BY THE NUMBERS

14 Sophomore Brandon White is one of three Mountaineers to have reached base in every game they have played in this year. White leads the team with a 14-game reached-base streak, which includes the last three games of the 2017 season. Additionally, Andrew Zitel has reached base in 11 consecutive games, while Brandon White has reached in 10 games in a row.

The Mountaineers have hit 21 home runs this season, the most in the Big 12 and No. 14 nationally. Kevin Brophy leads the way with six homers, and his average of 0.50 home runs per game ranks No. 5 nationally.

1.091 Marques Inman had five hits last weekend, all for extra bases, en route to a 1.091 slugging percentage, the second-best in the Big 12. He had led the conference with four doubles last week and added his first home run of the year. On Saturday, he had a career-high-tying three RBIs.

Roadtrip Concludes at Tennessee Tech

Winners of five of its last six, the West Virginia University baseball team travels to Tennessee Tech for its first mid-week games of the season, on March 13 and 14, in Cookeville, Tennessee. First pitch on Tuesday, March 13, is set for 7 p.m. ET/6 p.m. CT, while the series at Bush Stadium concludes on Wednesday at 2 p.m. ET/1 p.m. CT.

The Mountaineers (7-6) have won back-to-back weekend series after a 2-1 weekend at Middle Tennessee. WVU has scored at least seven runs in each of its last six games, and has hit one or more home runs in nine consecutive contests. This week's games are the final two of a season-opening 15-game roadtrip.

The Golden Eagles (9-5) are WVU's first of nine opponents in 2018 that is coming off an NCAA Tournament appearance in 2017. West Virginia and Tennessee Tech will be meeting for the first time this week.

Sophomore right-hander Isaiah Kearns (0-0, 5.79 ERA) will make his second start of the season Tuesday for the Mountaineers, and he will face Golden Eagle junior lefty Alex Hursey (1-2, 10.00). On Wednesday, sophomore lefty Nic Dye will go for the Tennessee Tech, while West Virginia's starter has not been determined.

Following Along

Tennessee Tech will have live video and stats for both games this weekend at Bush Stadium. Links for each game can be found on the baseball schedule page on WVUsports.com. Additional behind-the-scenes updates, news and notes from Cookeville, Tennessee, can be found on social media by following and connecting with the team on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram at @WVUBaseball.

On Deck: Home Opener

West Virginia hosts its home-opening series this weekend, from March 16-18, vs. Canisius. The home opener is set for Friday, March 16, at 3 p.m. ET, while Saturday's contest will begin at 2 p.m. First pitch on Sunday is at 1 p.m. Tickets are available for all three games this weekend, at WVUGAME.com, by calling 1-800-WVU GAME or at the Mountaineer Ticket Office at the WVU Coliseum or on gameday at Monongalia County Ballpark. Friday is a Dollar Day, with tickets and select concessions available for just $1, and fans can play Baseball Bingo. Saturday will feature $5 tickets on game day and a flash sale, where fans can purchase tickets to any game this season for just $5 by using the promo code LUCKY on WVUGAME.com/Promo.

