BY THE NUMBERS

West Virginia earned 10 All-Big 12 accolades for the third consecutive season. Kyle Gray's First Team accolade gives WVU at least one First Team honoree in each of the past three years, the most in team history.

WVU's 10 All-Big 12 honors include seven Honorable Mention accolades, tied for the most in program history. Additionally, has had an All-Freshman Team honor in four consecutive years, as Tyler Doanes was recognized on this year's list.

The Mountaineers have advanced to the Big 12 Championship semifinals in back-to-back years, with a championship-game appearance in 2016. Since the annual event returned to Oklahoma City in 2016, West Virginia is 6-3 at the annual event, with a 2-0 record against top-seeded teams and a 5-1 mark against teams seeded in the top five.

Mountaineers Begin Big 12 Championship Wednesday

The West Virginia University baseball team commences postseason play at the 2018 Phillips 66 Big 12 Baseball Championship on Wednesday, May 23, at 5 p.m. ET/4 p.m. CT, against No. 20 Oklahoma State at Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark in Oklahoma City.

WVU is seeded seventh, while OSU is second. The winner will advance to play the winner of No. 3 Texas Tech-No. 6 TCU on Thursday, May 24, at 8:30 p.m. ET. In the double-elimination tournament, the losers of the two games on Wednesday will face off on Thursday at 1:30 p.m. ET.

On the other side of the bracket on Wednesday, top-seeded Texas will face No. 8 Kansas at 1:30 p.m. ET, and No. 4 Oklahoma opens against No. 5 Baylor at 10 a.m. ET. The winner of each bracket will meet on Sunday in the championship game, at 2 p.m. ET/1 p.m. CT.

The Mountaineers (27-25, 9-15 Big 12) have earned a berth in the Big 12 Championship all six seasons in the league. WVU has advanced to the semifinals in back-to-back years, with a championship-game appearance in 2016. Since the annual event returned to Oklahoma City in 2016, West Virginia is 6-3 at the Big 12 Championship, with a 2-0 record against top-seeded teams and a 5-1 mark against teams seeded in the top five.

The Cowboys (29-22-1, 16-8 Big 12) finished second in the conference, just one game behind Big 12 champion Texas. WVU and OSU have met four times in postseason play, including twice last year. Oklahoma State is ranked No. 20 by Collegiate Baseball.

The Red Raiders (38-15, 15-9 Big 12) won the regular-season title the last two years, and own a Big 12-best .717 winning percentage in the regular season in 2018. The Mountaineers have beaten TTU in back-to-back Big 12 Championships, both when Texas Tech was seeded No. 1. Texas Tech is ranked in all six major polls, and as high as No. 6 by Perfect Game.

The Horned Frogs (30-22, 10-13 Big 12) come to Oklahoma City looking to extend a stretch of four consecutive NCAA Tournament and College World Series appearances. WVU and TCU last met in the postseason in the 2016 Big 12 championship game.

Additional information about the championship, including a complete bracket and schedule and details about tickets, Oklahoma City and Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark can be found at Big12Sports.com. Tickets can be purchased at Big12Sports.com/BuyTickets or through Ticketmaster. Tickets also are available by visiting the Chickasaw Bricktown Ballpark box office or calling (405) 218-2180.

Quick Hits: Key Team Notes

- The 2018 season marks the 126th year of baseball at West Virginia. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time record of 2,158-1,553-19. The Mountaineers are the second-oldest program in the Big 12.
- Coach Randy Mazey is in his sixth season at the helm and owns a 187-152 record in Morgantown. He is the fifth coach in team history to eclipse the 100-win mark and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons. Mazey is 374-312-2 in his career.
- West Virginia has three walk-off wins in 2018, tied for sixth-most in the country this year.
- Nine Mountaineers earned All-Big 12 Team accolades: Kyle Gray (First Team), Darius Hill (Second Team) Tyler Doanes, Ivan Gonzalez, Marques Inman, Isaiah Kearns, Kade Strowd, Brandon White and Braden Zarbnisky (Honorable Mention). Doanes also was named to the All-Freshman Team.
- Four Mountaineers were named to the Academic All-Big 12 Team: Darius Hill (First Team), Shane Ennis, Chase Illig and Kade Strowd (Second Team)
- Kyle Gray had a 23-game hit streak, the longest by a Mountaineer since 2009, while he has 14 home runs, tied for sixth-most in a single season in program history. Gray's 14 homers are the most by a Mountaineer since Jedd Gyorko's team-record-tying 19 in 2010.
- Brandon White became the team's sixth WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on May 21
- Tyler Doanes earned Big 12 Newcomer of the Week and WVU Student-Athlete of the Week accolades on May 14 after leading all Big 12 freshmen with a .500 batting average the previous week. He added a 1.000 slugging percentage and hit his first career home run at TCU.
- Gray hit four home runs in WVU's series at Kansas and was named the Big 12 Player of the Week, one of Collegiate Baseball's National Players of the Week and the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on May 7.
- A pair of Mountaineers have been named to the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award Watch List. Braden Zarbnisky and Isaiah Kearns are two of 25 recognized on the watch list. Last year, Zarbnisky was a finalist for the award.
- Marques Inman was named the Big 12 Player of the Week and the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on April 9. In WVU's series win vs. UNLV, Inman hit .750 with a 1.875 slugging percentage and .833 on-base percentage with six hits in eight at-bats, including a home run in every game. In four games from April 2-8, Inman led the Big 12 with a .667 batting average.
- Jackson Wolf was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on April 2, after he earned his first career win on March 29 at No. 7 Texas Tech. Wolf pitched 4.0 shutout innings in relief and allowed just two hits in WVU's 1-0 shutout win.
- Kevin Brophy was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on Feb. 26, following a three-home run, eight-RBI performance on Feb. 24. He is the third player in team history to hit at least three home runs and drive in eight or more runs in a single game, and his home run total included his first career grand slam.
- Braden Zarbnisky was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on March 5, after going 5-for-5 and driving in the game-winning run while earning the win on the mound in WVU's 11-9, 10-inning win at Western Kentucky on March 3.
- Former WVU left-hander Harrison Musgrave made his Major League debut with the Colorado Rockies on April 23. He pitched a perfect sixth inning with one strikeout, throwing 10 pitches, eight for strikes. Musgrave is the 23rd Mountaineer in program history to play in the big leagues and the first player coached by Randy Mazey at WVU to earn an MLB call-up.
- Musgrave joins fellow Mountaineer and West Virginia native Jedd Gyorko of the St. Louis Cardinals currently on an MLB roster.
- Due to a pair of rain-postponed games, West Virginia played 21 of its first 24 games, including its first 15, on the road. Six of the first seven weeks of the season were spent away from home. However, following the first 24 games, 16 of the Mountaineers' next 18 games were at home. Then, the final 11 games see five home games and six road contests.
- Twenty-four players return from last year's team, including nine of a program-record 12 that earned All-Big 12 Team honors in 2017: senior BJ Myers, juniors Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray, Michael Grove, Darius Hill and Braden Zarbnisky and sophomores Sam Kessler, Alek Manoah and Brandon White. Twelve newcomers join the squad in 2017-18, including two SEC transfers and three junior college transfers.
- West Virginia was ranked No. 22 in the D1 Baseball Preseason Top 25. WVU was ranked in the preseason for the first time since the 1960s, and the Mountaineers also were No. 27 in the NCBWA Preseason Poll and received votes in three other preseason polls.
- WVU was picked to finish fifth in the Big 12 Preseason Coaches' Poll for the second consecutive year. West Virginia has finished fourth in the final standings in back-to-back seasons.
- Mazey has signed the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history. The signing class of 16 student-athletes is ranked No. 26 in the nation by Perfect Game, the best in WVU history and the first in the top 30, and will join the Mountaineers for the 2018-19 season.
- Zarbnisky earned Preseason All-America First Team honors by the NCBWA and was named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List.
- Last year, Zarbnisky was named a NCBWA Third Team All-American, the NCBWA District II Player of the Year, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree as a sophomore.
- WVU has had 16 draft selection in coach Randy Mazey's five seasons, the most draft picks in a five-year stretch in team history.

