BY THE NUMBERS

220

Senior right fielder Darius Hill tied the WVU record for games played and starts, with 220 in his career. He is tied with Tyler Kuhn, an infielder for the Mountaineers from 2005-08. Hill has played in and started all but one game in his West Virginia career.

17

WVU had 17 hits in last year's 10-5 win over Virginia Tech, as every Mountaineer had at least one hit, seven drove in one or more runs and eight scored at least one run. Seven starters had multiple hits or multiple RBIs.

16

Sunday's walk-off win was West Virginia's fourth in its last five home victories, while six of WVU's last seven wins have come with the game-winning run scoring in the ninth inning or later.

Quick Hits: Key Team Notes

- The 2019 season marks the 127th year of baseball at West Virginia. Founded in 1892, WVU owns an all-time record of 2,188-1,572-19 and is the second-oldest program in the Big 12.
- Coach Randy Mazey is in his seventh season at the helm and owns a 217-171 record in Morgantown. He is the fourth-winningest coach in team history and the fifth to eclipse the 200-win mark. He won his 205th game on March 31, 2019, passing Ira Errett Rodgers (204-209-4 from 1921-42, 1946) for fourth place on the all-time list. Mazey is 404-331-2 in his career, while his 200th win as a Mountaineer came on March 16, 2019.
- The Mountaineers play at Monongalia County Ballpark, one of the finest facilities in the country and the newest Big 12 ballpark. WVU is 72-41 (.637) in the venue since it opened in 2015 and holds a .722 winning percentage (57-22) since April 2016. Additionally, 20 of the top 25 home crowds in WVU history have come at Monongalia County Ballpark, which seats 3,500.
- West Virginia is 28-17 on the season, 15-5 at home, 7-5 against top-25 teams and 14-10 against teams that made the 2018 NCAA Tournament.
- WVU is nationally ranked for the fourth consecutive week, coming in as high as No. 20 in this week's Perfect Game poll. WVU is No. 21 in the NCBWA and Baseball America rankings, No. 22 in the D1Baseball top-25 and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll. West Virginia's No. 17 ranking last week was its highest since 1982, when the Mountaineers finished the season No. 16.
- The Mountaineers' five consecutive conference series wins are their most since they won six Big East series in a row in 2003. West Virginia has won five Big 12 series in a season for the first time since it joined the league prior to the 2013 season.
- A program-record 3,494 fans saw WVU walk off No. 11 Texas Tech, 4-3, on April 13, which eclipsed the previous record of 3,487, set 10 days earlier in a 5-4 win over Pitt, 5-4, on April 3.
- Junior Alek Manoah was named the NCBWA National Pitcher of the Month in April, and won three consecutive Big 12 Pitcher of the Week and Golden Spikes Award/D1Baseball.com Performance of the Week honors and was named the NCBWA National Pitcher of the Week twice.
- For more on Alek Manoah, see pages 7-8 of these notes, which includes a breakdown of his awards, records and season and career statistics.
- Junior Nick Snyder was named the Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Week after he came a strike away from a no hitter in a dominating 16-strikeout, one-hit, no-walk complete game shutout performance on April 30.
- The Mountaineers beat No. 3 Oregon State, 2-0, on March 3, a win that is tied for WVU's highest-ranked win in program history. In Corvallis, Oregon, the Mountaineers handed the Beavers, the defending NCAA champions, their first loss of the season.
- With the win at No. 3 OSU, WVU improved to 3-2 all-time against defending national champions, with all five games coming on the road.
- Junior Kade Strowd was named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on March 4, a day after he took a no hitter into the seventh inning to lead WVU to a 2-0 upset win at No. 3 Oregon State.
- On Opening Day, Manoah struck out a career-best 13 batters in just 6.0 innings pitched and allowed one earned run on five hits with no walks on Feb. 15 at Kennesaw State. He was named one of Collegiate Baseball's National Players of the Week on Feb. 18, as his 13 strikeouts are the most by a Mountaineer since the 2016 season, when Michael Grove had 13 strikeouts twice and Chad Donato had 13 once.
- Nearly half of the Mountaineers' 54-game schedule, 24 games, is against teams that made the 2018 NCAA Tournament. That includes nine games against teams that advanced to the 2018 College World Series, with a three-game series at Oregon State, the 2018 national champions, along with a home series against Texas Tech and a road set at Texas. NCAA Tournament teams also include Oklahoma, Canisius and Kent State at home and Baylor, Oklahoma State and Morehead State on the road.
- The Mountaineers played 18 of their first 24 games away from home, with two of the six home games, Canisius on Feb. 19 and Towson on Feb. 27, added to the schedule the day before and three days before, respectively.
- The added games against Canisius and Towson marked the earliest home games in program history and the first-ever February home games.
- Senior Darius Hill was voted to the Preseason All-Big 12 Team by the league's coaches.
- Junior Sam Kessler was recognized on the NCBWA Stopper of the Year Award Watch List.
- WVU's 36-man roster features five seniors, 11 juniors, five sophomores and 15 freshmen. With several two-way players, four are catchers, 12 are infielders, nine are outfielders and 20 are pitchers. That includes 16 right-handers and four leftys.
- This year's freshman class is the highest-ranked recruiting class in program history. The signing class of 15 student-athletes was ranked No. 26 in the nation by Perfect Game, the best in WVU history and the first in the top 30.
- WVU was picked to finish sixth in the Big 12 Preseason Coaches' Poll. West Virginia has advanced to three consecutive Big 12 Championship semifinals and has finished fourth in the final standings in three of its first six years in the league.
- Four Mountaineers were drafted last year, and WVU has had 20 draft selection in coach Randy Mazey's six seasons, the most draft picks in a six-year stretch in team history. Highlighting the 2018 draft class was Michael Grove, who was picked by the Los Angeles Dodgers in the second round and became the fourth Mountaineer ever picked in the top two rounds and 11th in the top 10. He is WVU's highest draft pick since 2010.
- A pair of former Mountaineer left-handers made their Major League debuts last season, as Harrison Musgrave and John Means were called up by the Colorado Rockies and Baltimore Orioles, respectively. Musgrave made his debut on April 23 and made 35 relief appearances in 2018, while Means pitched in one game, on Sept. 26.
- With Musgrave and Means' debuts, 24 Mountaineers in program history have played in the big leagues, and Means and Musgrave are the first players coached by Randy Mazey at WVU to earn an MLB call-up.
- Three Mountaineers are currently playing on MLB Teams. Musgrave, with the Rockies, and Means, with the Orioles, are joined by West Virginia native Jedd Gyorko of the St. Louis Cardinals. Gyorko will begin his seventh MLB season in 2019.
- A total of 17 former Mountaineers played professional baseball last season.