Quick Hits: Key Team Notes

- The 2018 season marks the 126th year of baseball at West Virginia. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time record of 2,138-1,534-19. The Mountaineers are the second-oldest program in the Big 12.
- Coach Randy Mazey is in his sixth season at the helm and owns a 167-133 record in Morgantown. He is the fifth coach in team history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons. Mazey is 354-293-2 in his career.
- Kevin Brophy was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Feb. 26, following a three-home run, eight-RBI performance on Feb. 24. He is the third player in team history to hit at least three home runs and drive in eight or more runs in a single game, and his home run total included his first career grand slam.
- Braden Zarbnisky was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on March 5, after going 5-for-5 and driving in the game-winning run while earning the win on the mound in WVU's 11-9, 10-inning win at Western Kentucky on March 3.
- Twenty-four players return from last year's team, including nine of a program-record 12 that earned All-Big 12 Team honors in 2017: senior BJ Myers, juniors Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray, Michael Grove, Darius Hill and Braden Zarbnisky and sophomores Sam Kessler, Alek Manoah and Brandon White.
- Twelve newcomers join the squad in 2017-18, including two SEC transfers and three junior college transfers.
- West Virginia was ranked No. 22 in the D1 Baseball Preseason Top 25. WVU is ranked in the preseason for the first time since the 1960s, and the Mountaineers also were No. 27 in the NCBWA Preseason Poll and received votes in three other preseason polls.
- WVU was picked to finish fifth in the Big 12 Preseason Coaches' Poll for the second consecutive year. West Virginia has finished fourth in the final standings in back-to-back seasons.
- WVU's 2018 schedule features 23 home games and 21 games against teams that made the NCAA Tournament in 2017. The 54-game regular-season also includes 30 contests on the road and one at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.
- Zarbnisky earned Preseason All-America First Team honors by the NCBWA and was named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List.
- Last year, Zarbnisky was named a NCBWA Third Team All-American, the NCBWA District II Player of the Year, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree as a sophomore.
- Kyle Davis was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 15th round of the 2017 MLB Draft and Jackson Cramer was picked in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals, becoming the 85th and 86th draft selections in team history. WVU has had 16 picks in Randy Mazey's five seasons, the most in a five-year stretch in team history. Additionally, Jackson Sigman signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Royals organization.

Last Time Out: Series Win at Middle

Last weekend, West Virginia won its second consecutive weekend series, going 2-1 at Middle Tennessee. The Mountaineers erased a 6-0 first-inning deficit, but ultimately lost the series opener, 8-7. WVU evened the series with an 8-4 win the next day, scoring two runs in the second inning and another five in the fifth behind a pair of home runs. The bats stayed hot on Sunday to secure the series win, 10-4, as West Virginia scored runs in five consecutive innings, going on a 9-0 run to break the game open.

- In the opener on March 9, WVU trailed 6-0 after one, but chipped away with four runs on no hits in the fourth and one run in each of the next three innings to tie the game at 7-7. However, the Blue Raiders scored one unearned run in the eighth to regain the lead. WVU put runners on the corners with two outs in the ninth, but could not tie the game again. The 8-7 loss snapped West Virginia's three-game winning streak.
- WVU evened the series on Saturday, shutting out MTSU for seven innings as the offense scored two in the second and five in the fifth. The 8-4 win was fueled by home runs from Jimmy Galusky and Marques Inman, and Christian Young earned the win with 4.0 shutout innings in relief. Galusky and Inman both had three RBIs, while Galusky had three hits.
- The bats stayed hot in the final game to win the series, as all but one starter had at least one hit, six had one or more RBI and six scored at least one run. WVU trailed 4-1 in the second, but stormed back to score the next nine runs. Kyle Gray had three hits and two RBIs, while Connor Hamilton made his first career start and had two hits and three RBIs, his first hits and RBIs as a Mountaineer. Kade Strowd struck out a career-best 11 batters and improved to 2-1 on the mound in the 10-4 victory.

Zarbnisky Earns WVU Weekly Honor

- Zarbnisky had a career-high five hits, drove in the game-winning run in the 10th inning and earned the win on the mound in Saturday's 11-9 victory as part of an impressive weekend. He went 5-for-5 at the plate, the most hits by a Big 12 player in a game this season, and drove in the game-winning run in the 10th inning on a single before heads-up base running put him on second on the throw home and third on the throwing error. He later scored the team's 11th run, his third run scored of the day.
- On the mound, Zarbnisky pitched the ninth and 10th innings to earn his first win of the season. In three games this weekend, Zarbnisky was second in the Big 12 with a .571 batting average and a .600 on-base percentage, tied for sixth with eight hits, including at least one in every game, and had a double and a triple while going 2-for-2 on the basepaths and not committing an error in the field.

Brophy Named Big 12 Player of the Week

Following a three-home run, eight-RBI performance on Feb. 24, sophomore first baseman Kevin Brophy was named the Big 12 Player of the Week.

