In last year's four games against Baylor, six Mountaineer pitchers pitched at least 1.0 inning and recorded an ERA of 0.00. WVU went 3-1 against the Bears and held BU to just one run in two of the four games. Two of the wins came at then-No. 10 Baylor, while the third was at the Big 12 Championship.

Isaiah Kearns pitched an 8.0-inning complete game and all but one starter had at least one hit as WVU beat Baylor, 11-1, to open the 2017 Big 12 Championship. The win featured a seven-run first inning and a walk-off hit in the bottom of the eighth to secure the run-rule victory.

Prior to Saturday's game, graduating seniors Shane Ennis and BJ Myers will be honored for their outstanding careers in the Old Gold and Blue.

The Mountaineers (26-23, 8-13 Big 12) conclude the regular season at home for just the second time in their six years in the Big 12 Conference. WVU enters the final weekend of the regular season with a 14-6 mark at Monongalia County Ballpark and has won four of its five weekend series at home in 2018.

The Bears (30-18, 11-10 Big 12), one of the hottest teams in the country, come to Morgantown having won 16 of their last 18 games and four consecutive weekend series. Baylor is ranked No. 27 by Collegiate Baseball.

Three games separate WVU and BU in the Big 12 standings. West Virginia is 8-13 and in seventh place, while Baylor is 11-10 and in fifth place. Both teams have clinched a Big 12 Championship berth and will play for postseason seeding this weekend.

Kyle Gray's hit streak was snapped at 23 games last Friday, the longest hit streak by a Mountaineer since 2009. A day later, Gray hit his 14th home run of the year and 17th of his career. His 14 homers are tied for sixth-most in a single season in program history and are the most by a Mountaineer since Jedd Gyorko's team-record-tying 19 in 2010. Additionally, Darius Hill extended his reached-base streak to 25 games over the weekend.

After continuing his hot hitting at the plate, Tyler Doanes was named the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week and the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on Monday. Doanes led the Mountaineers with a .600 batting average last weekend at TCU and hit his first career home run, an inside-the-parker, while posting a team-leading 1.000 slugging percentage. Doanes led the Big 12 among freshmen with a .500 batting average last week and ranked No. 7 overall with a .563 on-base percentage, both team-leading totals.

Quick Hits: Key Team Notes

- The 2018 season marks the 126th year of baseball at West Virginia. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time record of 2,157-1,551-19. The Mountaineers are the second-oldest program in the Big 12.
- Coach Randy Mazey is in his sixth season at the helm and owns a 186-150 record in Morgantown. He is the fifth coach in team history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons. Mazey is 373-310-2 in his career.
- Due to a pair of rain-postponed games, West Virginia played 21 of its first 24 games, including its first 15, on the road. Six of the first seven weeks of the season were spent away from home. However, following the first 24 games, 16 of the Mountaineers' next 18 games were at home. Then, the final 11 games see five home games and six road contests.
- Kyle Gray had a 23-game hit streak, the longest by a Mountaineer since 2009, while he has 14 home runs, tied for sixth-most in a single season in program history. Gray's 14 homers are the most by a Mountaineer since Jedd Gyorko's team-record-tying 19 in 2010.

- Jackson Wolf was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on April 2, after he earned his first career win on March 29 at No. 7 Texas Tech. Wolf pitched 4.0 shutout innings in relief and allowed just two hits in WVU's 1-0 shutout win.
- Kevin Brophy was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Feb. 26, following a three-home run, eight-RBI performance on Feb. 24. He is the third player in team history to hit at least three home runs and drive in eight or more runs in a single game, and his home run total included his first career grand slam.
- Braden Zarbnisky was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on March 5, after going 5-for-5 and driving in the game-winning run while earning the win on the mound in WVU's 11-9, 10-inning win at Western Kentucky on March 3.

Scouting Baylor

Baylor begins the final weekend of the regular season with a 30-18 record and an 11-10 mark in Big 12 play. Winners of 16 of its last 18 games, BU is coming off a home series win over No. 20 Oklahoma State. An 11-6 loss on Saturday snapped a 13-game win streak. BU is ranked No. 27 in this week's Collegiate Baseball poll and also is receiving votes in the latest Coaches Poll and National Collegiate Baseball Writers Association rankings.