Roadtrip Begins at Virginia Tech for No. 20 WVU

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (May 7, 2019) – The No. 20 West Virginia University baseball team begins a five-game roadtrip with a matchup at Virginia Tech on Wednesday, May 8, at 6 p.m. ET, at English Field at Union Park in Blacksburg, Virginia.

The Mountaineers (28-17) are coming off just their second Big 12 series loss of the season, which snapped a stretch of 13 wins in 17 games and five consecutive series victories. West Virginia walked off in the finale against TCU, 6-5, as six of WVU's last seven game-winning hits have come in the ninth inning or later.

West Virginia is ranked for the fourth consecutive week and checks in as high as No. 20 in this week's Perfect Game poll. WVU also is No. 21 in the NCBWA and Baseball America rankings, No. 22 in the D1Baseball top-25 and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll.

The Hokies (25-24) are coming off a series loss to Boston College and are in the middle of a seven game homestand. VT's series against BC ended with a 5-2 loss on Monday night.

A week after one of the most dominating pitching performances in program history, junior left-hander Nick Snyder (6-1, 1.93 ERA) gets the start for WVU. In last week's 2-0 win over Marshall, Snyder was one strike away from a no hitter and struck out 16 batters in the complete-game shutout. He was recognized as the Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Week on Tuesday. Snyder will face VT senior right-hander Luke Scherzer (3-3, 3.58 ERA).

Following Along

There are a number of ways to follow along with Wednesday night's action.

- The game will be streamed on the ACC Network Extra and WatchESPN to subscribers.
- Fans can listen to the game on the Mountaineer Sports Network from Learfield IMG College on various affiliates throughout the state, while fans across the country can tune into the broadcast online at WVUsports.com/Watch and on the WVU Gameday and TuneIn Radio Apps.
- Live stats can be found at HokieSports.com.
- Direct links to video and radio streams and live stats are available on the baseball schedule page on WVUsports.com.
- Additional behind-the-scenes updates, news and notes can be found on social media by following and connecting with the team on Twitter, Facebook and Instagram at @WVUBaseball.