- Brophy hit three home runs, tied for second-most in a single game in team history, with eight RBIs, tied for fifth-most in the Mountaineer record books and two shy of the record, in WVU's 10-8 win over Illinois. He is the third WVU player to hit at least three home runs and drive in eight or more runs in a single game.
- Along with his first career grand slam in the seventh inning to break a 6-6 tie, Brophy hit a three-run home run in the first inning and a solo homer in the sixth.
- The three home runs and eight RBIs are the most by a Mountaineer since Grant Buckner had three homers and a program-record 10 RBIs on May 8, 2010. Brophy is one of six Mountaineers all-time to hit three or more home runs in a game and one of six to have eight or more RBIs.
- In WVU's second game of the day, vs. VCU that night, Brophy hit his fourth home run of the day. In WVU's four games in Conway, South Carolina, he hit .375 with a 1.125 on-base percentage and 18 total bases. A Randolph, New Jersey, native, Brophy extended his hitting streak to a team-long and career-best five games.

Zarbnisky Earns Preseason Honor

Braden Zarbnisky was named to the Preseason All-America First Team by the NCBWA as the team's utility player. He also was recognized on the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List.

- Zarbnisky is the seventh Mountaineer in program history to earn preseason All-American accolades and the third since coach Randy Mazey took the helm in 2013. Zarbnisky joins Matt Schubert (1992) as the only Mountaineer to be recognized on the first team.
- He is the lone Big 12 player named to the first team and one of four who were named to one of the three NCBWA teams.
- As a sophomore, Zarbnisky was named to the NCBWA All-America Third Team, the NCBWA District II Player of the Year and was a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist. He also added All-Big 12 First Team and Big 12 All-Tournament Team honors.
- One of the nation's best two-way players, Zarbnisky played in 52 games, with 17 games where he pitched and played in the field or was the designated hitter.
- At the plate, Zarbnisky led the team with a .336 batting and a .417 on-base percentage and finished second with 12 stolen bases in 12 attempts. He had 42 hits with 12 RBIs, 17 walks and 32 runs scored.
- On the mound, Zarbnisky led the team in both wins and saves, with six apiece, earning a 6-2 record with a 2.75 ERA, second-best amongst pitchers with at least 3.0 innings pitched. In 39.1 innings pitched, he struck out 46, fourth-most on the team, and allowed 12 earned runs on 35 hits.

The Mountaineers rank among the NCAA and Big 12 leaders in several statistical categories. WVU leads the Big 12 and is 14th in the NCAA with 21 home runs, while its .492 slugging percentage and is second in the Big 12 and 19th nationally. Additionally, West Virginia's 10 sacrifice bunts are third in the Big 12.

Individually, Kevin Brophy is No. 5 nationally averaging 0.50 home runs per game, while Kyle Gray is third in the Big 12 and No. 17 in the NCAA with a 0.42 average. Darius Hill's 0.54 doubles per game are 19th nationally and first in the Big 12, and Andrew Zitel sits in first in the conference with 0.27 sacrifice bunts per game. Additionally, Alek Manoah and BJ Myers both have made four starts, which is tied for sixth in the NCAA.

Scouting Tennessee Tech

Tennessee Tech owns a 9-5 record with a 7-3 mark at home. The Golden Eagles are coming off a home series win over UT Martin to begin Ohio Valley Conference play. TTU swept a doubleheader on Friday, 13-11 and 12-5, before a 4-3 loss on Saturday.

Alex Junior leads the team with a .417 batting average, while he is second with 25 hits. Trevor Putzig has a team-best 23 RBIs, while John Ham paces the squad with seven home runs.

On the mound, Marcus Evey has a team-leading 28 strikeouts in 13.1 innings pitched, while Ethan Roberts has a team-best 3.09 ERA amongst pitchers with at least 10.0 innings pitched.

The Golden Eagles are coached by Matt Bragga, in his 15th season in Cookeville. A three-time Ohio Valley Conference Coach of the Year, he has won five OVC titles in the past nine years. Bragga is 402-385-2 at TTU and 527-479-2 in his 19-year career.

Series History vs. the Golden Eagles

West Virginia and Tennessee Tech meet for the first time this week.

WVU is 20-8 all-time against current members of the Ohio Valley Conference. A year ago, the Mountaineers beat Morehead State, 5-1, at Monongalia County Ballpark.