Andy Thomas leads the team with 64 hits and a .362 batting average in 177 at-bats. Davis Wendzel is second with 60 hits and a .339 average, while he leads the Bears with 40 RBIs and a .582 slugging percentage.

On the mound, Joe Heineman has a 1.86 ERA in 19.1 innings in relief, while Cody Bradford and Hayden Kettler each have six wins. Bradford also leads the team with 70 strikeouts and 76.0 innings pitched.

Steve Rodriguez is in his third season at Baylor and is 89-70 in Waco. The 2017 Big 12 Coach of the Year, Rodriguez led the Bears to the 2017 NCAA Tournament after a 12-year run at Pepperdine.

Big 12 Championship

West Virginia is 9-7 all-time against Baylor, following a road series win and a victory at the Big 12 Championship last year. WVU is 4-1 at home, 4-5 in Waco and 1-1 at a neutral site. All 16 games have come since 2013, when the Mountaineers joined the Big 12.

WVU lost the first series, in 2013 in Waco, and followed with a sweep of a two-game series in Charleston, West Virginia, in 2014. Baylor then earned a 9-4 win at the 2014 Big 12 Championship. West Virginia lost a road series in 2015 before a series win at Monongalia County Ballpark in 2016.

WVU went 3-1 against BU last year, with a series win to open Big 12 play at then-No. 10 Baylor, from March 17-19, and a Big 12 Championship victory.

- In a 7-1 win on March 17, BJ Myers allowed one run on five hits in 8.0 innings, as the offense scored a run in the first, took a 3-0 lead in the third and never trailed. Myers held Baylor hitless in four of the first five innings. Offensively, all but one starter had a hit and five had an RBI.
- The Mountaineers won the series with a back-and-forth, 6-5 win on March 18. WVU had runners reach base in all but one inning and again never trailed. West Virginia led 3-0 early, but Baylor chipped away and tied the game at 5-5 in the seventh. WVU answered in the ninth, thanks to a two-out RBI single.
- WVU fell short of a series sweep with a 5-1 loss on March 19. Marques Inman had three hits, going 3-4, and four freshmen relievers combined to throw 3.2 shutout innings, allowing just three hits.
- WVU opened the Big 12 Championship with an 11-1, run-rule win. West Virginia scored seven runs in the first inning and Isaiah Kearns threw an 8.0-inning complete game, allowing one run on three hits with six strikeouts and no walks.

Season Preview

A year after making history, the West Virginia University baseball team has raised expectations, increased national attention and an eagerness to keep the momentum going.

The Mountaineers, ranked No. 22 in the D1 Baseball Preseason Top 25 and receiving votes in four additional polls, enter the 2018 season with sights set on a return trip to the NCAA Tournament and beyond. WVU made the tournament for the first time in 21 years in 2017, and a loss in the regional final has fueled the fire for 23 returning lettermen and 12 newcomers.

"When you lose your last game, the summer and fall is going to be pretty long," sixth-year coach Randy Mazey said. "So, we feel like we're coming off a great year. We've set the bar pretty high in this program. Things have changed a little bit, as far as I'm concerned, in Mountaineer baseball."

The run to the 2017 NCAA Tournament was the latest, and biggest, of many changes around this program. It began in 2012-13, with the move to the Big 12 Conference and Mazey's arrival in Morgantown. The 2015 season saw the opening of Monongalia County Ballpark, one of the finest collegiate baseball facilities in the country. WVU just missed an NCAA Tournament berth in 2016, with an extra-inning loss in the Big 12 Championship title game.

Now, after entering the national rankings last year for the first time since 1982 and appearing in five of the six major polls for the first time ever, WVU is ranked in the preseason for the first time since the 1960s. National media outlets have started to take notice of West Virginia, featuring Mountaineers on preseason watch lists and position rankings and putting the team in postseason conversations.

All this while home attendance records have been broken on a yearly basis.