Last Time Out: Series Loss to TCU

West Virginia is coming off a series loss to TCU, capped by a 6-5, walk-off win in the finale.

- West Virginia lost the opener on May 3, 14-5, as the Horned Frogs used a 10-run seventh inning to pull away. Junior right-hander Alek Manoah suffered the loss, and allowed five runs, four earned, on eight hits with five strikeouts and four walks in 6.0 innings, and had just his third non-quality start in 12 starts this season. Senior right fielder Darius Hill homered in the first inning, and senior shortstop Andrew Zitel hit his second home run of the season in the ninth inning and had two hits off the bench.
- TCU claimed the series victory with a 6-1 win on Saturday, as WVU was held to one run on four hits. The Mountaineer bullpen held TCU to one run on four hits in the final 5.2 innings.
- WVU walked off in the finale, as Hill hit a two-run home run to cap a three-run ninth inning in a 6-5 come-from-behind victory. West Virginia scored five runs in the final three innings, beginning with two in the seventh to help erase a 4-1 deficit. TCU scored one in the top of the ninth to make it 5-3, but junior first baseman Kevin Brophy homered in the bottom half before Hill's two-out heroics on a 3-2 pitch.

On Deck: Final Big 12 Series

WVU travels to Kansas State for its final Big 12 series of the season this weekend, from May 10-12 in Manhattan, Kansas. The series commences on Friday, May 10, at 7 p.m. ET, and continues on Saturday, May 11, at 5 p.m. ET. The finale at Tointon Family Stadium is slated for Sunday, at noon ET.

Mountaineers Ranked for Fourth Consecutive Week

For the fourth consecutive week, WVU is in the national rankings and appears in five major polls.

- The Mountaineers check in as high as No. 20 in this week's Perfect Game poll. WVU is No. 21 in the NCBWA and Baseball America rankings, No. 22 in the D1Baseball top-25 and No. 23 in the Coaches Poll. Additionally, WVU is No. 21 in the latest NCAA RPI.
- West Virginia's No. 17 ranking last week was its highest since 1982, when the Mountaineers finished the 1982 season No. 16 in the final Collegiate Baseball Newspaper poll.
- WVU is ranked for more than two weeks in a season for the first time in seventh-year coach Randy Mazey's tenure.
- The Mountaineers' appearance in this week's polls is the seventh time they have been ranked since 1982, with all seven appearances, four times in 2019, twice in 2017 and once in 2018, coming under Mazey.
- WVU is one of four Big 12 Conference teams ranked in at least one national poll this week.

Additionally, Manoah and Snyder are tied for third in the league with six wins.

Scouting Virginia Tech

Virginia Tech enters Wednesday's game with a 25-24 record and a 13-12 mark at home. While the Hokies have lost six of their last seven games following a series loss to Boston College, they own an 11-3 record in midweek contests.

Jack Owens leads the team with a .329 batting average, while Kevin Madden has a team-best 55 hits and Kerry Carpenter paces the squad with 43 RBIs, nine home runs and 10 doubles. On the mound, Ryan Okuda's 1.42 ERA leads the team and Ian Seymour has 74 strikeouts and a team-high-tying four wins.

John Szeftic is in his second season with the Hokies and owns a 46-57 mark in Blacksburg. He came to VT from Maryland, where he led the Terrapins to three NCAA Tournament appearances. That included a matchup against West Virginia in 2017, where WVU won both contests against UMD.

West Virginia is 35-53-1 all-time against Virginia Tech, though the Mountaineers hold a 4-1 advantage in coach Randy Mazey's seven seasons and are 9-4 in the series since 2003. The teams have met every season since 2014, and WVU has won three in a row, including a 10-5 home victory in 2018.

In last year's win, the Mountaineers jumped out to an early 7-0 lead as every Mountaineer had at least one hit, seven drove in one or more runs and eight scored at least one run. Seven WVU starters had multiple hits or multiple RBIs in the contest. Tristen Hudson earned the win on the mound and allowed a run on two hits with a walk in 1.2 innings in relief.