WVU Fifth in Big 12 Preseason Poll

- West Virginia was voted to finish fifth in the 2017 Big 12 Conference baseball preseason coaches' poll for the second consecutive year.
- The preseason ranking is tied for WVU's highest since joining the conference in 2013. WVU has finished in the top four in the final Big 12 standings in back-to-back seasons and in three of its first five years in the league.
- Just four points separate third, fourth and fifth place in the poll. Ahead of WVU's 38 points is Texas, with 42 points, and Oklahoma, with 40 points.

Mazey is WVU's Newest Mr. 100

Coach Randy Mazey is in his sixth season at WVU and owns a 167-133 record.

- After leading WVU to the NCAA Tournament in 2017, Mazey was named the East Regional Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and the Chuck Tanner College Coach of the Year Award by the Rotary Club of Pittsburgh.
- Mazey became the fifth coach in program history to eclipse the 100-win mark in 2016 and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons.
- Mazey joins Ira Errett Rodgers (1921-42, 46), Steve Harrick (1948-67), Dale Ramsburg (1968-94) and Greg Van Zant (1995-2012) with at least 100 wins at WVU.
- Along with Mazey, only Van Zant won his 100th game in his fourth season. Harrick won his 100th game in his eighth, and Rodgers and Ramsburg reached the milestone in their ninth seasons at WVU.
- In his career, Mazey owns a 354-293-2 record, eclipsing the 300-win mark on May 6, 2016.

A Look Back on 2017

West Virginia had a record-breaking 2017 season, highlighted by an NCAA Tournament appearance, another All-American, a pair of MLB draft picks, a historical appearance in the national rankings and a win at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

- While celebrating their 125th year of baseball, the Mountaineers posted a 36-26 record, eclipsing the 35-win plateau for the second consecutive year. The 62 games marked the most in a single season in team history.
- West Virginia earned an NCAA Tournament berth for the 12th time in program history, playing in the Winston-Salem Regional. Seeded second, the Mountaineers made their first tournament appearance since 1996 and were an at-large selection for the first time in team history.
- WVU went 2-2 and advanced to the regional final for the third time and first since 1982. The Mountaineers opened with a 9-1 win over Maryland on June 2 before a 4-3 loss to top-seeded and 13th-ranked Wake Forest, the host of the four-team regional, the following day. West Virginia followed with an 8-5 win over Maryland on June 4 to avoid elimination. Later that evening, WVU's run came to an end with a 12-8 loss to Wake.
- WVU placed fourth in the Big 12 Conference, the No. 1-ranked RPI league in the country, with a 12-12 record. The Mountaineers advanced to the Big 12 Championship semifinals for the second time in as many years, going 2-2 at the conference tournament.
- On April 17, West Virginia entered the national rankings for the first time since 1982. WVU was ranked nationally in five of the six major polls for the first time in program history. WVU debuted at No. 21 by Baseball America and D1 Baseball, marking the first time that West Virginia made an appearance in either poll. The NCBWA and USA Today Coaches Poll also voted WVU into the Top 25 for the first time ever, while Collegiate Baseball Newspaper had the Mountaineers at No. 25, the first time they were in that poll since the final rankings in 1982, when they were No. 16.
- Coach Randy Mazey concluded his fifth season at the helm. Following the season, he was named the East Regional Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and the Chuck Tanner College Coach of the Year Award by the Rotary Club of Pittsburgh.
- Designated hitter/right-handed pitcher Braden Zarbnisky was named an All-American by the NCBWA, as he was selected to the third team as a utility player. He became the 17th All-American in program history and was awarded the 15th total All-America accolade in Mazey's five years. Zarbnisky earned several additional regional and national honors. The NCBWA District II Player of the Year and a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist, he also was named to the All-Big 12 First Team and the Big 12 All-Tournament Team.
- Headlined by All-Big 12 First Team honoree Braden Zarbnisky, West Virginia earned 12 All-Big 12 honors, the most in team history. Kyle Davis, Michael Grove and BJ Myers were named to the second team, while Cole Austin, Jackson Cramer, Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and Darius Hill, Sam Kessler and Brandon White earned honorable mention. Alek Manoah was on the All-Freshman Team. In total, WVU's entire infield and outfield, three starting pitchers and one reliever were honored, along with Zarbnisky's first team accolades as a utility player.
- Additionally, for the second consecutive year, WVU earned a team-record-tying four Big 12 All-Tournament Team accolades. Cramer, Hill, Zarbnisky and Isaiah Kearns were recognized. WVU's four honors were the second-most amongst Big 12 schools.
- Among the individual records broken during the 2017 campaign, senior Jackson Cramer and junior Kyle Davis each played in a school-record 62 games. Sophomore Kyle Gray walked a team-record 44 times while senior Jackson Sigman made 36 appearances, the most in a single season in program history.
- Sophomore right-hander Michael Grove was named the NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week, the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week and one of the National Players of the Week by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, on April 10, after taking a perfect game into the eighth inning in WVU's 8-0 win against Kansas on April 8.
- The Mountaineers played in front of record-breaking crowds throughout the 2017 season at Monongalia County Ballpark. A total of 40,616 fans in 22 games, for an average of 1,846 per game, filled the stands in 2017, both program records. Additionally, 3,415 saw the Mountaineers face No. 3 TCU on April 15, the largest home crowd in team history. The 1,846 season average was more than 300 more than the previous record of 1,507 set in 2015, the inaugural season of Monongalia County Ballpark.
- West Virginia played its first-ever game at PNC Park on May 10, a 4-2 victory over Penn State in the first collegiate baseball game at the home of the Pittsburgh Pirates. The game marked WVU's first at a Pittsburgh Pirates home ballpark since 1998, a 9-8 win over rival Pitt at Three Rivers Stadium.

