WVU'S LAST GAME: WEST VIRGINIA 24, TCU 20

FORTH WORTH, TEXAS (Oct. 24, 2026) - West Virginia got a defensive turnover in the final minute to secure a 24-20 road victory over TCU at Amon G. Carter Stadium.

Defensive lineman David Afogho sacked and stripped TCU quarterback Jaden Craig at the WVU 14-yard line with 34 seconds remaining. When WVU linebacker Ben Cutter recovered the fumble, West Virginia got a much-needed defensive stop and its fifth win of the season.

The Mountaineers started the scoring with an impressive 54-yard field goal from kicker Jack Cassidy at the 12:19 mark of the first quarter. Cassidy's field goal was the third longest in school history.

TCU then closed the scoring in the first quarter with a 9:04 drive that covered 91 yards in 16 plays. Receiver Ka'Morreun Pimpton scored on a 6-yard pass from Craig, giving the Horned Frogs a 7-3 lead.

West Virginia regained the upper hand early in the second quarter, when quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr. powered from the 2-yard line for a touchdown. WVU's drive covered 68 yards in 10 plays for a 10-7 advantage.

TCU was clearly in the mindset of keeping the ball away from the Mountaineer offense. In addition to the 9:04 drive, the Horned Frogs also turned in first half drives of 5:01 and 4:06. The former resulted in a 39-yard Nate McCashland field goal and ended with a 43-yard McCashland missed field goal as the two teams ended the first half tied at 10-10.

McCashland nailed a 37-yard field goal attempt at the 10:54 mark of the third quarter, resulting in a 13-10 lead for the home team.

The visitors answered later in the quarter when Hawkins broke loose for a 36-yard touchdown run to give West Virginia a short-lived 17-13 advantage. Before the end of the quarter, the Horned Frogs were back on top as Craig's 2-yard scoring run gave TCU a 20-17 nod heading to the fourth.

The Mountaineers embarked on a 14-play, 75-yard drive that took 4:47 off the fourth quarter clock and ended with a beautiful 13-yard scoring toss from Hawkins to running back Cam Cook and a 24-20 WVU lead.

WVU's next drive came up 1 yard short, resulting in a punt back to TCU with 5:52 left to play. The Horned Frogs traveled 67 yards in 17 plays down to the WVU 14 before Afogho's and Cutter's heroics saved the day and the road victory.

TCU dominated in time of possession by a 37:36 to 22:24 count and in first downs 29-17. Other final numbers had West Virginia with 186 yards rushing and 79 passing for 265 total yards. The Horned Frogs came in at 112 yards on the ground and 372 through the air for 484 total yards.

TCU added two 100-yard receivers, but West Virginia's duo of Hawkins and Cook combined for 177 yards rushing and three touchdowns to lead the Mountaineer offense.

With the win, West Virginia now leads the overall series against TCU by a 9-6 count, including a 5-2 mark in Fort Worth.

ANTERO RESOURCES JERSEY PATCH

- The WVU Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, in conjunction with Learfield's Mountaineer Sports Properties, has partnered with Antero Resources, for a groundbreaking, five-year jersey sponsorship.
- The partnership secures Antero's logo on the home and away jerseys of all 18 WVU varsity sports and marks the first uniform sponsorship patch in school history.
- Antero is one of the largest producers of natural gas and natural gas liquids (NGLs) in the United States. As an independent oil and gas company, Antero acquires, explores, develops and produces natural gas, natural gas liquids and oil in the Appalachian Basin. The company focuses on developing low-cost, repeatable unconventional properties in West Virginia.

AT HOME

GAME NO. 1: WEST VIRGINIA 31, COASTAL CAROLINA 24

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 5, 2026) - West Virginia grabbed win No. 1 of the 2026 season with a 31-24 victory over Coastal Carolina at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The special day not only opened the season, but it will always be remembered as the day that legendary quarterback Pat White got his No. 5 retired in the stadium. A home crowd of 54,158 turned out dressed in white for the pregame ceremony that honored one of the best players to ever wear a Mountaineer uniform.

Wearing their road whites at home for only the second time since 1980, in conjunction with White's number retirement, West Virginia started quickly and never looked back in taking a 24-0 lead over the Chanticleers at the half.

On the game's first play, WVU running back Cam Cook turned in a 72-yard run to set up WVU's first score of the season. Cook's 3-yard run on the next play gave the Mountaineers a 7-0 lead after just 47 seconds off the clock.

