WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT

Ross Hodge

"Ross Hodge is the ultimate winner. He's an elite basketball coach and knows how to help his teams be the best they can be on the court. The separator is his love for people and genuine relationships off the court that give him the trust required to hold his teams to a championship level. He'll win big at West Virginia, but what I respect most is he's an awesome husband, father and friend." Grant McCasland, Head Men's Basketball Coach – Texas Tech

"West Virginia made a very good hire in Ross Hodge. He is a very capable basketball coach, quietly super competitive and smart. He has already been around coaches who have been successful in the Big 12, and I expect him to do the same in Morgantown." Fran Fraschilla, ESPN College Basketball Analyst

"Ross is definitely one of my favorite coaches in the country. He is the next big-time coach to take West Virginia back to the glory days of winning and NCAA Tournaments. He is arguably one of the best in the country defensively. His teams will always be a hard out. They are relentless in their efforts for 40 minutes. It's one of the hardest teams that I have ever had to coach against because they are so tough." Penny Hardaway, Head Men's Basketball Coach – Memphis

"Ross is a tremendous coach and leader of young men. He will do a terrific job at West Virginia. He is a home run hire and the Big 12 just got better." Scott Drew, Head Men's Basketball Coach - Baylor

"West Virginia is hiring one of the best young coaches in the country. Ross possesses the grittiness, emotional intelligence and humility to be successful at any level of basketball. He has won at every stop, and I can't imagine that changing in Morgantown. I couldn't be more excited for Ross and his family." Dusty May, Head Men's Basketball Coach - Michigan

- Hodge spent the last eight seasons at North Texas, including the last two as head coach, posting a 46-24 (.657) record.
- In 2024-25, Hodge's North Texas team won 27 games and advanced to the semifinals of the NIT in Indianapolis.
- Hodge has compiled a record of 209-60 (.777) in eight seasons as a head coach, including 63-36 (.636) in Division I.
- In 2024-25, Hodge has led a revamped North Texas team to an eight-win overall improvement and second-place finish in the American Athletic Conference, five spots higher than its preseason projection.
- UNT's 27 wins were the second-most single season wins in school history and the 14 league victories were tied for the third-most league wins in school history and most in its AAC tenure.
- Hodge's 46 wins were the most by a UNT head coach in his first two seasons.
- In 2024-25, North Texas ranked third in the country in scoring defense at 59.9 points per game, 1.5 points behind first place Houston.
- That season, UNT had the AAC's second-most efficient offense and second-most efficient defense. On offense, UNT averaged 1.13 points per possession against AAC opponents and on defense held AAC opponents to 1.01 points per possession.
- In 2023-24, in UNT's first season in the American, Hodge led North Texas to a 19-win season and the second round of the NIT.
- Hodge was named a finalist for the 2024 Joe B. Hall National Coach of the Year Award, which is given to the nation's top rookie head coach. He was the only rookie head coach to lead his respective team to either the NCAA Tournament or NIT.
- North Texas was without two starters due to injuries for half of its league games and finished with 10 conference wins, the most by a first-year UNT head coach.
- Also, North Texas' scoring defense held opponents to 63.8 points per game, which was the 12th-best in the nation and best in the AAC. North Texas made 284 3-point field goals and shot 37.7% from 3. It was tied for the second-most single season 3-point field goals in program history and the 3-point field goal percentage was 14th best in the nation.
- Hodge was the architect of North Texas' defense. The Mean Green have featured one of the nation's top defenses over the last five seasons. Since 2020, North Texas is giving up an average of just 59.2 points per game. Only Houston is allowing fewer points per game over the last five seasons combined (58.0). In 2021-22 and 2022-23, UNT had the nation's No. 1 scoring defense, limiting opponents to 55.7 and 55.8 points per game, respectively, and is Conference USA's top single-season scoring defenses in league history.
- In his six seasons at UNT prior to being named head coach, Hodge served as the associate head coach under current Texas Tech head coach Grant McCasland. Hodge helped lead the Mean Green to a 135-65 overall record and 71-35 record in conference games. North Texas won the 2020 Conference USA regular season championship, 2021 Conference USA Tournament championship and 2022 Conference USA regular season title. In 2021, UNT earned an automatic bid into the NCAA Tournament, where they received a program-best No. 13 seeding. In the first round the Mean Green upset Purdue, 78-69, for the program's first-ever NCAA win. In 2023, Hodge helped lead North Texas to the 2023 NIT championship, the program's first NIT title. In his first season at North Texas in 2017-18, Hodge helped guide UNT to the 2018 CBI championship.

- In 2022-23, North Texas won a single-season program record 31 overall games. It was the second straight season UNT set the program record for single season wins. Additionally, UNT won 16 league games in 2022 and 2023, which is a program record.
- Prior to his arrival at North Texas, Hodge served as the associate head coach under McCasland at Arkansas State for the 2016-17 season. The Red Wolves made a 10-win improvement that season, which was the second-best turn around in Division I basketball that year.
- Prior to Arkansas State, Hodge spent four seasons with Larry Eustachy at Colorado State. Hodge served as the lead recruiter there and helped the Rams to an 87-48 record over his four-year stint. During his time there, the Rams advanced to postseason play twice, including the NCAA Tournament in 2013, where they reached the NCAA Second Round after defeating Missouri, 84-72. CSU lost to eventual national champion Louisville.
- Hodge joined the Division I coaching ranks when he was hired by Eustachy as an assistant coach at Southern Miss prior to the 2011-12 season. The Golden Eagles posted a 25-9 record and finished second in Conference USA with an 11-5 mark. Southern Miss received an at-large berth in the NCAA Tournament as an eight seed.

