Washburn men's basketball head coach Brett Ballard enters his fifth season on the Ichabod bench after guiding Washburn to NCAA postseason tournament appearances in three of his first four seasons on the bench compiling a 103-48 mark overall going 45-15 in MIAA play.

In four seasons, the Ichabods have finished third, second, fifth and second the MIAA standings reaching the MIAA Tournament Championship game in three of the four seasons winning the 2021 MIAA Tournament championship. Ballard's 82 wins is the most recorded by an Ichabod coach in program history after their first four seasons on the Washburn bench.

In four seasons, Ballard has coached 11 all-MIAA performers, had three players receive six different all-region awards, two MIAA Defensive Player of the Year selections and four all-MIAA Defensive team picks as well as two Ichabods (Brady Skeens and Tyler Geiman) who have received three different All-American awards.

During a COVID-19-shortened 2020-21 season, in addition to leading the Ichabods to the conference tournament championship, the Ichabods reached the second round of the NCAA Central Regional.

In his second season at Washburn, Ballard helped guide the Ichabods to a second-straight NCAA appearance coaching Javion Blake, a first team all-MIAA selection and a two-time all-region selection as well as David Salach and Tyler Geiman who were both named honorable mention all-MIAA. Salach was also an all-MIAA Defensive team selection.

In year one, Ballard mentored Brady Skeens who wrapped up his Ichabod career with two All-American honors, a three-time MIAA Defensive Player of the Year honoree first team all-MIAA honors as well as All-Defensive team honors and Javion Blake who was an honorable mention all-MIAA selection. Both were also named to the MIAA All-Tournament team. In the classroom, Ballard has coached a Third Team CoSIDA Academic All-American, a First Team CoSIDA Academic All-District, an MIAA Scholar Athlete and 18 MIAA Academic Honor Roll selections.

Ballard was named the Washburn Ichabod men's basketball head coach on April 6, 2017 after spending the 2014-15 to 2016-17 seasons as an assistant coach with the Wake Forest basketball program after working under head coach Danny Manning for the last five combined seasons overall including two seasons at the University of Tulsa.

After the 2016-17 season, Ballard helped Wake Forest to its first NCAA Tournament appearance since the 2009-10 season. Prior to joining the staff at Wake Forest, Ballard was instrumental to the Golden Hurricane winning the 2013-14 Conference USA regular season and tournament championships--the program's first league title since 2003.

Tulsa went 38-29 overall and 21-11 in C-USA play during Ballard's two seasons on staff. The Golden Hurricane played in the postseason both years, including earning a No. 13 seed in the 2014 NCAA Tournament. Tulsa also participated in the 2013 CBI, finishing that season with a winning record of 17-16 overall.

The Golden Hurricane went 21-13 overall and 13-3 in C-USA in 2013-14, earning a share of the 2013-14 regular season title, its first since winning the WAC in 2002. Tulsa captured the C-USA tournament title over Louisiana Tech, securing its first NCAA Tournament berth in 11 seasons. Tulsa earned a No. 13 seed in the NCAA Tournament and fell 76-59 to No. 4 seed UCLA in the second round.

Before joining Manning at Tulsa, Ballard spent two seasons as the head basketball coach at Baker University.

In two seasons at Baker, Ballard went 33-30 overall, including a 21-12 mark in his final season at the helm in 2011-12. The Wildcats advanced to the school's first Heart of America Athletic Conference championship game in 15 years in 2012 and capped that with an NAIA national tournament berth, the program's first since 1996.

Prior to taking over the head coaching position at Baker,