West Virginia at the Big 12 Championship

West Virginia has had plenty of success at the Big 12 Championship, and has qualified for the postseason tournament in each of its six years in the conference. WVU has made back-to-back Big 12 Championship semifinal appearances, with a trip to the title game in 2016.

- As the No. 3 seed in 2013, the Mountaineers came up just shy of the championship game in their first year in the league. With a pool play format, WVU went 2-1. West Virginia's lone loss was to Kansas, which won the pool and reached the championship game.
- WVU advanced to its first Big 12 championship game in 2016, going 3-1 with an 11-10, 10-inning loss to third-seeded and No. 11-ranked TCU in the title game. West Virginia beat Oklahoma, 6-0, before a 9-4 upset win over No. 5 and top-seeded Texas Tech. The Mountaineers advanced to the title game with an 11-1, seven-inning win over Oklahoma. In its first three games, all wins, WVU outscored its opponents, 20-5, and out-hit them, 22-12. In a roller-coaster championship game, No. 11 TCU won, 11-10, in 10 innings. The Horned Frogs jumped out to an 8-0 lead in the third inning before WVU stormed back to lead it 10-9 after five innings. TCU came back with a run in the ninth to tie it before winning it in the 10th.
- The Mountaineers went 2-2 in 2017 as the No. 4 seed. WVU beat Baylor, 11-1, in eight innings, and top-seeded and No. 3 Texas Tech, 12-7 in 10 innings. However, West Virginia's two losses came to eight-seeded Oklahoma State, which went undefeated and won the tournament.
- West Virginia owns an 8-8 record in five years at the Big 12 Championship. WVU is 2-0 against the No. 1 seed and 3-0 vs. the No. 5 seed. The Mountaineers have had four All-Tournament Team honorees in both 2016 and 2017 after earning one in 2013.

Following Along

There are a number of ways to follow along with the Big 12 Championship.

- Every game will be broadcasted on FOX College Sports, with the exception of Sunday's championship game, which will be televised on FOX Sports Networks. All games also will be available on FOX Sports GO to subscribers. Chad McKee and George Frazier will have the call.
- Fans can listen to the games on the Mountaineer Sports Network from IMG on various affiliates throughout the state. Fans across the country can tune in to the broadcasts online at WVUsports.com and on the WVU Gameday App and the TuneIn Radio App on their mobile device. Dan Zangrilli and Ernie Galusky will call the action.
- Along with the regular-season radio affiliates, WVBD 100.7 FM in Beckley-Fayetteville also will carry the Mountaineers throughout the postseason.
- Additional behind-the-scenes updates, news and notes can be found on social media by following and connecting with the team on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram at @WVUBaseball.

Last Year at the Big 12 Championship

West Virginia went 2-2 at the 2017 Big 12 Championship and advanced to the semifinals for the second consecutive year.

- Starter Isaiah Kearns was lights-out on the mound and the offense scored seven runs in the first inning as West Virginia opened the championship with an 11-1, eight-inning victory over Baylor on May 24. Kearns held Baylor to three hits with six strikeouts while throwing his first career complete game. The three hits allowed are a program-record low at the Big 12 Championship, and it was the first complete game at the tournament by a WVU pitcher.
- West Virginia lost its winner's bracket matchup against Oklahoma State, 8-4, on May 25. The Mountaineers had 13 hits but were held to four runs. WVU was led by Braden Zarbnisky, who had four hits, an RBI and a run scored. The four hits were the most in a Big 12 Championship game by a Mountaineer in team history.
- The next day, West Virginia rallied to beat No. 3 Texas Tech, 12-7, in 10 innings. The Mountaineers erased a 6-3 deficit with a run in the eighth inning and two in the ninth to tie the game at 6-6. WVU then scored six runs in the 10th to beat top-seeded TTU. Jackson Cramer scored the game-tying run in the ninth on an RBI single and three-base error and followed it up with a three-RBI triple in the 10th. His five RBIs in the contest were the most by a Mountaineer in team history at the Big 12 Championship. West Virginia's 12 runs scored and 17 hits were also team records in a Big 12 Championship game.
- In the semifinals on May 27, WVU rallied again to tie the game in the ninth inning, but lost in the 10th to Oklahoma State, 4-3. West Virginia trailed, 3-2, in the ninth when Jimmy Galusky singled in the tying run. However, OSU, which would go on to win the tournament title the next day, scored a run in the 10th to win it.

