applegate is in his second season at the helm of the CSU-Pueblo baseball program. A graduate of CSUP and a member of the 1994 team that resurrected the baseball program, Applegate brings nearly 25 years of coaching experience at the NCAA Division I level to the ThunderWolves. Applegate had spent the last seven seasons as an assistant coach at the United States Naval Academy.

SERIES HISTORY

Saturday afternoon marks the 22nd all-time meeting on the diamond between the Buffs and ThunderWolves, CSUP holds the 12-9 advantage in the series that dates back to 1996. The Buffs are 5-6 all-time in Pueblo.

WT HEAD COACH MATT VANDERBURG

Matt Vanderburg has built West Texas A&M Baseball into a regional and national contender as the Norman, Oklahoma native enters his 15th season at the helm of the Buffs. He holds an overall record of 456-252 (.645) during his time in Canyon while registering a career record of 555-323 (.632) in his 18 seasons in collegiate baseball.

THE COACHING STAFF

Cory Hall is now in his 13th year at West Texas A&M as the Buffs' Pitching Coach, serving the last seven as the program's Associate Head Coach. Hall has had four different pitchers drafted in the Major League Baseball Draft during his time in Canyon with multiple other professional players learning under one of the top pitching minds in collegiate baseball. Assistant Coach Shawn Neale was named WT's Recruiting Coordinator in 2022 as the Toronto native returns for his seventh season in Canyon.

2023 LSC PRESEASON POLL

Defending South Central Regional Champion Angelo State picked up 23 of the possible 32 first place votes to sit atop of the poll with 407 points followed by WT (eight first place, 388), Texas A&M-Kingsville (one first place, 315), Lubbock Christian (298), St. Edward's (296), UT Tyler (291), Oklahoma Christian (206), St. Mary's (203), Texas A&M International (160), UAFS (131), Eastern New Mexico (88), Cameron (82) and UT Permian Basin (47).

Adam Becker from West Texas A&M claimed Preseason Player of the Year accolades while Wesley Gafford from St. Edward's was named the league's Preseason Pitcher of the Year.

Becker made an immediate impact on the diamond for the Buffs as the Lone Star Conference Player of the Year finished his junior campaign hitting .402 with 22 doubles, two triples and 22 homeruns to drive in an incredible 92 RBI for a slugging percentage of .803 to go along with 27 walks for an on-base clip of .462. Becker was named First Team All-South Central Region by the D2CCA, NCBWA and ABCA/Rawlings.

NCBWA PRESEASON ALL-SOUTH CENTRAL REGION

Adam Becker, Ryan Johnson, Eddy Savoie and Nick Marshall were named to the squad while Will Fuenning was selected for the Honorable Mention Team. The Buffs were selected third in the preseason regional poll. The poll and all-region team was voted on by a committee of eight voters with four representing each conference (Lone Star and RMAC).

THIS IS LSC BASEBALL

The LSC Championship will feature a two-week tournament comprised of the top eight teams with the opening round at on-campus sites May 5-7. The winners of each opening round series will advance to a double-elimination tournament played May 11-13. The winner of the postseason tournament will be recognized as the LSC Tournament Champion and receive the conference's automatic qualifier to the NCAA postseason.

LSC DIGITAL NETWORK

The LSC Digital Network is in its fourth season showcasing the academic and athletic events of the league and its 18 member institutions. Volleyball, men's and women's soccer, men's and women's basketball, baseball and softball broadcasts will be available via conference-wide pay-per-view passes.

The LSC Digital Network will offer season passes for football, volleyball, soccer, basketball, baseball and softball, giving fans access to all regular-season contests for that sport. In addition, viewers will continue to have the option to purchase a $10 day pass that provides access to all broadcasts aired that day and access to all archived content for 24 hours.