Alek Manoah's Game-by-Game Breakdown

at Kennesaw State - February 15 (No Decision)

On Opening Day, Manoah struck out a then-career-best 13 batters, which nearly doubled his previous career high of seven. He threw 78 pitches, 58 for strikes. Manoah struck out three batters in an inning twice and had two strikeouts in a frame three times. He also escaped a bases-loaded, no-out jam in the third inning.

at Georgia Southern - February 22 (Win)

Manoah allowed one unearned run on two hits with eight strikeouts, second-most in his career at the time and two walks in 6.1 innings. He held GSU hitless through 4.2 innings and did not allow a runner to reach second base while on the mound.

at No. 3 Oregon State - March 1 (Loss)

Manoah suffered his first loss of the season at No. 3 Oregon State. Against the defending national champions, he allowed seven runs, four earned, on four hits with three strikeouts and three walks in 2.0 innings. All seven runs and four hits came in the second inning, with one error.

Kent State - March 9 (Win)

In 7.2 innings, Manoah struck out 12 batters and allowed two runs on five hits. He struck out the side in the sixth and seventh innings and added two strikeouts in the third and fifth. From the fourth through seventh innings, Manoah struck out nine of the 10 batters he faced.

at William & Mary - March 16 (Win)

Manoah allowed one unearned run on four hits with nine strikeouts and three walks in 7.0 innings, and William & Mary's first hit did not come until the fifth inning. He struck out the side in the first inning, struck out two more in the fourth and got a key strikeout to end the fifth inning with two runners in scoring position.

at Baylor - March 22 (No Decision)

In WVU's Big 12 opener, Manoah allowed five runs on eight hits with six strikeouts and two walks in 7.1 innings pitched. He faced the minimum three batters in the third, fourth and fifth innings.

No. 19 Oklahoma - March 29 (Loss)

Manoah had another quality start but suffered his second loss of the season after he allowed two runs, both in the second inning, on three hits with three strikeouts and four walks in 7.1 innings. He escaped a jam in the fourth, after an error and a double put two on with one out.

at No. 23 Oklahoma State - April 5 (Win)

Manoah struck out 11 and did not walk a batter in 8.0 shutout innings to help the Mountaineers beat No. 23 Oklahoma State. He held the Cowboys to three hits in a then-career-long outing. Manoah retired the side in order five times and limited OSU to just three baserunners, only one of which advance to second base, in the eighth.

No. 11 Texas Tech - April 12 (Win)

In his first career complete game, Manoah struck out a career-best 15 batters in a shutout performance against No. 11 Texas Tech. He held the Red Raiders to four hits with no walks. Manoah did not allow a baserunner until the fourth inning and allowed a runner to reach second base just once. Manoah had three strikeouts in the third and eighth innings, had two punchouts in an inning three times and retired the side in order five times.

Kansas - April 19 (Win)

Manoah became the first player in program history to strike out 15 batters in a complete game shutout in back-to-back games, and it was his third consecutive scoreless outing. Manoah gave up just three hits and again did not walk a batter. He struck out two batters in an inning four times, struck out three in the first and had at least one strikeout in every inning. Manoah retired 12 in a row beginning in the second and notched four perfect 1-2-3 innings. In a 0-0 game in the ninth, he worked his way out of a two-on, no-out jam to keep his shutout streak intact and allow WVU to walk off in the bottom half.

at Texas - April 26 (No Decision)

Manoah earned his ninth quality start and held Texas to one run on seven hits with eight strikeouts and two walks in 7.0 innings. With the one run allowed, in the third inning, Manoah's shutout streak was snapped at 34.1 consecutive innings, and he walked his first batter in 28.1 consecutive innings. While he was not as dominant as he was in his last three shutout outings, Manoah battled on the road to escape several key jams to allow the Mountaineer offense to rally late. His first strikeout did not come until the third, and he proceeded to add eight more on the night.

TCU - May 3 (Loss)

Manoah suffered his third loss of the season and just his third non-quality start in 12 starts. In 6.0 innings, he allowed five runs, four earned, on eight hits with five strikeouts and four walks. He gave up runs in the fourth and fifth, two in the sixth and one in the seventh.

Mazey Climbing Up the Wins Chart

Coach Randy Mazey is in his seventh season at WVU and is 217-171.