Recap

West Virginia used a career-high-tying 25 points from Jasper Floyd to defeat Mount St. Mary's 70-54 in Ross Hodge's coaching debut at Hope Coliseum.

Floyd, who once tallied 25 points against Yale when he played at Fairfield, made 9 of 13 from the floor, 6 of 9 from the free throw line and handed out four assists.

Honor Huff contributed 16 points, seven of those coming from the free throw line and all three field goals coming from behind the 3-point arc, while Brenen Lorient chipped in with 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Lorient's work on the glass was significant because the Mountaineers were getting doubled up on the backboards for most of the game.

The Mount's final rebounding advantage was nine, 38 to 29, although Hodge thought some of that margin is a little bit misleading.

West Virginia's real advantage came at the free throw line where the Mount's 25 fouls resulted in 35 free throw attempts, the Mountaineers converting 23.

WVU produced 13 steals leading to those 20 Mount St. Mary's turnovers and 19 fastbreak points.

"I thought our defensive activity was probably the difference in the game," Hodge said. "We turned them over 20 times, and we only turned it over nine."

West Virginia finished 21 of 48 from the floor for 43.8% and 5 of 18 from beyond the arc for 27.8%.

"We were trying to settle in offensively and it was the first time out for a lot of these guys, and you can tell there was a little bit of squeeze and I've got to do a better job of alleviating some of that with them and try and get them some easy baskets," Hodge said.

The Mount, which connected on just 39.1% of their 46 field goal attempts, got a team-high 15 points from Trey Deveaux. No other player reached double figures.

West Virginia led 35-29 at halftime and its largest lead came at the end of the game.

"We had not been great in the closed scrimmage or the exhibition coming out at halftime, and I thought we had that little push just enough to keep them at arm's bay for the most part," Hodge said.

The Mountaineers were without senior guard Chance Moore, sitting out the first five games to satisfy NCAA transfer requirements, and senior forward Jackson Fields, who is still recovering from a preseason hand injury.

The game was the Mount's seventh appearance at the Coliseum, all losses.

Recap

West Virginia used 23 points from senior guard Honor Huff to outlast Campbell 73-65 at Hope Coliseum.

Huff was one of five Mountaineer players to reach double figures.

Brenen Lorient, Harlan Obioha and Treyesen Eaglestaff each scored 12, while freshman forward DJ Thomas contributed 10.

Campbell, which lost at 24th-ranked Wisconsin earlier in the week, used the free throw line to keep it in the game. The Camels made 25 of 32 from the charity stripe to compensate for a 35.2% shooting performance from the field that saw it connect on just 19 of its 54 field goal attempts.

"I thought we defended well but statistically we just fouled too much, and that's what they do," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said afterward. "They drive the ball with physicality, and we needed to play just a little bit better without the fouls. If you look at their percentages ... 35% from 2 and 14% from 3, only had five assists and 12 turnovers ... we just fouled them too much and couldn't come up with defensive rebounds when we really needed them."

West Virginia led by eight at halftime before Campbell started the second half by scoring 11 of the game's next 15 points during a five-minute span, reducing the Mountaineers' lead to one, 37-36.

It remained a one- or two-possession game until a Huff 3 with 5:06 remaining gave West Virginia an eight-point, 57-49 advantage. Another Huff 3, this one from the corner with him falling out of bounds, kept the margin at eight, 64-56, with 2:17 to go.

But 11 seconds later, Jeremiah Johnson answered with two free throws, and then DJ Smith added a basket with 1:31 left to trim WVU's lead to four, 64-60.

Following a West Virginia timeout, Lorient used a nice Obioha screen at the top of the key to get to the rim for a one-handed slam dunk with 1:14 left to put the Mountaineers ahead by six.

Lorient then added two more free throws to secure the victory, West Virginia's second in three days.

Lorient's stat line included nine rebounds, five blocks and four assists while missing another double-double by just one board.

Huff's game-leading 21 points came on 5 of 10 from the floor, 4 of 9 from 3-point distance and 9 of 10 from the free throw line.

Campbell out-boarded West Virginia on the glass 40 to 36, 15 of those coming from 6-foot-7 junior forward Chris Fields Jr. Dovydas Butka led the Camels with 14 points.

Recap

Xavier made 16 of 25 from 3-point range to defeat West Virginia 78-68 in the third-place game of the Shriners Children's Charleston Classic at TD Arena in Charleston, South Carolina.

The 16 triples matched the most ever made by a Mountaineer opponent done seven different times now.

"We just allowed them to establish a comfort zone and a rhythm offensively," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said afterward. "We weren't impactful enough on the defensive end of the floor and they were able to move the ball freely and find the open man."

"When they found the open man, they didn't miss," he added.

Five different Musketeers players made 3s, led by Jova Milicevic and Tre Carroll, who connected on five each. All Wright made all four of his 3s and Xavier got one each from Filip Borovicanic and Roddie Anderson III.

Milicevic led all scorers with 21 points while Carroll chipped in with 17.

Xavier, which made just 9 of its 30 field goal attempts inside the 3-point line, was 12 of 12 from the free throw line.