HEAD COACH

Matt Vanderburg

15th Season at West Texas A&M | 17th Season Overall
Northwestern Oklahoma State '03 | Health & Physical Education

PATH TO WEST TEXAS A&M

ASSISTANT COACH	HEAD COACH	HEAD COACH

Matt Vanderburg has built West Texas A&M Baseball into a regional and national contender as the Norman, Oklahoma native enters his 15th season at the helm of the Buffs. He holds an overall record of 448-247 (.645) during his time in Canyon while registering a career record of 547-318 (.632) in his 18 seasons in collegiate baseball.

2022 saw the Buffaloes advance to their eighth straight NCAA Division II Postseason, finishing the campaign with an overall record of 39-19. WT registered one of the best offensive performances in program history as they hit .333 as a team with 137 doubles, 13 triples and a school-record 75 homeruns.

The 2021 campaign saw the Buffaloes claim their third Lone Star Conference Championship with a 28-4 mark in league action as they advanced to a seventh straight NCAA Tournament, making an appearance in the program's first ever Regional Finals with an overall record of 34-9.

2020 saw the Buffaloes start the season ranked 15th nationally as they held a 17-6 overall mark on March 12th when the remainder of the campaign was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Buffs finished their 2019 campaign with an overall record of 41-12 to set a new program record for victories in a single season, WT claimed their third Lone Star Conference Tournament Title in four years while making an appearance in the NCAA Division II Baseball Postseason for the sixth straight season.

2018 saw the Buffs cap-off arguably the best season in program history with hosting duties for the NCAA South Central Regionals at Wilder Park. The Buffs reached the 40-win plateau for the first time in WT history, finishing the season 40-14 as they claimed their second LSC Title.

Vanderburg and his staff were named the LSC Coaching Staff of the Year while Luis Amaro earned LSC Player of the Year accolades. Vanderburg was also named the NCBWA South Central Region Coach of the Year for the first time in his career.

In 2017, Vanderburg guided WT to its second-straight Lone Star Conference Tournament Title with a 3-0 record and a pair of wins over top-seeded Angelo State in San Angelo. WT went 36-18 overall and 13-9 in Lone Star Conference play while and earned the LSC's automatic berth in the program's fourth-straight NCAA South Central Regional.

In 2016, the Buffs finished 36-20 and won their first Lone Star Conference Tournament title earning the LSC's automatic berth in the NCAA South Central Regional.

In 2015, the Buffs went a school-best 23-12 in Lone Star Conference play and saw closer Paul Lujan earn multiple All-America honors as he was a NCBWA First Team All-American and Daktronics Honorable Mention.

In 2014, he guided the Buffs to a school-record 37-21 record and a berth in the program's first NCAA South Central Regional. WT was 21-14 in Lone Star Conference play in 2014, earning the No. 2-seed in the LSC Championship and finished as the conference tournament runner-up which was first for the program.

The 2013 season saw the Buffs narrowly miss the NCAA tournament with a 30-21 record and a 15-13 mark in conference play. The Buffs finished 18th nationally in batting average at .330 and were 21st in fielding percentage at .969. It was the second 30-win season for the Buffs under Vanderburg.

In 2012, Vanderburg led the Buffs to a 29-19 record and a fourth-place finish in the Lone Star Conference. WT had the conference's leading hitter in Justin Henderson who earned numerous postseason accolades as he was a first team all-conference selection and all-region.

Vanderburg's third season saw the Buffs go 30-19 which is the fourth-best record in school history and 17-16 in conference play.

In his second season, the Buffs record a 23-20 overall mark with a seventh place finish in the Lone Star Conference. The Buffs hit .353 as a team with 85 doubles, 22 triples, 39 homers and 327 RBI for a slugging percentage of .522 with 56 stolen bases on 66 attempts.

During his first season at WT in 2009, Vanderburg led the Buffs to a 20-33 overall record with a 13-29 mark in the difficult Lone Star Conference. The Buffs won the first four games of the season which ranks as the best start to as season in program history to that point.

Vanderburg was introduced as just the fourth head coach of the Buffalo Baseball program on May 9, 2008.