* Big 12 Championship

WVU and OSU have met four times in the Big 12 Championship. West Virginia posted a 6-5 win in 2013, while Oklahoma State took a 3-0 contest in 2015. Last year, OSU went 4-0 at the tournament to win the Big 12 title as a No. 8 seed, a run that included an 8-4 win over WVU on May 25 and a 4-3, 10-inning win two days later in the semifinals.

This Year vs. the Cowboys

West Virginia suffered a series loss to Oklahoma State from April 13-15, one of just two series losses at home for WVU this year.

- The Mountaineers' four-game win streak was snapped with a 7-4 loss in the series opener on April 13, as OSU scored three in the third and three unearned runs in the fourth, both via three-run home runs. Kyle Gray had a career-high four hits with a home run.
- WVU evened the series the next day with a 10-7 win, thanks to a six-run first inning and a two-run home run by Marques Inman in the eighth. The Mountaineers batted around in the first to take a 6-1 lead. OSU cut WVU's lead to one, at 8-7, before Inman's eight-inning homer. Tyler Doanes drove in three runs on two hits, for his first career RBIs and first multi-hit and multi-RBI game of his career. Kade Stroud pitched 5.0 innings and struck out 10 batters, the second time this season he has notched double-digit strikeouts, to earn the win.
- Oklahoma State won Sunday's finale, 6-4, rallying with three runs in the sixth and two in the seventh to stay tied atop the Big 12 standings. Inman had three hits in the loss, his third consecutive multi-hit game.

* Big 12 Championship

West Virginia is 2-0 vs. Texas Tech at the Big 12 Championship, with a 9-4 win in 2016 and a 12-7, 10-inning victory last season. Both wins came as TTU was ranked inside the top-5 nationally and seeded No. 1 in the tournament.

This Year vs. the Red Raiders

The Mountaineers went 1-2 at No. 7 Texas Tech from March 29-31. Playing the No. 1 RPI team in the country, WVU held the Big 12's best offense to 12 total runs in three games.

- The Mountaineers upset TTU in the opener, 1-0, handing the Red Raiders their first home loss in 14 games this season and their first home shutout since 2015. Isaiah Kearns, Jackson Wolf and Shane Ennis combined to hold TTU to just five hits. Darius Hill drove in WVU's lone run with a sixth-inning single that came two pitches after Ivan Gonzalez doubled for West Virginia's first hit of the game. Wolf picked up his first career win and Ennis earned the first save of his career.
- Texas Tech evened the series the following day, with a 4-1 win, as WVU again was no-hit into the sixth inning. West Virginia pitching held TTU to four runs on six hits, while the WVU bullpen did not allow a hit in 5.0 innings.
- The Mountaineers rallied with two ninth-inning runs and brought the go-ahead run to the plate in the series finale on March 30, but it was not enough in an 8-5 loss. WVU took a 3-1 lead in the fifth, but TTU responded with seven runs in the next two innings before West Virginia's ninth-inning rally. Kearns, who came off the bench, led WVU with a career-high-tying two hits and one RBI.

The Mountaineers are 0-2 against TCU at the Big 12 Championship. A 6-2 loss in 2014 was followed by a 10-inning, 11-10 defeat in the 2016 Big 12 Championship Game.

This Year vs. the Horned Frogs

WVU earned its first-ever win at TCU in a series loss in Fort Worth, Texas, from May 11-13.

- West Virginia scored the go-ahead run in the eighth inning to beat TCU in the series opener, 4-3, for its first-ever win at TCU and third in the last four games in the series. WVU took a 1-0 lead in the first inning and led 3-0 in the middle of the sixth, but TCU tied the game at 3-3 in the bottom of the sixth. Darius Hill drove in the game's first run and the game-winner and had a career-high-tying four hits. Tristen Hudson earned his second career win in as many games, allowing just one hit in 2.1 innings, and Alek Manoah earned his second save of the year.
- TCU evened the series the next day with a 10-4 win. West Virginia trailed 5-0 after three innings but rallied with a three-run top of the fourth to cut the deficit to two. However, TCU responded with two runs in the bottom of the fourth. Kyle Gray hit his 14th home run of the season and Ivan Gonzalez hit his first of the year.
- In the finale, TCU won the series with an 8-5 victory. The two teams traded runs in the second and WVU scored again in the third and fourth, but TCU scored three in the third and added single runs in the seventh and eighth after West Virginia cut the deficit to one, at 6-5, in the sixth. Jimmy Galusky and Tyler Doanes homered. Doanes' homer, the first of his career, was an inside-the-park home run.

Ten Earn All-Big 12 Honors

Ten Mountaineers were named to the All-Big 12 Team, highlighted by second baseman Kyle Gray, who earned First Team honors.

- Junior right fielder Darius Hill was named to the All-Big 12 Second Team. Freshman third baseman/left fielder Tyler Doanes was named to the All-Freshman Team and earned Big 12 Honorable Mention honors with junior catcher Ivan Gonzalez, junior left fielder/right-handed pitcher Braden Zarbnisky, sophomore first baseman Marques Inman, sophomore right-handed pitchers Isaiah Kearns and Kade Strowd and sophomore center fielder Brandon White.
- WVU earned 10 All-Big 12 accolades for the third consecutive season and has had at least one First Team honoree in each of the past three years, the most in team history. The seven Honorable Mention accolades are tied for the most in program history, while WVU has had an All-Freshman Team honor in four consecutive years.
- Gray was recognized for the second time in his career, after he earned Honorable Mention accolades in 2017. Hill also was named Big 12 Honorable Mention last season and was named to the All-Freshman Team in 2016. Gonzalez also is being honored for the third time in his career, after he was on the Honorable Mention and All-Freshman Teams the past two seasons. Zarbnisky was named to the First Team, and White the Honorable Mention Team, in 2017. Doanes and Inman both earned their first career All-Big 12 accolades.
- Gray is among the Big 12 leaders in numerous statistical categories, and his season is highlighted by a 23-game hit streak and 14 home runs. A complete breakdown of his 2018 campaign can be found in the following note.
- Hill led the team and was No. 7 in the Big 12 with 71 hits, while he hit 19 doubles, third-most in the league. In Big 12 play, Hill was second in the conference with 36 hits and sixth with a .364 batting average and nine doubles.
- Doanes is second on the team with a .406 on-base percentage, third with a .330 batting average and fourth with a .511 slugging percentage. He has 29 hits in 88 at-bats with a team-best four triples. Doanes has five doubles, an inside-the-park home run and 17 RBIs to go along with five stolen bases in six attempts.