Later in the first quarter, West Virginia used a nine-play, 92-yard drive to take a 14-0 lead when quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr., connected on a 49-yard touchdown bomb to receiver Armoni Weaver-Bomar.

The Mountaineers added 10 points in the second quarter. Kicker Jack Cassidy converted on a 38-yard field goal attempt, and Cook scored his second touchdown in the game just before halftime for a 24-0 West Virginia advantage.

The third quarter belonged to Coastal as the Chanticleers got on the scoreboard at the 3:57 mark when quarterback Duece Bailey threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to receiver Clayton Coppock.

The Chanticleers were far from done in the fourth quarter. Whether it was capitalizing on a West Virginia letdown or not, Coastal added an impressive 17 points in the final quarter of play.

Baliey threw two more touchdown passes in the game, one to Colton Hinton from 13 yards out and a second score to Coppock of 37 yards.

Good for West Virginia that Hawkins added an 11 yard rushing touchdown, which not only turned out to be an insurance touchdown with 2:58 left, but the game winner.

Coastal made added a 32-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining, but the Mountaineers held on for the 31-24 win.

Cook finished his first game as a Mountaineer with 142 yards rushing and two scores. Hawkins, who was also playing in his first WVU game, added 103 yards rushing and 132 passing yards, accounting for two touchdowns.

Coastal got a nice performance out of Bailey as he passed for 373 yards and three touchdowns on 21 completions. He connected with 11 different receivers as Coppock led the way with 83 yards receiving and two scores.

With the win, WVU is now 2-0 in the all-time series vs. Coastal Carolina and improves to 41-6-1 in home openers at Milan Puskar Stadium

GAME NO. 2: WEST VIRGINIA 52, UT MARTIN 7

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 12, 2026) - West Virginia took care of business in week two, defeating UT Martin, 52-7, at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Mountaineers rolled to a 21-0 first-quarter lead and never look back, blanking the Skyhawks on the scoreboard until the final three minutes of the game.

Receiver DJ Epps got the scoring started on West Virginia's first possession as he hauled in a 53-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr.

Epps would go on to record his first 100-yard receiving day as a Mountaineer, finishing with two catches for 112 yards as his second reception in the contest went for 59 yards.

Before the quarter ended, running back Cam Cook scored from 2 yards out for a 14-0 advantage. It marked the 12th consecutive game that Cook has scored. Hawkins then scampered 71 yards to put the Mountaineers in control.

West Virginia added a touchdown in the second quarter to take a 28-0 lead into the locker room at halftime. Hawkins scored his second rushing touchdown at the 11:30 mark of the quarter, when he motored in from 5 yards out to end a 74-yard drive.

Tight end Ryan Ward got in on the scoring action in the third quarter by pulling in a 32-yard touchdown catch from Hawkins. The score ended a 75-yard drive and put the home team up by a 35-0 count.

West Virginia added 10 more points in the third quarter. Freshman running back Amari Lattimer scored his first career touchdown with 9:56 left on a 29-yard run, while kicker Jack Cassidy added a 35-yard field goal to give the Mountaineers a 45-0 advantage heading to the fourth quarter.

West Virginia's final score came at the 7:07 mark, when quarterback Jyron Hughley threw his first WVU touchdown on a 27-yard completion to receiver Kendrick Triplett.

WVU was just 3:00 away from recording its first shutout since 2021, but the Mountaineer offense helped the Skyhawks, when a fumble was recovered by linebacker John Betts and returned 6 yards for the lone touchdown in the game for the visitors. Since the score came while the offense was on the field, the Mountaineer defense finished its day holding UT Martin scoreless.

Aside from Epps, Hawkins was special for the Mountaineers, accounting for two touchdowns rushing and two passing and finishing with 251 yards of offense.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 316 yards rushing and 209 passing to total 525 yards of offense. UT Martin collected 148 yards rushing and 170 passing for 318 total yards. The Mountaineers averaged 8.3 yards per play to UT Martin's 4.5.

With the win, West Virginia improves to 24-0 against FCS teams and starts the season 2-0 for the first time since 2018.

GAME 3: WEST VIRGINIA 38, NO. 25/25 VIRGINIA 27

CHARLOTTE, NC (Sept. 19, 2026) - West Virginia scored an upset in Uptown Charlotte with a 38-27 victory over No. 25 Virginia at Bank of America Stadium.

Mountaineer quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr. was an offensive highlight reel, accounting for three rushing touchdowns and two passing scores in leading WVU to the victory. The junior finished with 123 yards rushing and 190 passing for 313 yards of total offense.