Trio Signs With MLB Clubs

A pair of Mountaineers were selected in the 2017 MLB Draft, becoming the 85th and 86th draft selections in team history. Junior Kyle Davis was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 15th round and senior Jackson Cramer was picked in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals.

WVU has had 16 draft picks in Randy Mazey's five seasons, the most in a five-year stretch in team history.

Additionally, senior Jackson Sigman signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Royals organization.

Schedule Breakdown

WVU's 2018 schedule features 23 home games and 21 games against teams that made the NCAA Tournament in 2017. The 54-game regular-season also includes 30 contests on the road and one at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

"I am really excited about this year's schedule," Mazey said. "It's a challenging schedule, with 21 games against teams that made the NCAA Tournament, nearly 40 percent of our season, but I know that will help us as we look to make the NCAA Tournament for a second consecutive year. We'll open with 15 games on the road and then play a lot of home games in April and May, which I am really looking forward to, and I know our fans are as well."

WVU's 23-game home slate includes games against Big 12 foes Oklahoma State (April 13-15), Kansas State (April 20-22), Texas (April 27-29) and Baylor (May 17-19), along with regional rivals Pitt (March 27), Maryland (May 1), Virginia Tech (May 9) and Marshall (May 15). UT, OSU, BU and Maryland all made the NCAA Tournament last season.

The Mountaineers' road schedule features a series at Jacksonville (Feb. 16-18) to open the season, a four-game tournament in Myrtle Beach, South Carolina (Feb. 23-25), and mid-week contests at Pitt (April 17) and vs. Marshall (April 25) in Charleston, West Virginia, along with a matchup against Penn State at PNC Park in Pittsburgh, on April 10. In Big 12 play, West Virginia travels to Oklahoma (March 23-25), Texas Tech (March 29-31), Kansas (May 4-6) and TCU (May 11-13).

Season Preview

A year after making history, the West Virginia University baseball team has raised expectations, increased national attention and an eagerness to keep the momentum going.

The Mountaineers, ranked No. 22 in the D1 Baseball Preseason Top 25 and receiving votes in four additional polls, enter the 2018 season with sights set on a return trip to the NCAA Tournament and beyond. WVU made the tournament for the first time in 21 years in 2017, and a loss in the regional final has fueled the fire for 23 returning lettermen and 12 newcomers.

"When you lose your last game, the summer and fall is going to be pretty long," sixth-year coach Randy Mazey said. "So, we feel like we're coming off a great year. We've set the bar pretty high in this program. Things have changed a little bit, as far as I'm concerned, in Mountaineer baseball."

The run to the 2017 NCAA Tournament was the latest, and biggest, of many changes around this program. It began in 2012-13, with the move to the Big 12 Conference and Mazey's arrival in Morgantown. The 2015 season saw the opening of Monongalia County Ballpark, one of the finest collegiate baseball facilities in the country. WVU just missed an NCAA Tournament berth in 2016, with an extra-inning loss in the Big 12 Championship title game.