Kyle Gray's Hot Hitting Leads to All-Big 12 First Team

Junior Kyle Gray is putting up offensive numbers at a record pace, with a 23-game hit streak and 14 home runs. He is the sixth Mountaineer in program history to be named to the All-Big 12 Second Team.

- Gray's 23-game hit streak, from March 31-May 9, is tied for the longest by a Mountaineer since Dan DiBartolomeo's 23-game streak in 2009. In the streak, Gray hit .460 with 40 hits in 87 at-bats, eight home runs, six doubles and one triple, 26 RBIs, 25 runs scored and 72 total bases. He posted a .828 slugging percentage and a .551 on-base percentage with 18 walks while stealing nine bases in nine attempts.
- His 14 home runs are tied for sixth-most in a single season in program history and the most since Jedd Gyorko hit a school-record-tying 19 in 2010. Fifteen homers will put Gray in a tie for fourth place all-time, while 16 puts him tied for third. The record is 19, set by Mark Landers in 1994 and tied by Gyorko in 2010.
- After extending his hit streak to 22 games and hitting four home runs in three games, Gray was named the Big 12 Player of the Week, one of the National Players of the Week by Collegiate Baseball and the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on May 7.
- In four games from April 30-May 6, Gray led the league in nearly every statistical category, with a .588 average, a 1.412 slugging percentage, 10 hits, four home runs, nine RBIs, 24 total bases and eight runs scored, while he was second with a .632 on-base percentage and two doubles. His average in WVU's series at Kansas increased to .615, his slugging percentage to 1.615 and his on-base percentage was up to .667. Gray had at least two hits, an RBI and a run scored in every game from April 30-May 6 and hit four home runs in three games at Kansas. His week was highlighted by a career-high-tying four hits and four RBIs with four runs scored on May 4 at KU. He hit the first of four homers on the weekend and was a triple shy of the cycle. The next day, Gray hit a career-high-tying two home runs with three RBIs before closing the week with another two-hit day with his fourth homer in three days on Sunday.
- In Big 12 play, Gray led the conference with a .391 batting average, was second with 66 total bases and a .759 slugging percentage, third with eight home runs, fourth with 34 hits and a .460 on-base percentage and seventh with 24 runs scored.
- On the season, Gray is second in the Big 12 with a .685 slugging percentage, third with a .364 batting average and 14 home runs, fifth with 126 total bases, sixth with a .452 on-base percentage and ninth with 67 hits

Four On Academic All-Big 12 Team

Four Mountaineers were named to the 2018 Academic All-Big 12 Baseball Team. Junior Darius Hill was named to the first team, while senior Shane Ennis and sophomores Chase Illig and Kade Strowd were recognized on the second team.

- Hill, from Dallas, Texas, is honored for the second consecutive year after he was named to the second team as a sophomore. He is majoring in management.
- A Romney, West Virginia, native, Ennis is named to an Academic All-Big 12 Team for the first time in his career. He completed his degree in athletic coaching education this semester.
- Illig, a native of Bluefield, West Virginia, was named to the Academic All-Big 12 First Team a year ago. He is pursuing a degree in sport management.
- Strowd was named to the 2017 Academic All-Big 12 Rookie Team. A Fort Worth, Texas, native, he is majoring in general business.
- First team members consist of those who have maintained a GPA of 3.20 or better, while the second team selections hold a 3.00 to 3.19 GPA. To qualify, student-athletes must maintain a 3.00 GPA or higher either cumulative or the two previous semesters and must have participated in 20 percent of their team's scheduled contests. Freshmen and transfers are not eligible in their first year of academic residence.

Doanes the Big 12 Newcomer of the Week

Freshman third baseman Tyler Doanes continued his hot play and was honored with Big 12 Newcomer of the Week and WVU Student-Athlete of the Week accolades on May 14.

- A Fayetteville, Georgia, native, Doanes led the team with a .600 batting average in WVU's three-game series at TCU last weekend. He hit his first career home run, an inside-the-parker, and had two hits in every game, along with three RBIs in Sunday's series finale. Doanes had a team-leading 1.000 slugging percentage at TCU.
- Doanes led the Big 12 among freshmen with a .500 batting average last week and ranked No. 7 overall with a .563 on-base percentage, both team-leading totals. He added a .786 slugging percentage in four games.
- In his first season as a Mountaineer, Doanes is hitting .367, second-best on the team. He has a .570 slugging percentage and a .444 on-base percentage with a team-best four triples. He has 16 RBIs, five doubles and a homer to go allowing with five stolen bases in six attempts.
- Doanes was recognized by the league for the first time in his career. He is the fourth Mountaineer to be honored by the Big 12 Conference this season.

Ranked Series Win

West Virginia earned a series win against eventual Big 12-Champion Texas, from April 27-29. An 11-6 loss on April 27 was followed by an 8-6 win the next day and an 8-3 victory in Sunday's finale against then-No. 19 UT.

- West Virginia lost the series-opener, 11-6. The Mountaineers took a 2-0 lead and led 6-3 after six innings, but the 19th-ranked Longhorns rallied late.
- On Saturday, WVU used a three-run rally in the bottom of the eighth inning after UT scored three of its own to take a 6-5 lead in the top of the inning. The win was secured when righty Alek Manohah stranded the bases loaded with no outs in the ninth inning after also leaving two on in the top of the eighth after UT had taken its lead. Kyle Gray hit home runs and had three RBIs. All but one WVU starter had a hit in the win, in front of a season-high crowd of 2,618, the ninth-largest home crowd in program history.
- The Mountaineers benefited from a three-run fourth inning, a four-run eighth and a strong performance from the pitching staff in Sunday's 8-3 win. Starter Isaiah Kearns was strong on the mound and earned his first quality start of the season, while Tyler Doanes had a career-best four RBIs, with a bases-loaded, three-RBI triple in the eighth inning that turned a 4-3 WVU lead into a four-run advantage.
- In the series, Gray extended his team-best and career-long hit streak to 18 games and his reached-base streak to 19, while Darius Hill extended his career-long hit streak and reached-base streak to 17 games. Braden Zarbnisky extended his reached-base streak to a career-high-tying 18 games and Marques Inman's was extended to a career-best 16 games.

