LAST MEETING WITH KANSAS STATE

(Oct. 30, 2019) MANHATTAN, Kan. – The Washburn Ichabod men's basketball team opened the 2019-20 season with their only exhibition game falling in a hard-fought 10-point loss to the Big 12 defending champion Kansas State Wildcats in a 66-56 loss. The Ichabods scored the first points of the game on a 3-pointer by Keven Biggs jumping out to an early lead and would continue to lead for much of the first half as the Wildcats only built their biggest lead of five with 28 seconds to go in the first half after a dunk by Montavious Murphy, but as he opened the game, Biggs connected on a 3-pointer to send the teams to the locker room with a 32-30 lead.

The second half saw the Wildcats push out to a 50-42 lead over the first 10 minutes of the frame and to 13 at 58-45 with 6:22 to go before Washburn trimmed the lead back to eight with 51 seconds to go but would not get any closer in the loss.

Biggs led the Ichabods with a game-high 17 points and Jalen Lewis scored 13 and Tyler Geiman scored 12. Biggs also had seven steals and Jonny Clausing had a team-high seven rebounds.

K-State was led by Makol Mawien had 16 points and nine rebounds.

Washburn attempted 45 3-pointers in the game which would have snapped the Ichabod single game record of 37 which they have done three times had not been an exhibition game. Washburn finished 20 of 68 from the field (29 percent) and hit 14 3-pointers. The Wildcats had a 50 to 30 advantage on the glass. The Ichabod forced 21 Wildcat turnovers leading to 23 points.

LAST TIME OUT FOR THE ICHABODS

(March 13, 2022) SIOUX FALLS, S.D. – The Washburn Ichabod basketball season came to end in the NCAA Central Regional semifinals with a 70-55 loss to Northwest Missouri in their fourth meeting of the season. Washburn finishes the season 22-11.

Offensively the Ichabods were limited in the first half as they were held to 9 of 28 shooting with six of their nine field goals coming from 3-point range. The Bearcats took the 41-27 lead into the break after hitting 12 of 22 shots overall going 7 of 10 from the 3-point range and hitting 10 of 11 free throws. Washburn trailed by as many as 21 in the opening half before cutting the margin to 14 before the half.

In the second half, the Ichabods trimmed the lead down to four at 46-42 with 10:06 to play on a layup by Jalen Lewis capping an 9-1 Ichabod run with a traditional 3-point play. However on the Bearcats (30-5) next possession, Luke Walters connected on a 3-pointer pushing the difference to seven, but a Jonny Clausing layup cut the lead to five at 49-45 with 7:21 to go.

The Bearcats then would connect on a 3-pointer and an Ichabod foul on the attempt away from the shot gave Northwest Missouri two more free throws doubling the Ichabod deficit. Washburn again came back to hit a pair of jumpers and cut the lead to six on a layup by Michael Keegan at 54-48 but the Ichabods did not get any closer.

Keegan led the Ichabods with 16 points on 6 of 8 shooting hitting 1 of 2 3-point attempts. Lewis had 14 points and Clausing finished with 10 points adding a team-high six rebounds. Tyler Geiman dished out nine assists.

Washburn men's basketball head coach Brett Ballard enters his sixth season on the Ichabod bench after guiding Washburn to NCAA postseason tournament appearances in three of his first four seasons on the bench compiling a 104-49 mark overall going 45-15 in MIAA play.

In five seasons, the Ichabods have finished third, second, fifth, second and fourth in the MIAA standings reaching the MIAA Tournament Championship game in four of the last five seasons winning the 2021 MIAA Tournament championship. Ballard's 104 wins is the most recorded by an Ichabod coach in program history after their first five seasons on the Washburn bench.

In five seasons, Ballard has coached 14 all-MIAA performers, had three players receive eight different all-region awards, two MIAA Defensive Player of the Year selections, an MIAA Freshman of the Year, and four all-MIAA Defensive team picks as well as two Ichabods (Brady Skeens and Tyler Geiman) who have received three different All-American awards.

During a COVID-19-shortened 2020-21 season, in addition to leading the Ichabods to the conference tournament championship, the Ichabods reached the second round of the NCAA Central Regional.