Hawkins had to overcome two first-half deficits to the Cavaliers, but each time engineered drives to take the lead and then in the fourth quarter put the game in the win column.

Virginia took its first lead on its opening possession, marching 62 yards in 12 plays for a 7-0 lead on an 8-yard run from running back Jekail Middlebrook.

The Virginia drive took 6:58 off the clock, but the Mountaineers answered 2:40 later on Hawkins' 13-yard run, ending a 75-yard drive.

With just six seconds remaining in the quarter, Virginia grabbed the lead again on a 47-yard run from running back Xavier Brown.

With both Virginia touchdowns coming from strong runs from their backfield, the Mountaineer defense adjusted and held the Cavaliers scoreless in the second quarter, which allowed the WVU offense time to find its rhythm.

West Virginia outscored Virginia 14-0 in the second quarter. Hawkins connected with receiver DJ Epps on a 29-yard touchdown completion to tie the game at 14-14 at the 11:49 mark of the second quarter.

A key drive then came just before halftime. Knowing that Virginia would get the ball first to start the third quarter, the Mountaineers not only hung on, but took the lead on a 15-yard run from Hawkins to cap a 70-yard drive.

Trailing 21-14, Virginia converted a key 4th-and-10 pass midway through the third and went on to tie the game on Middlebrook's second touchdown, which came on a 1-yard pass from quarterback Beau Pribula.

However, Hawkins put the Mountaineers back in front with just 12 seconds left in the third on a 21-yard touchdown strike to Epps.

West Virginia dominated the fourth quarter, scoring 10 points and holding Virginia off the scoreboard until the final 21 seconds of the game.

Hawkins put the Mountaineers up 35-21 with his third rushing touchdown at the 5:24 mark. The Mountaineer defense then stopped Virgina on four plays, giving a short field back to the offense. Kicker Jack Cassidy booted a 21-yard field goal for a 38-21 advantage before the Cavaliers scored a mop-up touchdown in the final seconds.

West Virginia finished with 247 yards rushing and 190 passing to total 437 yards of offense. Virginia totaled 157 yards on the ground and 197 through the air for 354 total yards.

WVU finished undefeated in its nonconference slate and reached the 3-0 mark to start the season for the first time since 2018.

GAME 4: OKLAHOMA STATE 41, WEST VIRGINIA 24

MORGANTOWN, WV (Sept. 26, 2026) - Oklahoma State used a big-play passing attack to defeat West Virginia, 41-24, in front of 57,756 fans at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The loss overshadowed the strong 335-yard rushing performance from the Mountaineer offense. Tailback Cam Cook not only turned in a 75-yard run, but finished the night with 193 yards on the ground and a 6.7 yards per carry average. Quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr. backed up Cook's performance with 103 rushing yards of his own to go along with three rushing touchdowns.

The Big 12 Conference game lived up to its billing as two high-powered offenses took center stage and combined for 1,076 yards.

Hawkins' play dominated the first half for West Virginia as his dynamic rushing had the Mountaineers on top 14-13 at halftime. The quarterback got the scoring started on a 5-yard jaunt to cap a 95-yard drive at the 7:44 mark. The drive featured Cook's 75-yard rush.

The Cowboys countered with a Sam Keltner 30-yard field goal to close the quarter at 7-3 in favor of the Mountaineers.

West Virginia extended its lead to 14-3 at the 11:52 mark of the second quarter when Hawkins scored on a 3-yard run. The impressive WVU drive covered 75 yards in 16 plays and took 6:20 off the clock.

Oklahoma State closed first-half scoring with 10 points on Keltner's 19-yard field goal and a 21-yard pass from quarterback Drew Mestemaker to receiver Justin Bowick to narrow the gap to 14-13 at the intermission.

West Virginia started the second-half scoring with a 9-yard Hawkins touchdown, but the Cowboys would outscore the home team, 15-10, in the quarter behind a Mestemaker touchdown pass and a 22-yard run from running back Caleb Hawkins.

A Jack Cassidy 27-yard field goal added to WVU's totals as Oklahoma State took a 28-24 lead into the fourth quarter.

However, the final quarter is where things unraveled for the Mountaineers. Oklahoma State added Keltner field goals of 29 and 47 yards, but the dagger came from Mestemaker's third touchdown pass in the game from 6 yards out to Wyatt Young.