Musgrave Earns First Big League Call-Up

Former WVU left-handed pitcher Harrison Musgrave earned his first Major League call-up by the Colorado Rockies on April 23, and made his big league debut that night.

- In his MLB debut with the Rockies on April 23, Musgrave pitched a perfect sixth inning with one strikeout. He threw 10 pitches, eight for strikes.
- Musgrave is the 23rd Mountaineer in program history to play in the big leagues. He is the first player coached by Randy Mazey at WVU to earn an MLB call-up.
- Musgrave joins fellow Mountaineer and West Virginia native Jedd Gyorko of the St. Louis Cardinals currently on an MLB roster.
- From Nutter Fort, West Virginia, Musgrave earned Second Team All-America honors and was the Big 12 Pitcher of the Year in 2013. A two-time All-Big 12 Team honoree, Musgrave's career winning percentage of .750 is eighth-best in program history.
- In his WVU career, Musgrave went 18-6 with a 2.89 ERA. In 39 starts, he allowed 83 earned runs on 210 hits in 258.1 innings. He struck out 209 and walked 74.

Kearns, Zarbnisky on Two-Way Watch List

Junior Braden Zarbnisky and sophomore Isaiah Kearns are two of 25 players named to the John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award Watch List, are two of 25 recognized on the watch list.

- Zarbnisky, who was a finalist for the award last year, also has earned NCBWA Preseason All-America First Team accolades and was named to the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Watch List this season. He was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on March 5.
- Kearns and Zarbnisky are two of four players honored from the Big 12 Conference.

In their return to PNC Park, the Mountaineers walked off against Penn State, 3-2 in 10 innings, on April 10. Chase Illig drove in the game-winning run as WVU improved to 2-0 at the home of the Pittsburgh Pirates.

- Illig drove in the game-winner with a 10th-inning single to score Darius Hill. WVU scored two runs in the first before PSU tallied one in the third and another in the ninth to tie the game at 2-2. Reliever Sam Kessler earned the win after he got a groundout to strand the bases loaded in the top of the 10th.
- Freshman left-handed starter Jackson Wolf pitched well in his second career start. In 5.0 innings, he allowed one run on three hits with a career-high five strikeouts and one walk. Hill led the Mountaineers with two hits, had an RBI and scored two runs.
- West Virginia also won last year's meeting at PNC Park, 4-2 win over Penn State. Illig drove in the eventual game-winning run in that contest as well.
- The game was WVU's third visit to an MLB facility in as many years, after playing an exhibition game against the Arizona Diamondbacks at their Spring Training ballpark in 2016 and last year's inaugural college baseball game at PNC Park.

Inman Tabbed Big 12 Player of the Week

Following an impressive offensive weekend vs. UNLV, sophomore Marques Inman was named the Big 12 Player of the Week on April 9.

- It is the first award of any kind in Inman's career, and he also was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week.
- Inman swung a hot bat to lead WVU to a series win vs. UNLV. In three games, he hit .750 with a 1.875 slugging percentage and a .833 on-base percentage with six hits in eight at-bats, including a home run in every game. He drove in five runs, scored five runs and added three walks, 15 total bases and was hit by a pitch once.
- From April 2-8, Inman led the Big 12 with a .667 batting average, nearly .100 points higher than the next-highest in the league and had a Big 12-best three homers and 15 total bases. The Elyria, Ohio, native was third with five runs scored and fourth with five RBIs.

Wolf Named WVU Athlete of the Week

Freshman left-hander Jackson Wolf was named the WVU Student-Athlete of the Week on April 2. He came on in relief on March 29 at No. 7 Texas Tech and pitched four scoreless innings while allowing just two hits. Wolf struck out three and earned his first career win in the 1-0 shutout victory.

Zarbnisky Earns WVU Weekly Honor

- Zarbnisky had a career-high five hits, drove in the game-winning run in the 10th inning and earned the win on the mound in a 11-9 victory at Western Kentucky on March. He went 5-for-5 at the plate and drove in the game-winning run in the 10th inning on a single before he scored the team's 11th run, his third run scored of the day.
- On the mound, Zarbnisky pitched the ninth and 10th innings to earn his first win of the season. In three games on the weekend, Zarbnisky was second in the Big 12 with a .571 batting average and a .600 on-base percentage, tied for sixth with eight hits, including at least one in every game, and had a double and a triple while going 2-for-2 on the basepaths and not committing an error in the field.

WVU opponents listed in bold.

Brophy Named Big 12 Player of the Week

Following a three-home run, eight-RBI performance on Feb. 24, sophomore Kevin Brophy was named the Big 12 Player of the Week.

- Brophy hit three home runs, tied for second-most in a single game in team history, with eight RBIs, tied for fifth-most in the Mountaineer record books and two shy of the record, in WVU's 10-8 win over Illinois. He is the third WVU player to hit at least three home runs and drive in eight or more runs in a single game.
- Along with his first career grand slam in the seventh inning to break a 6-6 tie, Brophy hit a three-run home run in the first inning and a solo homer in the sixth.
- The three home runs and eight RBIs are the most by a Mountaineer since Grant Buckner had three homers and a program-record 10 RBIs on May 8, 2010. Brophy is one of six Mountaineers all-time to hit three or more home runs in a game and one of six to have eight or more RBIs.
- In WVU's second game of the day, vs. VCU, Brophy hit his fourth homer of the day. In WVU's four games in Conway, South Carolina, he hit .375 with a 1.125 on-base percentage and 18 total bases.

Mazey Climbing Up the Wins Chart

- After leading WVU to the NCAA Tournament in 2017, Mazey was named the East Regional Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and the Chuck Tanner College Coach of the Year Award by the Rotary Club of Pittsburgh.
- Mazey became the fifth coach in program history to eclipse the 100-win mark in 2016 and the second to accomplish the feat in his first four seasons.
- Along with Mazey, only Van Zant won his 100th game in his fourth season. Harrick won his 100th game in his eighth, and Rodgers and Ramsburgh reached the milestone in their ninth seasons at WVU.

Homegrown Talent

Four West Virginia natives are on the 2018 roster, tied for the second-most represented state on the team, behind Texas (8).