In his second season at Washburn, Ballard helped guide the Ichabods to a second-straight NCAA appearance coaching Javion Blake, a first team all-MIAA selection and a two-time all-region selection as well as David Salach and Tyler Geiman who were both named honorable mention all-MIAA. Salach was also an all-MIAA Defensive team selection.

In year one, Ballard mentored Brady Skeens who wrapped up his Ichabod career with two All-American honors, a three-time MIAA Defensive Player of the Year honoree first team all-MIAA honors as well as All-Defensive team honors and Javion Blake who was an honorable mention all-MIAA selection. Both were also named to the MIAA All-Tournament team.

In the classroom, Ballard has coached a Third Team CoSIDA Academic All-American, a First Team CoSIDA Academic All-District, an MIAA Scholar Athlete and 27 MIAA Academic Honor Roll selections.

Ballard was named the Washburn Ichabod men's basketball head coach on April 6, 2017 after spending the 2014-15 to 2016-17 seasons as an assistant coach with the Wake Forest basketball program after working under head coach Danny Manning for the last five combined seasons overall including two seasons at the University of Tulsa.

After the 2016-17 season, Ballard helped Wake Forest to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2009-10 season. Prior to joining the staff at Wake Forest, Ballard was instrumental to the Golden Hurricane winning the 2013-14 Conference USA regular season and tournament championships--the program's first league title since 2003.

Tulsa went 38-29 overall and 21-11 in C-USA play during Ballard's two seasons on staff. The Golden Hurricane played in the postseason both years, including earning a No. 13 seed in the 2014 NCAA Tournament. Tulsa also participated in the 2013 CBI, finishing that season with a winning record of 17-16 overall.

The Golden Hurricane went 21-13 overall and 13-3 in C-USA in 2013-14, earning a share of the 2013-14 regular season title, its first since winning the WAC in 2002. Tulsa captured the C-USA tournament title over Louisiana Tech, securing its first NCAA Tournament berth in 11 seasons. Tulsa earned a No. 13 seed in the NCAA Tournament and fell 76-59 to No. 4 seed UCLA in the second round.

2022-23 Opponents In Bold

Before joining Manning at Tulsa, Ballard spent two seasons as the head basketball coach at Baker University.

In two seasons at Baker, Ballard went 33-30 overall, including a 21-12 mark in his final season at the helm in 2011-12. The Wildcats advanced to the school's first Heart of America Athletic Conference championship game in 15 years in 2012 and capped that with an NAIA national tournament berth, the program's first since 1996.

Prior to taking over the head coaching position at Baker, Ballard spent seven years on Bill Self's staff at the University of Kansas, his alma mater. He was the director of basketball operations for his final two seasons on staff, and prior to that, he served as the administrative assistant/video coordinator for four years and a volunteer student assistant for one year.

Ballard oversaw the academic progress of the Jayhawks, worked closely with the off-season strength and conditioning program and assisted with on-campus recruiting, team travel and team video. Ballard was also the camp director for the Bill Self Basketball Camps. Ballard organized and directed over 2,500 campers and also coordinated and directed the Coaches Clinic, the Winter Clinic and the Wilt Chamberlain Special Olympics Clinic while at KU.

Kansas basketball was highly successful during Ballard's time on the Jayhawks staff. Kansas won the 2008 national championship, advanced to three NCAA Tournament Elite Eights, won or tied for the Big 12 regular season championship four times and claimed three conference tournaments. During his coaching career, Ballard has worked with 35 student-athletes who have gone on to play professional basketball.

Ballard played two years for the Jayhawks under head coach Roy Williams from 2000-02 after transferring from Hutchinson Community College in his hometown of Hutchinson, Kan. Ballard, a guard, played in 56 career games, scoring 59 points and dishing out 32 assists. KU went a combined 59-11 (.843) in his two seasons as a Jayhawk, including a 2001 NCAA Sweet Sixteen appearance and a berth in the 2002 NCAA Final Four in Atlanta.

Ballard earned his bachelor's degree in secondary education from Kansas in 2003. He was named an Academic All-Big 12 selection as a senior for his efforts in the classroom.

Ballard and his wife, Kelly, have three children -- sons Kaden and Brooks and daughter Breagan.