Mestemaker passed for 389 yards and three touchdowns, completing passes of 52, 48, 48, 28 and 27 yards throughout the game to bring his team from behind. His play, along with the running of Hawkins, who finished with 180 yards on the ground for the Cowboys, countered West Virginia's potent rushing attack, and led the visitors to the win. Mestemaker's favorite target was Young, who hauled in eight catches for 192 yards and made the big plays for the Cowboys at crucial times.

OSU also received strong defensive play from Ethan Wesloski, Tate Romney, Quinton Hammonds and Mose Phillips as the four combined for 52 tackles.

With the win, Oklahoma State now leads the series by a 11-6 count including a 6-2 mark in Morgantown.

GAME 5: IOWA STATE 45, WEST VIRGINIA 42

AMES, IOWA (Oct. 3, 2026) - A high-scoring affair saw Iowa State and West Virginia trade the lead five times in the fourth quarter before the Cyclones pulled out a 45-42 victory at Jack Trice Stadium.

The Mountaineers were powered by the rushing attack of quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr. (149) and running back Cam Cook (142) as the two combined for all 291 rushing yards and four of the team's six touchdowns.

Iowa State countered with running back Aiden Flora, who finished with 212 yards rushing and three touchdowns, while throwing for two more from the backfield.

While the game was exciting for three quarters, it could not hold up to the fourth quarter, when the teams combined for four touchdowns and a field goal to close out the contest.

The Mountaineers opened the scoring on Hawkins' 33-yard touchdown pass to receiver Cyrus Traugh. The Cyclones evened the score before the quarter ended when Omari Hayes hauled in a 20-yard pass from quarterback Jaylen Raynor

Iowa State took its first lead at the 11:04 mark of the second quarter on a 46-yard touchdown pass to Cody Jackson from Flora, before West Virginia countered with an 8-yard run from Hawkins to tie the score at 14-14.

The Cyclones used trickery once again from Flora to take a 21-14 advantage at halftime on Vince Benetti's 2-yard reception from the running back.

Iowa State then upped its advantage to 28-14 early in the third as Flora broke tackles and rushed 24 yards for the score.

Just as Iowa State scored 14 straight points, West Virginia was not going away and answered with a 14-point comeback to tie the game at 28 heading to the fourth quarter. WVU got a 7-yard scoring run from Hawkins and a 9-yard jaunt from Cook to get back into the game.

The fourth quarter started with a 35-yard field goal from ISU kicker Kyle Konrardy. The Mountaineers then gained their first lead since the 6:53 mark of the first quarter, when Cook powered in from 8 yards out for a 35-31 WVU lead.

Flora again proved to be a thorn in WVU's side as he turned in a 63-yard touchdown run to put the Cyclones back in front 38-35 with 6:08 left to play.

Not to be denied, West Virginia receiver DJ Epps turned in a big play of his own by catching a Hawkins pass and going 47 yards for a 42-38 West Virginia advantage with 5:04 left.

But the Mountaineer defense could not contain the Iowa State offense, especially Flora. The running back accounted for his fifth touchdown of the afternoon on a 2-yard run to end a six-play, 74-yard drive with 1:57 left on the clock. Flora and Jackson combined for 65 of the 74 yards in the game-winning drive.

WVU got one final attempt to win or tie, but Iowa State recovered an Epps fumble to end the game. With the win, Iowa State now leads the series against WVU 7-6.

GAME 6: ARIZONA 52, WEST VIRGINIA 31

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 10, 2026) - Arizona traveled east and came away with a 52-31 victory over West Virginia at Milan Puskar Stadium.

Arizona quarterback Noah Fifita showed why he is one of the nation's best by passing for 341 yards and three touchdowns to lead the Wildcats. Fifita's favorite target was receiver Isaiah Mizell, who hauled in six catches for 183 yards and two scores. Mizell's long catch went for 72 yards while also accounting for a 48-yard reception.

Fifita and Mizell's performance countered and neutralized the West Virginia duo of quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr. and running back Cam Cook. Hawkins passed for 219 yards and rushed for 98 yards and a score, while Cook totaled 141 yards rushing and two scores to lead the Mountaineer attack.

West Virginia kicker Jack Cassidy started the game on a high note as his 25-yard field goal put the Mountaineers up early 3-0.

Arizona closed the first quarter with a 14-yard touchdown reception from Mizell and a 32-yard fumble recovery for a touchdown from safety Lee Molette.

The two teams combined for 24 points in the second quarter, which allowed the Wildcats to take a 24-17 lead at halftime.