West Virginia led by eight with 9:26 left in the first half on Morris Ugusuk's layup, but Xavier closed out the half on a 21-5 run to take a 36-28 halftime lead.

The Mountaineers got the deficit down to three, 44-41, on Treyesen Eaglestaff's short jumper, and was trailing by five, 66-61, on two Honor Huff free throws. But Xavier answered with a Wright 3 and then got a bank-shot 3 from Borovicanic with 3:36 remaining to push the lead back to nine.

Two Wright free throws with 37 seconds left gave Xavier its biggest lead of the game at 13.

"We haven't been able to have that consistent other player," Hodge observed. "Chance (Moore) was really good a night ago and Harlan (Obioha) was really good against Pitt, but we need a little more consistency, and we need practice which is what we're going to get this week."

Huff scored all 16 of his points in the second half while Brenen Lorient ended the afternoon with 11.

West Virginia (5-2) outscored Xavier 32 to 14 in the paint, and had a 33 to 31 edge on the glass, but unfortunately 3 counts more than the Musketeers made 10 more than the Mountaineers.

"We felt going into the game that we were going to have an advantage physically, but we weren't able to establish that," Hodge explained. "That's where the disappointment comes on my end. We missed 33 shots and really only had three offensive rebounds, seven for the game, but two were team and Trey got a couple at the very end."

Recap

West Virginia limited Mercyhurst to just 16 second-half points in a 70-38 victory over the Lakers at Hope Coliseum.

It was the fewest points a Mountaineer opponent has scored since Coppin State scored 38 points at the Coliseum on Dec. 20, 2017.

Mercyhurst shot just 33.3% overall and really couldn't do much outside of senior guard Bernie Blunt III's game-high 14 points. Ten of those came during a six-minute stretch in the first half when the Lakers were still in the game.

"Really, the only complaint I have defensively was that one little stretch when we let Bernie Blunt going, their best player," Hodge said. "We were late on some rotations. We were switching a lot, which when you switch a lot you can be guarding a drive then all of a sudden you could be guarding the sniper, and we didn't identify those guys (quickly enough)."

The Mountaineers (6-2) closed out the first half on a 17-5 run to take a 39-22 lead into the locker room at intermission.

West Virginia's largest lead was 33 points with 5:50 remaining.

Twelve different players got into the game and 10 got into the scoring column, led by Chance Moore's 11 points. He becomes the seventh different player in eight games to lead the team in scoring.

Freshman guard Amir Jenkins finished with 10, his first double-digit scoring effort for the season.

"Amir and Chance were really aggressive getting downhill and closed the first half right and began the second half right," Hodge said.

Senior guard Treyesen Eaglestaff (9 points and eight rebounds) and Moore (nine rebounds) flirted with double-doubles. Troy transfer Jasper Fields made his season debut and finished with 9 points, three rebounds and two assists in 12 minutes of action. He sat out the first seven games of the season with a preseason wrist injury.

"Offensively, just like I told the team, we can keep getting better and that's the beauty of it," Hodge said. "It's about to be December, but it's still early and those guys know that they can play better as individuals, but collectively, I thought our attention to detail was good."

Specialty stats of note for West Virginia were the Mountaineers' 37-to-7 advantage in bench scoring, 36-to-16 edge in paint scoring, 44-to-27 margin on the glass.

Mercyhurst, making its second-ever appearance at the Coliseum, committed 15 turnovers.

Recap

Wake Forest used 28 points from Juke Harris to defeat West Virginia 75-66 in the GoMart Holiday Hoopsfest at the Charleston Coliseum.

The Demon Deacons shot 50.9% from the floor, connecting on 29 of their 57 field goal attempts, while cashing in on the Mountaineers' 17 turnovers which resulted in 25 points.

"Coming into the game, we knew a big thing for them was points off turnovers and their second-chance points, and if you add that up that was 35 points in a game that we didn't shoot the ball well enough," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said. "But you could overcome (the poor shooting) if we could have taken better care of the ball."

Wake made 10 of 25 from 3-point distance while WVU connected on only one six of its 27 triples, five of those coming from guard Honor Huff, who finished with a team-high 24.

Seventeen of Huff's 20 field goal attempts came from behind the arc, including several contested ones.

Wake Forest led by 12 with 5:45 left in the first half before West Virginia tied on a 19-7 run to close out the half to tie the game at 34 at intermission. Huff keyed the spurt with three triples and 12 points.

The Demon Deacons again built their lead to 12 points seven minutes into the second half and kept it around there until Huff strung together a couple of threes sandwiched between a Chance Moore free throw to reduce Wake's lead to 61-56 with 5:30 left.

Harris missed a 3, but Nate Calmese grabbed the rebound and scored. At the other end, Amir Jenkins missed on open 3 from the wing and Tre'Von Spillers turned the missed into a dunk at the other end, pushing the lead back to nine.

The lead got back to 11 on Wake's next possession, following Moore's missed a 3, when Spillers got another close one.

A Harris 3 pushed the lead back to 12 with 1:52 left and his final one with 26 seconds remaining was the dagger. Spillers contributed 16 for Wake Forest.

Moore was the only complementary scoring threat for West Virginia with 16 coming off the bench. The rest of WVU's starters scored 13 points on a combined 4 of 11 shooting.