Things have changed, but a lot is still the same from 2017, as a strong nucleus from last year's squad returns.

Thirteen position players and 12 pitchers are back, while losing just three position players and five pitchers. Six of nine starting position players return, and everyone has extensive starting experience.

"These guys have been through a lot," Mazey said. "A lot of them have been playing every day since they were freshmen, and they have lost some really tough games and won some really big games. That's going to help us when we get into those situations, close games in the ninth inning. When the new guys in the program don't know how to react, the older guys have been through it. Hopefully, that's going to account for some wins this year."

The group that returns includes every start at catcher, center field and right field, all but one start at second base, 58 of 62 starts at shortstop and 57 starts at designated hitter. On the mound, every start and save is back.

In total, nine of a program-record 12 players who earned All-Big 12 Team honors last season return.

That includes junior right-handed pitcher/outfielder Braden Zarbnisky, a Preseason All-America First Team honoree by the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA). Last year, Zarbnisky was named to the NCBWA All-America Third Team, the NCBWA District II Player of the Year, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree as a sophomore.

Added to that is a highly-touted group of 12 newcomers, including two SEC transfers and three junior college transfers, and Mazey has a team he likes.

"I love this team," Mazey said. "We have speed at the top and the bottom. We have guys in the middle who can run the ball out of the yard. We can do some different things and play an up-tempo game. We're going to win some games that way, we're going to win some games by slugging the ball, we're going to win some games by pitching, and we're going to win some games defensively. I don't think we're a one-dimensional team by any stretch of the imagination. It's nice to know that you have a team that's capable of winning in different ways. We've got a lot of options."

One of many things that stands out about the 2018 Mountaineers is its depth and versatility. That will help fill the void left by the three major losses from last year's team, who all played in the minor leagues last summer.

Jackson Cramer started all but three games at first base last year and hit a team-high 11 home runs before getting drafted in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals. Left fielder Kyle Davis started every game as a junior, hitting 10 home runs with a team-best .526 slugging percentage, and was drafted in the 15th round by the Houston Astros. Jackson Sigman made a school-record 36 appearances on the mound and notched a team-high-tying six wins before graduating and signing a free-agent contract with the Kansas City Royals.

The trio left big shoes to fill, but several players returning from injury or waiting for their chance expect to be strong options to take those spots.

In the field, Mazey has four catchers, 10 infielders and six outfielders to choose from. On the mound, it's 18 right-handed pitchers and four lefties.

The 36-man roster includes seven freshmen, 15 sophomores, 11 juniors and two seniors. Eight Mountaineers come from Texas, and another four from New Jersey, Ohio and West Virginia. Three are from Florida and New York, while two come to WVU from Georgia and Pennsylvania. Alabama, Colorado, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia are all represented on the roster once.

Position-by-Position Breakdown

PITCHING

The pitching staff is headlined by returning weekend right-handed starters BJ Myers and Alek Manoah, who combined for 26 starts a season ago, and Zarbnisky, who had a team-best six saves and six wins.

"I think we have some depth on this team that we haven't had in the past," Mazey said. "I think we can go 10 or 12 guys deep and still put somebody out there that can get good hitters out. So, I'm excited about the depth, but we need somebody on this team to step up and win 10 games. If you don't have that guy, then it's hard to have a great year. Somebody's got to take the bull by the horns and be that guy."

Myers and Manoah, who both earned All-Big 12 Team accolades a year ago, are expected to lead the starting rotation. Myers, a senior, led the team with 16 starts, 73 strikeouts and 97.2 innings pitched. He has 35 career starts and tied for the team lead with five wins as a junior.

Manoah, a sophomore, made 19 appearances with 10 starts. He started his freshman season as a reliever, transitioned to closer before moving to starter, going from WVU's fifth starter up to second in a span of five starts in less than four weeks. In 55.2 innings, he posted a 3.07 ERA, fourth-best among all pitchers with more than 3.0 innings pitched and second among pitchers with at least three starts.