During his collegiate career at Northwestern Oklahoma State, Vanderburg was a four-time All-Conference performer and helped to bring Northwestern to the national spotlight. While at NWOSU, the Rangers climbed as high as seventh in the national polls in addition to setting a new school record for wins in a season with 49.

A native of Norman, Oklahoma, Vanderburg holds his Bachelor's of Science in health and physical education from Northwestern Oklahoma State and a Master's degree in health and physical education from Emporia State. He and his wife Kathryn are the parents of one daughter, Macy.

ASSOCIATE HEAD COACH

Cory Hall

13th Season at West Texas A&M
Northwestern Oklahoma State '00 | Physical Education/Teaching

Cory Hall enters his 13th year at West Texas A&M as the Buffs' Pitching Coach, serving the last seven as the program's Associate Head Coach. Hall has had four different pitchers drafted in the Major League Baseball Draft during his time in Canyon with multiple other professional players learning under one of the top pitching minds in collegiate baseball.

2022 saw the Buffaloes advance to their eighth straight NCAA Division II Postseason, finishing the campaign with an overall record of 39-19. WT registered a Lone Star Conference-high 12 saves during the season as they finished with a 5.85 ERA, allowing 346 runs (299 earned) on 534 hits with 236 walks and 500 strikeouts during their 459.2 innings of work with an opposing batting average of .288. Friday night starter Nick Marshall picked up All-South Central Region and All-Lone Star Conference honors as the sophomore went 11-4 overall with a 4.69 ERA and 81 strikeouts.

The 2021 campaign saw the Buffaloes claim their third Lone Star Conference Championship with a 28-4 mark in league action as they advanced to a seventh straight NCAA Tournament, making an appearance in the program's first ever Regional Finals with an overall record of 34-9. 12 different Buffs picked-up All-LSC honors while Keone Givens, Mathieu Gauthier, Todd Danzeisen, Kennedy Badgett, Carter Brown and Cade Engle were named All-Region, Givens and Gauthier were also tabbed Honorable Mention NCBWA All-Americans for their efforts on the diamond.

The Buffs finished their 2019 campaign 41-12 to set a new program record for victories in a single season, WT claimed their third LSC Tournament Title while making an appearance in the NCAA Tournament for the sixth straight season.

Joe Corbett was named the Division II National Pitcher of the Year by the D2CCA and NCBWA as he became the fourth highest draft pick in LSC history when he was taken in the 10th Round (295th Overall) by the Texas Rangers.

The Buffs finished the season with 566 strikeouts to set a new single-season Lone Star Conference record.

In 2017, Hall helped guide the Buffs to a 36-20 record overall and the program's third-straight trip to the NCAA South Central Regional Tournament and their second-straight Lone Star Conference Tournament Title.

Marshall Kasowski was named LSC Pitcher of the Year, South Central Region Pitcher of the Year and earned multiple All-America honors. Kasowski became the then highest Buff ever drafted at 400th overall by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the 13th Round while Joshua Payne was drafted in the 22nd Round by the New York Mets.

During his first year back on staff at WT in 2016 following two-years away from baseball, Hall and the Buffs won their first LSC Tournament Championship.

Hall helped guide senior Austin Moore to a First Team All-Conference accolade and a two-time All-Region pitching selection and Moore was drafted in the 26th Round of the June draft by the Colorado Rockies.

Hall has been instrumental in the building of the Buffalo baseball program under Vanderburg throughout both of his stints with the Buffs as he continually has helped improve the pitching staff each year.

In his first stint, he worked with the likes of Dylan James who had an outstanding career for the Buffs earning multiple All-America accolades and had a stint with the Houston Astros organization. James was inducted into the West Texas A&M Hall of Champions in January of 2020.

Prior to being hired at WT, Hall served as head coach at New Mexico Junior College in 2008 as he led the ThunderBirds to a WJCAC Conference Championship with an overall record of 45-10. The team ranked in the top five nationally and a 3.43 ERA. as Hall earned WJCAC Coach of the Year and had three players drafted.