Overall, West Virginia (7-3) shot 40.4%, hitting on 21 of its 52 field-goal tries and remained in the game as a result of its 20 offensive rebounds, the most by a Mountaineer team in nearly four years. WVU had a 38 to 26 edge on the glass.

The free throw line was also helpful to WVU, which made 18 of 24 compared to just 7 of 11 for Wake Forest.

An announced crowd of 10,221 attended the game.

Recap

Honor Huff and Treysen Eaglestaff combined to make 13 3-point shots in West Virginia's 90-58 victory over Little Rock at Hope Coliseum.

Huff tied his season-high with eight 3s, one shy of Alex Ruoff's school-record nine.

The Brooklyn, New York, resident also matched his season high of 24 points accomplished twice against Lafayette and Wake Forest.

Eaglestaff rediscovered his 3-point shooting stroke tonight by making 5 of 10 and finishing with a season-best 23 points.

"I thought he got good looks," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said of Eaglestaff's breakout shooting performance. "He was aggressive and I thought he was the recipient of some crisp passing and good ball movement and was ready to shoot. We've been on him about that to be ready when the ball comes to you to shoot it."

Eaglestaff and Huff combined to make 16 of their 29 field goal attempts while West Virginia ended the night hitting on 33 of its 59 attempts for a season-high 55.9%. WVU also connected on half of its 30 shots 3-point tries for its best shooting performance from behind the arc since making 15 of 29 against St. Joseph's on Nov. 18, 2018.

"I thought it started with our ability to handle their double teams," Hodge explained. "Coming from the game on Saturday, I didn't feel like we handled that great. We did a much better job with our spacing and we really shared the ball and played a clean game for the most part."

Guard Chance Moore came off the bench to contribute 12. WVU scored on 62.3% of its 61 total possessions. Twelve different players got into the game and 11 got into the scoring column.

Little Rock, with only eight players dressed, was led by Cameron Wallace's 23 points. Johnathan Lawson added 11.

West Virginia's largest lead was 40 points, 84-44, with 4:26 remaining.

"I thought our willingness to make the simple play and pass the ball to the open man, even maybe overpassing a little bit, but I thought the group did a good job of moving the ball and sharing the ball," Hodge, who won his 200th career game, said.

Recap

West Virginia concluded nonconference play with an 86-51 victory over Mississippi Valley State at Hope Coliseum.

Senior Treyson Eaglestaff led five double-figure scorers with a season-high-tying 23 points. The Bismarck, North Dakota, resident got his game-high total on 9-of-16 shooting, including 4-of-10 from 3-point distance.

He also contributed eight rebounds and three assists. Senior guard Honor Huff contributed 13 points - four of his field goals coming from behind the arc - while senior center Harlan Obioha scored 12 and added 10 rebounds.

Freshmen DJ Thomas (11) and Amir Jenkins (10) also added to the double-figure scoring column coming off the bench.

WVU (9-4) tallied the game's first seven points and never trailed.

"I thought from about the 15-minute mark to the 10-minute mark of the first half we settled in, moved the ball and got some shots to go in," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said. "We played fairly clean game for the most part with only five turnovers and got some solid contributions from the two freshmen in the first half."

"That's really what gave us the separation was Amir and DJ in the first half and we got to see what those guys are made of," Hodge added.

The Mountaineers scored on 63.8% of their possessions (37 of 58) while limiting the Delta Devils to just 24 scores on their 57 possessions.

It was the eighth time this season WVU limited its opponents to 60 points or less.

West Virginia was 12 of 27 from 3-point distance and 30 of 56 overall for 53.1%.

Michael James was the only Mississippi Valley State player to reach double figures with 14 points.

Senior Chance Moore was held out of the game for precautionary reasons, Hodge mentioned beforehand.

"I'd like to acknowledge the crowd; I thought the crowd was tremendous," the coach said of the 10,234 paid attendance. "With Christmas break and the students being gone everybody really made up for it on a Monday night with a lot going on."

"I'm super-appreciative of everybody who made the trek out and supported these guys. That's what makes this place special."

Recap

Milan Momclovic made 8 of his 10 3-pointers and scored 26 points to lead third-ranked Iowa State to an 80-59 victory over West Virginia at Hilton Coliseum in Ames, Iowa.

The Mountaineers led 14-10 early before the Cyclones caught fire from 3-point range, specifically Momclovic and Jamarion Bateman. Bateman's back-to-back 3s gave Iowa State its first lead at 21-19 with 7:49 left in the first half, and the Cyclones closed out the half outscoring West Virginia by 11 to lead the Mountaineers 41-28 at the intermission.

"I loved the start, West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said. I thought we came in here in a road environment for the first time against a top 3-team and I thought we were clean and crisp. Then, in these type of environments, little plays cause momentum shifts.

"We're up seven minutes into the first half and we have an opportunity to grab a loose ball, and we don't come up with it; Bateman bangs a 3, then he makes a second one in front of your bench and now they have the lead and here comes the crowd, Hodge said. Our first shot defense was really good, but it was our inability to rebound the basketball."

WVU got Iowa State's lead down to nine four minutes into the second half on three free throws by Chance Moore, but Domykys Peta's breakout dunk began a 16-4 run that pushed Iowa State's lead out to 21.

The Cyclones' biggest lead was 26 with 2:06 remaining. "In the second half, we just did not execute well enough," Hodge said.

Buchanan contributed 14, Tamin Lipsey scored 12 and Josh Jefferson finished the game with a triple-double - 10 points, 10 rebounds and 10 assists.