There are several contenders to finish out the rotation. Sophomore righty Isaiah Kearns was strong down the stretch in 2017, highlighted by an eight-inning complete game performance in the Big 12 Championship. He allowed one run on three hits against Baylor to earn all-tournament team accolades. Sophomore right-hander Kade Strowd made 17 appearances with eight starts last year, while redshirt junior Conner Dotson returns from an arm injury that sidelined him after he made six starts in 2017.

"You have Myers and Manoah who have pitched in this role last year," Mazey said. "So, it looks like they're going to be starting on the weekends, and that third spot is up for grabs. Isaiah Kearns pitched really well going down the stretch last year, as did Kade Strowd. We have some options."

In the bullpen, Zarbnisky returns after making 23 relief appearances last year, though he also is an option to start after making four starts as a freshman. Sophomore Sam Kessler was third on the team with 15 appearances in relief in 2017, while Riley Troutt came out of the bullpen 13 times. Myers and Dotson also have experience in relief.

"We have (Zarbnisky) back there, who had six saves last year, but he also had six wins," Mazey said. "So, we're toying with the idea of making him a starter. Sam Kessler had a great year pitching out of the bullpen, and BJ Myers has been a starter and a reliever in his career. Conner Dotson is the same way. We'll just see how it shakes out. It's early and pitch counts aren't very high yet, but a lot of guys are going to get opportunities to finish games. The guy that takes more pride in that role is going to end up being that guy."

There also are eight newcomers on the mound. That includes freshmen Tristen Hudson, the 2016 Mountain Lakes Region Player of the Year, and Jackson Wolf, a Perfect Game Underclass All-America Honorable Mention in 2016. Junior Christian Young was named an NJCAA All-America First Team last season at Niagara CC.

Another big addition in the pitching is assistant coach Dave Serrano. One of the most respected and accomplished coaches in collegiate baseball, Serrano has won 446 games and has taken two different teams to the College World Series in 13 years as a head coach. In 23 years as a coach at the Division I level, Serrano has helped guide his teams to seven College World Series appearances and 16 NCAA Tournaments, including the 2004 national title at Cal State Fullerton as an assistant coach.

"They're buying in to what he's teaching, so I think he's got their attention," Mazey said of Serrano. "Whether that be his background or his pedigree or the fact that he's won national championships and been on Team USA. You get instant buy-in even before you meet him, so I think they're buying in to the success that he's had and his ability. I think he's coached 34 pitchers who have gone on to pitch in the big leagues, so how can you not buy in? If you don't, that's your fault, it's not his."

INFIELD

Juniors Jimmy Galusky and Kyle Gray bring a wealth of experience and solid fielding to the infield. Galusky has started 115 of a possible 120 career games, all at shortstop, while Gray has started 104 of 120 games, the majority at second base.

An Arthurdale, West Virginia, native, Galusky was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team a year ago after hitting .244 with 48 hits, seven doubles, 26 RBIs, 22 walks and eight stolen bases. He added a team-best 12 sacrifice bunts.

Gray also was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team. He led the team with 44 walks and six triples and finished third with a .393 on-base percentage, while hitting .260 with nine doubles and 31 RBIs.

"Jimmy Galusky and Kyle Gray, in the middle of the infield, have worked as hard as two middle infielders can at playing together," Mazey said. "If there's any justice in this world, then both of those guys will have really good years for us, because our message to the team this year has been 'you'll get what you deserve and what you've earned,' and those guys deserve to have a great year, based on how hard they've worked at it."

At the corner infield positions, Mazey has several options to fill roles that were taken by veterans a year ago.

At first base, redshirt sophomore Marques Inman returns after suffering a season-ending injury early in 2017, along with sophomore Kevin Brophy, who played in 25 games, primarily off the bench. Both put up impressive numbers last year, as Inman hit .351 with a .544 slugging percentage in 57 at-bats, while Brophy hit .300 in 40 at-bats.

"Manoah's a two-way guy who can play first base," Mazey said. "He's got great feel around the bag. Inman is back, and he's working every day to become a great first baseman, and Brophy has shown some great things offensively. So, that's a position that he's been working really hard at."