- Mazey is the fourth-winningest coach in program history and passed Ira Errett Rodgers (204-209-4 from 1921-42, 1946) for fourth place on the all-time wins list on March 31, 2019, with a 5-1 win over No. 19 Oklahoma. Steve Harrick is third on the all-time wins list, with a 333-162-1 mark, from 1948-67.
- Mazey became the fifth coach in program history to eclipse the 200-win mark on March 16, 2019, with a 9-1 win at William & Mary
- After leading WVU to the NCAA Tournament in 2017, Mazey was named the East Regional Coach of the Year by the American Baseball Coaches Association (ABCA) and the Chuck Tanner College Coach of the Year Award by the Rotary Club of Pittsburgh.
- Mazey joins Ira Errett Rodgers (1921-42, 46), Steve Harrick (1948-67), Dale Ramsburgh (1968-94) and Greg Van Zant (1995-2012) with at least 100 wins at WVU. All five also have 200 wins at West Virginia.
- In his career, Mazey is 404-331-2 and earned his 400th win on April 20, 2019.

Home Sweet Home

West Virginia plays in one of the premier collegiate baseball venues in the country, Monongalia County Ballpark. With a capacity of 3,500, the ballpark opened in 2015.

- West Virginia owns a 72-41 (.637) record in the venue, which includes a 15-5 mark in 2019 and a 57-22 (.722) record since April 17, 2016.
- A school-record crowd of 3,494 saw WVU beat No. 11 Texas Tech, 5-4, on April 13, 2019. The attendance mark broke the previous record of 3,487, set 10 days earlier, on April 3, in a 5-4 win over Pitt.
- WVU has experienced record-setting attendance numbers each year, as more than 180,000 fans have watched the Mountaineers in their new home. That includes more than 30,000 every season.
- The Mountaineers opened Monongalia County Ballpark with a 6-5, 13-inning victory against Butler on April 10, 2015.
- Just beyond the right field fence serves as the everyday home for the Mountaineers, with clubhouse amenities rivaling those in Major League Baseball. The building features a player's locker room, coaches' locker room and offices, player's lounge, team theater, indoor and outdoor batting cages, a fully-equipped athletic training room and equipment room.
- Monongalia County Ballpark was named the BaseballParks.com Ballpark of the Year for 2015. The annual award recognizes a new or remodeled stadium with the best combination of site selection, exterior appearance, architectural design and fan amenities.

Record-Breaking Series Wins

West Virginia won five consecutive Big 12 series, over No. 19 Oklahoma (March 29-31), at No. 23 Oklahoma State (April 5-7), vs. No. 11 Texas Tech (April 12-14), against Kansas (April 20-21) and at Texas (April 26-28).

- WVU has won five Big 12 series in a season for the first time since it joined the league prior to the 2013 season. Previously, West Virginia won four Big 12 series in 2013, 2014, 2016 and 2017.
- The five consecutive conference series wins were the Mountaineers' most since they won six Big East series in a row in 2003.
- The last time WVU won more than five conference series in a single season was 2009, when the Mountaineers claimed six Big East series.

Hill Honored, Rises in WVU Record Books

As senior right fielder Darius Hill climbs up the WVU record books in several statistical categories, he has been named a candidate for the 2019 Senior CLASS Award, which recognizes student-athletes who have notable achievements in four areas of excellence: community, classroom, character and competition.

- A Dallas native, Hill is one of 30 baseball players recognized and one of three from the Big 12 Conference, the most of any conference.
- Hill was named to the ABCA East All-Region First Team, the All-Big 12 Second Team and the Big 12 All-Tournament Team as a junior in 2018. In 2017, he collected All-Big 12 Honorable Mention accolades and Big 12 All-Tournament Team honors. As a freshman in 2016, Hill was named to five freshman All-America teams, the ABCA East All-Region Second Team, the All-Big 12 Second Team and the Big 12 All-Freshman Team.
- Majoring in management, Hill was named to the Academic All-Big 12 First Team in 2018 and the Academic All-Big 12 Second Team in 2017. He has been recognized on the Big 12 Commissioner's Honor Roll and the Garrett Ford Academic Honor Roll throughout his career. Hill was named to the WVU President's List in the fall of 2018 after he earned a 4.0 GPA.
- Along with Hill's numerous accolades earned throughout his career, his career statistics rank among WVU's best in program history, highlighted by his 220 games played and starts, both which are tied for No. 1 in team history.

Snyder's Midweek Magic, Near No-No

Junior left-handed starter Nick Snyder turned in one of the most dominating performances in program history in a one-hit, 16-strikeout contest on April 30. He was rewarded with Perfect Game National Pitcher of the Week and WVU Student-Athlete of the Week accolades following the performance.