Iowa State (14-0 overall and 1-0 in Big 12 play) shot 52.7% from the floor, including 52% (13 of 25) from 3-point range. The Cyclones assisted on 26 of their 29 made baskets tonight.

"They did what good teams do, they made you pay," Hodge said.

Chance Moore, getting the starting nod in place of injured Brenen Lorient, led the Mountaineers with 17 points. He made seven of his 13 field goal attempts.

Freshman D.J. Thomas came off the bench to contribute 10 points for WVU.

West Virginia (9-5, 0-1) shot 42.9% overall, but just 29.2% from 3-point range (7 of 24). WVU's leading scorer Honor Huff finished the game making 1 of 8 from behind the arc and finished with 6 points.

Recap

West Virginia used a 16-0 run over a seven-minute stretch in the second half to defeat 22nd-ranked Kansas 85-75 at Hope Coliseum.

The Jayhawks appeared to be in full control of things when Tre White's 3 with 14:55 seconds left put them ahead 59-51. But then they went ice cold.

Kansas (11-5, 1-2) missed its next eight shots before White finally ended the drought with 7:54 left, but by then West Virginia was leading 67-59.

After White's basket, WVU's margin swelled to 10 on Honor Huff's four-point play, a straight-away 3 from well beyond the 3-point line and then a free throw when he was fouled by Darryn Peterson in the act of shooting.

The lead got to 12 on Jasper Floyd's driving layup and returned to double digits after withstanding a KU run that had gotten the margin back to six, 73-67.

At this point, Harlan Obioha made a big basket when he grabbed Brenen Lorient's missed 3 and followed it up.

Then, White's missed jumper was retrieved by Huff and he was fouled by Melvin Council Jr. Both free throws were good, pushing the lead back to 10, and the margin returned to 12 with 34 seconds left when the Kansas bench was whistled for a technical foul and Huff sank two more free throws.

West Virginia's second half defense was telling.

The Mountaineers limited Kansas to just 31% shooting and scores on only 13 of its 30 second-half possessions.

Meanwhile, WVU scored on 21 of its 33 second-half possessions for a 63.6% success rate in producing its first noteworthy victory of the Ross Hodge era.

Huff led the way with 23 points, with 17 of those coming in the second half. Lorient contributed 18 points and six assists; Eaglestaff scored 12 and Obioha ended the game with an 11-point, 10-rebound double-double.

The Mountaineers shot 48.2% overall and 42.3% from 3, hitting 11 of its 26 triples. WVU also cashed in at the foul line where it made 21 of 29, compared to 15 of 18 for Kansas.

Peterson, considered one of the top prospects in this year's NBA Draft, led Kansas with 23 points.

White tallied 18 and Council added 11 for Kansas, which has now lost three in a row to West Virginia dating back to a 91-85 WVU victory here on Jan. 20, 2024.

Hope Coliseum has turned into a very difficult place for Kansas to win. Today's loss drops the Jayhawks to 5-8 overall in the facility.

Many of the near-capacity crowd of 13,743 remained afterward to celebrate with the players and coaches and sing "Take Me Home, Country Roads."

Recap

Seventh-ranked Houston used some suffocating defense to defeat West Virginia 77-48 at the Fertitta Center in Houston, Texas.

The Cougars (16-1, 4-0) held the Mountaineers (11-6, 2-2) to just two field goals over a 15-minute stretch to begin the game and never trailed.

West Virginia's most effective offensive stretch came early in the second half when Brenen Lorient and Treysen Eaglestaff strung together 3s and Lorient added a layup, reducing Houston's lead to 11, 38-27. But the Cougars responded with an eight-point flurry to push the lead back to 19, and it eventually swelled to 31 with seven minutes remaining.

A couple of Amir Jenkins baskets sandwiched between Honor Huff's three free throws made up the Mountaineers' other spurt of the second half.

Overall, West Virginia shot just 37% from the floor (17 of 46) and turned the ball over 15 times, leading to 17 Cougar points.

Houston had a 38-to-29 edge on the glass and made six more free throws than the 10 that West Virginia attempted.

"When you come in here to beat a team like this, you've got to have special performances from multiple people and we didn't get that tonight," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said.

Milos Uzan led a balanced Cougar attack with 17 points on 5 of 9 shooting. Emanuel Sharp tallied 13 while Joseph Tugler and Kingston Flemings contributed 10 each.

"You've got to come in here and get off to a good start," Hodge observed. "Ironically, we had a couple looks early and you get to the foul line and we miss both. You turn the corner a couple times and have layups at the basket when you did have them a little spread out and we kind of short-armed it and then you do start feeling the squeeze."

"You start playing a little faster and they are an elite defense and an elite team," Hodge added. "That's what elite defenses do, they make it so hard on you that when you do finally get an open shot, you're rushing it a little bit."

Freshman D.J. Thomas came off the bench to lead West Virginia with 16 points. Huff added 13 points but managed to make just 2 of 9 from 3-point distance.

Houston has won all four meetings against West Virginia since the Cougars joined the Big 12 in 2024, including three of them in Houston.

Recap

West Virginia overcame a 13-point first half deficit to defeat Arizona State 75-63 at Desert Financial Arena in Tempe, Arizona.

Treysen Eaglestaff continued his torrid play with a game-high 23 points, 14 of those coming in the first half when his teammates were struggling to find their shooting stroke.