Hall also was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at NMJC and finished as national runner-up at the 2007 Junior College World Series. Overall, he had 11 pitchers drafted during his time at NMJC.

Prior to NMJC, both Hall and Vanderburg were on staff together at Clarendon College. During the 2002 and 2003 seasons, Hall served as pitching coach and recruiting coordinator and was elevated to head coach for the 2004 and 2005 seasons.

In his first year as head coach, his club finished 43-13 to record the most wins in school history while claiming a Division Championship.

During his two seasons as head coach, Hall had 21 players sign to play at the university level, eight at Division I. He had eight players drafted or sign professional contracts during that time.

Prior to Clarendon, Hall began coaching at his alma mater Northwestern Oklahoma State. While at NWOSU, he served as pitching coach for three seasons (1999-2001) and played a vital role in turning around a program that had not had a winning season in several years.

During that time, the team complied three winning seasons with a combined record of 104-53. In his third season, the team finished with a 49-12 record and was ranked as high as seventh nationally, breaking the school-record for wins in a season and qualifying for the regional tournament for the first time in program history.

ASSISTANT COACH	ASSISTANT COACH	ASSISTANT COACH

Shawn Neale enters his seventh season as an Assistant Baseball Coach at West Texas A&M as he was named the program's Recruiting Coordinator in the Summer of 2021. He is heavily involved in recruiting efforts along with hitter and catcher development while also implementing skill camps and youth tournaments throughout the year.

2022 saw the Buffaloes register one of the best offensive performances in program history as they hit .333 as a team with 137 doubles, 13 triples and a school-record 75 homeruns to drive in 465 RBI with a slugging percentage of .532. Third baseman Adam Becker became the Lone Star Conference Player of the Year with 22 doubles and 22 long balls to drive in 92 RBI, claiming All-American honors along with teammate Ryan Johnson. The Buffs advanced to their eighth straight NCAA Division II Postseason, finishing with an overall mark of 39-19.

The 2021 campaign saw the Buffaloes claim their third Lone Star Conference Championship with a 28-4 mark in league action as they advanced to a seventh straight NCAA Tournament, making an appearance in the program's first ever Regional Finals with an overall record of 34-9.

2020 saw the Buffaloes start the season ranked 15th nationally as they held a 17-6 overall mark on March 12th when the remainder of the campaign was canceled due to the COVID-19 pandemic.

The Buffs finished their 2019 campaign with an overall record of 41-12 to set a new program record for victories in a single season, WT claimed their third LSC Tournament Title in the last four years while making an appearance in the NCAA Division II Baseball Postseason for the sixth straight season.

2018 saw the Buffs cap-off arguably the best season in program history with hosting duties for the NCAA South Central Regional Tournament at Wilder Park in Canyon. The Buffs reached the 40-win plateau for the first time in program history, finishing the season with a mark of 40-14 as they claimed their second LSC Title.

WT was named the Lone Star Conference Coaching Staff of the Year while senior first baseman Luis Amaro became the third Buff in history to pick-up LSC Player of the Year accolades. At the plate, the Buffs finished the season hitting .318 as a team with 127 doubles, 23 triples and 47 homeruns to drive in 388 RBI.

In 2017, he helped guide the Buffs to their fourth-straight NCAA South Central Regional appearance and second-straight Lone Star Conference Tournament Title with a 36-18 record overall.

Neale helped with the offense as the Buffs finished tenth nationally in doubles (124) and seventh in doubles per game at 2.30 both leading the LSC. The Buffs also led the LSC in fielding percentage at a .970 percentage to rank 19th nationally.

Neale came to WT from NOC-Tonkawa where he has served as an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator for three seasons. In 2016, the Mavericks set a school-record for wins going 43-19 and were ranked as high as seventh nationally in the NJCAA poll. Neale helped guide NOC-T to a NJCAA Region 2 Runner-Up finish, while having two draftees in Ariel Burgos-Garcia and Walker Whitworth.