Highest-Ranked Recruiting Class in 2019

On Nov. 15, 2017, coach Randy Mazey announced that the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history has committed to WVU for the 2019 season.

Record-Setting Draft Success

West Virginia has experienced unprecedented success in the Major League Baseball Draft in Randy Mazey's tenure. WVU has had 16 draft picks in Mazey's five seasons, the most in a five-year stretch in team history.

- At least two West Virginia players have been drafted in each of Mazey's five seasons. In 2017, Kyle Davis was selected by the Houston Astros in the 15th round and Jackson Cramer was drafted in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals. Additionally, senior Jackson Sigman signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Royals organization.
- There have been 86 Mountaineer draft picks since the first draft was held in 1965.
- This year, nineteen current Mountaineers are eligible for the 2018 MLB Draft, which will be held June 4-6.

A Look Back on 2017

West Virginia had a record-breaking 2017 season, highlighted by an NCAA Tournament appearance, an All-American, a pair of MLB draft picks, a historical appearance in the national rankings and a win at PNC Park in Pittsburgh.

- While celebrating their 125th year of baseball, the Mountaineers posted a 36-26 record, eclipsing the 35-win plateau for the second consecutive year. The 62 games marked the most in a single season in team history.
- West Virginia earned an NCAA Tournament berth for the 12th time in program history, playing in the Winston-Salem Regional. Seeded second, the Mountaineers made their first tournament appearance since 1996 and were an at-large selection for the first time in team history.
- WVU went 2-2 and advanced to the regional final for the third time and first since 1982. The Mountaineers opened with a 9-1 win over Maryland on June 2 before a 4-3 loss to top-seeded and 13th-ranked Wake Forest, the host of the four-team regional, the following day. West Virginia followed with an 8-5 win over Maryland on June 4 to avoid elimination. Later that evening, WVU's run came to an end with a 12-8 loss to Wake.
- WVU finished fourth in the Big 12, the No. 1-ranked RPI conference in the country, with a 12-12 record. The Mountaineers advanced to the Big 12 Championship semifinals for the second straight year.
- On April 17, West Virginia entered the national rankings for the first time since 1982. WVU was ranked nationally in five of the six major polls for the first time in program history. WVU debuted at No. 21 by Baseball America and D1 Baseball, marking the first time that West Virginia made an appearance in either poll. The NCBWA and USA Today Coaches Poll also voted WVU into the Top 25 for the first time ever, while Collegiate Baseball Newspaper had the Mountaineers at No. 25, the first time they were in that poll since the final rankings in 1982, when they were No. 16.
- Coach Randy Mazey concluded his fifth season at the helm. Following the season, he was named the East Regional Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and the Chuck Tanner College Coach of the Year Award by the Rotary Club of Pittsburgh.
- Designated hitter/right-handed pitcher Braden Zarbnisky was named an All-American by the NCBWA, as he was selected to the third team as a utility player. He became the 17th All-American in program history and was awarded the 15th total All-America accolade in Mazey's five years. Zarbnisky earned several additional regional and national honors. The NCBWA District II Player of the Year and a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist, he also was named to the All-Big 12 First Team and the Big 12 All-Tournament Team.
- Headlined by All-Big 12 First Team honoree Braden Zarbnisky, West Virginia earned 12 All-Big 12 honors, the most in team history. Kyle Davis, Michael Grove and BJ Myers were named to the second team, while Cole Austin, Jackson Cramer, Jimmy Galusky, Kyle Gray and Darius Hill, Sam Kessler and Brandon White earned honorable mention. Alek Manoah was on the All-Freshman Team. In total, WVU's entire infield and outfield, three starting pitchers and one reliever were honored, along with Zarbnisky's first team accolades as a utility player.
- Additionally, for the second consecutive year, WVU earned a team-record-tying four Big 12 All-Tournament Team accolades. Cramer, Hill, Zarbnisky and Isaiah Kearns were recognized. WVU's four honors were the second-most amongst Big 12 schools.
- Among the individual records broken, Cramer and Davis each played in a school-record 62 games. Gray walked a team-record 44 times and Jackson Sigman made 36 appearances, the most in a single season in WVU history.
- Grove was named the NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week, the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week and one of the National Players of the Week by Collegiate Baseball Newspaper, on April 10, after taking a perfect game into the eighth inning in WVU's 8-0 win against Kansas on April 8.
- The Mountaineers played in front of record-breaking crowds throughout the 2017 season at Monongalia County Ballpark. A total of 40,616 fans in 22 games, for an average of 1,846 per game, filled the stands in 2017, both program records. Additionally, 3,415 saw the Mountaineers face No. 3 TCU on April 15, the largest home crowd in team history.
- West Virginia played its first-ever game at PNC Park on May 10, a 4-2 victory over Penn State in the first collegiate baseball game at the home of the Pittsburgh Pirates.
- A pair of Mountaineers were selected in the 2017 MLB Draft, becoming the 85th and 86th draft selections in team history. Davis was drafted by the Houston Astros in the 15th round and Cramer was picked in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals. WVU has had 16 draft picks in Mazey's five seasons, the most in a five-year stretch in team history.
- Along with Davis and Cramer, Sigman signed a free agent contract with the Kansas City Royals organization.

Season Preview

A year after making history, the West Virginia University baseball team has raised expectations, increased national attention and an eagerness to keep the momentum going.

The Mountaineers, ranked No. 22 in the D1 Baseball Preseason Top 25 and receiving votes in four additional polls, enter the 2018 season with sights set on a return trip to the NCAA Tournament and beyond. WVU made the tournament for the first time in 21 years in 2017, and a loss in the regional final has fueled the fire for 23 returning lettermen and 12 newcomers.

"When you lose your last game, the summer and fall is going to be pretty long," sixth-year coach Randy Mazey said. "So, we feel like we're coming off a great year. We've set the bar pretty high in this program. Things have changed a little bit, as far as I'm concerned, in Mountaineer baseball."

The run to the 2017 NCAA Tournament was the latest, and biggest, of many changes around this program. It began in 2012-13, with the move to the Big 12 Conference and Mazey's arrival in Morgantown. The 2015 season saw the opening of Monongalia County Ballpark, one of the finest collegiate baseball facilities in the country. WVU just missed an NCAA Tournament berth in 2016, with an extra-inning loss in the Big 12 Championship title game.

