

FACT SHEET: VIC ROWEN & JOE VERDUCCI

Coach Vic Rowen

- Head Football Coach, San Francisco State, 1961-1989
- 5 Conference Championships
- 3-Time Northern California Coach-of-the-Year
- Professor of Physical Education, 1954-1991
- Ed.D., Columbia University, 1953
- President, American Football Coaches Association, 1986
- Board of Trustees, American Football Coaches Association, 1976-1985
- Ernie Nevers Award National Football Foundation, College Football Hall of Fame, 1986
- Football Writers Association of America Award, 1990
- San Francisco State Athletic Hall of Fame, 1993
- Player Selection Director, East-West Shrine Classic
- Played football for Long Island University, 1939 & 1940, and Davis-Elkins College, 1941
- Played professional football with the Brooklyn Dodgers of the All-American Conference

Coach Joe Verducci

- Head Football Coach, San Francisco State, 1950-1960
- 6 Conference Championships
- 1959 SF State nation's only undefeated, untied team (10-0)
- 4-time Northern California Coach-of-the-Year
- Director of Athletics; Assistant Dean of Students; Professor of Physical Education; Coordinator of Peace Corps Training Program. 1950-1964
- BA, University of California, Berkeley, 1934
- San Francisco State Athletic Hall of Fame 1975

- Helms Athletic Hall of Fame, 1971
- Coached East-West Shrine Classic, 1960
- Daly City Councilman, 1952 to 1964
- Daly City Mayor, 1954 and 1958
- Played football for University of California, Berkeley; won the Andy Smith Memorial Scholarship award twice for inspirational leadership 1932, 1933