There also are a number of strong options at third base. Freshman Tyler Doanes is expected to see playing time, along with junior Ivan Gonzalez, who has plenty of experience at the hot corner as well as behind the plate.

A freshman All-American in 2016, Gonzalez has made 87 career starts, 26 at third base. Twenty of his 37 starts as a freshman came at third base in the final month of the season.

Doanes, from Fayetteville, Georgia, helped his team to a pair of state championship appearances, while serving as team captain in 2016 and 17.

"Ivan can always go out there when he's not catching and play a pretty good third base for us," Mazey added. "We have a new guy, Tyler Doanes, who might see some action over there."

"He's just a gamer. He can play all three infield positions. He can hit anywhere in the lineup. He can handle the bat. He's got a great mentality, great work ethic. He's going to be, before he leaves here, a tremendous, tremendous player. As far as opening day lineup, I don't know how that's going to shake up yet. If he's in the lineup, I feel pretty good about it and if he's not in the lineup, I'll feel pretty good about his mentality. He's trying to get in the lineup. He's just a real pleasure of a kid to be around, and I'm really glad that we have him in the program."

OUTFIELD

Hill will once again patrol right field, a post he has held for all but one game of his career. Named to five freshman All-America teams in 2016, Hill was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honoree as a sophomore, leading the team with 75 hits and tying for the team lead with 46 RBIs and 14 doubles. His .307 batting average was fourth best on the Mountaineers. Hill also has a knack for clutch hits, with a team-best seven game-winning hits last year, while also recording 14 hits, five RBIs and eight runs scored in WVU's eight postseason contests.

He is joined by White in center, also an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honoree in 2017. As a freshman, White played in 55 games with 50 starts, all in center field. He led the team with 13 stolen bases and hit .277 with 44 hits and 21 walks. His speed and ability to track down balls in center also led to several dazzling catches, including one that made SportsCenter's Top 10 plays.

The Mountaineers' speed on the base paths, along with several players who can lay down a bunt, provides an added wrinkle to the lineup.

"It's letting guys steal bases but, at the same time, if the guy on base is disturbing the pitcher and making him pitch differently, you get a lot better pitches to hit too," Mazey said of WVU's speed and impact on the team's hitting. "Even if we don't steal more bases, I think we can create the impression that we're going to play that way and get a lot better pitches to hit. We might have a game where we don't steal any bases, but the fact that we can run a little bit really helped us win the game."

In left, Zarbnisky and Lake have both seen time at the position, either as a starter or a defensive replacement. Zarbnisky hit a team-best .336 in 125 at-bats, with 42 hits and 12 stolen bases in 12 attempts. Lake played in 45 games with 17 starts, hitting .233 with 20 total bases and six steals. Like Zarbnisky, Kearns also can play the outfield when he's not on the mound.

"Kearns, he's a two-way guy and has tremendous power," Mazey added. "He's going to see some days in left field. Zarbnisky, you have to manage him as a two-way guy. He can play left when he's not pitching. TJ Lake is a great defensive outfielder, and he's going to get a lot of games under his belt. So, we have a couple options out there."

CATCHER

Behind the plate is two familiar faces in Gonzalez and sophomore Chase Illig. Gonzalez started 40 games behind the plate as a sophomore, while Illig played the remaining 22.

A freshman All-American in 2016, Gonzalez was named to the Johnny Bench Award Watch List a season ago. He finished second on the team with a .317 batting average and fourth with a .444 slugging percentage. With a career batting average of .342, Gonzalez's bat is expected to find its way into the lineup, even if he's not behind the plate.

Illig, from Bluefield, West Virginia, hit .242 as a freshman with three home runs and a .396 slugging percentage. He is coming off a strong summer season with the Bellingham Bells, where he broke the West Coast League record with 15 home runs.

"We've got an option behind the plate because Chase Illig had a great summer and is very capable," Mazey said. "If we need to get him in the lineup, then that can push Pudge (Ivan Gonzalez) to third base. It just depends on who the matchup is on that particular day how we're going to go, but you're going to see those guys split time quite a bit."