- In the 2-0 win over Marshall, Snyder took a no hitter into the ninth inning and threw his first career complete game to go along with the one hit allowed, one walk and career-best 16 strikeouts. He allowed just two baserunners, a walk in the third inning and a two-out single in the ninth.
- The one-hitter was the first by a Mountaineer since Zac Cline held Virginia Tech to one hit on May 23, 2003 and the 10th nine-inning one-hitter in team history. Snyder's 16 strikeouts are the most by a WVU hurler since Wes Shaw had 16 on April 8, 1989, against Fairmont State. The 16 strikeouts are tied for eighth-most in program history, and is one of seven 16-strikeout performances in WVU history.
- Snyder has a team-high-tying six wins on the season, while the Mountaineers are 8-0 in his starts.
- In eight starts, Snyder has a 0.92 ERA with 19 hits and four earned runs allowed in 39.1 innings pitched. He has 60 strikeouts and 17 walks.
- On the season, in 11 total appearances, Snyder ranks No. 6 nationally with 4.71 hits allowed per nine innings, is No. 11 with 13.50 strikeouts per nine innings and No. 30 with a 1.93 ERA. He is third in the Big 12 with a 0.98 WHIP and six wins.

Record Crowd Sees Backyard Brawl Win

A then-WVU-record 3,487 fans watched West Virginia score the go-ahead run in the eighth inning to beat Pitt, 5-4, in the Backyard Brawl on April 3, at Monongalia County Ballpark.

- In front of the largest crowd to ever watch a WVU home game at the time, the Mountaineers regained a 5-4 lead in the eighth inning on a sacrifice fly by junior first baseman Kevin Brophy after the Panthers tied the game with a three-run sixth inning. WVU scored four runs in the bottom of the second inning to take a 4-1 lead, which included a two-run home run by Brophy.
- In the oldest and most-played rivalry in program history, West Virginia has won five in a row against Pitt and 10 of the last 13 meetings. With the win, WVU increased its lead in the all-time series to 107-88.

Three Consecutive Top-25 Series Wins

WVU won three consecutive Big 12 series against top-25 opponents, vs. No. 19 Oklahoma from March 29-31, at No. 23 Oklahoma State from April 5-7 and against No. 11 Texas Tech from April 12-14.

- West Virginia lost the opener to the Sooners, 2-1 on March 29, as both teams had five hits. OU scored two in the second and WVU one in the sixth. Junior right-hander Alek Manoah allowed two runs on three hits in 7.1 innings.
- WVU evened the series the next day with a 12-4 win, as the Mountaineers scored the go-ahead run in the seventh and added an eight-run eighth. West Virginia took a 1-0 lead in the first inning, and led 3-0 after four, but OU rallied to tie the game in the sixth.
- WVU jumped out to an early lead and never trailed for the second consecutive day to win the series, 5-1 on March 31. Junior right-handed starter Kade Strowd earned the win and allowed a run on three hits in 5.0 innings, while junior first baseman Marques Inman hit a two-run home run.
- West Virginia opened the series at No. 23 OSU with an 11-1 win on April 5, as Manoah struck out 11 with no walks and three hits allowed in 8.0 shutout innings. WVU scored at least one run in each of the first five innings and totaled 17 hits, led by Inman's four hits and four RBIs.
- OSU evened the series on April 6 with a 9-5 win. WVU led 5-0 after four innings, but OSU rallied with one in the fifth, three in the sixth and five in the eighth. Sophomore lefty Jackson Wolf allowed four runs, one earned, in 7.0 innings.
- West Virginia won the series with a 4-2, comeback win on April 7. WVU erased an early 2-1 deficit with two runs in the eighth inning and added an insurance run in the ninth. Strowd earned the win and had a season-high 10 strikeouts in a career-best 7.1 innings. He held OSU to two runs on four hits.
- Manoah tossed a four-hit, complete-game shutout with a career-high 15 strikeouts and no walks to lead WVU to a series-opening, 2-0 victory on April 12 against No. 11 TTU. Both runs came with two outs, on RBI singles by Inman in the first inning and sophomore designated hitter Paul McIntosh in the third.
- A walk-off walk lifted West Virginia to the series win the next day, with a 4-3 victory in front of 3,494 fans, the largest home crowd in program history. Inman drew a four-pitch walk in the bottom of the ninth inning to bring in the winning run. WVU took a 2-0 lead in the first, but TTU rallied to take a 3-2 lead in the fifth before West Virginia answered in the bottom of the fifth to tie it at 3-3. Inman and senior third baseman Ivan Gonzalez each had two hits and two RBIs in the win, while four pitchers held Tech to three runs on nine hits.
- West Virginia was shut out in the series, finale on April 14, 3-0. WVU was held to two hits as the Red Raiders scored two in the fifth and one in the eighth.