Now, after entering the national rankings last year for the first time since 1982 and appearing in five of the six major polls for the first time ever, WVU is ranked in the preseason for the first time since the 1960s. National media outlets have started to take notice of West Virginia, featuring Mountaineers on preseason watch lists and position rankings and putting the team in postseason conversations.

All this while home attendance records have been broken on a yearly basis.

Things have changed, but a lot is still the same from 2017, as a strong nucleus from last year's squad returns.

Thirteen position players and 12 pitchers are back, while losing just three position players and five pitchers. Six of nine starting position players return, and everyone has extensive starting experience.

"These guys have been through a lot," Mazey said. "A lot of them have been playing every day since they were freshmen, and they have lost some really tough games and won some really big games. That's going to help us when we get into those situations, close games in the ninth inning. When the new guys in the program don't know how to react, the older guys have been through it. Hopefully, that's going to account for some wins this year."

The group that returns includes every start at catcher, center field and right field, all but one start at second base, 58 of 62 starts at shortstop and 57 starts at designated hitter. On the mound, every start and save is back.

In total, nine of a program-record 12 players who earned All-Big 12 Team honors last season return.

That includes junior right-handed pitcher/outfielder Braden Zarbnisky, a Preseason All-America First Team honoree by the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA). Last year, Zarbnisky was named to the NCBWA All-America Third Team, the NCBWA District II Player of the Year, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree as a sophomore.

Added to that is a highly-touted group of 12 newcomers, including two SEC transfers and three junior college transfers, and Mazey has a team he likes.

"I love this team," Mazey said. "We have speed at the top and the bottom. We have guys in the middle who can run the ball out of the yard. We can do some different things and play an up-tempo game. We're going to win some games that way, we're going to win some games by slugging the ball, we're going to win some games by pitching, and we're going to win some games defensively. I don't think we're a one-dimensional team by any stretch of the imagination. It's nice to know that you have a team that's capable of winning in different ways. We've got a lot of options."

One of many things that stands out about the 2018 Mountaineers is its depth and versatility. That will help fill the void left by the three major losses from last year's team, who all played in the minor leagues last summer.

Jackson Cramer started all but three games at first base last year and hit a team-high 11 home runs before getting drafted in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals. Left fielder Kyle Davis started every game as a junior, hitting 10 home runs with a team-best .526 slugging percentage, and was drafted in the 15th round by the Houston Astros. Jackson Sigman made a school-record 36 appearances on the mound and notched a team-high-tying six wins before graduating and signing a free-agent contract with the Kansas City Royals.

The trio left big shoes to fill, but several players returning from injury or waiting for their chance expect to be strong options to take those spots.

In the field, Mazey has four catchers, 10 infielders and six outfielders to choose from. On the mound, it's 18 right-handed pitchers and four lefties.

The 36-man roster includes seven freshmen, 15 sophomores, 11 juniors and two seniors. Eight Mountaineers come from Texas, and another four from New Jersey, Ohio and West Virginia. Three are from Florida and New York, while two come to WVU from Georgia and Pennsylvania. Alabama, Colorado, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia are all represented on the roster once.

Position-by-Position Breakdown

PITCHING

The pitching staff is headlined by returning weekend right-handed starters BJ Myers and Alek Manoah, who combined for 26 starts a season ago, and Zarbnisky, who had a team-best six saves and six wins.

"I think we have some depth on this team that we haven't had in the past," Mazey said. "I think we can go 10 or 12 guys deep and still put somebody out there that can get good hitters out. So, I'm excited about the depth, but we need somebody on this team to step up and win 10 games. If you don't have that guy, then it's hard to have a great year. Somebody's got to take the bull by the horns and be that guy."

Myers and Manoah, who both earned All-Big 12 Team accolades a year ago, are expected to lead the starting rotation. Myers, a senior, led the team with 16 starts, 73 strikeouts and 97.2 innings pitched. He has 35 career starts and tied for the team lead with five wins as a junior.