They found it in the second half to outscore the Sun Devils 40-26 over the final 20 minutes in registering their first road victory of the season.

"I was disappointed in our start," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said afterward. "We were a step slow and I really felt fortunate at halftime to be just down two with them shooting 56% and 50% from 3."

Eaglestaff matched his season-high in scoring by making six of his nine 3-point tries. Overall, he connected on eight of his 14 field goal attempts.

"He's getting comfortable now and he realizes we need him to be aggressive, and we need his shot making," Hodge said. "He really bailed us in the first half, especially during that stretch when he kind of willed us back into the game."

Brenen Lorient was the team's second-half catalyst by scoring 11 of his 15 points, including a big 3 to put West Virginia ahead 48-46.

Jasper Floyd, who grabbed five rebounds, handed out four assists and made three steals, contributed 12 points.

West Virginia made 27 of its 53 field goal attempts for 50.9% for the game while scoring on 56.3% of its second half possessions.

Arizona State (10-9, 1-5) was limited to just 38.5% shooting in the second half and got points on only 43.3% of its possessions. The Sun Devils missed all five of their second half 3-point tries and misfired on eight of its 18 free throw attempts.

After West Virginia battled back from a 13-point deficit to trail 37-35 at halftime, the game turned midway through the second half.

Lorient began an 8-0 spurt with a 3 and Chance Moore added a layup and a free throw when he was fouled by Andrija Grbovic in the act of shooting. Another basket by Floyd pushed West Virginia's lead to seven, 53-46.

Arizona State closed to within two, 53-51, on a three-point play by Anthony Johnson, but Floyd answered with a big 3 and then added a putback to make it a seven-point game again.

The margin got to 10 on Eaglestaff's three-point play with five minutes to go and it got to 13 on Lorient's turnaround jumper with 2:15 left.

WVU's biggest lead was 14 with 40 seconds remaining.

Recap

Top-ranked Arizona rolled to an 88-53 victory over West Virginia at sold-out McKale Center in Tucson, Arizona.

The Wildcats led throughout in improving to 20-0 overall and 7-0 in Big 12 play.

"To come into an environment like this, against a team like this, you're going to have to get some really special performances from key people, and those same key people have given us special performances throughout this year, but they just didn't have it (today)," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said. "That's what it takes to come into these type of deals and win."

Freshman guard Brayden Burries scored 22 points on 7 of 12 shooting, including 4 of 8 from 3-point range, and fellow freshman Koe Peat contributed 17 points and seven boards.

Other key contributors for Arizona were Anthony Dell'Orso with 12 points and Motiejus Krivas added 11 points and a game-high 12 rebounds.

Arizona shot an impressive 52.5% overall from the floor and made 10 of its 23 3-point tries with six different players connecting on at least one.

The Wildcats led 43-23 at halftime. In the second half, Arizona State outscored West Virginia 45-30.

The Mountaineers misfired on 42 of its 64 field goal attempts, including just 6 of 22 from 3-point distance.

"Arizona had a lot to do with (the missed shots) on some of them," Hodge admitted. "Their collective size and physicality around the basket negates pretty much your interior attack. It's hard to get the ball close to the basket and when you do, you've got to be able to finish through contact."

Chance Moore came off the bench to lead the Mountaineers with 12 points, while Treysen Eaglestaff and Honor Huff scored 10 points each.

Huff was just 4 of 15 overall and 2 of 9 from 3-point range.

Freshman guard Amir Jenkins grabbed a team-best eight rebounds.

Recap

Baylor used some smothering defense to topple West Virginia 63-53 at Hope Coliseum.

The Bears continued their mastery of West Virginia in Morgantown. Baylor under veteran coach Scott Drew has now won nine of its 13 meetings here for a .692 winning percentage - the best of any team with at least 10 appearances ever in the Coliseum.

It was either stout Baylor defense or poor West Virginia shooting that doomed Mountaineers, particularly in the second half.

The Mountaineers missed 19 of its 28 field-goal tries with only Brenen Lorient providing any consistent offense with 11 of the team's 23 second-half points. Lorient was also the lone WVU player to make a 3 while Honor Huff and Treysen Eaglestaff missed all seven of their second-half attempts from behind the arc.

Overall, Huff and Eaglestaff combined to connect on just 4 of their 20 field goal attempts with Huff missing 12 of 13.

"Overall, just too inept and too inefficient on the offensive end of the floor to connect that with not being able to stop them," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said afterward. "You can go 1 for 13 and turn the ball over a couple of times if you are going to keep stopping them, but we just didn't execute on either end of the floor (late in the game)."

Baylor wasn't much better, the Bears shooting just 35.7% in the second half, but the Bears were able to answer West Virginia scores and closed out the game on a 16-9 run.

After trailing 38-30 at halftime, the closest West Virginia could get in the second half was three points with 11:29 left on Chance Moore's layup.

Obi Agbim and Cameron Carr paced Baylor with 16 points each, while Tounde Yessoufou contributed 11.

Carr pulled down a game-high 12 rebounds.

Lorient was the sole Mountaineer player to reach double figures with a game-high 19 points. He was 7 of 13 from the floor while the rest of the team was a combined 11 of 37.

"I thought every player who attempted a shot at some point got a very good look," Hodge observed. "We had a couple shots one foot from the basket and a couple pretty clean looks from 3 from the guys you want to shoot them, so I do think there was seven, eight, nine possessions where we got a good look and it just didn't go down."