Now, after entering the national rankings last year for the first time since 1982 and appearing in five of the six major polls for the first time ever, WVU is ranked in the preseason for the first time since the 1960s. National media outlets have started to take notice of West Virginia, featuring Mountaineers on preseason watch lists and position rankings and putting the team in postseason conversations.

All this while home attendance records have been broken on a yearly basis.

Things have changed, but a lot is still the same from 2017, as a strong nucleus from last year's squad returns.

Thirteen position players and 12 pitchers are back, while losing just three position players and five pitchers. Six of nine starting position players return, and everyone has extensive starting experience.

"These guys have been through a lot," Mazey said. "A lot of them have been playing every day since they were freshmen, and they have lost some really tough games and won some really big games. That's going to help us when we get into those situations, close games in the ninth inning. When the new guys in the program don't know how to react, the older guys have been through it. Hopefully, that's going to account for some wins this year."

The group that returns includes every start at catcher, center field and right field, all but one start at second base, 58 of 62 starts at shortstop and 57 starts at designated hitter. On the mound, every start and save is back.

In total, nine of a program-record 12 players who earned All-Big 12 Team honors last season return.

That includes junior right-handed pitcher/outfielder Braden Zarbnisky, a Preseason All-America First Team honoree by the National Collegiate Baseball Writer's Association (NCBWA). Last year, Zarbnisky was named to the NCBWA All-America Third Team, the NCBWA District II Player of the Year, a John Olerud Two-Way Player of the Year Award finalist and an All-Big 12 First Team honoree as a sophomore.

Added to that is a highly-touted group of 12 newcomers, including two SEC transfers and three junior college transfers, and Mazey has a team he likes.

"I love this team," Mazey said. "We have speed at the top and the bottom. We have guys in the middle who can run the ball out of the yard. We can do some different things and play an up-tempo game. We're going to win some games that way, we're going to win some games by slugging the ball, we're going to win some games by pitching, and we're going to win some games defensively. I don't think we're a one-dimensional team by any stretch of the imagination. It's nice to know that you have a team that's capable of winning in different ways. We've got a lot of options."

One of many things that stands out about the 2018 Mountaineers is its depth and versatility. That will help fill the void left by the three major losses from last year's team, who all played in the minor leagues last summer.

Jackson Cramer started all but three games at first base last year and hit a team-high 11 home runs before getting drafted in the 35th round by the Washington Nationals. Left fielder Kyle Davis started every game as a junior, hitting 10 home runs with a team-best .526 slugging percentage, and was drafted in the 15th round by the Houston Astros. Jackson Sigman made a school-record 36 appearances on the mound and notched a team-high-tying six wins before graduating and signing a free-agent contract with the Kansas City Royals.

The trio left big shoes to fill, but several players returning from injury or waiting for their chance expect to be strong options to take those spots.

In the field, Mazey has four catchers, 10 infielders and six outfielders to choose from. On the mound, it's 18 right-handed pitchers and four lefties.

The 36-man roster includes seven freshmen, 15 sophomores, 11 juniors and two seniors. Eight Mountaineers come from Texas, and another four from New Jersey, Ohio and West Virginia. Three are from Florida and New York, while two come to WVU from Georgia and Pennsylvania. Alabama, Colorado, South Carolina, Tennessee and Virginia are all represented on the roster once.

Position-by-Position Breakdown

PITCHING

The pitching staff is headlined by returning weekend right-handed starters BJ Myers and Alek Manoah, who combined for 26 starts a season ago, and Zarbnisky, who had a team-best six saves and six wins.

"I think we have some depth on this team that we haven't had in the past," Mazey said. "I think we can go 10 or 12 guys deep and still put somebody out there that can get good hitters out. So, I'm excited about the depth, but we need somebody on this team to step up and win 10 games. If you don't have that guy, then it's hard to have a great year. Somebody's got to take the bull by the horns and be that guy."

Myers and Manoah, who both earned All-Big 12 Team accolades a year ago, are expected to lead the starting rotation. Myers, a senior, led the team with 16 starts, 73 strikeouts and 97.2 innings pitched. He has 35 career starts and tied for the team lead with five wins as a junior.

Manoah, a sophomore, made 19 appearances with 10 starts. He started his freshman season as a reliever, transitioned to closer before moving to starter, going from WVU's fifth starter up to second in a span of five starts in less than four weeks. In 55.2 innings, he posted a 3.07 ERA, fourth-best among all pitchers with more than 3.0 innings pitched and second among pitchers with at least three starts.

There are several contenders to finish out the rotation. Sophomore righty Isaiah Kearns was strong down the stretch in 2017, highlighted by an eight-inning complete game performance in the Big 12 Championship. He allowed one run on three hits against Baylor to earn all-tournament team accolades. Sophomore right-hander Kade Strowd made 17 appearances with eight starts last year, while redshirt junior Conner Dotson returns from an arm injury that sidelined him after he made six starts in 2017.

"You have Myers and Manoah who have pitched in this role last year," Mazey said. "So, it looks like they're going to be starting on the weekends, and that third spot is up for grabs. Isaiah Kearns pitched really well going down the stretch last year, as did Kade Strowd. We have some options."

In the bullpen, Zarbnisky returns after making 23 relief appearances last year, though he also is an option to start after making four starts as a freshman. Sophomore Sam Kessler was third on the team with 15 appearances in relief in 2017, while Riley Troutt came out of the bullpen 13 times. Myers and Dotson also have experience in relief.

"We have (Zarbnisky) back there, who had six saves last year, but he also had six wins," Mazey said. "So, we're toying with the idea of making him a starter. Sam Kessler had a great year pitching out of the bullpen, and BJ Myers has been a starter and a reliever in his career. Conner Dotson is the same way. We'll just see how it shakes out. It's early and pitch counts aren't very high yet, but a lot of guys are going to get opportunities to finish games. The guy that takes more pride in that role is going to end up being that guy."

There also are eight newcomers on the mound. That includes freshmen Tristen Hudson, the 2016 Mountain Lakes Region Player of the Year, and Jackson Wolf, a Perfect Game Underclass All-America Honorable Mention in 2016. Junior Christian Young was named an NJCAA All-America First Team last season at Niagara CC.