Manoah, a sophomore, made 19 appearances with 10 starts. He started his freshman season as a reliever, transitioned to closer before moving to starter, going from WVU's fifth starter up to second in a span of five starts in less than four weeks. In 55.2 innings, he posted a 3.07 ERA, fourth-best among all pitchers with more than 3.0 innings pitched and second among pitchers with at least three starts.

There are several contenders to finish out the rotation. Sophomore righty Isaiah Kearns was strong down the stretch in 2017, highlighted by an eight-inning complete game performance in the Big 12 Championship. He allowed one run on three hits against Baylor to earn all-tournament team accolades. Sophomore right-hander Kade Strowd made 17 appearances with eight starts last year, while redshirt junior Conner Dotson returns from an arm injury that sidelined him after he made six starts in 2017.

"You have Myers and Manoah who have pitched in this role last year," Mazey said. "So, it looks like they're going to be starting on the weekends, and that third spot is up for grabs. Isaiah Kearns pitched really well going down the stretch last year, as did Kade Strowd. We have some options."

In the bullpen, Zarbnisky returns after making 23 relief appearances last year, though he also is an option to start after making four starts as a freshman. Sophomore Sam Kessler was third on the team with 15 appearances in relief in 2017, while Riley Troutt came out of the bullpen 13 times. Myers and Dotson also have experience in relief.

"We have (Zarbnisky) back there, who had six saves last year, but he also had six wins," Mazey said. "So, we're toying with the idea of making him a starter. Sam Kessler had a great year pitching out of the bullpen, and BJ Myers has been a starter and a reliever in his career. Conner Dotson is the same way. We'll just see how it shakes out. It's early and pitch counts aren't very high yet, but a lot of guys are going to get opportunities to finish games. The guy that takes more pride in that role is going to end up being that guy."

There also are eight newcomers on the mound. That includes freshmen Tristen Hudson, the 2016 Mountain Lakes Region Player of the Year, and Jackson Wolf, a Perfect Game Underclass All-America Honorable Mention in 2016. Junior Christian Young was named an NJCAA All-America First Team last season at Niagara CC.

Another big addition in the pitching is assistant coach Dave Serrano. One of the most respected and accomplished coaches in collegiate baseball, Serrano has won 446 games and has taken two different teams to the College World Series in 13 years as a head coach. In 23 years as a coach at the Division I level, Serrano has helped guide his teams to seven College World Series appearances and 16 NCAA Tournaments, including the 2004 national title at Cal State Fullerton as an assistant coach.

"They're buying in to what he's teaching, so I think he's got their attention," Mazey said of Serrano. "Whether that be his background or his pedigree or the fact that he's won national championships and been on Team USA. You get instant buy-in even before you meet him, so I think they're buying in to the success that he's had and his ability. I think he's coached 34 pitchers who have gone on to pitch in the big leagues, so how can you not buy in? If you don't, that's your fault, it's not his."

INFIELD

Juniors Jimmy Galusky and Kyle Gray bring a wealth of experience and solid fielding to the infield. Galusky has started 115 of a possible 120 career games, all at shortstop, while Gray has started 104 of 120 games, the majority at second base.

An Arthurdale, West Virginia, native, Galusky was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team a year ago after hitting .244 with 48 hits, seven doubles, 26 RBIs, 22 walks and eight stolen bases. He added a team-best 12 sacrifice bunts.

Gray also was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team. He led the team with 44 walks and six triples and finished third with a .393 on-base percentage, while hitting .260 with nine doubles and 31 RBIs.

"Jimmy Galusky and Kyle Gray, in the middle of the infield, have worked as hard as two middle infielders can at playing together," Mazey said. "If there's any justice in this world, then both of those guys will have really good years for us, because our message to the team this year has been 'you'll get what you deserve and what you've earned,' and those guys deserve to have a great year, based on how hard they've worked at it."

At the corner infield positions, Mazey has several options to fill roles that were taken by veterans a year ago.

At first base, redshirt sophomore Marques Inman returns after suffering a season-ending injury early in 2017, along with sophomore Kevin Brophy, who played in 25 games, primarily off the bench. Both put up impressive numbers last year, as Inman hit .351 with a .544 slugging percentage in 57 at-bats, while Brophy hit .300 in 40 at-bats.