The quarter saw Hawkins make the Wildcats pay for a Fifita interception with a 3-yard touchdown run. A Michael Salgado-Medina 44-yard field goal and a 40-yard Quincy Craig scoring run totaled 10 points for the visitors. WVU got its second score in the quarter when Cook broke loose for a 30-yard touchdown run to outscore the visitors 14-10.

Arizona battled back to best the Mountaineers 14-7 in the third. Running back Kedrick Reescano started the scoring with an 8-yard run to make it 31-17. West Virginia closed the gap to 31-24 on Amari Latimer's 2-yard score.

However, Arizona closed the scoring in the third on Mizell's 72-yard touchdown catch and run, giving the Wildcats a 38-24 advantage.

The Mountaineers tried to make it interesting in the fourth, when Cook's 1-yard touchdown run cut the deficit to 38-31 with 12:33 left to play. But, the Wildcats closed the game on a 14-0 run to earn the victory.

After Cook's run pulled WVU within seven points, the Wildcats responded just 58 seconds later with a 42-yard touchdown pass from Fifita to receiver Brandon Phelps.

The Wildcats then sealed the game at the 9:40 mark on a 30-yard touchdown run by Antwan Roberts.

Final numbers showed Arizona with 141 yards rushing and 341 passing to total 482 yards of offense. The Wildcats had four of their seven scoring drives go for 75 yards. West Virginia had strong offensive numbers as well, finishing with an impressive 303 yards rushing to go with 219 passing for a total of 522 total yards.

The Wildcat win evened the young series, 1-1, between the two teams with each winning on the home team's turf.

GAME 7: WEST VIRGINIA 45, CINCINNATI 42

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Oct. 17, 2026) - A good old-fashioned Big 12 Conference offensive shootout saw West Virginia get its first league win of the season with a 45-42 victory over Cincinnati at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The game came down to the right foot of WVU kicker Jack Cassidy, who converted a 35-yard field goal as time expired to give the Mountaineers the win.

It became clear early in the contest that the team that had the ball last was probably going to win, and WVU got a defensive stop late in the fourth quarter to give the ball to its dynamic quarterback.

Michael Hawkins Jr. was impressive as he accounted for five touchdowns (three passing) and 464 yards through the air in leading the Mountaineers. Each time Cincinnati grabbed the lead, Hawkins brought the Mountaineers back, taking their only lead on the last-second winning field goal.

Cincy opened the scoring at the 8:53 mark of the first quarter on JV Gibson's 4-yard touchdown reception from quarterback JC French.

The 7-0 Bearcat lead remained until the 11:56 mark of the second quarter when the offensive fireworks began. The Mountaineers used a 12-yard run from Hawkins for their first score, before French gave the Bearcats a 14-7 lead on his 51-yard scoring toss to Isaiah Johnson.

West Virginia tied the game at 14-14 when Hawkins scored from 2 yards out, before Cincinnati took a 21-14 advantage at the half on Cole Tabb's 28-yard run.

Third-quarter action saw each team put up seven points. West Virginia got a 4-yard touchdown catch from tight end Josh Sapp before the visitors took a 28-21 lead into the fourth quarter on French's 1-yard plunge.

West Virginia came up big in the fourth, outscoring the Bearcats 24-14. Early in the quarter, Hawkins' 37-yard scoring toss to receiver DJ Epps tied the game at 28-28.

Cincinnati countered with French's 11-yard pass to Tabb for a 35-28 lead at the 11:23 mark. A 3-yard run from Amari Latimer evened the score for the Mountaineers before Tabb broke loose again for a 6-yard run to give Cincy its final lead of 42-35 with 5:35 left to play.

Running back Cam Cook was mostly held in check by the Cincy defense, but he took a Hawkins pass 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game, 42-42, at the 3:44 mark.

After a key stop by the WVU defense, the Bearcats pinned the Mountaineers at their 1-yard line after a 66-yard punt by Max Fletcher with 2:05 left in the game.

But Hawkins never gave the ball back to the visitors as he completed passes of 41 yards on third down and 39 yards on second down, to Prince Strachan, setting up Cassidy's game-winning heroics.

Epps turned in his third 100-yard receiving effort of the season with 163 yards as the Mountaineers finished with 598 total yards. Cincinnati also had strong offensive numbers totaling 622 total yards.

The win improved WVU to 4-3 on the season and 19-3-1 all-time vs. the Bearcats.