"Then there were the other nine, 10 possessions as a coach where you didn't feel like you gave your team the best chance in those situations," Hodge added.

The loss was the Mountaineers first of the season at the Coliseum to snap their 16-game winning streak dating back to last year - the third longest active streak in the country.

Recap

West Virginia rallied from 14 points down in the second half to defeat Cincinnati 59-54 at Fifth Third Arena.

It was the Mountaineers' biggest comeback victory in four years.

It was also West Virginia's second consecutive win in the Queen City and completes the season sweep of the Bearcats.

After scoring just 20 first-half points that included misfires on all nine of their 3-point attempts, the Mountaineers outscored the Bearcats 36-17 over the game's final 14 minutes to produce their second conference road win of the year. Honor Huff and freshman DJ Thomas combined for 26 of West Virginia's 39 second-half points to provide the difference.

Huff's team-high 16 all came in the second half, including three big triples.

The biggest 3s of the game came from the freshman, however. A Thomas bomb from the corner put West Virginia ahead 49-47 with 4:05 left, and he hit another big 3 from beyond the top of the key with 1:30 remaining to expand West Virginia's lead to 53-49.

Thomas also converted two critical free throws with 51 seconds left to give West Virginia a six-point lead.

The Allen, Texas, resident made all three of his second-half field goal attempts and was 4-for-4 from the line to offset his teammates, who combined to connect on only 7 of 17.

Some missed free throws, including a pair by Treysen Eaglestaff soon after his 3 gave West Virginia a 42-40 lead, nearly came back to haunt the Mountaineers.

But the defense was stellar by limiting the Bearcats to scores on only 10 of their 27 second-half possessions. After Day Day Thomas' 3 put UC ahead 40-28, it made just four field goals during the game's final 14:11.

Thomas scored 10 of his 14 points in the second half while also contributing a pair of rebounds.

Overall, West Virginia shot 43.8%, including 6 of 12 from behind the arc in the second half. WVU held its own on the glass, being out-boarded by just one (34-33) and committed on three second-half turnovers after mishandling the ball nine times in the opening half.

WVU scored on 17 of its 29 second-half possessions.

Jizzle James led all scorers with 18 points while Baba Miller added 15 points and eight rebounds for the Bearcats.

This was the second time this year the Mountaineers have won a game despite not reaching 60 points.

"They were 11-2 in this building for a reason, and I knew it was going to be hard," Hodge said.

Recap
 West Virginia rallied from 14 points down in the second half to stun homestanding UCF 74-67 at Addition Financial Arena in Orlando, Florida.

UCF, which owned home victories over Kansas and Texas Tech, loses for only the third time this season in its home arena. West Virginia, now 16-9 overall and 7-5 in Big 12 play, completed its second 14-point, second-half comeback road victory in nine days. The Mountaineers made a similar comeback in their 59-54 triumph at Cincinnati back on Feb. 4. It was Honor Huff and Florida resident Jasper Floyd doing the damage for West Virginia. Huff overcame a tough first half shooting performance to finish with a game-high 21 points - 18 of those coming after intermission.

Tampa's Floyd treated his family to a 17-point, five-rebound, two-steal performance. It was his best scoring effort since the season-opening victory over Mount St. Mary's back on Nov. 4. "Jasper hit some monster shots down the stretch and played tremendous defense," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said afterward. UCF (17-7 overall and 6-6 in the Big 12) led 29-28 at halftime and outscored the Mountaineers 23-10 over the first seven minutes of the second half.

Chance Moore's layup ended a UCF 7-0 run and began a spurt that saw West Virginia score 16 of the next 23 points over the next seven minutes to reduce UCF's lead to 54-53 with 7:26 to go. Floyd's 3 with 6:25 left tied the game at 56, then it was Huff who took over the game. The senior guard scored WVU's next 13 points to give the Mountaineers a 69-62 lead with 59 seconds remaining.

UCF, which came into the game averaging 82.4 points per game, could muster just two field goals over the final 5:29 of the game.

It was the fewest points the Knights have scored at home this season. The analytic stats showed West Virginia limiting UCF to just 30 scores on its 67 possessions today for a 44.8% scoring rate.

WVU also turned over UCF on 19.4% of its possessions. Brenen Lorient chipped in with 11 for the Mountaineers. Fulks led UCF with 19 points.

"They let me coach them hard and direct, and in those moments, they allow me to be brutally honest," Hodge said. "They might not like what is coming out of my mouth, but they trust me enough to know he's telling me the truth."

Recap
 West Virginia dug itself a deep first-half hole and wasn't able to climb out of it this time in a 61-56 loss to Utah on at Hope Coliseum.

The Utes made their first six shots, scored 18 of the game's first 21 points, and never trailed. "The start is one me," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said afterward. "The coach has a couple of primary responsibilities, and the biggest one is making sure that your team is ready to play, and for whatever reason, we just weren't."

"It wasn't just about the shots going in; our team, at this point, is used to stretches of balls not going in, but to be out-rebounded by 10 at the half and (having) a hard time making them miss ... you run the risk of this happening when you continuously dig yourself holes. Part of the reason why we dig ourselves holes is we get inconsistent play," Hodge added.

