WVU'S LAST GAME: WEST VIRGINIA 52, UT MARTIN 7

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 12, 2026)

- West Virginia took care of business in week two, defeating UT Martin, 52-7, at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The Mountaineers rolled to a 21-0 first-quarter lead and never look back, blanking the Skyhawks on the scoreboard until the final three minutes of the game.

Receiver DJ Epps got the scoring started on West Virginia's first possession as he hauled in a 53-yard touchdown pass from quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr.

Epps would go on to record his first 100-yard receiving day as a Mountaineer, finishing with two catches for 112 yards as his second reception in the contest went for 59 yards.

Before the quarter ended, running back Cam Cook scored from 2 yards out for a 14-0 advantage. It marked the 12th consecutive game that Cook has scored. Hawkins then scampered 71 yards to put the Mountaineers in control.

West Virginia added a touchdown in the second quarter to take a 28-0 lead into the locker room at halftime. Hawkins scored his second rushing touchdown at the 11:30 mark of the quarter, when he motored in from 5 yards out to end a 74-yard drive.

Tight end Ryan Ward got in on the scoring action in the third quarter by pulling in a 32-yard touchdown catch from Hawkins. The score ended a 75-yard drive and put the home team up by a 35-0 count.

West Virginia added 10 more points in the third quarter. Freshman running back Amari Lattimer scored his first career touchdown with 9:56 left on a 29-yard run, while kicker Jack Cassidy added a 35-yard field goal to give the Mountaineers a 45-0 advantage heading to the fourth quarter.

West Virginia's final score came at the 7:07 mark, when quarterback Jyron Hughley threw his first WVU touchdown on a 27-yard completion to receiver Kendrick Triplett.

WVU was just 3:00 away from recording its first shutout since 2021, but the Mountaineer offense helped the Skyhawks, when a fumble was recovered by linebacker John Betts and returned 6 yards for the lone touchdown in the game for the visitors. Since the score came while the offense was on the field, the Mountaineer defense finished its day holding UT Martin scoreless.

Aside from Epps, Hawkins was special for the Mountaineers, accounting for two touchdowns rushing and two passing and finishing with 251 yards of offense.

Final numbers showed West Virginia with 316 yards rushing and 209 passing to total 525 yards of offense. UT Martin collected 148 yards rushing and 170 passing for 318 total yards. The Mountaineers averaged 8.3 yards per play to UT Martin's 4.5.

With the win, West Virginia improves to 24-0 against FCS teams and starts the season 2-0 for the first time since 2018.

GAME NO. 1: WEST VIRGINIA 31, COASTAL CAROLINA 24

MORGANTOWN, W.Va. (Sept. 5, 2026)

- West Virginia grabbed win No. 1 of the 2026 season with a 31-24 victory over Coastal Carolina at Milan Puskar Stadium.

The special day not only opened the season, but it will always be remembered as the day that legendary quarterback Pat White got his No. 5 retired in the stadium. A home crowd of 54,158 turned out dressed in white for the pregame ceremony that honored one of the best players to ever wear a Mountaineer uniform.

Wearing their road whites at home for only the second time since 1980, in conjunction with White's number retirement, West Virginia started quickly and never looked back in taking a 24-0 lead over the Chanticleers at the half.

On the game's first play, WVU running back Cam Cook turned in a 72-yard run to set up WVU's first score of the season. Cook's 3-yard run on the next play gave the Mountaineers a 7-0 lead after just 47 seconds off the clock.

Later in the first quarter, West Virginia used a nine-play, 92-yard drive to take a 14-0 lead when quarterback Michael Hawkins Jr., connected on a 49-yard touchdown bomb to receiver Armoni Weaver-Bomar.

The Mountaineers added 10 points in the second quarter. Kicker Jack Cassidy converted on a 38-yard field goal attempt, and Cook scored his second touchdown in the game just before halftime for a 24-0 West Virginia advantage.

The third quarter belonged to Coastal as the Chanticleers got on the scoreboard at the 3:57 mark when quarterback Deuce Bailey threw a 34-yard touchdown pass to receiver Clayton Coppock.

The Chanticleers were far from done in the fourth quarter. Whether it was capitalizing on a West Virginia letdown or not, Coastal added an impressive 17 points in the final quarter of play.

Bailey threw two more touchdown passes in the game, one to Colton Hinton from 13 yards out and a second score to Coppock of 37 yards.

Good for West Virginia that Hawkins added an 11 yard rushing touchdown, which not only turned out to be an insurance touchdown with 2:58 left, but the game winner.

Coastal made added a 32-yard field goal with 1:07 remaining, but the Mountaineers held on for the 31-24 win.

Cook finished his first game as a Mountaineer with 142 yards rushing and two scores. Hawkins, who was also playing in his first WVU game, added 103 yards rushing and 132 passing yards, accounting for two touchdowns.

Coastal got a nice performance out of Bailey as he passed for 373 yards and three touchdowns on 21 completions. He connected with 11 different receivers as Coppock led the way with 83 yards receiving and two scores.

With the win, WVU is now 2-0 in the all-time series vs. Coastal Carolina and improves to 41-6-1 in home openers at Milan Puskar Stadium