"Manoah's a two-way guy who can play first base," Mazey said. "He's got great feel around the bag. Inman is back, and he's working every day to become a great first baseman, and Brophy has shown some great things offensively. So, that's a position that he's been working really hard at."

There also are a number of strong options at third base. Freshman Tyler Doanes is expected to see playing time, along with junior Ivan Gonzalez, who has plenty of experience at the hot corner as well as behind the plate.

A freshman All-American in 2016, Gonzalez has made 87 career starts, 26 at third base. Twenty of his 37 starts as a freshman came at third base in the final month of the season.

Doanes, from Fayetteville, Georgia, helped his team to a pair of state championship appearances, while serving as team captain in 2016 and 17.

"Ivan can always go out there when he's not catching and play a pretty good third base for us," Mazey added. "We have a new guy, Tyler Doanes, who might see some action over there."

"He's just a gamer. He can play all three infield positions. He can hit anywhere in the lineup. He can handle the bat. He's got a great mentality, great work ethic. He's going to be, before he leaves here, a tremendous, tremendous player. As far as opening day lineup, I don't know how that's going to shake up yet. If he's in the lineup, I feel pretty good about it and if he's not in the lineup, I'll feel pretty good about his mentality. He's trying to get in the lineup. He's just a real pleasure of a kid to be around, and I'm really glad that we have him in the program."

OUTFIELD

Hill will once again patrol right field, a post he has held for all but one game of his career. Named to five freshman All-America teams in 2016, Hill was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honoree as a sophomore, leading the team with 75 hits and tying for the team lead with 46 RBIs and 14 doubles. His .307 batting average was fourth best on the Mountaineers. Hill also has a knack for clutch hits, with a team-best seven game-winning hits last year, while also recording 14 hits, five RBIs and eight runs scored in WVU's eight postseason contests.

He is joined by White in center, also an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honoree in 2017. As a freshman, White played in 55 games with 50 starts, all in center field. He led the team with 13 stolen bases and hit .277 with 44 hits and 21 walks. His speed and ability to track down balls in center also led to several dazzling catches, including one that made SportsCenter's Top 10 plays.

The Mountaineers' speed on the base paths, along with several players who can lay down a bunt, provides an added wrinkle to the lineup.

"It's letting guys steal bases but, at the same time, if the guy on base is disturbing the pitcher and making him pitch differently, you get a lot better pitches to hit too," Mazey said of WVU's speed and impact on the team's hitting. "Even if we don't steal more bases, I think we can create the impression that we're going to play that way and get a lot better pitches to hit. We might have a game where we don't steal any bases, but the fact that we can run a little bit really helped us win the game."

In left, Zarbnisky and Lake have both seen time at the position, either as a starter or a defensive replacement. Zarbnisky hit a team-best .336 in 125 at-bats, with 42 hits and 12 stolen bases in 12 attempts. Lake played in 45 games with 17 starts, hitting .233 with 20 total bases and six steals. Like Zarbnisky, Kearns also can play the outfield when he's not on the mound.

"Kearns, he's a two-way guy and has tremendous power," Mazey added. "He's going to see some days in left field. Zarbnisky, you have to manage him as a two-way guy. He can play left when he's not pitching. TJ Lake is a great defensive outfielder, and he's going to get a lot of games under his belt. So, we have a couple options out there."

CATCHER

Behind the plate is two familiar faces in Gonzalez and sophomore Chase Illig. Gonzalez started 40 games behind the plate as a sophomore, while Illig played the remaining 22.

A freshman All-American in 2016, Gonzalez was named to the Johnny Bench Award Watch List a season ago. He finished second on the team with a .317 batting average and fourth with a .444 slugging percentage. With a career batting average of .342, Gonzalez's bat is expected to find its way into the lineup, even if he's not behind the plate.

Illig, from Bluefield, West Virginia, hit .242 as a freshman with three home runs and a .396 slugging percentage. He is coming off a strong summer season with the Bellingham Bells, where he broke the West Coast League record with 15 home runs.

"We've got an option behind the plate because Chase Illig had a great summer and is very capable," Mazey said. "If we need to get him in the lineup, then that can push Pudge (Ivan Gonzalez) to third base. It just depends on who the matchup is on that particular day how we're going to go, but you're going to see those guys split time quite a bit."