WVU Upsets No. 3 Oregon State

West Virginia traveled to No. 3 Oregon State, the defending NCAA champions, from March 1-3, and won the finale on March 3, 2-0.

- The 2-0 upset win is tied for the highest-ranked win in program history. The Mountaineers also beat No. 3 TCU twice at home on April 14-16, 2017.
- West Virginia faced the defending national champions for the second time in program history and is 3-2 all-time against teams the year after they won the NCAA title. In 2017, WVU went 2-0 at Coastal Carolina, the reigning champions.
- A strong start by right-hander Kade Strowd and a pair of second-inning home runs by first baseman Kevin Brophy and left fielder Paul McIntosh fueled WVU in the win. Strowd took a no hitter into the seventh inning and held Oregon State to one hit with five strikeouts. In 6.1 innings, he struck out five with nine walks, but five double plays, including four inning-enders, helped him shut out OSU. Strowd earned the win and righty Sam Kessler collected the save with 2.0 shutout innings.
- West Virginia opened the series with a 9-2 loss on March 1, and the Beavers won Saturday's contest, 4-2.

Strowd Earns Big 12 Honor after Upset

Junior right-hander Kade Strowd was named the Big 12 Pitcher of the Week on March 4 after he took a no hitter into the seventh inning at No. 3 Oregon State on March 3 to lead West Virginia to a 2-0 upset victory over the defending national champions.

- The accolade is the first Big 12 weekly honor of Strowd's career and the first for the Mountaineers this season. He is the first WVU pitcher to be named Big 12 Pitcher of the Week since 2017.
- In 6.1 shutout innings in Corvallis, Oregon, Strowd allowed just one hit, which led off the seventh inning, with five strikeouts. He walked nine, but WVU turned five double plays, four of them inning-enders. Strowd held third-ranked Oregon State to a .067 batting average, second-lowest among all Big 12 pitchers on the week.
- Strowd's 6.0 no-hit innings comes a week after he took a no hitter into the fifth on Feb. Feb. 23, at Georgia Southern.
- The Fort Worth, Texas, native is 1-1 on the season and boasts a 1.56 ERA with three earned runs allowed on eight hits in three starts. In 17.1 innings pitched, he has 14 strikeouts with 10 walks.
- Sunday's performance helped the Mountaineers hand the Beavers their first loss of the season. The win over third-ranked OSU is tied for WVU's highest-ranked win in program history.

Homegrown Talent

Three West Virginia natives are on the 2019 roster, tied for the fourth-most represented state on the team, behind Florida and Texas (5) and Ohio (4).

WVU Fifth in Big 12 Preseason Poll

West Virginia was voted to finish sixth in the 2019 Big 12 preseason coaches' poll.

- WVU is one of two teams to make three consecutive Big 12 Championship semifinal appearances.
- The Mountaineers have finished in the top four in the final Big 12 standings in three of their first six seasons in the league.
- Despite its early success since joining the conference, West Virginia has never been voted better than fifth in the preseason poll.

Record-Setting Draft Success

West Virginia has experienced unprecedented success in the Major League Baseball Draft in Randy Mazey's tenure. WVU has had 20 draft picks in Mazey's six seasons, the most in a six-year stretch in team history.

- At least two West Virginia players have been drafted in each of Mazey's six seasons.
- In the 2018 draft, Michael Grove was selected in the second round by the Los Angeles Dodgers, Kyle Gray was drafted in the 14th round by the New York Yankees, junior Jimmy Galusky was picked in the 20th round by the Chicago White Sox and senior BJ Myers was selected by the Tampa Bay Rays in the 35th round.
- Grove became the fourth Mountaineer ever picked in the top two rounds, and 11th in the top 10. He is WVU's highest draft pick since 2010.
- WVU's four draft picks in 2018 are tied for third-most in a single draft in team history.
- There have been 90 Mountaineer draft picks since the first draft was held in 1965.