West Virginia, with double-digit comeback victories in two of its last three games, rallied from 15 points down with 14:35 to go to cut the deficit to two, 53-51, on Treysen Eaglestaff's basket with 3:59 remaining.

But two critical offensive grabbed rebounds led to Terrance Brown's basket with 2:33 to go.

More missed opportunities, this time near West Virginia's basket, burned nearly a minute and a half off the clock before Don Mchenry's free throws gave the Utes a 57-51 lead.

Prior to that, a missed layup by Jasper Floyd and two misses by Brenen Lorient.

The Mountaineers missed 18 of their 23 3-point tries and also shot just 46.7% from the free throw line on their 15 attempts.

After Mchenry's two free throws, Huff nailed a deep 3 from the wing to make it a one-possession game with 33 seconds left. Utah led the door open when Brown missed the front end of a one-and-one, but Huff's heavily contested step-back 3 was deflected by Seydou Traore to Brown, who was fouled by Floyd with 10 seconds showing on the clock.

Brown made both before Amir Jenkins quickly scored four seconds later to once again make it a three-point game. Following a West Virginia timeout, Traore was fouled by Jenkins, missed both free throws, but after Floyd grabbed the Traore's second miss, he threw the ball out of bounds trying to hit Huff down the sideline to try a last-second shot attempt.

Brown then iced the game with two more free throws. Huff and Chance Moore contributed 12 points each for West Virginia.

Recap

West Virginia staged another second-half rally to send the game into overtime but ran out of gas in the extra session in an 91-84 loss to Oklahoma State at Gallagher-Iba Arena and Stillwater, Oklahoma.

The Cowboys outscored the Mountaineers 14-7 in overtime to claim their 17th victory of the season and fifth in Big 12 play.

As it did in road wins at Cincinnati and UCF, West Virginia came back from a 14-point second half deficit and led twice, 59-57 with 9:26 left, and 72-71 with 4:22 remaining, before the Cowboys responded with two huge 3s.

"To their credit, they jumped up and made some bombs, they really did," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said of OSU's critical second-half 3-point shooting.

West Virginia ended the game with five straight points - all coming from Chance Moore - including the game-tying basket with 19 seconds left.

Following a 30-second timeout called by Oklahoma State, West Virginia had fouls to give and used two of them to burn off all but three seconds, requiring Kanye Clary to try a long 3-pointer that was unsuccessful.

In overtime, West Virginia missed four of its six field goal attempts from point-blank range, and Oklahoma State was able to capitalize on those misses to snap its five-game losing streak.

In the process, the Cowboys pinned a third straight defeat on West Virginia.

"I thought the first half was probably as poor a first half defensively as we've played, if you just look at the numbers," Hodge observed. "They are a good offensive team; they play with a lot of pace and a lot of confidence, and I just felt like we allowed them to establish a little too much of a rhythm and didn't make them miss."

"I thought Jasper (Floyd's) foul trouble in the first half really hurt us, and our point-of-attack defense just wasn't good enough," Hodge added. "We gave up penetration after penetration, and it was just too easy."

In a game that was statistically close in nearly every category, the two areas where OSU had clear advantages were on the glass where it outrebounded WVU 40 to 33, and at the free throw line where it outshot the Mountaineers 19 to six.

OSU attempted 27 free throws to WVU's 12.

All six of Honor Huff's field goals came from behind the 3-point arc to finish with a game-high 20. Treysen Eaglestaff tallied 18, Chance Moore contributed 14 and Brenen Lorient finished with 12.

Recap

West Virginia ended its three-game losing streak in style by defeating 19th-ranked BYU 79-71 before a sell-out crowd of 13,799 at Hope Coliseum.

The Mountaineers jumped out to a 40-26 halftime lead and withstood a late Cougar charge to secure their 17th victory of the season and another important Quad 1 triumph.

"First and foremost, I thought Hope Coliseum was special today and I had a feeling it would be," West Virginia coach Ross Hodge said. "I'm just super-appreciative of what makes this place special. We've lost some tough ones in this stretch, and to have a sellout crowd and the energy from the jump was amazing."

The Mountaineers did a tremendous job of playing team defense against projected lottery pick AJ Dybansta, who scored 20, but was five points fewer than his season average.

West Virginia used a tag-team approach to limiting Dybansta, led by 6-foot-9 senior forward Brenen Lorient, who matches Dybansta's size and made a big deflection on a Dybansta 3-point attempt when the Cougars were mounting a late comeback.

Lorient grabbed nine rebounds, including seven on the offensive glass, to compliment an outstanding 18-point, three-assist, two-block, one-steal night.

Honor Huff tallied a team-best 19 points to pace WVU's five-player, double-figure scoring attack.

Freshman DJ Thomas came off the bench to contribute 13 - all but two of those coming in the first half to help the Mountaineers to their double-digit advantage - while Jasper Floyd and Chance Moore chipped in with 11 each.

"Jasper got us off to a great start with his command on both ends of the floor," Hodge observed. "We got incredible contributions from a lot of people, and that's typically been when we're at our best."

West Virginia's defense limited the high-powered Cougars to points on less than 50% of their offensive possessions and turned 12 BYU turnovers into 12 points.

Offensively, WVU scored on 57.4% of its possessions and held the lead for more than three-fourths of the game after Thomas' conventional three-point play with 6:41 left in the first half put it ahead 23-22.

That began a 17-4 run to end the first half.

Robert Wright III led all scorers with 23 points for BYU.