Another big addition in the pitching is assistant coach Dave Serrano. One of the most respected and accomplished coaches in collegiate baseball, Serrano has won 446 games and has taken two different teams to the College World Series in 13 years as a head coach. In 23 years as a coach at the Division I level, Serrano has helped guide his teams to seven College World Series appearances and 16 NCAA Tournaments, including the 2004 national title at Cal State Fullerton as an assistant coach.

"They're buying in to what he's teaching, so I think he's got their attention," Mazey said of Serrano. "Whether that be his background or his pedigree or the fact that he's won national championships and been on Team USA. You get instant buy-in even before you meet him, so I think they're buying in to the success that he's had and his ability. I think he's coached 34 pitchers who have gone on to pitch in the big leagues, so how can you not buy in? If you don't, that's your fault, it's not his."

INFIELD

Juniors Jimmy Galusky and Kyle Gray bring a wealth of experience and solid fielding to the infield. Galusky has started 115 of a possible 120 career games, all at shortstop, while Gray has started 104 of 120 games, the majority at second base.

An Arthurdale, West Virginia, native, Galusky was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention team a year ago after hitting .244 with 48 hits, seven doubles, 26 RBIs, 22 walks and eight stolen bases. He added a team-best 12 sacrifice bunts.

Gray also was named to the All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team. He led the team with 44 walks and six triples and finished third with a .393 on-base percentage, while hitting .260 with nine doubles and 31 RBIs.

"Jimmy Galusky and Kyle Gray, in the middle of the infield, have worked as hard as two middle infielders can at playing together," Mazey said. "If there's any justice in this world, then both of those guys will have really good years for us, because our message to the team this year has been 'you'll get what you deserve and what you've earned,' and those guys deserve to have a great year, based on how hard they've worked at it."

At the corner infield positions, Mazey has several options to fill roles that were taken by veterans a year ago.

At first base, redshirt sophomore Marques Inman returns after suffering a season-ending injury early in 2017, along with sophomore Kevin Brophy, who played in 25 games, primarily off the bench. Both put up impressive numbers last year, as Inman hit .351 with a .544 slugging percentage in 57 at-bats, while Brophy hit .300 in 40 at-bats.

"Manoah's a two-way guy who can play first base," Mazey said. "He's got great feel around the bag. Inman is back, and he's working every day to become a great first baseman, and Brophy has shown some great things offensively. So, that's a position that he's been working really hard at."

There also are a number of strong options at third base. Freshman Tyler Doanes is expected to see playing time, along with junior Ivan Gonzalez, who has plenty of experience at the hot corner as well as behind the plate.

A freshman All-American in 2016, Gonzalez has made 87 career starts, 26 at third base. Twenty of his 37 starts as a freshman came at third base in the final month of the season.

Doanes, from Fayetteville, Georgia, helped his team to a pair of state championship appearances, while serving as team captain in 2016 and 17.

"Ivan can always go out there when he's not catching and play a pretty good third base for us," Mazey added. "We have a new guy, Tyler Doanes, who might see some action over there."

"He's just a gamer. He can play all three infield positions. He can hit anywhere in the lineup. He can handle the bat. He's got a great mentality, great work ethic. He's going to be, before he leaves here, a tremendous, tremendous player. As far as opening day lineup, I don't know how that's going to shake up yet. If he's in the lineup, I feel pretty good about it and if he's not in the lineup, I'll feel pretty good about his mentality. He's trying to get in the lineup. He's just a real pleasure of a kid to be around, and I'm really glad that we have him in the program."

OUTFIELD

Hill will once again patrol right field, a post he has held for all but one game of his career. Named to five freshman All-America teams in 2016, Hill was an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honoree as a sophomore, leading the team with 75 hits and tying for the team lead with 46 RBIs and 14 doubles. His .307 batting average was fourth best on the Mountaineers. Hill also has a knack for clutch hits, with a team-best seven game-winning hits last year, while also recording 14 hits, five RBIs and eight runs scored in WVU's eight postseason contests.

He is joined by White in center, also an All-Big 12 Honorable Mention Team honoree in 2017. As a freshman, White played in 55 games with 50 starts, all in center field. He led the team with 13 stolen bases and hit .277 with 44 hits and 21 walks. His speed and ability to track down balls in center also led to several dazzling catches, including one that made SportsCenter's Top 10 plays.

The Mountaineers' speed on the base paths, along with several players who can lay down a bunt, provides an added wrinkle to the lineup.

"It's letting guys steal bases but, at the same time, if the guy on base is disturbing the pitcher and making him pitch differently, you get a lot better pitches to hit too," Mazey said of WVU's speed and impact on the team's hitting. "Even if we don't steal more bases, I think we can create the impression that we're going to play that way and get a lot better pitches to hit. We might have a game where we don't steal any bases, but the fact that we can run a little bit really helped us win the game."

In left, Zarbnisky and Lake have both seen time at the position, either as a starter or a defensive replacement. Zarbnisky hit a team-best .336 in 125 at-bats, with 42 hits and 12 stolen bases in 12 attempts. Lake played in 45 games with 17 starts, hitting .233 with 20 total bases and six steals. Like Zarbnisky, Kearns also can play the outfield when he's not on the mound.

"Kearns, he's a two-way guy and has tremendous power," Mazey added. "He's going to see some days in left field. Zarbnisky, you have to manage him as a two-way guy. He can play left when he's not pitching. TJ Lake is a great defensive outfielder, and he's going to get a lot of games under his belt. So, we have a couple options out there."

CATCHER

Behind the plate is two familiar faces in Gonzalez and sophomore Chase Illig. Gonzalez started 40 games behind the plate as a sophomore, while Illig played the remaining 22.

A freshman All-American in 2016, Gonzalez was named to the Johnny Bench Award Watch List a season ago. He finished second on the team with a .317 batting average and fourth with a .444 slugging percentage. With a career batting average of .342, Gonzalez's bat is expected to find its way into the lineup, even if he's not behind the plate.

Illig, from Bluefield, West Virginia, hit .242 as a freshman with three home runs and a .396 slugging percentage. He is coming off a strong summer season with the Bellingham Bells, where he broke the West Coast League record with 15 home runs.

"We've got an option behind the plate because Chase Illig had a great summer and is very capable," Mazey said. "If we need to get him in the lineup, then that can push Pudge (Ivan Gonzalez) to third base. It just depends on who the matchup is on that particular day how we're going to go, but you're going to see those guys split time quite a bit."
